are always two sides to every question, and as the guilt of the accused has not as yet been proven, we leave the further investigations to legal triburals, and the constituted courts of the land .- Charlotte Observer.

We heard rumors of the charges against Mr. Howerton over a month before the appearance of the letter in the Petersburg Index from a correspondent in this city, but did not think that we would be justified in giving them publicity upon such slight foundation. Even now nothing is absolutely fixed upon Dr. Howerton, and in reproducing the letter, the Sentinel was careful to disclaim any endorsation of the charges contained in i'. Before its ap pearance we had determined to say nothing until the matter could be thoroughly investigated.

he conviction of Paul. Augustine has aid that "if Stephen had not died Paul ad not prayed.

But Christ showed his power over leath, not only in raising the dead by his own inherent power, and not as did Elijah and Elisha, but by rising from the dead himself, and he will by this -ame power raise up all the dead and utterly destroy death in the end. He has abolished death and brought life and mmortality to light through the gospel. But death will be destroyed only for these who receive the gospel.

At uight the text was taken from John v: 40: "Ye will not come unto me that ye might have ;life."

1. The Jews to whom the text was was addressed ought to have believed on Christ for the reasons he assigns in this chapter. (a) John the Baptist testitled that he was the Messiah : 33d verse. (b) The works of Christ testided that he was the son of God : 36th wirse. (c) The father himself bere witness of his messiahship at his baptism and on the mount of transfiguration especially: 37th verse. (d) And the scriptures which the Jews searched, testified of him : 39th verse. II. They ought to have believed in Christ, because in him alone is life. Man is physically dead, liable to death, legally doad, spiritually desd, eternally d and, and Christ has power to destroy death of any kind. III. IVit was a great sin in the Jews not to believe in Christ, it is a far greater one in us, for our light is so much greater than their's. The greatest sin of which we can be guilty is to refuse to come to Christ and we are not christians because we will not. After the sermon, the ordinance of baptism was administered to five persons, three ladies and two gentlemen. Twenty-six have been received into this church recently, and the meetings will be continued this week.
