COL. DONAN. The Richmond Dispatch says Col. Donan is expected to take charge of a paper in Danville.

CLARK-HOWERTON SCANDAL. Tott Palmer says Clark got only one hundred dollars "woff" of libel from Howerton and that on a credit. Dr. Howerton gave bond in the sum of $10 for his appearance at court, and hence Tott's mis-conception of Col. Clark getting the hundred dollars.

GEN. FORREST. A meeting of the street-to-day Dr. Wm. P. Forrest, of Wake county. The doctor is a kinsman of the great rider and raider, Gen. Forrest. The Forrests are of Irish origin. The grandfather of Dr. Forrest settled in Orange about ten miles west of Hillsboro, before the revolution. The doctor was raised in Orange but has resided in Wake for many years. The father of Gen. Forrest was an Orange county man, who moved to Tennessee many years ago. The Forrests are all working, energetic men, not afraid to work or fight when necessity requires it.

HOW COL. LEWIS HAMMERED JUDGE TOURGEE. Judge Tourgee in his argument last night before Judge Watts talked rather wild. He said under the present city charter a stranger, a baby, a girl baby could be mayor of the city. Mr. Lewis in reply read the constitution defining who could vote, and that each voter could hold office. All male persons twenty one years of age could vote and none others. How, said Mr. Lewis, can you get a baby, "gall or boy." Some people from Ohio did think that any man from Ohio could come here and walk right into office, without knowing the people or much about the duties of the office. Mr. Lewis declared the argument of Judge Tourgee showed him to be a poor statesman and a worse lawyer.

JOHN C. GORMAN AND OTHERS AGAINST MAYOR MANLY AND THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN-MANDAMUS. This case was long and ably argued yesterday until a late hour in the night. We walked in the court-room after dark, and there they sat—Judge Watts on the bench. Messrs. Haywood, Tourgee, Badger and Purnell on the judges right, with 56 law books on the bench before them. These for the plaintiff. On the left sat Messrs. Fowle, Fuller, Ashe, Hubbes, Lewis and Argo, entrenched behind twenty-nine volumes of law. These for the defendants. We were reminded of Lee and Grant and their entrenchments round about Richmond in 1864-'65. The rulings of the judge was favorable to the plaintiff. The following facts will give the reader the true situation of the case: After the defendants had filed their answer the plaintiff proceeded to read his complaint. The defendants objected and insisted that the plaintiff must either tender issues of fact or demur. The plaintiff stated that he wished to read the complaints allegation by allegation and the reply thereto in the answer for the purpose of ascertaining what was admitted and what denied and that the course suggested was for the purpose of saving time and to ascertain whether it was necessary to tender an issue of fact or to demur. The defendants assented and the plaintiff proceeded to read the first and succeeding allegations in this complaint one by one. When the 23 allegation was reached and the answer thereto read, it was insisted by the plaintiff that the answer did not contravert any material fact in this said allegation of the complaint. The defendants insisted that the answer was a denial of each and every allegation in the complaint, and that under it they had a right to have issues submitted to the jury for the purpose of ascertaining whether it was the intent and motive of the legislature in passing the act to abridge the right of any colored person residing in the city of Raleigh otherwise qualified to vote on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude, and judge whether the effect of the act was to abridge the right of any colored person otherwise qualified to vote on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude. The defendants asked that the issues raised by the 17th section should also be submitted to a jury. The court intimated its opinion that the answer raised an immaterial issue. Thereupon the counsel for the defendant asked leave to retire to consult as to the propriety of amending the 19th and 23d allegations, which was granted by the court. And thereupon after consultation the defendants, mayor and alderman, proposed to amend their answer. Motion refused and defendants excepted.

INVESTIGATION INTO THE CHARGES AGAINST SUPERINTENDENT FERRELL.

We have been requested by the board of county commissioners to publish the following: WAKE HOUSE, Wake County. April 5th, 1876. At a meeting held this day for the purpose of investigating the charges against Superintendent Ferrell for alleged cruel treatment of prisoners—Present, Sol. J. Allen, chairman, A. G. Jones and J. R. Nowell, the following statements were made, as on oath:

WAKE HOUSE, Wake County. April 5th, 1876. At a meeting held this day for the purpose of investigating the charges against Superintendent Ferrell for alleged cruel treatment of prisoners—Present, Sol. J. Allen, chairman, A. G. Jones and J. R. Nowell, the following statements were made, as on oath: SOLOMON BUFFALO'S STATEMENT. Solomon Buffalo, colored prisoner, stated substantially as follows:—I can't find any fault of my treatment; Mr. Ferrell has been good to me, feed me well. I cursed in jail and he tied me up, and he tied me up twice about the money I was found. He swung me clear of the ground only about a minute. I have been in the work house almost three years. Hanging up by the thumbs is the regular mode of punishment. Mr. Ferguson, former superintendent, hung me up by the thumbs, swinging me clear of the ground; and he put me up several times for fighting. He tied me up, bucked and gagged me and put a bayonet into my mouth for setting the jail on fire, and I spit blood from it. His treatment of me was worse than the punishment inflicted on Davis. Davis found money; he had it in jail one night; I saw him counting it; it was in a tin box. I wanted to borrow $100.00; he promised to let me have it. I took it out with him next day, so he (Davis) told me, informing me that it was secure. I told him to show the money to Mr. Ferrell and pay our costs. John Thompson told the night-watch that Davis had found money in a tin box about 7 inches long and 3 inches deep. Box was full of gold and silver. We all denied having the money when asked about it. Mr. Ferrell hung Davis up when he refused to tell where it was, and bucked and gagged him. Davis had a knot in his side; he said Holderfield hit him with a stick. He was not struck by anybody in my presence.

ALFRED GORHAM'S STATEMENT. Alfred Gorham, colored prisoner, said: Davis found money in a tin box in the new ground; dug it out of a clay pot; saw him find it. It was gold and silver. The guard was about 20 yards from us. He put it into the pocket of a large coat he was wearing. Mr. Ferrell hung me up about the money several days after it was found. John Thompson told the night watch about finding the money. Davis told Mr. Ferrell that I grabbed at the money, and he (Ferrell) hung me up for this. He never punished me for anything except about the money. I saw him buck and gag Davis. Mr. Ferguson never punished me. I saw him (Mr. Ferguson) hang up Buffalo about half a day and buck and gag him. He put a bayonet into his mouth and Buffalo spit blood from it for about three weeks.

GEORGE ROBINSON'S STATEMENT. George Robinson, colored prisoner, said: Davis said he found some money; I didn't see any. I was in Davis' squad at work in the new ground, but did not see him dig up any money. He showed me some paper which he said came out of the box. Mr. Ferrell tied me when I told him I did not know anything about the money; hung me up clear of the ground, I don't know for how long. He hung up Davis, Buffalo, Gorham and Frances Taylor; never knew any prisoner whipped.

FRANCIS TAYLOR'S STATEMENT. Francis Taylor, white woman, prisoner, said: Don't know anything about the money. Davis said he found it. Saw Mr. Ferrell hang Davis up and buck and gag him; didn't know how long. Never saw him whip Davis. Mr. Ferrell hung me up clear of the ground. Davis said that I knew where the money was; this was the reason for his hanging me up. Davis was in jail for about a week after he was punished. Never saw any punishment other than hanging up and bucking and gagging. I saw fed and clothed well.

JOHN THOMPSON'S STATEMENT. John Thompson, colored prisoner, said: Davis told me that he found money; said he had it in jail one night. I told Mr. Rogers, the night-watch, that Davis said he had found money. Mr. Ferrell hung Davis up and bucked and gagged him. He (Ferrell) told Davis that he would let out any of the prisoners that he would name and pay costs for them if Davis would inform him where the money was. He hung Davis up clear of the ground. I have been hung up twice since I have been in the work-house; saw Davis, Buffalo, Gorham, Robinson and Frances Taylor hung up; have never seen any other punishment than bucking and gagging. Am fed and clothed well.

DR. FORREST'S STATEMENT. Dr. Forrest, physician, called to see Davis, said: I was sent for to see Davis some five or six days after the alleged cruel treatment. He was not as bad off as he made out. He had not had a passage in six days, so he told me, and appeared to be very sore in the bowels. I gave him an emesis and some cathartic pills and visited him a day or two afterwards, and found him much improved. I have never heard of a case where constipation of the bowels were produced by hanging up. He (Davis) had hernia, not strangulated, but reducible hernia. Davis said he had had it for several years. I can tell an old man from a new case of hernia, hanging up would have a deleterious effect. I examined Davis and found on y one mark that looked anything like whipping, and that might have been produced by some other cause.

SUPERINTENDENT FERRELL'S STATEMENT.

F. M. Ferrell, the superintendent of the workhouse, said: In March, I was informed by the guard that one of the prisoners (Davis) had found a box of money in the new ground. Davis denied having found any money. Buffalo said Davis had found money, for he (Buffalo) had seen it. I tied Davis and Buffalo, and after a while they said they would get it. They went to the new ground, to a clay root, but could not find it. They said Alfred Gorham had stolen it, and I hung him up. I hung up Davis and Buffalo, and bucked and gagged Davis. I hung up Frances Taylor and George Robinson. Davis was not struck a lick either by me or by the guard. I got the usual punishment of bucking and gagging from the former superintendent of the workhouse, J. H. Ferguson, under instructions from the chairman of the present board of commissioners.

ISAAC HOLDERFIELD'S STATEMENT. Isaac Holderfield, white guard, said: Davis said he found money, and John Thompson told the night watch; when asked where it was, said it was in the new ground under a clay root. When taken there, he could not find it, and he was hung up and bucked and gagged; he was not whipped. I have been guard at the work house for several years. I bucked and gagged Buffalo while guard under Mr. Ferguson for setting the jail on fire, and he was hung up off and on for a whole day. Hanging up and bucking and gagging was the usual mode of punishment.

BENJAMIN MATHE'S STATEMENT. Benjamin Mathe, white guard, said: Mr. Ferrell asked Davis about finding the money; he denied finding it. Buffalo said he (Davis) had found it, for he (B.) had seen it. Davis and Buffalo were tied, and, after awhile, said they would get the money, that it was under a clay root but could not find it, and Mr. Ferrell hung up Buffalo and Davis and gagged Davis. The prisoners are well fed. Bucking and gagging is the usual mode of punishment.

WESTON ROGERS'S STATEMENT. Weston Rogers, white, night-watch, said: I am night-watch. Thompson told me there was a large amount of money found; I reported it to Mr. Ferrell. Mr. F. asked Davis where the money was, when he (Davis) denied having found any. Davis said he made the box in jail himself. I have never seen a prisoner whipped. Hanging up does not disable a person. I have never seen Davis or any other person hung up clear of the ground. Treatment of prisoners is not barbarous. After hearing the foregoing statement of the board came to the conclusion that, having carefully and patiently investigated the alleged cruel treatment of prisoners by the superintendent, he had not been guilty of inflicting any cruel or unusual punishment, and had done nothing that would justify the commissioners in removing him from his position as superintendent.

W. W. WHITE, Clerk Board of Commissioners.

THE CAROLINA CENTRAL RAILWAY. Messrs. Wright & Steidman, attorneys for the first mortgage bondholders of the Carolina Central Railway Company, have filed a petition in the superior court of this county for foreclosure of the mortgage by which the bonds are secured. They, at the same time, applied to Judge McKoy for receivers, and we learn that an order has been made appointing Dr. C. H. Roberts, the president of the road, Isaac B. Grainger, of this city, and Andrew V. Stout, president Shoe and Leather National Bank, of New York, the receivers. A bond of fifty thousand dollars was required by the judge, which was promptly given, and the road has been turned over to the receivers appointed. We learn that all just indebtedness to the employees of the road will be paid by the receivers. The fact that the president of the road has been appointed one of the receivers shows that these proceedings have been instituted from no distrust of the officials, or lack of confidence in their management.—Star.

For days before the election in Connecticut the Hartford Courant, owned and edited by General Joseph R. Hawley, the president of the centennial commission, burst into an eruption of paragraphs, of which the following is a specimen: "To vote the democratic ticket is to vote for Ben Hill, the defender of the Andersonville horrors, a leader of the democratic party in congress." It strikes us that General Joseph R. Hawley ought to be invited to step down and out from his position as the head of the centennial, the principal aim and object of which we are told is to reunite the sections that were lately at war, and begin the second century of the republic's birth with feelings of fraternal love and friendship among all its citizens. Is this to be the policy of General Hawley's paper during the next campaign?—Ec hange.

Cousin Ben is not obliged to go to the centennial, and if he does, he is not obliged to call Hawley brother.

A WIFE DRIVING HER HUSBAND TO SUICIDE.—Thomas L. D. Bell, son of the late Alderman Bell, of New York, committed suicide on Saturday by taking poison. A letter addressed to "whom it may concern," was found on his person. In this he gives as a reason for the deed the manner in which his wife goaded him for money to supply her extravagant desires. She charged with keeping him awake at night harassing him about dress.—N. Y. Sun.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

MEASURES EDITORS: Through your paper permit me to suggest to the democratic party, Mr. Peter M. Wilson, of Warren county, for superintendent of public instruction. Mr. Wilson is a young man of fine talent and education, and in addition to having enjoyed the advantages of the best American schools and colleges he is a graduate, M. A., of Edinburg and Paris universities, and thus has a splendid knowledge of the best educational systems. From natural impulses he has devoted himself to the cause of education; he would therefore bring into the office the finest talent, deep interest in the work, extraordinary personal knowledge and observation of best American and European school systems, and it is but right that North Carolina should take advantage of, encourage and reward his talent and exertions. The young men of the party, who are never found wanting when the battle rages, would be pleased to be represented in one of the state departments, and would be highly gratified with Peter M. Wilson as superintendent of public instruction. P. B. M.

SUCCESS IN ADVERTISING. In times past it was thought impossible to proclaim the excellence of one's goods, or to solicit patronage for them in newspapers. During the past twenty-five years through the immense competition in trade, it has become a necessity. The public are always anxious to learn of progress, but are equally desirous to avoid all frauds, as they have been humbugged by useless wares until they have become skeptical of an article possessing genuine merit, and are particularly prejudiced against startling announcements of some new and wonderful medicine without character or worth. Still the public are grateful to manufacturers or inventors of articles of merit, even if known as medicines; many of them are the result of years of careful study by our most eminent physicians, and embrace such principles and products as Quinine, Chloroform, Chloral Hydrate, Porus Plasters, &c.

Success in advertising depends much upon the intrinsic worth of the article itself even though it be a medical preparation. As an evidence of this, a celebrated physician of New York made a great improvement in Porus Plasters by adding Caprine on account of its giving increased effect and quicker relief and cure than any known medicinal property; he hesitated about advertising, fearing his reputation would be injured. A firm of Pharmaceutical chemists in his city learning of this decided improvement, made an arrangement with his physician and commenced advertising in the best newspapers; in a short time the sale increased from hundreds to thousands until now the sale of Benson's Caprine Plasters is exceedingly large and daily increasing. They can be obtained of any Druggist at 25 cents each.

TOMMY STRONG.—We learn from the Asheville Pictorial that on Wednesday last Thos. W. Strange, Esq., who killed James Muir two miles the other side of Asheville, in September last, was transferred from the jail in Haywood county to the jail in Asheville. His imprisonment is shared by a younger brother, who has been with him a long time since the homicide was committed. His room, which is on the second floor, south-east corner of the building, is nicely furnished, and with an ample supply of books and newspapers, he passes off the monotonous hours incident to his situation. His trial will take place at the approaching term of the superior court.
