LEA & PERRINS' is the only GENUINE WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

THE CITY.

Concert at St. Mary's this evening. Judge Rade, of the supreme court, is sick at the Yachorough house. The Hope Pianos Club buy it at Tucker hall Monday evening. J. J. Westerman & Co., dealers in grain. Corn a specialty. News, N. C. B. F. Jenkins, with Butler, Pitkin & Co., New York, paid us a visit yesterday. No mass at St. John's (Catholic) church to-morrow in consequence of the absence of Rev. Father Reilly. The Salisbury watchman man says that Raleigh girls wear government stockings. How does he know? T. T. Oliver manufactures best heart pine and poplar lumber, &c. Seasoned flooring always on hand. Pine Level, N. C. Woods' pine at $3.50; seasoned oak at $4.00; field pine at $3.00. Call on J. D. Whitaker near Citizens Bank for supplies. Let's hear from you, Loge. You are not going to let Hearne go rough-shod over you, are you? Sick him, Loge! Seize him, Hearne! The concert last evening at the Raleigh Baptist female seminary was a brilliant affair. A large number of invited guests were present, and all expressed themselves as highly delighted. The hop at the National last evening was largely attended and a very enjoyable affair it was. This was the closing hop of the season, as the Oak City Pleasure Club suspends operations until after lent. The city bell rang out last evening for the agricultural meeting at Metropolitan hall, but it pealed in vain. About six persons assembled and they soon adjourned without waiting for a motion to that effect. Think of it ye managers of boarding houses, ye heads of families: Eggs 15 cents per dozen; Sugar 10 cents per pound; Butter 8 pounds for $1, and other things propositionately as cheap. Why? Because we sell strictly for cash at No. 5, Hargett street. D. T. Johnson. The very fine results and increasing demand of the Star Ammoniated Soluble Phosphate seem to have created quite a sensation among manufacturers of and dealers in commercial fertilizers. Other manufacturers have even commenced manipulating and offering for sale a fertilizer called the "Star Brand Phosphate." Farmers should beware of imitations. The original and only genuine Star Ammoniated Soluble Phosphate has the trade mark of a star printed on each sack with the analysis manufactured by Lorentz & Ritter of Baltimore, Md., and for sale by A. C. Sanders & Co., or their agents.

SOIREES MUSICALES.—The soiree musicale at the Baptist school last evening was a decided success in every respect. The weather was beautiful, and the chapel of the seminary crowded many persons standing in the aisles. It is a source of regret that there is no school hall in the city large enough to hold the audiences which usually attend these concerts, but it seems that the Principals have thoroughly learned the process of packing. The exercises commenced with a chorus I Pastor, which showed at once that the young ladies had been under the tuition of a master of vocal training. The closing chorus, sung by fifteen young ladies, was a grand finale. All the instrumental pieces were solos, which certainly gives the audience the opportunity of judging of the merits and defects of performers. The young ladies performed these with expression, bringing out the beauties of the compositions. Prof. Agte, the organist, performed by the duet, Massanello, performed by Prof. Agte and one of his pupils, was unusually brilliant, and elicited the closest attention of the audience. The vocal solos confirmed the impression made by the first chorus, that Prof. Agte is eminently successful in developing and training the voice. How can it be otherwise, when he himself is a fine singer? Altogether this was one of the best concerts ever given in our city.

FROM CENTRAL HEADQUARTERS.—"I find Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup excellent, having a ready sale and rendering more satisfaction than any Cough Syrup I have ever sold." A. B. Maloney, M. D., Fifteenth and Carpenter Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

CLOSE FINANCING.—Sidney Carrison, nigger, with a cut copper in his pocket, is now ready to pay Sam. Whitebird, coal black, of Hyde county, that half a cent for which Sidney has been dunned three times. Sidney owed Samuel four dollars and seventy-two and a half cents. After paying the whole numbers, Samuel dunned him three several times for the fractional currency. We have inspected the cut copper, and hope it will not end in a fight when paid over and a receipt called for.

TO BE REPEATED.—We are glad to announce that the ladies of the church of the Good Shepherd have yielded to solicitations and agreed to repeat the charming entertainment of last Thursday evening. This time the performance will take place at Metropolitan hall, and we have no doubt that the large hall will be filled to its utmost capacity, as the proceeds will be divided with the Lee Memorial Association. The programme will undergo some change, but in what particulars we have not yet been informed.

SUPREME COURT.—Court met at 10 o'clock this morning, all the justices present. State vs. Jennie Groves, from Duplin. Argued by Attorney-General Hargrove for state and Stallings and Battle, Battle & Mordecai for defendant. State vs. Olin James, from Duplin. Argued by Attorney-General Hargrove, Stallings, and Battle, Battle & Mordecai for plaintiff. No counsel for defendant. State vs. George Applewhite, from Columbus. Certiorari granted to be returned instant.

J. W. Laneashire et al. vs. Alexander Mason, from Cumberland. Continued. James Vann and wife vs. Fayetteville Building and Loan Association, from Cumberland. Argument commenced by W. A. Guthrie and W. McL. McKay for plaintiffs and J. W. Hinsdale, J. C. McRae and C. W. Broadfoot for defendant. Pending the argument in this case the court adjourned until Monday 10 o'clock.

HARDY BRUTE.—This old gentleman, living two miles from Auburn, and seven from this city, entered the office and asked for his paper. He handed him the Weekly Sentinel. "It is too old," he said, "to get from home often." "How old are you?" "76," he said. "I was a Jackson democrat and always voted that ticket. I remember Lafayette coming to town, but I did not come to see him. People stayed here at home then than they do now, worked harder and spent less than they now do. Then old and young, women and children, all worked. Now they spend too much time from home. I wore breeches made of deer skin, and they were very cold when first put on without drawers." "What became of you when Sherman passed Auburn?" "I was at home. They fought all around my house. Two men were killed close by my house. I went to the kitchen, which was built of logs, and there remained during the fight. My house was a framed building and easily penetrated by balls. Kilpatrick stayed the night of the 12th of April, 1865, in my house. The enemy look all I had; my clothes, except what I had on, and my wife's clothes, too; my horses, one cow, chickens, corn and meat. I hid some meat, but they found it. Kilpatrick asked my wife where she was during the fight? She said in the kitchen. 'If you had left home, madam, we would have burnt your house.' Gen Sherman spent the night at Jo. Smith's about a half mile from my house. The next day the enemy marched to Raleigh. 'I always thought,' said the old man, 'our leading men should have known better than to have been anxious for a fight with such odds against us.' The old man was strong against the war, but much stronger against the radicals. The war he could not help, but he could help, to put a check on radicals and bad rulers.

BISHOP ATKINSON.—We find in the Wilmington Star this list of Bishop Atkinson's appointments for his spring visitation: Kinston, March 22; Holy Innocents, Lenoir Co., " 23; Newbern, " 26; Beaufort, " 26; St. Paul's, Swift Creek Bridge, Trinity, Beaufort Co., " 31; Blount's Creek, Beaufort Co., " 8; St. John's, Durham's Creek, South Creek, Beaufort Co., " 9; Greenville, " 11; St. John's, Pitt Co., " 13; Snowhill, " 13; Macdonald, Pitt Co., Good Friday, " 14; Wilmington, Easter Sunday, " 16.

HIS VALENTINE.

Mr. Editor: February having come, I turned my attention to verse, in order to send a valentine of my own composing to my adored. With this view, I asked a gentleman who frequents the same club I do to give me a few hints. "There's nothing so easy," said he. "All you want is the rhymes." Whereupon I made so bold as to ask if he could supply them, and on what terms. Not to enter too far into particulars, I will say that he obliged me with the following list:

Arose	Lasts	Set
Nose	Casts	Cabinet
Down	Endures	Sink
Gown	Overtures	Rink
Sockets	Winking	Shutters
Pockets	Shrinking	Gutters
Maid	Fair	Love
Marmalade	Square	Above.

After a week or so's arduous study I have succeeded in making up a valentine, which I enclose, and shall be happy to receive your opinion as to whether it is verso or vice versa.

Yours, amatively,
JOHN JONES.

A VALENTINE—BY A BEGINNER.
Never, since the sun arose,
With a purple on his nose;
Never, since the moon went down,
With an ink-spot on her gown;
While the stars burned in their sockets,
With their hands in trousers' pockets—
Have I seen a fairer maid,
Or more resembling marmalade!

Never, while the glad sun-larks,
Disarmed with plaster-casts;
Never, while the moon endures,
Playing Weber's overtures;
While the stars continue winking,
In flames warranted 'gainst shrinking—
Shall I see a maid as fair
Within five miles of Union Square.

Never, till the sun shall set
In a laquered cabinet;
Never, till the moon shall sink
In the frozen skating rink;
(All the stars put up their shutters,
And make mud-pies in Five Points gutters—
Shall I that maiden cease to love,
[N. B.—John Jones composed the above.]

A VOICE FROM THE MECHANICS.

LET THE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ANSWER.
RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 17, '76.
Mr. Turner: Your correspondent "Sledge-Hammer," in his communication of the 16th inst., stated a few telling facts relating to the action of the News Publishing Company in opposing an organization known in our community as the "Raleigh Typographical Union, No. 54," and low that company, composed of mushroom aristocrats, are still trying to oppress the printers, but "Sledge-Hammer" did not go far enough back, so, therefore, your humble servant will go into a few facts known, not only to himself, but to every reading man in our city.
Who was it that said the grangers was a secret organization, and then called on the solicitor of this district to send a bill to the grand jury and cause the movers to be indicted? The Daily News.
Who was it that called on Mayor Whitaker to use force to drive laboring men off the street during the building of the house now occupied by Williamson, Upchurch & Thomas? News Publishing Company.
Who was it that assailed the order of Good Templars which is composed of the laboring classes from all the trades? The News Publishing Company.
Who is it that oppresses every trade in this city from the printing office to the railroad shops? Stockholders of the News Publishing Company.
Now, Mr. Turner, I repeat, will the democratic executive committee endorse the Daily News, in their meeting in this city on the 15th of March? If they do, they force the mechanics and laborers of this city and state to seek that party who will maintain their rights. The city election takes place in May, and that of the state in November; and we conceive it the duty, and we call upon the working-men to be on hand in the nominating conventions and strike one more blow at bondholders, capitalists and corporations, who are seeking to oppress us, impoverish our families and forcing our children to grow up in ignorance, while we are expected to pay the taxes and vote in honor such would-be leaders of the democratic party. Where will the democratic board of aldermen be if the workmen withdraw their support from the party? The laboring classes, I do not say will affiliate with the republican party, but will remain at their work-benches and let the republicans carry election by default if these things are to continue. "Sledge-Hammer" I hope will strike another blow in a few days, and then you may look out for another score from the JACK PLANK.

Good Advice!—Parents should always watch their children's health in cold and raw weather, and keep them in sound condition by using Widener's Pine Tree Cod Liver Oil, a very palatable remedy that purifies the blood and never fails to give relief from Croup, Colds, Croup, Sore Throat and Diphtheria!

Line has abolished capital punishment. If it were enforced against those who merit it, it should be without a United States senator.

DURHAM.

THE RAILROAD AND WAGON TRAINS TO CART.
DURHAM, N. C., Feb. 16, 1876.
Mr. Turner: There is a railroad, so called, running by Durham, known as the North Carolina prong of the Richmond & Danville railroad. This road was formerly called the North Carolina railroad, but the name has been changed. I've often heard Joe Turner say that routes are apt to change their names. Whether or not this change of name has been made on the Joe Turner basis, I am not prepared to say, but the modern radical practice of stealing is becoming alarmingly more and more popular with individuals and corporations, and why should not the fashion grow when the commander-in-chief of the armies and navies of the United States is not like Caesar's wife should have been, "above suspicion?" There is something strong in the management of this road. I don't charge the popular chief, Sol. Hines, or his assistant, Capt. A. B. Andrews, so long and favorably known as the superintendent of the Raleigh & Gaston railroad, with any intentional thefts at the interests of Durham. But how is it that the road now charges 50 cents a hundred pounds on smoking tobacco to Raleigh, and only 76 cents for Charlotte, when through rates are guaranteed by the same road to New York for 85 cents? The house of W. T. Blackwell & Co. alone, to say nothing of the other large shippers here, sends off from 15,000 to 20,000 pounds of smoking tobacco daily. For a cut-load to Raleigh (about 16,000 pounds) this lovely railroad institution exacts the enormous amount of $80. If this isn't a swindle, by what other name would you call it? If it is a swindle, isn't swindling stealing? If it is stealing, who is the rogue?
We can get our tobacco by wagons to Cary at 85 cents per hundred, and have it shipped from that point via the Raleigh & Gaston railroad at same rates as charged from Raleigh. The question of a wagon train is seriously talked of, and you need not be surprised to hear in a few days of all our northern shipments being made by wagon trains to Cary, thence via the Raleigh & Gaston railroad to New York, Boston and Singapore.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

I have not written nor suggested a word in the articles which have appeared in the 8th and 10th issues of the business of the Agricultural Society, though the last one was signed "F. J." I know but little of the merits of the controversy, but I do know the Quatham railroad branch of my party, through Dr. Hawkins, was attempting to run the Agricultural Journal, and that paper was used by the News men and editors to hold me up as an enemy of the Agricultural Society. When they made war upon me, there was almost a majority of the executive committee of the society who had been engaged with the bond thieves, under Holden, in robbing the state of $16,000,000 of bonds. The gentlemen of the executive committee had no cause of complaint. I made the proper distinction between them and the bond thieves. I knew the ring then running the Raleigh News was attempting to run the Agricultural Journal. When the executive committee voted one of their body a gold watch for services not rendered on the committee, I allowed one who had given part of the $6,500, donated by the citizens of Raleigh to the fair, to protest against it through the columns of the Sentinel. I made no war upon the society, but against bond thieves, who had no business on the committee. I protested against allowing low gamblers to put up wheels of fortune to rob children and ignorant negroes of their money on the fair grounds. That the Agricultural Journal has come to grief, I am not astonished. I hope it will soon be pulled up out of the ditch, where the railroad wing of the party have tumbled it. No one shall go before me in the advancement of the best interest of the Agricultural Society, nor would I have now repeated my old criticisms on the fair and journal, but for the appearance of the article in the last Sentinel signed "F. J."
JOSEPH TURNER.

NEWS AND NOTES.

You Armin has been indicted for treason and the acquittal of his estate ordered.
Schenck's resignation has not yet arrived, but it is confidently expected. No talk just about a successor.
The steamer Clyde bates her boilers and sunk near Deal. She carried 29 passengers, 11 of whom were saved.
Charles Cushman died yesterday in Boston. She was a contemporary of Michael and Col. Susan B. Anthony.
The Senate Committee on privileges and elections has decided to investigate the charges of corruption made by the state of Alabama against Senator Spencer.
Gen. Taylor and John W. Wood, and one Gammon, an ex-treasury agent, all of Washington, have been arrested for swindling the government in the prosecution of cotton claims. If there is one who isn't or hasn't been a villain, he's yet to be heard from.
A New Orleans telegram says that Hon. Geo. Dupue and J. M. Winton, of the times, went out thrusting for each other's blood; but advising so the said thought it better to shake hands, and a world saved from mourning is the consequence.
Although we do not claim that the Ellwood collar will wash, we do claim that it will keep clean longer than any other.

TAB DROPS.

Milton is having heavy breaks of tobacco. Franklin, Macon county, has a new hotel. Asheville niggers are having leap year parties. The Warrenton Thespian corps is in full blast. Freight have been raised on the N. C. railroad. Haywood Shearin, a Warren county nigger, made a $1,200 crop by himself. The barn of R. J. West, of Rowan county, was recently fired by lightning. Herbert Barnett, a Warren county 5-year old, was burnt to death the other day. The woolen factory at Weaversville, Buncombe county, will be completed by May 15. The Murfreesboro schools have been indulging in concerts and commencement exercises. Rev. W. G. Starr, of Murfreesboro, was thrown from his buggy the other day by a lightning shock. Last Wednesday four nigger prisoners in the Franklin county jail went for the jailor, but help being near by they were soon quieted. John Dunstan, a Louisa nigger, has quit giving law. Last Sunday he had his jaw bone shattered by being thrown from a horse. Dr. Jones.—Dr. Jones' office is daily crowded with patients from far and near. Among his surgical operations, yesterday, was one for polypus in the nose. Mr. Henry Palmer, of Fairfield, an aged planter, Mrs. J. Speight, of Charlotte, who was gravely relieved of cancer. Both wish their cases made public and express the utmost satisfaction. Dr. Jones remains only a short time and all who need his skill should employ it without delay. He will not practice at any other city in the state.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

By virtue of a mortgage executed to A. J. Bynum & Bro., on the 11th of September, 1875 by L. N. Clegg, and by virtue of a second mortgage executed by the aforesaid L. N. Clegg to J. Bynum & Bro. of March, 1876, the undersigned will sell, on the premises at public auction on the 17th DAY OF MARCH, 1876, for cash, that certain farm on Deep river, in the county of Chatham, opposite the town of Lockville, known as the Clegg farm, containing FIVE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-TWO acres. The Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line railroad divides the tract, and Deep river is navigable for steamboats about 20 miles above and 12 miles below Lockville. The farm is about 30 miles from Raleigh and 42 miles from Fayetteville by rail. The tract contains 100 acres of Deep river bottom ground; 20 acres of beach land and 100 acres of long leaf pine. It is adapted to the raising of corn, cereals, cotton and vegetables, and can be divided easily into three excellent farms. The railroad depot is within 150 yards of the farm and Merchants' mill, saw mill and long leaf pine mill. The estate of L. N. Clegg, late prothonotary, describes this farm as being the same as sold him by the trustees of the Deep river bank.
For further full relation apply to A. J. Bynum, High Street, Hon. John Manning, Pittboro, or L. N. Clegg, Lockville, S. C.
