

PUBLISHED DAILY, WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEKLY. Official Organ of North Carolina. STATE PRINTING & BINDING ESTABLISHMENT. P. DONNAN, Editor.

Daily Sentinel.

VOL. XXII. RALEIGH, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 1876. No. 14

Advertisements will be inserted in the Daily Sentinel at the following rates per square of one inch, or the fraction thereof.

POST OFFICE DIRECTORY.

For the benefit of the public, we publish the following directory of the post-office of this city:

THE CITY.

33 cords wood at Osborne's Grain & Feed Store, for sale cheap for cash. J. J. WOLFENDEN & Co., dealers in grain. Corn a specialty. Newbern, N. C.

MONDAY'S DISASTER.

A CORRECTION OF SOME ERRONEOUS STATEMENTS IN REGARD TO THE FIRE AND THE DEATH OF MARY ANN DOLAN.

The accounts of this sad affair which appeared in the Sentinel and News were both erroneous in many particulars. We now give the facts as related to us by those who feel the calamity most.

NO TIME OR INCLINATION.

The public must not expect us to take up the whole Sentinel in replying to the Raleigh News. We whipped the founder of that paper in 1870, when we whipped out Holden and the Era.

REWARD OFFERED.

Governor Brogden has offered a reward of $200 for the arrest of James H. Frizzle. He is charged with the murder of Clingman Buchanan, of Jackson county, some time last November.

MASONIC.

W. G. Hill ledge meets this evening at the usual hour for work in the first degree. Members are requested to attend promptly.

Mr. TURNER: Please publish the printers card to the public. When the Graham, Clark, Cameron and Holts fall in as successors to Stone & Usell, as stockholders in a paper started and built up on railroad money, workmen must begin to think and act for themselves.

TO THE CITIZENS OF RALEIGH AND THE STATE.

The Daily News, of March 1st, in reply to certain communications published in the Sentinel, concerning that paper, contains an article that is false in many particulars, and does the printers of this city great injustice.

For these principles we are assailed and maligned. We appeal to the public, and every honest-thinking man to know, if they are not principles that every freeman should feel proud of?

Now for the facts relative to the "strike" in the News office: The News says, "For the benefit of the public—the masses—the News again stepped forward and had the public spirit and the enterprise to reduce the price of job work to moderate figures."

TAR DROPS.

A big revival is going on in the Baptist church at Shelby. Wayne co-operative grange meets in Goldsboro, Friday, March 17.

A PURE TONIC.

The wonderful Vitalizing powers of Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial (a purely Vegetable Extract finely distilled from the life-sap of the evergreen wild forest) will thoroughly purify the blood, remove all symptoms of pulmonary diseases, and leave the entire system sweet and clear.

It is not inconsistent in Colonel Cameron, the editor of the News, to cry down an organization of workmen, simply because they demand a living price for their labor, when he himself received the "aristocratic fancy price" of five dollars per day as clerk of the house of representatives, and then "clamped" for an additional one hundred and fifty dollars, besides receiving $30 per week for editing the News, to say nothing of the income derived from his own paper, the Hillsboro Recorder?

It is not inconsistent in Col. Walter Clark, as a stockholder in the News, to allow his paper to vilify an organization of mechanics that has the "audacity" to establish a price for their labor, when he belongs to the legal fraternity, which, though they have no organization, abide by a mutual agreement as to charging for their services?

Does Dr. Blackall, who owns stock in the News, allow a traveler or any one else to board with him for a week and pay what he thinks is a fair price? No indeed.

If a man says he is unable to pay $5 per annum for his paper, do the managers of the News let him have it for $2? No. They set their own prices, and presume to set other people's also; and when their demands are not acceded to they set up the cry of "fancy combination prices," &c.

The News says, that immediately after the "strike," they employed non-Union printers, and that these printers have worked in the office ever since with satisfaction to their employers and themselves.

George Allen & Co., Plow Manufacturers, Newbern, N. C., offer to send to any address, samples of their Labor Saving Plows, Atlas anti-choking Turning Plows, Dickson, Allen and Magnolia Steel Cotton Sweeps, at a liberal discount for cash, with privilege of returning them, at their expense should they not give perfect satisfaction.

Wm. Bird, of Yadkin county, a veteran of the war of 1812, died a few days ago. A fine grey mare was stolen from Wiley Dillard, of Greene county, Monday night, Feb. 28.

WILMINGTON'S COTTON RECEIPTS.

Wilmington's cotton receipts up to March 6, were 73,887 bales against 61,979 to same date last year.

THE CHEROKEE INDIANS.

The Cherokee Indians of this state have appealed to congress to protect them against official swindling.

A 51-POUND OEL.

A 51-pound oel was caught at Wilmington Monday, and is said to have attracted a good deal of attention.

CAROLINA LADIES.

Carolina ladies are going into the Mt. Washington tea-party trade for the benefit of Hornet fire company.

A FULL-GROWN AND HEALTHY MULE.

A full-grown and healthy mule gently fell for George Beatie, of Concord, with one of his hind feet. It reached, and Mr. Beatie is laid up.

NEWS AND NOTES.

The Indian bureau is to be transferred to the war department. A big brass Bismarck is to be one of the centennial attractions.

Hendricks has made a vigorous southern canvass, and been very politic. Phil. Sheridan is a daddy, and an exchange suggests that he name her "Bandita."

The reduction in estimates for legislative, executive and judiciary appropriations, is $5,000,000.

John Larkin, rd treasurer of Midland county, Michigan, has got $20,000 ahead of the dear people.

John S. Bailey is U. S. gauger at Charlotte. It is to be hoped he will not spell it "gonger," as many do.

Postmaster Burchard, of Port Jervis, New York, and his partner have lit out with $35,000 of accounts unsecured.

Judge Sterling, of Bridgeport, Connecticut, has presented the Presbyterian church at Reidsville with a costly flagon for communion purposes.

Kansas has wiped the offensive word "white" from her public school law. Correct; a nigger is fully as good as the average chalk-headed Kansan.

Judge Alpheus Taft, of Ohio, has been appointed to fill the war department post occasioned by the snafu of the piratic huckster, Belknap. Lot Merrill declined it.

The New York banker, Hoiser, denies having said that the original $20,000 bribe which led Schenck into Emma Mine thievery and infamy, passed through his hands.

Olymer, of the investigating committee, declares everything connected with the war department was for sale. Even wharfing privileges about Washington were peddled by Belknap.

Mrs. Victoria and her daughter Beatrice, with an escort of cavalry, brass bands and a grand flourish of pretensions charity, yesterday opened the new wing of the London hospital.

The Wilson Daily Topic, published by A. Barnes and W. L. Moseley, comes to us for exchange and gets it. Hardly bigger than a minute, but neat and new, it has ample room and time to grow before our next centennial year.

A terrible accident occurred Monday night on the Valley branch of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. A passenger train fell through a bridge near Winchester, killing some 15 persons, including a member of the West Virginia legislature, and wounding several others.

The home for the aged, at Williamsburg, New York, was burned yesterday morning, and a number of the old and infirm inmates perished in the flames. Two old men jumped from high windows, and were killed. Eighteen charred bodies have been taken from the ruins.
