

DISTRICT CONVENTION.—A convention of the Democratic-conservative voters of the Fourth Congressional District will be held in the city of Raleigh on Tuesday, the 13th day of June next for the purpose of electing a candidate for congress and a presidential elector, and selecting two delegates to the St. Louis Convention.

By order of the District Executive Committee. H. A. LONDON, J. A., Chairman. March 21st, 1876. Papers in the district will please copy.

This is an age of conventions. We are having them of all sorts and in the interest of every conceivable thing. The latest one in record is a call for a meeting of the German residents of Washington City to consider measures in reference to what is termed a unification of the German element in this country.

General Custer gave important evidence to the committee investigating the past-tradership frauds, and now President Grant has made him feel the weight of wrath for so doing by removing him from his command. This took place Monday, and when Sherman and Secretary of War Taft heard of it they waited on the President and protested against such action, but without avail.

Drunken Zach. Chandler, Secretary of the Interior, was before the House real estate investigating committee Saturday, being examined about the Mrs. Boggs business. His testimony showed that Grant is becoming more careful of his blated reputation than he was.

The prominent republican candidates for the nomination at Cincinnati are just now under a hot fire, and the best of it is that they are besmeared each other. Blaine, Bristow, Conkling and Morton are basting heaven and earth to convict each other of all sorts of corruption.

CATHOLIC DEDICATION AT SAVANNAH.—The new Catholic Cathedral was dedicated with imposing ceremonies Sunday morning. There was an immense attendance from other cities. Arch-bishop Bayley, of Baltimore; Bishop Quinlan, of Mobile; Lynch, of Charleston; Vest, of Augusta; Gibbons, of Richmond, and about thirty clergymen from all parts of the country were present.

BLACKENED BLAINE.—Mr. Blaine has risen to explain away that $64,000 from the Union Pacific, but the explanation went down. Even his friends are calling upon him for a more definite statement.

THE SOUTH AND THE PRESIDENCY.

The Wilmington Journal is a recent article upon the part the south will take at the St. Louis Convention, hits the nail fairly on the head when it says:

We are not prepared to say that the southern delegates to the National Convention will not take a decided stand in favor of some candidate, but it will not be until after they are convinced that he is the strongest man. We can and do appreciate the fact that our northern friends will be to some extent divided upon questions of finance, upon sectional and local prejudices and upon personal preferences, and that their judgments will be more or less biased by these considerations.

Massachusetts republicanism has enlarged its phylacteries, and its hat in the middle, and its necktie, and its swallow-tailed coat and a white necktie, thanked God that it is not as those corrupt Grantites, and the doxology, and to Cincinnati a delegation of clergymen and school-masters, headed by Watts Hyman and Webster's Dictionary.

The purification of the public service is to be reached by reform, set on foot by a reformer who joins to firm opinions the experience to know how and the courage to do. Governor Tilden has shown himself the man for the work, and he has that sort of strength which is essential to the first act of the drama—success at the ballot-box.

The Baltimore Gazette, of May 1, in speaking of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which is now in session in that city, says: The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will assemble in quadrennial session at the Academy of Music to-day, and will continue its labors during the greater part of the present month.

Excursions from Charleston, Macon, Augusta, Atlanta, Columbus, Dallas and other points, brought many visitors. Because a third party does not seem a possible thing in the present condition, it is none the less in many minds a most desirable thing.

RUPTURE CURED.—In from 30 to 90 days by the use of the Triumph Truss & Rupture Remedy manufactured by the Triumph Truss Co., 334 Bowery, N. Y. This Truss and Supporter took the Medal at the last session of the Great American Institute Fair. Send 10 cents for their new book.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The only thing that can be said with any approach to evidence about the presidential canvass is that Bristow's chances, if any may judge by the press, seem to improve.

Bristow appears in the character of a bellowing bull of Bashan. It is becoming as evident as a mule's ears that he would fain elevate his enemies upon his horns, and toss them into outer darkness and utter silence.

If the south can't get Hancock she will take Tilden, and if she can't get Tilden she will be well satisfied with Hancock. In fact, a ticket with both names—either Hancock and Tilden or Tilden and Hancock—would be perfectly satisfactory.

The interest charged against Bristow, that known as the Mary Merritt story, doesn't seem to stick any better than the previous ones. It has been traced directly to the whiskey ring, and at the worst does not prove corruption on the part of the secretary.

Of what President but Grant can it be said that, when a candidate for office, he went to New York and consulted with a noted political hanger as to how to defeat another party, and then ordered thirty or forty thousand dollars from the secret service fund put into his hands? How many other elections have been thus tampered with by presidential authority it is not difficult to guess.

Who shall go to St. Louis from Maryland? Let the democratic masses seriously ask themselves this question, and act accordingly. Let them remember that if they neglect to see to this matter for themselves, the trading politician will undertake the job, and fix things up to suit his own schemes and interests.

As between Bristow and Blaine, just as between Conkling and Morton, we desire to maintain a perfectly benevolent neutrality, but we cannot shut our eyes to the fact that Blaine's oratorical scouring has put him, ahead in the race, and will keep him there unless Bristow will condescend to drop his lofty Kentucky style, and admit that a man may allow himself to be investigated without thereby necessarily forfeiting his self respect.

There is nothing whatever in the solitary egg of a resolution which was laid by the convention to pledge the republicans of Massachusetts to reform above every other consideration. That contained no germ of life which promises the development of an active principle.

Postmaster-General Jewell will figure as Connecticut's "favorite son" in the Cincinnati Convention. Mr. Blaine as the "favorite son" of Maine. Mr. Conkling as New York's "favorite son." Mr. Bayard as the "favorite son" of Pennsylvania.

A ROMANCE OF RUSSIAN HISTORY.—The last direct descendant of a romantically famous historical house has just died in Saxo-Alenburg, at the age of ninety-three years. This was Jane-Catherine de Biron, Princess of Courland, Seimgaile and Segon.

The last direct descendant of a romantically famous historical house has just died in Saxo-Alenburg, at the age of ninety-three years. This was Jane-Catherine de Biron, Princess of Courland, Seimgaile and Segon. She was the daughter of the last reigning Duke of Courland, and was born in 1773, and in 1801 married Prince Pignatelli de Belmonte, Duke of Acconza, in Naples, who left her a widow many years ago.

his imperial mistress the despotic and the terror of Russia, and the nobles of Courland were frightened by him into electing him their sovereign Duke, Anna, at her death, made him Regent of the Empire. But the Russian aristocracy under Field Marshal Munich conspired against and overthrew him, and he was sent to Siberia.

The island of Biron is still preserved in the celebrated French family of Talleyrand by the families of Napoleon-Louis, Duke of Talleyrand, Comandant, and Valency, whose mother was a sister of the Princess Jane-Catherine; and of his brother, the Marquis Talleyrand-Perigord, whose eldest son and heir, the Marquis Maurice Talleyrand, married some years ago, at Nice, Miss Elizabeth Curtis, of New York.—N.
