THE WAKE COUNTY DELEGATES .- THE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT THE PRINTING OFFICE .- A printing CONVENTION.

> FULL ATTENDANCE-ROS. J. J. DA VIS RENOMINATED BY ACCLA-MATTON-HARMONY AND GOOD FEELING.

Under the most flattering auspices the democratic congressional district convention met infthis city to-day, at 12 o'clock m., in Metropolitan Half. Every county in the district had a delegation of able and representative men present. There seemed from the first to be a spirit of harmony and good feeling prevalent among the delegates, which even the most incorrigible croaker must recognize as the brightest of omens of another triumphant victory in the gallant old 4th district.

The convention was called to order by RALMON BAPTIST FEMALE SEMINARY. | the chairman of the District Democratic Executive Committee, Henry A. London, of Chatham. C. E. Parish, of Orange, was called to > the chair as temporary chairman, and T. C. Evans was appointed secretary. On motion of G. H. Suow, of Wake, the counties were called, and the follow ing responded : Chatham, Wake, Franklin, Granville, Johnston, Nash and

On motion of John A. Womack, of Chatham, a committee consisting of one from each county was appointed on permanent organization: Granville, N E Cannady; Franklin, W. A. Yarbrough; Chatham, John A Womack; Johnston, E J Holt; Orange, A W Graham; Nash, Sam'l T. Williams; Wake, L D Ste-

While the committee were out lond calls were made for A M Lewis, T C Fuller, D G Fowle, W R Cox and others, none of whom responded.

The committee on permanent organization, after a brief absence, returned and reported the following, which was

President C. M. Cook, of Franklin; Vice-Presidents, Thomas Webb, o Orange, J. A. Haywood, of Wake ; Dr. J. W. Vick, of Johnston ; T. B. Venable, of Granville; Dr. R. K. Smith, of Chatham; Jas. S. office is the best primary school in the land. The best "spellists" at all the spelling matches held throughout the country, during the late epidemic, were printers. As punctuators—that is-as the best judges to put in the commas, full points, colons, semi-colons, dashe script of writers for the press, they have proved the saviour of many a smart man's repu ation. We know of numerous shinutations, who are in lebted to the type at the case for the esteem in which they are held by the public. The type's igment as to the insertion of "dots," and the correction of bad spelling, has saved many a man from disgrace. We say this prefatory to the statement of a fact that was noted at Wake Forest College during the past session. Raleigh had three representatives at that institu tion who previously had a printin office experience, and they stood without poers at this excellent seat of learn ing in English composition—in spelling and in the construction of sentences, This was made so apparent as to be

On the 27th inst, the democratic On the 27th inst. the democratic National Convention will assemble at St. Louis. It will be composed of 738 members, 20 being the number of Alabama. Of the delegates, 226 will be from the castern states, 212 from the western states, 276 from the southern states, and 24 from the Pacific. Under the two being a rule 402 water will be the two-thirds rule 492 votes will be necessary to a nomination. It is not likely that any attempt to do away with that time-honored rule will prevail.

Two literary ladies were lately witnesses in a trial. One of them, upon hearing the usual questions asked, "What is your name?" and "how old are you?" turned to her companion and said: "I do not like to tell my age; not that I have any objection to its be-ing known, but don't want it published in all the newspapers." Well, said the witty Mrs. 8 ____, "I will tell you how to avoid it. You have heard the ection to all hearsay evidence; tell them you don't remember when you were born, and all you know of it is by heresay." The ruse took, and the question was not pressed.—New Orleans
