THE CITY.

Lent commences March 1.
Judge Reade, of the supreme court, is sick at the Yarborough house.

J. J. WOLFENDEN & Co., dealers in grain. Corn a specialty. Newbern, N. C.

We regret to learn of the dangerous illness of David Horton, a leading Wake county farmer.

T. T. Oliver manufactures best heart pine and poplar lumber, &c. Seasoned flooring always on hand. Pine Level, N. C.

The "Mélange" performance of the Good Shepherd ladies will be repeated at Metropolitan hall, next Monday evening for the benefit of the Lee Memorial.

It is rumored that W. A. Hearne, undeterred by the ghosts of numerous other abortive attempts, is soon to commence the publication of a radical daily paper in this city.

Rev. F. M. Jordan, the North Carolina evangelist of the Baptist denomination, occupied Dr. Pritchard's pulpit last evening, and is expected to aid in the meeting next week.

The very fine results and increasing demand of the Star Ammoniated Soluble Phosphate seem to have created quite a sensation among manufacturers of and dealers in commercial fertilizers. Other manufacturers have even commenced manipulating and offering for sale a fertilizer called the "Star Bone Phosphate." Farmers should beware of imitations. The original and only genuine Star Ammoniated Soluble Phosphate has the trade mark of a star printed on each sack with the words "Manufactured by Lorentz & Ritter of Baltimore, Md., and for sale by A. G. Sanders & Co., or their agents."

A BRILLIANT SUCCESS.—Theatre hall was jammed last evening with the flower of Raleigh society, to witness and hear the "Mélange" entertainment of the ladies of the church of the Good Shepherd. It was an uncommonly good amateur performance throughout. The tableaux were striking and pretty; the statuary, some of it, lovely as a dream of Praxiteles; and the music much above ordinary. We regret that lack of space forbids a mention of each piece. Miss Nellie Battle received an enthusiastic and merited encore for a sweetly warbled solo, and it was to be regretted that she had not prepared for such a tribute some daintily little ballad which would have afforded her an opportunity to display her taste and power in a different style from the piece first sung. Mr. Brown, of Wilmington, who filled the position of master of ceremonies, got a most flattering recall after his solo, "When the flowing tide comes in." The little "Cessional ladies," in their quaint costumes, did honor to their instructors. Mrs. Shaker, and were snored again and again. The little old man, Taylor, was very funny. Mrs. R. F. Hoke's solo in the second part elicited long and warm applause, but she declined to respond. Taken altogether, the affair was one of the most pleasant and successful of the season.

JOURNALISTIC.

[From the Greensboro Patriot, Feb. 16.]
Col. Donan, of the Raleigh Sentinel, reproduces in full the editorial on the national debt which originally appeared in the Lexington (Mo.) Constitution, of which he was editor, which editorial was boldly cabbed by Mr. Knott, of Kentucky, and delivered in his speech in congress. As a figureative piece of composition, it is interesting and worth contending for the authorship of. It was grandly written on the part of Knott. We will publish it next week.

A VOICE FROM ANOTHER MECHANIC.

RALEIGH, Feb. 17, 1876.
MR. JOSIAH TURNER.—Dear Sir:

My attention has been called to an article in last evening's issue of your valuable paper, headed "A Voice from the Mechanics," which deserves the consideration of every laboring-man in the community. I am one of that class, and it my duty to say something in defense of the honorable working men of Raleigh.

The facts set forth in the article above alluded to are of paramount interest to every mechanic within the borders of this good "City of Oaks," and I might say the good Old North State. Until working man, as a body, assert their rights and powers they will always be imposed upon, as one branch of our mechanics—the painter, who work both day and night—have already been. It is astonishing but nevertheless true, that men will patronize and support those who

and enslave them, I venture the assertion that there is not an intelligent mechanic in the city who does not, in some way, either by his subscription, what little job printing he may need, or some word of commendation, help to sustain and advance the Raleigh Daily News; and yet, since the foundation of that paper, its controllers have ever availed themselves of any opportunity that might offer itself to oppress the laboring man, either pecuniarily or by way of cost. Every laboring man doubtless remembers the gibes and sneers of when the mechanics and laborers dared assert their rights in asking for a few moments of day-light to spend in their homes summer before last. We stood shoulder to shoulder then; we should do so now.

Men of toil, will you ever go with your heads in a halter, and kiss the hand that smites you? If so, you deserve nothing better.

The organ of a party that does not respect one branch of trade or toil, will not respect another; hence the importance of the co-operation of every class of labor to crush out to the mechanic and everybody else that does not wear the insignia of pop-pycock aristocracy—or I might say, a "ring" around his neck—the Daily News.

You will observe from the "get-up" of this letter that I am not accustomed to writing; but I simply desire to express, in my humble way, the contempt I have for that so-called "Democratic Organ of the State," "The Working Man's Journal," "That Spicy Little Journal," "The Only Paper in Raleigh that takes the Telegraphic Reports," &c.—the Daily News.

I, Mr. Turner, have ever been a democrat, and God forbid that I should ever be anything else; but when any party pets and fosters an agency of oppression to the laboring man, in the words of your correspondent of yesterday, you can count me out henceforth and forever. I may let railroad corporations and shysters quit running newspapers for the democratic party in North Carolina.

ANOTHER MECHANIC.

A GREAT CURE OF RHEUMATISM, DYSPPIPSIA, DISEASE OF THE LIVER AND SPLEEN, BY DR. JONES.—I came to Dr. Jones upon crutches, having been afflicted with rheumatism and disease of the liver, and enlarged spleen. Having been treated and given up by our best doctors as a hopeless case, and was reduced to a suffering skeleton—was scarcely able to move in my bed part of the time. I had the dyspepsia恶习, and could not eat, sleep, nor walk, and suffered intensely day and night. When I was placed upon the car to go to Dr. Jones, my neighbors and I could never return alive; but in three weeks I returned, a sound man, and have attended to business ever since. I hunt, fish, walk, run, jump—an active and well. And to Dr. Jones I owe my life. I advise the afflicted to spend no time nor money with any other treatment, if they are within reach of Dr. Jones. I live at Marion, Greene County, N. C., where my disease was pronounced incurable and where I astonished my neighbors when I returned cured by Dr. J. A. Jones. Dr. Jones, I wish you to publish this cure, and all who wish to can see me here, and will be astonished to hear my neighbors tell of this great cure.

R. H. WELCH.

Dr. Jones is now curing the afflicted at the McAdoo House, Greensboro, N. C., where he remains a short time. Go get cured, or send for circular for the State Agricultural Society and the News will hereafter be one and the same.

This occurs at least probable when that paper issues authoritative calls for meetings and arranges such financial plans of operations as seem proper to it.

This is a part of the information we have been industriously seeking. The News is managed by a close, very close, corporation and of course its affairs are ordered to suit the ideas of certain individuals, but we indulge the hope that the public will be allowed some occasional glimpses of the real purposes of what is known as the State Agricultural Society. Persons wishing information as to investments in "old mortgag" bonds or the proposed new bonds of the society should apply at the News office. We are not prepared to say which of the New gentlemen has control over the fair department, whether the political editor, local editor or business manager, but rather think a couple of prominent stockholders, with a little friendly outside help will run the machine.

GOVERNOR CASWELL'S GRAVE.—Under this head, the Goldsboro Messenger, of Feb. 17, says:

The suggestions of our friend, R. W. Best, made in the Sentinel, that a monument be erected over the grave of Gov. Richard Caswell, whose remains rest in Lenoir county without even a slab to mark his grave, seem to meet with a general approval. Judge Battle responds to the suggestion in a card urging one dollar subscriptions, and stating that he will receive all such donations for that purpose. This is a move in a patriotic direction. Let the good work go on. The masonic fraternity, above all others, ought to show a liberal hand in this matter. Gov. Caswell was the most honored deputy grand master of the fraternity in North Carolina.
