NEWS AND NOTES

Dr. T. Sterry Hunt has declined the professorship of geology and mineralogy in the University of Cincinnati recently offered him by the Board of Trustees. Mr. John W. Garrett, of Baltimore, Md., has given $15,000 to the Peabody Institute in that city to be used in purchasing statuary and paintings for the art gallery now building.

The Sunday school of the Salisbury Street Baptist church are soon to have a picnic. The time and place will be decided upon Sunday. The children of the Person Street Methodist Sunday school had a good time yesterday at their picnic at Penny's mill in spite of the frequent showers.

The following Past Grands were announced as being entitled to the Grand Lodge degree: J. H. Harris, B. C. Manly, John B. Hill, James Partam, W. B. Hutchings, Jacob Rosenbaum, T. W. Blake, J. E. Evans, T. L. Love, George Zeigler, B. S. Townsend, O. L. Baker, John C. Kock, J. H. Benner, Joseph L. Keene and J. F. Haskins.

Mr. Webster once said of the heroes of Bunker Hill, that the "record of their illustrious actions was most safely deposited in the universal remembrance of mankind." This graceful tribute may be applied with equal propriety to our heroes of the south.

Col. Jno. M. Robinson.—This distinguished gentleman arrived in our city this morning in his beautiful palace car, attached to the regular train. This car has recently been completed in the shops of the R. & F. R. R., Richmond, Va. We are glad to see him looking well and in his usual good spirits.

THE GRAND ENCAMPMENT.—Yesterday afternoon the Grand Encampment of the I. O. O. F. elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Wm. Howard, of Salisbury, M. W. Grand Patriarch; J. B. Palmountain, of Tarboro, Grand High Priest; Thomas J. Latham, of Newbern, Grand Senior Warden; Richard J. Jones, of Wilmington, Grand Scribe and Treasurer; J. F. Hoskins, of Greensboro, Grand Junior Warden; John Taylor, of Goldsboro, Grand Sentinel; Charles M. Busebe, of Raleigh, Grand Representative to the Grand Lodge of the United States.

A WORD OF WELCOME.—Mr. George B. Ennis, of this city, has, as we announced a few days ago, succeeded Capt. T. C. Evans as local editor of the Daily News. We extend to Mr. Ennis the right hand of fellowship and bid him a hearty welcome into the ranks of the reporter's fraternity.

A telegraph wire is soon to be placed along the line of the Western N. C. railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, of Forsyth county, will soon celebrate their golden wedding.

The Presbyterians of Wadesboro have made arrangements to have preaching twice a month.

The Wilmington papers are bent on centennial reminiscences. They are too long and prosy to republish.

A bill has been introduced into the U. S. House of Representatives to establish a marine school at Wilmington.

Molly McRea, col., died in Charlotte the other day and 13 children, 30 grandchildren and 38 great-grandchildren mourned her demise.

The store of Myrick & May, at Church Hill, Warren county, was destroyed by fire Wednesday night. Origin of fire unknown and insurance $1,500.

Smith, the man who recently committed the horrible double murder in Stokes county, was recently pursued by the sheriff of the county, but managed to escape after being fired upon and wounded.

Hos. T. S. Ashe has not declined a re-nomination in the 6th congressional district. We are glad to hear this. Mr. A. makes a faithful and acceptable representative and should be re-nominated and re-elected.

MOVED HERE.—Judge Seymour, now presiding at the Orange county Superior Court has removed Swenson's case to this county and it will come up for trial at the spring term. The defendant made an affidavit that he believed that he couldn't get a fair trial in Orange, and Judge Seymour, owing to Judge Kerr's inability to try the case, had two counties to choose between, Wake and Granville. This county was chosen from the fact that the Sheriff of the latter county was a cousin to the late A. G. Moore.

The defendant was bound over in a bond of $10,000, R. Y. McAden and W. F. Askew becoming securities. This trial was moved by the State from Alamance to Orange, and now it is travelled here by the defendant.
