

THE RALEIGH SENTINEL.

LEE'S PREPARED LIME.
As agent for the manufacturer I am prepared to offer this Fertilizer at very reasonable rates. It is just what our land needs and its effects are permanent. I have certificates from some of the best planters in this and adjoining counties who testify to its high priced grain and recommend it as equal to any that they have, and it only costs one third of the price of other fertilizers. There can be no hunting about this—it is simply Shell Lime with some active ingredients thoroughly impregnated into it which will make it fall at once on the growing crop while its effects upon our soil are lasting and beneficial.
I am now receiving orders and would be pleased to secure them as early as possible to have it in time. Also on hand Sulphur and Agricultural Lime and Land plaster.

HARPER'S BAZAR,
ILLUSTRATED.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.
The Bazar is edited with a combination of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the paternalist by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading-matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the festive enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trustworthy as a fashion guide, its stories and essays, its poetry and epigrams, are all invigorating to the mind.—Chicago Evening Journal.

Harper's Magazine
ILLUSTRATED.

The ever increasing circulation of this excellent weekly proves its continued adaptation to popular desire and needs. Indeed when we think it to how many homes it reaches every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudice or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for a variety, enterprise, artistic possession and literary culture that has kept pace with it has not led the times, should cause it to conductors to regard it with justifiable confidence. It is no ordinary magazine, but a gem in the public gratification. It is a gem that has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
