Railroad fares, it is pretty generally contended, have not been reduced sufcontended, have not been reduced suf-ficiently low to promote general travel from all parts of the country to the centennial. The hotel people, who want crowded houses, certainly think so. If it could be arranged that only those going to the centennial could have the advantage of the low fares no doubt the railroads would be more ready to make larger reductions, but of course the same rates have to be given to all travelers. Every inducement, however, should be offered to set the people in motion, and at the same time have them feel that they are not indulging in extravagance.

-Cor. I. J. Young .- This gentleman feels aggrieved at the language credited to him in a local article which appeared in the Sentinel of the 20th, as coming from a speech in a republican meeting the night before. Col. Young says he advised the negroes to keep order and merely to present themselves to the registrars, as fast as they were appointed by the mayor, and insist upon register ing, as the time expired the next day. The colonel says he is borne out in this statement by democrats who heard the speech in question. We give Colonel Young the benefit of his denial.

FETE MUSICALE.-The ladies of St. John's (Catholic) church, of this city, will give a fete musicale at Metropolitan hall, Wednesday evening, April 26. The programme will be a most attractive one and the roles filled by those who can justly lay claim to high artistic ability and great grace of execution. Besides music, there will be refreshments proper to the season on hand. Tents, or booths, will be erected in the hall with tables furnishing edibles tempting to the palate, and attended by young ladies costumed in the peasant attire of various European countries. Flower girls containing exquisite bouquets will circulate, while a Gipsy fortune-teller will raise the veil of the future to the curious. The affair promises to be one of the most attractive of the kind ever given in this city, and should meet with a liberal patronage as the funds raised will be devoted to laudable purposes.

GUNS AND AMMUNITION.

AN EXPLANATION WANTED.

RALEIGH, April 22, 1876. Considerable excitement and discus-sion has occurred on our streets within the last day or two caused by the rumor that Adjutant-General Gorman, the would be mayor of the city, was arming, equipping and preparing the negroes for the purpose of disturbing the quiet of the city, creating a riot and taking forci ble possession of the city government. This created some alarm on the part of the more timid, and caused the white men of the city to rub up their old shot guns and such other weapons as they had and hold themselves in readiness for had and hold themselves in readiness for any emergency. The radicals deny that any such intention was ever entertained, and at first denied that any guns had been issued. The News interviewed the governor and he declared that if any runs had been issued to any colored military organization of this city, that it had been without his authority or any requisition ever having been made for that purpose. Now it turns out that guns have been issued, notwithstanding he ignorance of the governor, and the fact that his excellency was not consulted, and the other fact that the requisition did not take the usual course, seemed to justify the su-picion on the part of the law-abiding and peaceable citizens of this community that all was not right. Will some one rise and explain why, on Wednesday or Thursday, and while the excitement on the streets was at high pitch, and when crimioation and recrimination was violent and of constant occurrence, that a box said to con alu ammunition was sent from the arsen to Jim Jones, captain of the colored military organization of this city. There is abundant proof that such a box was sent.

A gentleman, of Bochester, New York, whose name is not made public, has expressed a purpose of giving to the University of Virginia, a cabinet of minerals worth $25,000, and $15,000 with which to erect a building for the exhibition and use of the collection, on condition that a fund of $12,000 is provided for its preparation and care.

If the constitution permitted, the New York Sun says, it might at once nominate Dom Pedre II, for president. 'He scorns being dead-headed, and hates fuss and feathers, rises betimes in the morning and sees things for himself." But it cannot be. Like truly good deacon Richard Smith, the ideal president, he is of foreign birth. More than that he is not even a naturalized citizen.

In the case of Philip A.
