SPECIAL NOTICE

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, serious weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you. FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a physician in South America. It is a well-addressed envelope for the "Dr. J. C. Jones T. Jones, Station 10, Little House, New York City, Nov. 13-1875."

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The advertiser, an old physician, retired from active practice, having had a good while back a vast little library the formula of a simple Vegetable Remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Coughs, Croup, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a Positive and Radical Cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to the suffering. He is now preparing a new and a comprehensive book to relieve human suffering. He will send five of the book, to all who desire it, this week, with full directions for preparing and a complete usage. Sent by return mail by addressing Dr. W. C. Jones, New York City.

THE CITY.

Leut begins to-morrow, Ash-Wednesday.

No cases worth reporting at the mayor's court this morning.

The merchants hold their meeting at Metropolitan hall to-morrow evening.

J. J. WELFENDEN & Co., dealers in grain. Corn a specialty. Newbern, N. C. 3m.

Raleigh Chapter meets this evening at 7:30 o'clock for work in the 4th degree.

Cotton market to-day very dull.
Middlelins 11; low middlelins 10; clean stains 8; deep stains 7@8.

Woods' pine at $3.50; seasoned oak at $4.00; field pine at $3.00. Call on J. D.
Whitaker near Citizens Bank for supplies.

T. T. Oliver manufactures best heart pine and poplar lumber, &c. Seasoned flooring always on hand. Pine Level, Robert Kirkland, a native of Hillsboro, but a resident of South America for the past fifteen years, is now in this city visiting relatives.

John W. Hayes, a prominent and highly esteemed member of the Granville bar, is in the city attending the supreme court.

Mr. J. D. Whitaker is selling good oak wood at $3.50; pine $3.00; $3.25

The Raleigh Light Infantry parades Friday afternoon. Members are requested to meet promptly at the Baptist Grove at 3 o'clock. Fines for attendance will be rigidly enforced.

We understand the Methodist ladies of this city are preparing to have a grand fair and festival for the purpose of raising funds for the approaching centennial of their division of Zion's baptists.

Who is the president of the Ladies' Memorial Association? A question often asked us, but we have not been able thus far to furnish the necessary information. Will some one who knows impart the enlightenment to us?

Messrs. R. F. Jones & Co. are agents for J. M. Rhodes & Co.'s Super Phosphate, which is one of the best standard fertilizers in this market. The success it gained last year is such that they have sold this year already a great deal more than they expected to sell. Their facilities for supplying farmers with this valuable fertilizer are great, and farmers should buy at once. This guano, instead of impoverishing the land, improves it permanently. Read their advertisement in another column.

The very fine results and increasing demand of the Star Ammoniated Soluble Phosphate seem to have created quite a sensation among manufacturers of and dealers in commercial fertilizers.
Other manufacturers have even commenced manipulating and offering for sale a fertilizer called the "Star Bono Phosphate." Farmers should beware of imitations. The original and only genuine Star Ammoniated Soluble Phosphate has the trade mark of a star printed on each sack with the analysis manufactured by Lorens & Ritter of Baltimore, Md., and for sale by A. C.
Sanders & Co., or their agents.

DEATH OF LAWRENCE HORTON.— This old citizen of Raleigh died this morning at the corner of Davis and Harrington streets, after a long and painful illness. His funeral will take place at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, at the Salisbury Street Baptist church.

A GOOD HOTEL.—O. R. Adams, formerly of Washington, is in charge of the Adams house, Tarboro. He knows the business and the weary traveler will find his inn one of the best in the great desert of wandering life. For a good eat and a good sleep, go to Adams.

CENTENIAL MATERIAL.—John Hunter, Raleigh's ancient African who was recently sketched up in the Sentinel, is 110 years old. He saw Tarleton's dragons when they passed near this place, and heard the cannon at the battle of Guilford Court-House. He should be placed in a glass case and sent to the Philadelphia museum and swindle, as one who, born ten years before the republic, has outlived it fifteen.

TANGLESON.—Is blackberry wine a liquor or is it not? That is the question that has recently been puzzling our supreme court. The learned justices have gracefully flanked the obstruction by coming to the conclusion that it is a question of fact to be settled by the jury. The case which led to the nuddlement has been remanded to Warren county whence it came, and in the meantime any gentleman who wishes to spree without rendering himself obnoxious to either law or sentiment against the use of liquors, may with perfect impunity indulge in the tippling juice of the festive blackberry.

HEAVY FREIGHT.—We learn from one well informed in such matters, that the freight on tobacco from Augusta to New York is 41 cents a hundred, a distance of 800 miles. From Raleigh to New York it is 30 cents, a distance of some 600 miles. From Durham to Raleigh is 26 miles; the freight on tobacco two weeks ago was 28 cents a hundred between these two points; to-day it is 50 cents for the 26 miles; and that too on a road owned by the state, but by bribery leased to a foreign corporation, which thus extorts pirate tribute from the cultivators of the soil. Calve Branch, with cuss-words, says such railroad managers should be lynched.
Let no violence be done. Such oppressions of the people must soon have an end, and a paper which stands as their apologist and champion must go down with them. T.

A NORTH CAROLINA INVENTION.—Dr.
J. B. Godwin, a de-tist of Washington, in this state, has invented and patented a "taper attachment to lamp burners," which promises to be of great convenience and economy. It is a small round wick passing through a tube by the side of the regular flat wick, and is moved up or down by the same kind of a thumb wheel as other wicks. By this attachment a very small jet of light can be kept burning all night, and so small is the tube that all offensive smell is obviated because of the consumption of all the gas, which is not the case with the ordinary wick when turned down very low.
The taper attachment is so arranged that either one may be lighted from the other and extinguished as easily. The additional cost will be only a few cents, and will hardly increase the retail price of the burner over those now in use; hence it will be to the interest of those using oil of any kind to buy the burner with Godwin's taper attachment.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.—The following decisions were filed yesterday afternoon by the justices of the supreme court:

By FRANKLIN, C. J.: Wm. M. Tolly vs. Wash Reed et al.
from Calhoun. Judgment affirmed.

R. S. Ableson, assignee vs. Thomas B. Crockett, assignee. From Rock Judgment below reversed.

John W. Hindsale vs. Alvin G. Thorpe et al. from Cumberland. Judgment affirmed.

By READING, J.:
D. M. Burt and wife vs. M. B. & Loan Association from New Hanover.
Error in sustaining demurrer. Reversed.

Alexander Mitchell vs. Commissioners of Craven county. Judgment affirmed.

State vs. Warren Yancy from Granville. Judgment affirmed.

By RICHMOND, J.:
State vs. B. P. Lowry from Warren.
Error venire de novo.

Richard Ten Broeck vs. W. H.
Orchard from Calhoun. Reversed and remanded.

HESTER IN HIS NEW ROLE.

A PIOUS FIBRE AND REPENTANT RAPI-ST.

As the good people of Raleigh have had the questionable honor of an acquaintance with the swindler, perjur-pirate and murderer whose name heads this article, they will doubtless appreciate the appended letter which he recently addressed the editor of the New York Sun in reply to some mention of him by that paper:

ROOMS OF THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION,
Washington, D. C., Feb. 14.

DEAR SIR: Although I have not met the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with you, I take the liberty of doing myself the honor of addressing you, and at the same time permit me to present you through the mails a copy of God's Word. My object in sending you this book and this communication is to try and win your soul to Christ, and to return good for evil. Your daily journal of the 3d and 5th instant contained articles relative to me which are exaggerated, and in many respects untrue. The spirit of them was vindictive and slanderous. I have been praying for you ever since my attention was attracted to them. Please read the Word of God carefully, and He will remove that malice and vindictiveness from your heart, which, if permitted to remain, will drag you down to eternal perdition. I shall also send for your encouragement a postal card containing some passages of Scripture each day for 365 days, unless your heart is sooner changed. With the request that you do me the honor to acknowledge the receipt of this.

I remain, Yours truly,
J. O. HESTER.

In commenting upon this epistolary outpouring of blasphemous hypocrisy, the Sun, using facts in great part furnished by the Sentinel some time since, says:
"This man Hester is probably the most impudent scoundrel in the country. All that we have done to provoke the above precious outpouring from him is to narrate some of the incidents of his varied career. He is now about forty years old. After a discreditable youth, he served on board the Confederate privateer Sumter; and Capt. Raphael Semmes is our witness respecting his conduct there."
"I appointed him manager of the Sumter," says Capt. Semmes, "and when I left the vessel I left him assistant of the lieutenant in charge. The latter sought active service, and was relieved by a man named Andrews. Hester killed Andrews. I have no personal knowledge of the homicide, but the current report represented it to be a cold-blooded murder."

It seems that Hester shot Andrews while the latter was asleep, and in excuse alleged that Andrews was in collusion with certain United States officers, having agreed to deliver up the Sumter to them; and that he killed Andrews to prevent the execution of this agreement. After this, Hester commanded a blockade runner, and soon after the war pretending still to be a Confederate in feeling, he was listed in the foreign for the denunciation of Yankee carpet-baggers and negroes. Next he carried on a grand, grand statement, by which he was awarded the title of a nobleman of the Confederacy.
Then he became a fugitive and was sought by the United States consular officers, and his name was on a list of wanted men. He was a man of considerable wealth, and his name was on a list of wanted men. He was a shrewd, plausible, unblushing scoundrel.

This man now pretends to have repented of his misdeeds. He has joined the Young Men's Christian Association.
He makes long prayers in the synagogue, gives away Bibles and writes letters greasy with humming piety like the above. No confidence should be placed in his repentance or his professions. He is a wolf in sheep's clothing. It is a duty to denounce and expose him and his pretenses of religion and his constant winning souls to Christ might render him more dangerous if they were less disgusting.

SUPREME COURT.—Court met at 10 o'clock, all the justices present.

J. W. Hapinsale vs. J. E. Rite, Jr.
from Halifax. Continued.

Geo. W. Watkins & Co. vs. R. F.
Chatham et al. from Granville (2 cases).
Continued.

Simon W. Kittrell vs. Alexander B.
Hawkins from Granville. Argued by Smith & Strong for plaintiff and Batchelor & Son contra.

Hawkins & Co. vs. Parham & Dunn from Warren. Argued by Batchelor & Son for plaintiff and W. H. Yonge contra.

Court adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

The case of Jas. M. Mullen, administrator, vs. W. C. Whitmore et al. from Halifax, was argued on yesterday by Walter Clark, Ed. Conigland and Malcom & Moore for plaintiff and T. N. Hill contra. It was left out of report yesterday through mistake.

THE STYLES.—Ladies wearing the latest "Pinback" and striped silk stockings are very liable to contract catarrhs coughs or colds, and should not neglect to procure Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in time.

LENT.—To-morrow is Ash-Wednesday, the beginning of lent, the great annual fast observed by the Romish and Anglican churches. It commences with Ash-Wednesday and ends with Easter-Sunday, which this year comes the 16th of April; so that the present lenten period will last forty-seven days. It is very rigidly observed by our Catholic friends. Except in special cases, the use of flesh is generally permitted only at the principal meal Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays. No fast is ever kept Sunday. The Episcopal church is far less strict in its regulations. The whole matter of abstinence and fasts is left to the judgment and conscience of the members, with the express obligation upon all to regard the season as one of special prayer and self-denial.
Some idea of the spirit that characterizes the observance of the solemn "forty days," by many of our fashionable dames and damsels, may be obtained from this brief doggerelistic:

LENTEN LAMENT.

Farewell to opulence and to ball; Reception and to morning call;
To ash-ashes, sackcloth, prayers, To sewing-circles, orphan fairs.

Farewell to terrapin dishes, Farewell to punch and rum wine;
And hail to herring that dainties The sinful soul of its alarm.

Farewell to eating, sties and loaves,
To smoking, talls and smoking faces; Farewell, a long farewell to Germans, And hail to Friday's fasts and sermons.

I've packed away my party dresses, I've stowed away my dancing trousseau, I've sobbed down my gaily look,
And hunted up my lost prayer-book.

And now with pious soul intent, I feel I'm ready to repent, For, as I think our rector says, The lent will end in forty days.

Then hail to Easter's songs and smiles; Then hail to all of spring's new styles;
With these in view I am content, To fast and pray through all of Lent.

MAINBAGGERS.—February's billing and cooing resulted in a heavy crop of marriage in our city and county. Hymen's torch blazed brightly and numerously.
Here is the list for the month:

William Blake and Annie Carpenter.
Albert Blake and Cora Warren.
J. M. Blake and Gilla Stephens.

J. P. Goodwin and Emma H. Utley.
Dr. W. H. Green and Sarah Susan Jones.

Rufin Hodge and Winney Hinton.
Seth Veline and Lula Cooper.
F. J. Mitchell and Cora Smith.

Reuben Shipp and Sarah H. Stone.
Angus Taylor and Cornelia Rogers.
A. M. Thompson and Fannie H. Smith.

Curtis Z. Todd and Amanda Todd.
J. T. Vann and Lula H. Moore.
Henry A. Whitaker and Ann E. Nowell.

W. E. Wimper and Jennie Burns.
Robt A. Young and Virginia Page.
E. D. Webb and M. C. Allen.

Wesley Pace and Sallie Williams.
Joe B. Powell and Fannie Seawell.

ALEX. ALLEN and E.becca Thompson.
Calvin Adams and Betsy A. Pennington.

Benjamin Brooks and P. Burts.
T. C. Burns and Elizabeth Parker.
John Cunningham and Dolly Hinton.

Leonidas Evans and Redawsey Evans.
Levi Jones and Flora Ann Dunn.

Dennis Jenkins and Sallie White.
Willis Montague and Sarah J. Strickland.

John Moore and Martha Smith.
Ephraim Nash and Annie J. Lanier.
Samuel Richardson and Celia Woods.

Calvin Strickland and Lucy Black-nell.
Charles Shipp and Emma Straughan.

Theodore Stokes and Della Merritt.
Elias Thomas and Martha Sears.
Squire Watson and Nellie Dunn.

Joseph Woods and Emily Jones.

GREAT BIG MAN.—Under this caption, the Charlotte Observer, of Feb. 27, thus mentions a triplet of Goliaths:

Capt. Potts, of the Air-Line, and Capt.
Fickling, of the C. C. & A. had often heard of each other, but met for the first time in the office of the Central hotel, last night. Each knew the other as soon as he saw him, and they both advanced to shake hands at the same time.
Everybody present suspended conversation, and all eyes were turned upon them. Capt. Potts is none of your illi-puitals, but Capt. Fickling, like Sam, the son of Kish, "from his shoulders and upwards is higher than any of the people." He measures six feet nine, Capt. Potts six feet seven. Mr. R. W.
Best, of Raleigh, was here not long ago, and met Capt. Fickling; he stands six feet five and a half, himself, but he had to look away up to see Capt. Potts' face, and it made him feel right bad to meet a man who held over him four inches and a half. Standing beside any one of the three, an ordinary man don't look as big as a wart.

TAR DROPS.

Greensboro sends forth a piteously weakly will over the advanced price of beef.

Wilmington suspended business yesterday on account of the Moore's Creek centennial.

A Caswell county blacksmith let a trap sleep in his shop last Wednesday night. In the morning, the unknown unfortunate was found burned to death on the hearth.

A darkey freight-train hand on the Carolina Central railway was killed, near Hilton bridge, last Thursday, by being knocked down and run over by an engine and tender.

NEWS AND NOTES.

The United States supreme court adjourns March 15.

The surrender of 8,000 Carlists at Tolosa is reported.

Austria has ordered the Herzego-vinian refugees home within thirty days, on pain of forcible expulsion from her territory.

The people of Belgrade have been notified to hold themselves in readiness to receive and care for the wounded in case of the probable war. All able-bodied men have been called out, and will be mustered into service March 2.

THE BEST FERTILIZERS IN USE.

The Star Ammoniated Mape's Nitrogenized

SOLUBLE PHOSPHATE SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

We have found by several years experience in selling the above Fertilizers, as well as by actual observation, that they have no superior, if any equal among Commercial Manures.
Our prices are much lower than others, not so universally popular, and that have proven unequal in results, upon sworn statements from many of our best farmers. All we ask is a fair trial with anything sold in the South. We refer to the following gentlemen of large experience, who have used our Phosphates for several years:
