This morning the Sunday School of the Edenton Street Methodist church got off on their picnic to Kittrells in fine style. The Citizen's Cornet band went along.

This morning about 5 o'clock the alarm of fire rang out. It was caused by the burning of a blackam in a shop on the corner of Hargett and Blount streets. It caught accidentally. The fire was discovered in time to be extinguished before any damage was done.

Momford McGehee, Esq., of Person county, will deliver an address upon the life and character of the late Hon. W. A. Graham, in this city, Thursday evening, June 8th. The address will be delivered in the hall of the House of Representatives.

AN OLD TALKER.—Yes, he is gone—departed this life—bid adieu to "time and timely things"—and now quietly "sleeps the sleep that knows no waking." He has finished his course, performed well his part in the great drama of life, and now rests from his labors.

ANOTHER MANDAMUS.—We learn that Judge Watts, of this district, will soon hear argument at chambers, in Salisbury, for a mandamus compelling the directors of the penitentiary to cancel their convict contract with the Spartanburg & Asheville Railroad Co., with a view of putting the woe's force to work on the Western North Carolina railroad.

DEATH OF MRS. SALLIE STEPHENSON.—We regret to announce the death of this aged lady. She died last night at the residence of her son, Col. L. G. Stephenson, 3 miles south of this city, after an illness of about three days.

INVENTION BY A BLIND BOY.—Walter McCarty, of McDowell county, a pupil in the Institution for the deaf and dumb and blind, has invented a machine for splitting shucks for mattresses. The machine was built entirely under his directions.

THE VENERABLE WILLIAM CALLEN BRYANT said at the fair of the Young Women's Christian Association of New York, Thursday evening, that he had been asked to read his centennial ode, but as he had not written an ode he could not comply.

RETRO-PECTION.

In gazing back upon the pleasures scattered o'er the past's broad plain, Who does not cherish memory's treasures.

Who does not dream them o'er and o'er, And every sense in memory give To happy hours that are no more.

Some joyous hours may come again, Amidst the scenes of future days, And pleasure's cup be yet to drain.

Who does not sometimes turn and throw A wistful, longing, backward glance? The pleasures past were sweet, we know, While those to come are but a chance.

Ramsay Heard F.O.M.—Ramsay is on a sojourn in Louisiana. He is on the war-path for "books." The New Orleans Times, in its issue of the 14th, has this to say about him:

The visit of Theodore N. Ramsay to this state has been fruitful in the establishment of a number of lodges of the I. O. G. T. Mr. R. arrived here about three weeks ago from Raleigh, N. C., and immediately opened a temperance campaign, the results of which testify to his force and efficiency as a lecturer.

We understand this gentleman, in his native state, North Carolina, devotes his entire time to the cause of temperance. When he came to this city, there were but two working lodges, and he returns home with the satisfaction that he has accomplished much for the order of Good Templars. There are now ten subordinate lodges in the state, which will authorize the immediate organization of a State Grand Lodge.

THE BOSTON SENTIMENTALISTS pay little attention to murderers that have killed one person. But a downright fiend that kills scores or four is to them a beautiful psychological study.

THE MAHARAJA OF FEETALA, whose splendid jewels attracted such attention during the Prince of Wales' visit to India, died recently in an epileptic fit. His eldest son, aged five, succeeds him.

Among the 252 stamps that have been lodged in the station house at Stockbridge, Mass., during the past five months, have been Andrew Jackson, Dan Rice, George Washington, John Rogers, Stephen A. Douglass, Andrew Johnson, and John C. Fremont.

MISS ALICE BROWN has preferred a charge of bastardy against Rev. James Stephenson, a Methodist minister of Piquette, Ohio. The statue requires, but Mr. Stephenson waived a cross examination and entered into a bond of $300 for his appearance at court.

AN OLD LADY had married a young and rather fast man. On one occasion, shortly after their marriage, the husband was about to set off on a journey. His wife accompanied him to the railway station, and there bade him adieu.

THE VENERABLE WILLIAM CALLEN BRYANT said at the fair of the Young Women's Christian Association of New York, Thursday evening, that he had been asked to read his centennial ode, but as he had not written an ode he could not comply.

TAR DROPS.

Prices in tobacco are advancing in Oxford. The wheat crop in Gaston county is a good one.

A pugilistic owl is one of the curiosities of Newbern. New Hanover county had only 2 couples to marry last week.

A new mail schedule has been adopted on the Carolina Central railway. Revivals are going on in the Methodist and Baptist churches in Newbern.

Mr. P. Piver recently captured a black fish 7 feet long, 6 miles north of Cape Lookout. It is said that Hon. J. J. Yeates will be renominated in the first district by acclamation.

Col. J. P. Thomas delivers the address at the celebration of the "20th" in Charlotte. The residence of Mr. Pettaway, of Wilmington, was burglarized the other night of $36 in cash.

Walter J. Boylin, editor of the Concord Register, is going to publish a paper at Albemarle, Stanly county. A white man professing to be a school teacher has been swindling and robbing the niggers of Mecklenburg county.

The radicals of the 6th congressional district have appointed R. M. N. a delegate to the Cincinnati Convention. Daniel Foy has been lodged in jail at Wilmington, charged with the receipt of John Zimmerman, of Perdue county.

A Mr. Smith, aged 70 years, recently committed suicide near Margaretville, Northampton county, by hanging himself to the limb of an apple tree. Some of the young men of Oxford have formed a dramatic association and will soon give an entertainment.

R. B. Hatch, of Duplin county, was murdered in January last while sitting in his house, and now his two sons, aged 17 and 19 years, together with a negro man, are under arrest charged with having committed the crime.

INDISPUTABLE EVIDENCE.—ST. ELMO, Ill., July 8, 1874. R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.:—I wish to add my testimony to the wonderful curative properties of your Alt. Ext., or Golden Medical Discovery. I have taken great interest in this medicine since I first used it.

The Boston sentimentals pay little attention to murderers that have killed one person. But a downright fiend that kills scores or four is to them a beautiful psychological study.

The New York Times says that very few people in this country have any positive knowledge as to Mr. Adams' political sentiments. He is believed to be very wealthy and very learned and very wise; but impressions concerning him are exceedingly vague, and there is almost a universal ignorance in regard to his opinions upon the leading questions of the day.

The Memphis Appeal says that the patriots of all sections beg and beseech the southern Bourbons not only to let the original secessionists and the resolutions of 1863 alone, but to discontinue the disreputable habit of showing that slavery and secession will never be revived and that the Confederate war debt will never be paid.

Owing to the great pressure of work upon the different bur aus charged with the installation of objects, it has been impossible to attach to exhibits a number corresponding with the numbers in the official catalogue. This will be at once undertaken and as quickly as possible completed.
