THE CITY.

30 cords wood at Osborne's Grain & Feed Store, for sale cheap for cash.

The police court this morning could not furnish a case worth reporting.

J. J. WOLFENDEN & Co., dealers in grain. Corn a specialty. Newbern, N. C.

For lack of gas, there was no service at the church of the Good Shepherd Sunday evening.

Col. W. F. Henderson, of Davidson county, better known as "Windy Billy," is in the city.

George W. High, a tinner in the employ of J. C. Brewster, died Sunday and was buried yesterday.

Evans—Evans—he figures all through this Belknap business. Look-a-here, Tom, isn't it time to "rise and explain?"

T. T. Oliver manufactures best heart pine and poplar lumber, &c. Seasoned flooring always on hand. Pine Level, N. C.

Farmers all over the country rushing work. Let them not put all their trust in cotton. More grain, grass, clover and vegetables will pay far better.

Raleigh grange Saturday elected Mr. Blake, cotton-weigher for the year commencing April 1. The board of trade nomination of Geo. D. Upchurch was confirmed.

Committees are out providing suitable stopping places for the ministers and invited guests who are expected to attend the coming grand Methodist centennial in this city.

Mr. J. D. Whitaker is selling good oak wood at $3.50; pine $3.00/$3.25 per cord delivered, plus the cash attends the order. Call on him in rear of Citizen's National Bank.

The Goldboro Messenger, of March 6, says: "Bishop Lyman officiated in St. Stephen's church yesterday morning and evening. At the evening service the rite of confirmation was administered to two young gentlemen."

George Allen & Co., Flour Manufacturers, Newbern, N. C., offer to send to any address, samples of their Labor Saving Flours. The very fine results, and increasing demand of the Star Ammoniated Soluble Phosphate seem to have created quite a sensation among manufacturers of and dealers in commercial fertilizers. Other manufacturers have even commenced manufacturing and offering for sale a fertilizer called the "Star Bone Phosphate." Farmers should beware of imitations. The original and only genuine Star Ammoniated Soluble Phosphate has the trade mark of a star printed on each sack with the analysis manufactured by Lorens & Ritter of Baltimore, Md., and for sale by A. C. Sanders & Co., or their agents.

How TALL He Is.—The Warrenton Centennial, of March 2, says:

We were pleased to meet this week with friend Best of the Raleigh Sentinel, and Harrell of the Tribune, both looking as if they were invulnerable to bad times. Friend Harrell is fat and Bro. Best is tall. If you never sat on the front bench in a church with an old-fashioned two-story pulpit, and don't know how one's neck feels after looking up at the preacher through a long sermon, in such a position, the whole experience may be realized by standing for half an hour on the street and talking with Bro. Best, with your eyes lifted to his.

VOL. XXII

RALEIGH, N. C.; TUESDAY, MARCH 7, 1876.

No. 13.

CONFIRMATION.—The rite of confirmation will be administered at St. Mary's chapel, Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

SPEECH AT THE COURT HOUSE.—At 7 o'clock to night Josiah Turner will speak in the Court House. Subject: Railroad corporations, heavy freights and light newspapers.

DEATH.—The mother of our noted Carolina artist, Rufus Morgan, died recently at Hickory, of typhoid fever. He passed through the city yesterday with her remains destined for burial at Warrenton.

SUPREME COURT.—Court met at 10 o'clock, all the justices present. City cases reported yesterday, five of them were taken up and argument commenced by Messrs. E. G. Haywood, D. G. Fowle and G. H. Snow for plaintiffs, and Bunsbee & Bunsbee for the city. Pending which the court adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

ONE MORE.—Deputy-sheriff George B. Colbert, of Beaufort county, is in the city. He brought to Union League hotel, i. e. penitentiary, Sam Johnson, a very dark black-republican. Sam will sojourn for two years for imitating his party friends, presidents, secretaries, senators and governors, in doing a little "conflicting" without due process of law.

BONDS PHOTOGRAPHED.—A holder of old North Carolina bonds in Germany wishing to know their present value and all about them, has been in correspondence with a lawyer of this city for some time past. Recently he had one of his bonds photographed and the result sent to his legal correspondent. The representation is a perfect one as has been ascertained by a comparison with bonds here of a like class. The signature of the late Governor Bragg, the raised seal, coupon, &c., are all accurately reproduced by the photographer's art.

SHERIFF OF MOORE.—Mr. Worthy, the worthy sheriff of Moore county, is in the city with a prisoner for the penitentiary. Moore court has just closed after a week's session, and only sentenced two boarders to the republican hotel. One escaped by an appeal to the supreme court. He was a gentleman of color who shot his lady love, Miss Gains, while she sat quietly at the fireside. Cause of shooting, a supposed preference for another gentleman. Judge Buxton sentenced him to 10 years in the penitentiary. He appeals to the supreme court and remains in jail a county charge for six months. This looks like too much in indulgence to a culprit, and too heavy a tax upon the people of Moore.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.—Opinions were filed by the justices on yesterday in the following cases:

By PEARSON, J.:

W. R. Gordon vs. E. F. Baxter from Currituck. Judgment below reversed. Benjamin Justice vs. Hulda Eddings from Cleveland. Judgment affirmed.

State vs. George Evans, from Halifax. Error.

NEWS AND NOTES.

Belknap is a prisoner.

Marsh has lit out for Canada.

A $580,000 iron-mill suspension at Pittsburgh.

Philadelphia had a $300,000 blaze Saturday morning.

Grant shot up the White House the day of the Belknap blow-up.

Belknap was a pauper three years ago. Now he's worth $500,000.

A cable dispatch conveys the gratifying information that Bismarck is well.

San Francisco has incorporated an air-navigation company with a capital of $10,000,000.

How, of Massachusetts, is mentioned as the probable successor of the fallen huckster, Belknap.

And now George H. Pendleton is explaining and denying some little transactions with Mrs. Belknap.

Gen. George B. Hodge, of the Kentucky senate, charged with blackmailing a railroad company, has been acquitted.

Can Grant, by accepting his resignation, save a criminal from justice? Is the question that now vexes Washington pundits.

Bishop Quintard, of Tennessee, has been very successful in his canvass of England in behalf of the University of the South.

The congressional investigating committee has a list of 20 post-traderships on the Texas frontier, which were sold by Belknap.

A writ was served on Schenck just as he took the train from London. He hedged on and sailed from Liverpool the same day.

Gen. Custer telegraphs that every post-tradership west of the Mississippi has been sold out by the secretary of war, just as Marsh's was.

Belknap has been indicted by the grand jury. Penalty, fine of twice the amount received and three years in the penitentiary. Trot 'em in.

Henry Heiser, a New York banker, testifies that Baron Grant received $20,000 in gold for inducing Schenck to embark in the Emma Mine thievery.

Chas. North & Co., pork-packers, D. M. Oliver & Co., provision-merchants, and E. C. Hoggood & Co., wood-dealers, all of Boston, went down beneath the billows of contraction prosperity, Saturday.

MEETING OF THE STATE DEMOCRATIC-CONSERVATIVE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

ROOMS OF THE DEM. CON. EX. COM., Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 23, 1875.

At a meeting of the Central Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative party this day held, it was resolved that a meeting of the State Executive Committee, be called to assemble in the city of Raleigh on Wednesday, the 15th day of March, 1876. The object of the meeting is to decide upon the time and place of holding the State Convention of the Democratic-Conservative party and to consider such other matters as may come before the Committee.

Each member of the Committee is earnestly requested to be present.

W. B. COX, Chm.

J. J. LINDSAY, Sec'y.

AN APPEAL TO PARENTS.—Parents, do you love your children? Then preserve their health. Next to the blessing of life itself, is the enjoyment of perfect health. How many are stricken down in their infancy almost without a moment's notice by that insidious disease, Croup, simply through the neglect to be provided with the proper remedy? The tender plant is sipped and withers ere it blooms. When the little sufferer has short, difficult, hoarse breathing, with a harsh, metallic cough, like coughing through a brass trumpet, there is no time to lose. Begin at once the use of Dr. Tait's Expecto-rant and the disease will readily yield to it. Always have it ready in the house, as this fatal malady requires the promptest treatment. It is very pleasant to the taste, and children take it readily.

A GREAT CURE OF RHEUMATISM, DYSPEPSIA, DISEASE OF THE LIVER AND SPLEEN, BY DR. JONES.—I came to Dr. Jones upon crutches, having been afflicted with rheumatism and disease of the liver, and enlarged spleen. Having been treated and given up by our best doctors as a hopeless case, and was reduced to a suffering skeleton was scarcely able to move in my bed part of the time. I had the dyspepsia also, and could not eat, sleep, nor walk, and suffered intensely day and night. When I was placed upon the care to go to Dr. Jones, my neighbors said I could never return alive; but in three weeks I returned, a sound man, and have attended to business ever since. I hunt, fish, walk, run, jump—am active and well. And to Dr. Jones I owe my life. I advise the afflicted to spend no time nor money with any other treatment, if they are within reach of Dr. Jones. I live at Marion, Greene county, N. C., where my disease was pronounced incurable, and where I astonished my neighbors when I returned cured by Dr. J. A. Jones. Dr. Jones, I wish you to publish this cure, and all who wish to can see me here, and will be astonished to hear my neighbors tell of this great cure.

R. H. WELSH.

Dr. Jones is now curing the afflicted at the McAdoo House, Greensboro, where he remains till the 6th of March. Dr. J. will practice at the Arlington House, Danville, Va., from the 6th to the 15th of March. At the Ballard & Exchange House, Richmond, Va., from the 15th of March to the 3d of April.

A PURE TONIC!—The wonderful Vitalizing powers of Whittier's Pine Tree Tonic (a purely Vegetable Extract finely distilled from the life-sap of the evergreen wild forest) will thoroughly purify the blood, remove all symptoms of pulmonary diseases, and leave the entire system sweet and clean!
