A CALL FOR A COUNTY CONVENTION.
At a meeting of the Wake county executive committee of the democratic party, held on Saturday, April 15, 1876, as chairman of said committee I was instructed to call a county convention of the democratic-conservative voters of Wake county, to be held in Raleigh at the court-house on Saturday, the 10th day of June, at 12 o'clock m., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the state and congressional district conventions, and to consider the propriety of then bringing out candidates for public offices. I was further instructed at said meeting to call upon the chairmen of the various township committees to have meetings in their townships on the 27th day of May in order to send delegates to this convention.
W. W. JONES, Chm'n.

NOTICE—Hiram Lodge will meet promptly at the old building, corner of Dawson and Morgan streets, Monday evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock. The members are all requested to attend.
ALDERMEN—The democrats and conservatives of the 2d and 4th wards should lose no time in bringing out tickets composed of strong and acceptable men. Hold your meetings at once and bring out your tickets despite Greasy Sam's absurd mandamus and injunction. If the city is allowed to go back into radical hands property-holders might as well sell their property for what they can get for it, or give it away in order to keep from being taxed to death.
EASTER EGGS—To boil the eggs in coffee grounds will make them a beautiful brown. Onion skins make them very pretty; tie each egg up in a piece of white rag to keep the onion skins tightly round the egg. Another way is to wrap pretty pieces of colored cotton or china, or any kind of stuff from which the color will readily run out round the eggs, and boil them very hard.

ALICE TURNER—This worthy colored man, so well known to the older citizens of Raleigh, was for a number of years a faithful servant at the capitol. During the past few years he has turned his attention to the ministry, and is now laboring among his race in the vicinity of Smithfield as a Methodist preacher. Alice always bore the character of a worthy man in this community, and we hope that he will do great good among his people.
THAT QUO WARRANTO—This morning Judge Fowler, of counsel for the present city authorities, in the superior court, entered a motion to set aside the quo warranto sued out by Governor at Raleigh. The motion was made on the ground that there were two causes of action joined in the same complaint, growing out of different transactions, in that the mayor was elected to fill a vacancy, and the aldermen were chosen by the people. The tenure of the different defendants being based on different grounds of claim. At the hour of going to press the motion had not been argued.

INFORMATION WANTED—We want to know by what right the county authorities refuse to pay a witness who has been regularly subpoenaed to attend court on the ground that he resides near the court-house. If this witness should be called and fail to put in an appearance, he is liable to a heavy fine, besides the law regulating the pay of witnesses makes no distinction as far as per diem is concerned between those who reside in the city, and near the court house, and those who live at a distance. We ask this question because we hear of a witness at the last term of the Wake superior court being refused payment of his ticket, for which he paid 15 cents, because he happened to do business near the court-house.
MEETING OF THE COUNTY DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—The democratic executive committee of Wake county met to-day, at 12 m., in the office of Jones & Jones, W. W. Jones, chairman, presided. It was resolved to call a county convention on the 10th of next June, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the state and congressional district conventions and to consider the propriety of their nominating candidates for county offices. It was further resolved to call upon the chairmen of the different township committees to call meetings in their several townships on the 27th of May for the purpose of sending delegates to the county.

FOUR SWARMS OF BEES—On Wednesday last Edward Chapell, 89 years of age, witnessed what he never saw before. About 9 o'clock a swarm of bees came out and pitched upon a scaffold built over his potatoes. In a few minutes a second swarm pitched upon the first, and then a third upon the second and a fourth upon the third. His son, John Y. Chapell, was engaged in hiving the four swarms made their flight for the woods. They will be sorry for it when they have lived a year in a dirty hollow tree instead of a nice bee house. Edward Chapell, in his old age, has found out that bees, like men, will sometimes do wrong.

MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE 7TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT—The democratic executive committee for the 7th congressional district, met at the call of Gen. S. H. Walkup, chairman, in Monroe, on the 11th April, 1876, at 12 o'clock m., and was duly organized by requesting B. C. Cobb, Esq., to act as secretary.
Upon calling the roll of counties it was found that the following counties were represented by the gentlemen named below:
Union, Gen. S. H. Walkup, chairman; Anson, Col. R. T. Bennett; Gaston, Col. W. A. Stone; Lincoln, B. C. Cobb, Esq.; Mecklenburg, W. J. Yates; Richmond, Col. W. L. Steele.
On motion of W. J. Yates, the following members of the press (present in the town) were invited to sit with the committee, as corresponding members:
W. C. Wolfe, Monroe Enquirer; L. L. Polk, Ansonian; N. Knight and Dr. Harlow, N. C. Argus; R. A. Shotwell, Southern Home; John Duckett, Rockingham Courier; E. R. Liles, Pee Dee Herald; W. J. Boylin, Concord Register.
It having been suggested that other members of the committee might arrive during the day from counties not represented, the committee adjourned until 8 o'clock p. m.
8 O'CLOCK, P. M.—The committee met according to adjournment. Present, same members as were in attendance at morning session.
The chairman having stated the business of the meeting to be the selection of a time and place for holding the convention of the district, it was, on motion, determined, after full and free discussion, that at the convention of the democratic party of the 7th congressional district be called to meet in Wadesboro on Wednesday, the 7th day of June, 1876, to nominate a candidate for congress, and that the several counties be requested to send delegates at said time to said place.
The thanks of the committee were, on motion, tendered to the chairman and secretary.
Committee then adjourned subject to call of the chairman.
S. H. WALKUP, Chairman.
B. C. COBB, Secretary.

SHEEP KILLING IN ORANGE COUNTY.
LITTLE RIVER, April 14, 1876.
Mr. Enron: I write to ask what can be done for the protection of sheep. Sheep are scarce in Orange while dogs are more abundant than greenbacks. John Riley lost seven sheep last week and killed three dogs. I have heard in the Chapel Hill township that Messrs. Tilly, Lloyd and Andrews lost sheep recently. Do you know, Mr. Editor, that I look for no marked improvement in agriculture until I see some law enforced for the protection of sheep. People who are not prepared to sustain a law protecting sheep against dogs are more inclined to hunt and idle than work steadily from day to day, as all thrifty farmers must do. Can't the editors discuss the matter and prepare the public mind for some action on this important subject?
Yours, in the interest of sheep, H.

THE BEST FERTILIZERS IN USE.

The Star Ammoniated
Mapes' Nitrogenized

SOLUBLE PHOSPHATE
SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

We have found by several years experience in selling the above Fertilizers, as well as by actual observation, that they have no superior, if any equal among Commercial Manures. Our prices are much lower than others, not so universal popular, and that have proven unequal in results, upon sworn statements from many of our best farmers. All we ask is a fair trial with anything sold in the South. We refer to the following gentlemen of large experience, who have used our Phosphates for several years:

JOHN AVERA, Johnston County.

DAVID ADAMS, " " " " "
JAMES PACE, Chatham County.
W. M. THOMAS, " " " " "

And many of hers who will gladly give their experience.
