

TUESDAY, APRIL 4, 1876. ANOTHER LIBEL.

Watson Foster, of Louisiana, sued the Times for $50,000. What is the matter with the editors? The devil seems to be to pay with all of them.

OVER PAID.

It is said our sharp commissioners made old mother England pay us $10,000,000 more in the Alabama arbitration than was due our people. What shall we do with the money is the question.

There are a great many old colored men and women who lost their masters by the war, and at a time of life they were not able to make a living for themselves.

The Japanese government in bygone days paid the United States a million more than was claimed by our people, and we have that money too.

THE SENTINEL.

Col. Donan having signified his purpose to sever his connection with the Sentinel, his place will be supplied with the best editor to be found, while we go out among the people to tell them how the state has been invaded by two railroad corporations intent on running editors, lawyers and politicians, to the end that they may own the little left of the state's interest in railroad property.

Pay up your old scores and add to the list of the Sentinel, and the rogues shall be cleared out at the centre as well as the circumference.

ONLY FIFTY-THREE.

Col. Talbot, general superintendent of the R. & D. railroad company, has written a letter to Mr. J. M. Neal, of this place, in which he says that the charge of 70 cents a hundred for transporting leaf tobacco from Winston to Danville is an error, and that the rate is only 53 cts.

It is about eighty miles from Winston to Danville, and the rate is only 53 cents instead of 70. The freight on smoking tobacco from Augusta to New York is 41 cents per hundred and the distance 800 miles.

President Buford ran a Democratic paper in Raleigh and Charlotte to break down the Sentinel, and this may account for his high tariff to get back his money.

SIXTEENTH DAY.

This is the 16th day of the Clark-Howerton scandal. Clark tried to turn from 10 to 1 1/2 o'clock in the court house, before Justice Maguin, then he takes a hop, skip and a jump to the Metropolitan hall, where he tries Howerton from two until night fall, a row of lawyers mostly in black follow him, no gowns or wigs.

In conspiracy to destroy Clark and the democratic party.

The people now see it is a fair square dog fight between Howerton and Clark, growing out of Howerton's giving certain printing to a religious paper instead of the Raleigh News. Clark charges and swears that Howerton was guilty of falsehood in his account of the conversation held between them.

THE CLARK-HOWERTON SCANDAL.

The Tarboro Southerner thus speaks of this great scandal:

The article in the News we regard as decidedly intemperate. Lugging the conservative party in the disgusting middle, as if it were in any wise a party to the entirely personal proceeding, it goes on to state that "we will carry the party on to victory without the aid of J. O. Turner and his friends."

Let the balance of the editorial brethren speak out, they have been silent long enough. By their silence or praise they have long enough given aid, countenance and encouragement to ring and railroad organs set up to break down the Sentinel after falling to buy up its editor.

SUPPOSED LETTER.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, YANKTON, DAKOTA TERRITORY.

Gov. Pennington to Stockholder Blackhall.

DEAR DOCTOR: Our spring opened in January and then suspended, and we are now having winter weather which was due in January; and I hope you are enjoying the same blessing. I call it a blessing, Doctor, because the Lord sends it, and he knows what is best. I was truly sorry, Doctor, the devil made you do such crooked swearing to hide five or six men who were in Swepson's room when you were sent to talk with Turner about buying the Sentinel.

Write, dear doctor, and tell me who swore the truth, Howerton or Stockholder Clark. It falsehood could triumph over truth, you would have got Jo. Turner. If the people were all lawyers and railroad presidents you could silence him, but you will not be able to do so as long as the people out number the lawyers and railroad presidents.

THE RALEIGH NEWS AND SENTINEL—G. E. N. COX'S ARREST.

There is not a good man in the entire democratic party in North Carolina but what has felt that the terrible warfare going on between the Raleigh News and Sentinel was working serious injury to our party.

We have witnessed the recent outbreak with no little degree of sorrow, and we intend now to speak plainly, and we hope without any prejudice. For Mr. Turner we entertain the highest respect.

We are not acquainted with any of the managers, stockholders or editors of the News, but have read it ever since its existence, and have yet to see anything in it against the democratic party.

We cannot for our life see what the arrest of Gen. Cox has got to do with this fuss. We see it stated in the News, that the chairman of the democratic committee cannot be bullied, nor can the News be intimidated. Now why couple these two separate and distinct efforts in the same sentence.

We know not, but we do know that if these two papers are to be recognized as organs of our party this quarrel has continued long enough. We can not approve of the course pursued by Mr. Turner in his everlasting warfare, if there is a ring at Raleigh, in the name of common sense has he not had time to show it?

The time has come when our state papers should speak out. Two new papers, because they are at Raleigh, have no right to ruin the entire party.

Here is an extract from the News: "And so the campaign of 1874 opens. Turner, Howerton, Badger and Bailey acting together. The democratic chairman of the state executive committee under arrest and on his way to Wilmington.

The fight has commenced. We throw down the gauntlet and we will carry the state democratic through a hundred Josiah Turners should throw in his fortunes with the radical party.

We throw ourselves on the honest, intelligent masses of our countrymen to support us in our fearless exposure of radical rascality though the Sentinel has turned traitor. Better that it now show its open hand than continue the insidious attacks upon the organization and the integrity of the party which it has been so long making.

God and the people being our helper we expect to carry the election in November against Howerton, Turner, Badger and Bailey and in favor of honest government. Turner may be erratic, but there are not enough men in the whole world to make the people of our section believe the open statement. Turner will be found when the fight does open in the thickest of the battle.

ness towards either party, but we felt it to be our duty to speak out on this question, to hold our peace longer would have been criminal.

Treasurer New wants to get out of office because his salary is only $3,500 and he has replaced $3,000 of missing money and spent $5,000 in living in Washington.

Most men will get out of such a place soon, or they will go to Belk-napping.
