A large crowd left this morning to attend the commencement exercises at Wake Forest College.

The closing exercises of ovejoy's Academy will take place Thursday. The public are invited to attend.

Dr. R. M. Norment, of Robeson couny, a member of the lower House of the last General Assembly, is in the city. Our streets were crowded to-day. The on of the two courts-State Supreme and U. S. Circuit—have drawn a large number of visitors to the city.

There was a meeting of the Board of the County Commissioners yesterday. No business of general public interest was transacted. A number of accounts were andited.

A SQUALL FROM RENTERS .- A number of our business men who rent the premises they occupy have joined in a petition to landlords to reduce rents We hope the reduction will take place, not only in business houses but in residences also. For some time past property in this city has been held at prices much above its real value, and rents have been extortionately high. This state of affairs has given much trouble and distress to the poor. Even hovels, hardly fit to litter pigs in, have been held at from $5 to $8 per month. Rents should be reduced in all directions. Here is the petition in question :

We, the undersigned me rchants, doing business in the city of Raleigh, being tenants (or renters) paying high rents for the stores we occupy, petition our landlords for a reduction of reat, owing to the scarcity of money in circulation, the duliness of trade, and future prospects. We, after due consideration, deem it advisable to ask a reduction of fifteen per cent. in our rents for the balance of the present year.

EVERYTHING LOVELY .- What bright and glorious weather for the excursion next Thursday. Wake county will never be better represented on a pleasure trip. There's Cary and Apex, and Oak Grove, New Hill, Dayton, Mark's Creek, Cedar Fork, St. Mary's, all agog, and bound to be there; while Chatham and Granville and Johnston, in fact everybody that's lonesome, and his stuck to hard work for about 12 months to keep off the blue devils and the poverty hounds from barking, all want to go and wash off home ennul with a dip into the sea, "Roll on, thou deep blue ocean, roll," we will all be there-God to quiet and pleasant accommodations, willing-and the excursion train to start at small cost. about the second jump of the sun, on Thursday morning next. FLORAL CONTRIBUTIONS.—The Corres pending Secretary of the Ladies Memorial Association of Petersburg, Va., Mrs. J. M. Wyche, calls upon the ladies of Raleigh for contributions of flowers with which to decorate of the hundreds of graves of North Carolina soldiers in and around that city. In making this request Mrs. Wyche beautifully and truthfully says :

"It is meet that Carolina's daughters should strew with her fairest blossoms this city of our dead, for along its silent walks sleep many of her noblest and bravest, for as a state she is now more largely represented here than any of her southern sisters."

Next Friday is Memorial Day in Petersburg, and those of this city who intend to send flowers should have their packages at the Express office Thursday morning, addressed to Mrs. J. M. Wyche, Corresponding Secretary L. M. A., Petersburg, Va.

THE WOMEN, THE WOMEN. - The WO men, the women, the salt to save this world, or it can't be saved at all. They are the best workers God has in the field. Here's a society, a sewing society, only started last September, and in that time, just a few women, working with their needles, have made enough ready cash to step up to the men and say, "Come, let's pay this church out of debt; we owe $700. If you men will pay the rest, we, the ladies, will pay one hundred dollars of it cash down." The men said, "Good, we'll do it," and they walked swiftly home and forgot all about it. > THE N. C. PRESS ASSOCIATION. -Col. J. D. Cameron, President of this Association, is out in a card calling for meeting in this city on the evening of the 14th. They didn't have enough at the recent meeting at Newbern to determine where they would attempt to have another gathering of the clan. This is Colonel Cameron's card :

There was a failure to obtain a quorun at the late Convention at Newbern. A resolution adopted by the few members present requested the President to issue a card for a meeting to be held in the city of Raleigh on the evening of the 14th inst., with a view to ascertain if it was the purpose of the press of the state to keep the Association alive, and if so to determine the place of its next annual meeting. With a view of deter-mining these facts, and also to transact which ought to have been com oleted at Newbern, I invite a meeting of the members of the press to be held in this city on the evening of the 14th inst., at a place to be hereafter deter-J. MR. BATTLE ACCEPTS-YE GLORIOUS iru.-K. P. Battle, Esq., has accepted the invitation extended to him by the committee on the part of the Board of Aldermen to deliver the address July 4th. As long as we are going to return to the old-fashioned farcical custom of celebrating this day, we are very glad that such an accomplished and able gentleman as Mr. Battle has been selected as the orator. Mr. Geo. H. Snow has been invited to read the instrum at known as the Declaration of Independence, and we suppose he has accepted. As a young lawyer of ability and integrity no one in this section is ahead of Mr. Snow. He always performs well all the duties assigned him. But we are very torry this lying, demagogical document is again to be read in public, in our midst, as worthy of respect and preservation. Here is Mr. Battle's letter accepting the invitation to be the orator of the occasion ; RALEIGH, N. C., June 3, 1876.

Hon. B. Manly, Chairman-Sin : Yours of this date notifying me that I have been elected by a commit-tee of the Board of Aldermen to deliver, on the 4th of July, 1876, an address re lating to the history of the city of Ral-eigh, is received. I accept the appoint ment with many misgivings. The time for executing properly a task so difficult is short. The material is not readily accessible. The destruction of the city records in 1865 makes it impracticable to procure many important facts, still such an address should be prepared by some one, and, although I am aware I cannot do the subject justice, I will cheerfully do my best to carry out the wishes of the Board. Thanking your committee for the compliment implied in their resolutions, I am truly yours, KEMP P. BATTLE.

U. S. CIBOUT COURT .- This morning Judge G. W. Brooks opened the U. S. Circ uit Court at 10 o'clock in the Metropolitan hall. A grand jury was drawn empanelled. The charge of his Honor, Judge Brooks, was an excellent one. It was to the point and comprehensive in every particular. This is a list of the grand jurors:

T. D. Martin, foreman, J. A. Powell, David Smith, T. N. Richardson, Giles Kornegay, C. J. Perkins, J. C. Stevens, N. S. Jinks, J. D. Massey, N. D. Williams, E. O. Macy, M Searborough, G. W. Norwood, H. B. Jordan, N. T. Edgarton, Albert Aycock, Thomas Howle, Jr., W. B. Hutchius and A. Ball, Fenner B. Hill officer of the Grand Jury.

No business of any interest to the general public was transacted, and about 12:30 the court adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

WAKE FOREST COMMENCEMENT.—The ommencement at Wake Forest begins to-day. Thursday evening there will be a rush from this city for that place. It is always the evening for promenading and courting, and as bright as the moon shines now at night there is no holding the young folks back. To accom date this demand in the pleasure market a special train will leave the Raleigh & Gaston depot exactly at 6:45 p. m. Be there sharp or you will be left. The same train will leave Wake Forest for Raleigh at one in the morning. Fare for the round trip 80 cts, and the young man who can't spend that has no busiman who can't sper ness after his girl.

> EDTTOR SENTINEL : As the time is fast approaching for our county convention, and some others have been mentioned for the office of Sheriff, allow 'me the privilege to suggest the name of B. Y. I do not know a man better qualified for the place, or one that could command a larger vote. Cirizes.
