SUBSCRIBERS.

TO ALL OF THE LIVING SUBSCRIBERS AND READERS OF THE SENTINEL FROM ITS FOUNDATION:—

All persons now living, who have ever been subscribers and readers of the Sentinel since its establishment by the late and lamented Rev. Wm. E. Pell, are respectfully solicited to again become subscribers and readers of the paper. In everything that is desirable, we promise to make it equal to what the Sentinel ever was, either under the management of Mr. Pell or Mr. Turner.

ADVERTISERS.

TO THE OLD ADVERTISING PATRONS OF THE SENTINEL:—

The old patrons of the Sentinel in Raleigh are respectfully and earnestly solicited to resume business relations with the paper, and renew their contracts. It is especially desired to have them do so before the first of July, as the paper will on that date appear entirely renewed and perfectly restored. All advertisements handed in under such contracts, between this and July, will be published to that date free of charge.

Mr. John C. Syme, an old institution of the Sentinel is on hand, and will make contracts to date from the beginning of the last half year, with pleasure.

SUPREME COURT.—Court opened at 9 o'clock—all the Justices present.

Appeals from the 7th district were taken up and disposed of as follows:

Marmaduke Swain vs. Jhon McCullock, from Guilford. Argued by Gray & Stamps for plaintiff and Scott & Caldwell for defendant.

Joseph Harris vs. D. A. Jenkins, Public Treasurer and R. & A. Air Line R. R. Company, from Orange. Motion for certiorari, by defendant, disallowed. Papers handed up to court. (Adviseri at last term.) J. H. Fleming for plaintiff and Merrimon, Fuller & Ashe for defendants.

State vs Hannah Miller from Randolph; argued by Attorney General Hargrove for state and Tourgee for defendant.

Robt. Maynard vs M. P. Moore from Alamance; argued by E. S. Parker and J. R. Boyd for plaintiff and J. W. & J. A. Graham for defendant.

Court adjourns until to-morrow at 9 o'clock.

SHOOTING GALLERY.—We notice that friend Fraps does not intend to be outstriped by any one who is engaged in his line. He is now extending the dimensions of his shooting gallery and has introduced instead of the old Air Gun, a Percussion Gun with fixed ammunition a decided improvement, those who are fond of such sport and are out of practice will find it to their advantage to call at Fraps' and take a few lessons. He keeps a choice lot of refreshments, fluids, and eatables, and his ice cool Lager is unsurpassed.

MAYOR'S COURT.—The mayor's court manifested a little more life today. The following cases came up and were disposed of as follows:

Norman Allen, for violation of chapter 5 section 4 of city ordinance, fined $5.

Dock Hinton, for the same offence, fined $5.

Judy Jeffries, same offence, fined $5.

Mary Ann Parker, for cruelly beating an adopted child, fined $20 and costs.

Charles Ayers, James Carter, Chas. Davenport and C. P. Stello, arrested as vagrants, discharged.

THE SACRED CONCERT.—Owing to pressing engagements we were denied the pleasant privilege of attending this enjoyable entertainment, but we secured the services of a competent critic to furnish a full report for to-day's issue. As we are about to close the paper we have been much disappointed in learning that he was called off unexpectedly and could not comply with his engagement. We transfer to our columns the following report which we clip from the News:

Last night the Presbyterian church of this city was the scene of a musical affair long to be remembered by those who had the pleasure of enjoying it. The church was brilliantly lighted, and by 8½ o'clock was partially filled with a cultivated and highly appreciative audience, among whom were several of the clergy of the city, including the esteemed pastor of the church, the Rev. Dr. Vaughan.

The concert was opened with Pease's "Gloria in Excelsis," sung by the Presbyterian choir, consisting of Prof. Baumann, Mrs. Baumann, Mrs. Julius Lewis, Mrs. George C. Jordan, Mrs. Johnson Busbee, Leo. D. Heartt, W. S. Primrose, Walton Busbee and Geo. C. Jordan. It is needless to say that this piece was well sung.

The next programme was an organ solo—Bethoven's "Hallelujah Chorus," by Prof. Norman, a grand piece, and most effectively rendered. Madame Norman followed with a beautiful voice in a solo from Mendelssohn, entitled, "O, Rest in the Lord," a song admirably adapted to Madame Norman's rich deep contralto. This was succeeded by a quartette by Mrs. Baumann, Mrs. Jordan and Mr. Busbee, called, "Oh, for the Wings," after which Prof. Norman sung a splendid vocal solo, named "Shadow of the Cross." He displayed a remarkable clearness, richness and power of voice, and his rendition of this sweet melody excited much admiration. A glorious anthem, "Inflammatis" (Stabat Mater), by the Presbyterian choir; an organ solo, "Offertoire," by Prof. Norman; a quartette "Hear me O Father," by the choir, were all rendered in a manner that has rarely if ever been excelled in this city.

Madame Norman's vocal solo, "O Salutaris," was exquisite. It was par excellence the gem of the evening, and the rapt attention of the audience gave ample testimony to the charms of her rich-toned, melodious, finely cultivated voice.

In the "Triumphal March" an organ solo composed by Costa, Prof. Norman exhibited the complete mastery which he possesses over the organ, to the great delight of the audience. The entertainment was closed with a spirited anthem entitled "Jehovah's Praise" by the Presbyterian choir. Before the audience dispersed Dr. Vaughan announced that an operatic concert under the direction of Prof. Norman, assisted by Prof. Bauman and his choir, would be given on Friday evening in this city. The whole affair was very enjoyable, and those who failed to attend missed a rare treat.

Those who were so unfortunate as to miss this musical treat will have another opportunity to-morrow evening of enjoying it, as it is to be repeated for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Home.

We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. J. W. Eaton, special agent of the John Hancock Life Insurance Company. Mr. E. has been successfully assisting the agents in this state in perfecting their arrangements for a vigorous campaign. We always find the name of our old friend Finch at the masthead of first class insurance companies.

FASHION NOTES.

Sleeves for general wear are very close to the wrist, showing some dressy style of cuff.

Wide gros-grain ribbon sashes are worn tied low around the hips, and are fastened behind in a large bow.

Braid presents a great variety of models, in which wool and silk, mixed with gold, silver and steel, predominate. This braid is usefully employed for plain trimming, simple borders, or as heading to fringes.

A beautiful fichu worthy of description is made of organdie. It has the shape of a falling collar in the back and forms an open vest in front. A square "modestie" is worn in front, leaving the neck uncovered. The fichu is surrounded by insertions and fine shirrs alternating, bordered with lace and narrow ribbon drawn through the heading.

Alpaca rugs of English make are used by gentlemen when driving in their open wagons. They are gray, drab, or other dust shades, and are simply bordered with a row of blue or scarlet worsted braid an inch wide. Gray linen rugs of heavy quality are raveled all around to form a fringe. Toile de Vichy will be much worn this summer. Suits of this goods are to be trimmed with cotton fringe, colored damasse, cotton galloon, small bands embroidered or scalloped in white or colors, white and ecru guipure and Tunisienne lace. These suits to be really handsome must be made with as much care as is bestowed upon handsome lingerie; they must be well sewed, the flounces carefully trimmed or stitched, and the very close plaitings regularly and strongly fastened down.

STATE ITEMS.

A snake was killed at Atkinson's mill, Johnston county, a few days ago, which was thirteen inches in circumference, five feet ten inches in length, and weighing twenty-two pounds.

General regret is felt in this city at the announcement of the death at Asheville of Miss Josie Busbee, daughter of Rev. Mr. Busbee, of that town, and grand-daughter of Bishop Atkinson, a telegram being received here to that effect yesterday. Deceased was aged about 14 or 15 years, and was much beloved.—Star.

We learn that Rev. Johannes Oertel, specimens of whose genius have hitherto been examined and appreciated by our citizens, is engaged in painting the North Carolina Centennial flag, which the ladies of this state have contributed to prepare to send to Philadelphia, to be displayed in the North Carolina department of the great exhibition.—Star.

By special request Col. Kenan and Maj. Engelhard will address the people of Pamlico county at Stonewall, on the 4th of July, and Gov. Vance may make a few speeches in the east, but the canvass will not begin till after the 15th of July, when the candidates will go to work in earnest. Gov. Vance will probably speak first in Wayne. So says the Messenger.

The announcement was made in our last that J. J. Cassidey, Esq., had been removed from his position as United States Commissioner, by order of the U. S. Circuit Court, and that Mr. E. H. McElroy had been appointed in his place. Mr. Cassidey received a telegram yesterday morning, from T. J. Young, of Raleigh, saying, "You are reinstated; particulars by mail." Beyond this deponent sayeth not, at present, having nothing to say.—Star.

During the severe thunder storm that passed over this city, early Sunday morning, startling our drowsy citizens from their slumbers and making the timid shrink as the fearful peals rent the air and shook the very buildings on their foundations, the electric fluid descended upon the kitchen of Mr. John McLaurin, residing on the corner of Seventh and Orange streets, striking the chimney obliquely, glancing down the stove pipe, shivering it in several places, and scattering the utensils promiscuously about the room. Mr. McLaurin and his wife were awakened by the shock and found some of the rooms filled with smoke, accompanied by a strong sulphurous smell. It was at first thought that the building had been fired, but happily such was found not to have been the case. After passing through the stove the bolt took a cupboard in its course, breaking several articles, and then made its exit through the side of the kitchen, the plastering of which was considerably shattered.—Wilmington Star.

"FOR THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE."

See Deuteronomy, xii: 23. The blood being the source from which the system is built up, and from which we derive our mental as well as physical capabilities, how important that it should be kept pure! If it contain vile, festering poisons, all organic functions become enfeebled. Settling upon important organs, as the lungs, liver and kidneys, the effect is most disastrous. Hence it behooves all to keep their blood in a perfectly healthy condition, and more especially does this apply at this particular season of the year than at any other. No matter what the exciting cause may be, the real cause of a large proportion of all diseases is bad blood. Now, Dr. Pierce does not wish to place his Golden Medical Discovery in the catalogue of quack patent nostrums, by recommending it to cure every disease, nor does he so recommend it; on the contrary, there are hundreds of diseases that he acknowledges it will not cure; but what does he claim in this, that there is but one form of blood disease that it will not cure, and that disease is cancer. He does not recommend his Discovery for that disease, yet he knows it to be the most searching blood-cleanser yet discovered, and that it will free the blood and system of all other blood poisons, be they animal, vegetable, or mineral. The Golden Medical Discovery is warranted by him to cure the worst forms of skin diseases, and all forms of Blotches, Pimples, and Eruption; also all Glandula Swellings, and the worst form of Scrofulous and Ulcerated Sores of the Neck, Legs, or other parts, and all the Scrofulous Diseases of the Bones, as White Swellings, Fever Sores, Hip-joint and Spinal Diseases—all of which belong to Scrofulous diseases.

CONFIRMED—HIP-JOINT DISEASE CURED.

DR. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir: My wife first became lame nine years ago. Swellings would appear and disappear on her hip, and she was gradually becoming reduced and her whole system rotten with disease. In 1871, a swelling broke on her hip, discharging large quantities, and since that time there are several openings. Have had five doctors, at an expense of $125, who say nothing will do any good but a surgical operation.

July 16, 1873, he writes thus: My wife has certainly received a great benefit from the use of your Discovery, for she was not able to get off the bed and was not expected to live a week when she commenced using it a year ago. She has been doing most of her work for over six months. Has used twenty bottles, and still using it. Her recovery is considered as almost a miracle, and we attribute it all to the use of your valuable medicine. I can cheerfully recommend it as a blood-purifier and strength-restorer. J. M. BOBINSON.

Golden Medical Discovery is sold by druggists.

NEWS AND NOTES.

Miss Mary Hawes, who is ninety eight years old, was last week admitted to membership in the Church of the Disciples of Boston.

A thousand dollars a month rent for a cottage at Newport is considered by no means remarkable, but it takes a man of means to pay it.

Secretary Fish has spent a fortune in entertaining. It costs him many thousands of dollars above his salary to dispense his elegant hospitality.

The Maharajah of Puttiala of India is dead. He had an income of $2,500,000 a year, and his principal occupations were buying jewels and getting royally drunk.

It is said that Miss C. Emma Thursby has refused an offer of $26,000 a year to travel with a concert company, and that she receives the highest church salary of any singer in the country from the Broadway Tabernacle, New York.

Mr. Beecher solemnly announces in the Christian Union that "irreproachable rectitude in any special direction is more potent than the greatest wickedness to excite the hatred of a certain class of men pretending to be respectable."

General A. H. Colquitt, who is a leading candidate for the democratic nomination for Governor of Georgia, has written a long letter to show how earnest a granger he is. He says that he approves heartily and without stint the great and pure purpose of the order.

Queen Victoria's levee on the 22d of May was held by the Prince of Wales, the presentations being equivalent to introductions to the Queen. The list of names of the persons presented on the occasion takes up five closely-printed columns of the London Times.

Bishop Potter has expressed himself as greatly pleased with the religious work which has been begun in New York city by the Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, jr., in the gospel tent, and says that as soon as he returns to the city he will preach in the tent himself.

Mrs. Jennie Gilder, of Newark, has made considerable reputation of late as a play-wright. She has dramatized Dr. Holland's novel, "Sevenoaks." May Agnes Fleming's "A Wonderful Woman," and has written an original play for Mr. Harry Becket. All of these efforts have passed muster with distinguished critics, and will be presented next season.

Henry McFadden, a tavern keeper of Camden, N. J., was on Monday charged by a coroner's jury with the murder of Isaac Johnson (colored,) and remanded to the county jail. In the afternoon an officer discovered the prisoner in his cell with his throat cut from ear to ear, and before medical aid could be procured he died.

The Alexandria Gazette, in allusion to reports published in several newspapers of legal proceedings against the Virginia Midland railroad to appoint a receiver, is informed that "no suit has been instituted by the bondholders for the purpose mentioned, but the rumor is based upon an application of a party who has a debt of less than one hundred dollars, which he seeks to collect in this remarkable manner."

POLITICAL NOTES.

Before the next presidential election (November 7, seven of the states will hold elections for state officers. In September, Arkansas, Vermont and Maine, and in October, Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Georgia.

Mr. Tilden beat for Governor of New York in 1874 the most popular general in the Federal army, the man who said, "if any man attempts to haul down the flag, shoot him on the spot." But his enemies would have us believe that he can't beat Brigadier-General Hayes. Major-General Dix was snowed under fifty thousand majority. Brigadier-General Hayes is invincible! Oh, the blindness of prejudice and envy.

The Herald has had all the New York delegates to the St. Louis convention interviewed, and reports the result as follows: "They show not only a large preponderance in favor of Governor Tilden, but such a resolute decision of purpose as renders it certain that the delegation will not abandon him after a complimentary vote. Forty-eight of the seventy believe him altogether the strongest candidate, both for carrying this state and for success in the country, and will stand by him with unwavering steadiness. Several who are not so confident and determined are nevertheless willing to accept him. But there is an active minority of the delegates whose opposition is vigorous and outspoken, and who will make strenuous efforts to convince members of other delegations that Governor Tilden is a weak and an unfit candidate."

General Roger A. Pryor, who is one of the delegates from New York to the St. Louis convention, has been interviewed by a Herald reporter. He said: "I intend to vote for Tilden, believing, as I do, that he can surely carry this state, which will be the battle-ground of the campaign. His record as a reformer has made him strong with the people in other states as well as in his own. The main question the people will have in their minds at the next election will be administrative reform, and the party that does not show by its record at the nominating convention that reform is really intended will have to go under. My second choice would depend upon a great many circumstances, which would be made apparent only at the convention in case Tilden failed to get nominated. At all events, the St. Louis convention will not be at a loss for good candidates, no matter what happens."

JOHN HANCOCK

Mutual Life Insurance Co.,

OF BOSTON.

WM. H. FINCH, STATE AGENT.

I beg leave to call the attention of North Carolinians to the claims on their patronage presented by the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company. Especially to the fact that in addition, to its excellence in other respects, it is the only company in North Carolina operating under the Massachusetts non forfeiture law.

Applications for Agencies can be made to our State Agent, Mr. W. H. Finch, or to any of his agents who will always be pleased to respond to enquiries. Mr. Finch has secured the valuable services of Mr. J. B. Neathery to attend to office business.

FABIUS H. BUSBEE ACCEPTS THE NOMINATION.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 13, 1876.

FAB. H. BUSBEE, Esq.—Dear Sir: We take pleasure in informing you that we have the honor assigned us by the democratic convention of the fourth district of North Carolina of notifying you that you were to-day unanimously nominated presidential elector for this district.

With sentiments of the highest regard we are yours truly,

W. R. BOULHAC,
JNO. M. MORRO,
WILL. H. BLEDSOE,
Committee.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 14, 1876.

Messrs. W. R. Boulhac, John M. Morring and Will. H. Bledsoe, Committee:

GENTLEMEN: Your favor of yesterday, conveying the information that I had been nominated by the democratic convention of the fourth congressional district as the candidate for presidential elector, has been received. I am profoundly grateful to my fellow democrats of the district for the compliment conveyed in their action, and accept the nomination so cordially and generously tendered.

Yours truly,
FAB. H. BUSBEE.
