We do not make any charges, but can't help remarking upon the seeming disinclination to make this statement public. If there is a good reason for this delay, dating back to 1873, we should like to know what it is, and we should like to know the status of the bonds of the Society recently issued.

executive committee of the Democratic-Conservative party of wake county to give notice that there will be held a convention of the Democratic-Conser-vative voters of the county at the court-bouse on the 10-h day of June next at house on the 10 h day of June next at 12 m., for the purpose of sending deledistrict conventious and to consider the propriety of nominating candidates tor public offices. Fam further instructed to call upon the chairmen of the various township committees to hold meetings in their respective townships on the 27th day of May, in order to appoint delegates to this convention. W. W. Joxes, Chm'n.

Mrs. V. E. Pell, widow of Rev. W. E. Pell, at one time editor of this paper, with this view, engaged a wagon which was to come to the hotel for them at seven o'clock in the morning. It did not arrive until nearly ten o'clock. Just before its arrival Mr. Lilly, who was in the several degrees.

THEN. C. AGRICGITURAL SOCIETY. It seems that the committee appointed by the citizens meeting to make up and publish an exhibit of the affairs of the State Agricultural Society for some reason did not serve, and the matter was turned over to Capt. Virginius Ballard, an expert, and a gentleman of well known integrity. If our information is correct, Capt. Ballard fluished his task a month ago, and yet it has not been given to the public. This publicahours notice the evening before, and there was no good excuse for the delay at that time. Young Murray, who it will be remembered was the driver that Mr. Herrin had sent with his wagon, at this juncture, jumped out of the wagon, and said that they had not had the five hours notice attaded to by Strauge, and that Strauge ha ded to by Strauge, and that Strauge and fied. So auge considered this a reflection upon, and demanded to know of Murray if his ungentlemanly language was meant for him (strange.) Murray promptly responsed that it was, where upon Strange gathered up a chair and attempted to strike Murray with it. Parties interposed and a difficulty was prevented. After the affair had been quieted down the whole party started quieted down the whole party started fishing excursion, Strange and several others of the party getting into the wagon driven by aurray. The purty drove on until diener, when they halted The minutes of the meeting when they organized the morning, after the election were read, showing that at that meeting they had elected Basil C. Manly Mayor, and George Williams, off to get the broken down vehicle re paired, the balance of the party r-main-ing where the hack had broken down, which was some fifty-eight pards further up the road. Just at this point the road makes a very swiden turn and the party at the broken down back could not see Murray and his wagon, although sepa-rated by se-bort a di-tanca. Strange walked to where the wagou was and if a short time the party heard the crack of a pistol and rushing up the road they found Murray shot and in a dying condition. He did not speak a word except to say that "I'm shot," when he sank down in the road and expired.

Strange alleged that he had shot Murray, but that he had only shot him in self defences a During the evening strange was arrested and carried to jail in Waynesville. The next day he was arraigned before a magistrate and the case was sent on to the Superior Court of Haywood county for trial.

At the fall term of the Haywood Superior Court a true bill was tound. The case was than moved to Buncombe, where the trial resulted as above stated.

The House of Representatives, Tuesday, unanimously adopted a resolution, offered by Mr. Lamar, of Mississippi, rescinding and expunging so much of the resolution of censure of Hon, John Young Brown, of Kentucky, passed by the last Congress, as charged him with provatication in his controversy with tien. Butler, of Massachusetts. In seconding the resolution Mr. Blaine paid a tribute to Mr. Branch paid a tribute to Mr. Brown's high character and sustained his veracity. The House has but performed an act of justice in expunging a record which never could have gone upon the journal except through strong party feeling. -Baltimore Sun.

Of course Blaine will rejoice that he is to have an opportunity of completely vindicating himself before a committee of the House, which has been ordered to inquire into the possession by the Union Pacific Railroad Company of those Little Rock and Fort Smith railroad bonds. He made a strong ex parte defense before the House, and though he didn't seem to hanker after an investigation, cannot fail to perceive now how much better he will stand before the country after the charges agains him shall have been thoroughly sifted and exploded.—Philadelphia Times.
