LOCAL DOTS

Watermelons have come. Try Mosely's ice cream.

We heard of a good deal of sickness in the county.

The radical squabble over the sheriffalty is getting hot.

Rev. Dr. Fritchard returned to this city this afternoon.

Dr. McAuloo, of the McAuloo house, Greenboro, is at the National.

W. J. Montgomery, solicitor of the 9th judicial district, is in the city.

Everything remains quiet in police circles. Even drunks are few and far between.

We understand that a number of our young men are providing themselves with continental uniforms for a parade on the 4th of July.

Lewis O. Lougee leaves to-morrow for Philadelphia to represent the Typographical Union of this city at the meeting of the International Typographical Union, which assembles in that city some time next week.

H. R. Linderman, director of the U. S. mint, has written to Governor Brogden for a detailed statement of the product of precious metals in North Carolina during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1876.

OUR NEXT VICE PRESIDENT.

Since the proceedings of the St. Louis Convention, which appears on another page, was placed in type intelligence was received that Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, Governor of Indiana, to-day received, on the first ballot, the nomination for Vice-President at the hands of the National Democratic Convention.

Seven hundred and thirty-nine votes were cast, of which number Hendricks received 730. What a splendid ticket we have—Tilden and Hendricks! It is bound to sweep the country. If the people of the country have not become as corrupt as the office-holders, success in November is assured to us.

THE SUPREME COURT RECEIVES A BENEDICTION.

Yesterday, in the Supreme Court, when Chief Justice Peaslee had announced the order of the court that George Applewhite was discharged from custody and free to go whithersoever he would, Applewhite stood up and said, in a solemn and impressive manner, for one so humble and untaught: "God be with you all." He then forthwith walked from the shadow of the gallows a free man.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY A. YOUNG.

Mrs. Mary A. Young, wife of D. E. Young, died in Henderson yesterday evening about 8 o'clock. Mrs. Young is the mother of Col. I. J. Young, of this city. She had been for a number of years a consistent member of the Methodist church, and was prepared to meet with fortitude the last summons. She was much beloved by her family and a large circle of friends. Col. Young and family left this morning for Henderson to attend the funeral services.

RALEIGH GRADED SCHOOL.

The board of trustees for Raleigh graded school met last night at the office of Charles M. Busbee, President. Present—Charles M. Busbee, President, W. W. Holden, M. W. Hunter, and Phil. Thiem. Mr. Jeff. Young was absent. The affairs of the proposed school were ably discussed at great length, and the prospect for opening the school about the 20th of July are very fine. Messrs. Thomas H. Briggs, Jr., Wesley Whitaker, M. Grauman and H. H. Battle, Jr. were added to the board of trustees, making the board to consist of nine members. This school, under the direction of such worthy gentlemen, promises to be the most beneficial institution ever established in our midst.

"DEATH LOVES A SHINING MARK."

Early yesterday morning, in this city, at the residence of her uncle, William B. Hutchings, Miss Susan B. Hutchings, daughter of C. W. D. Hutchings, died after a brief illness from typhoid fever. Miss Hutchings was taken sick about a week ago with the malady which ended in her death, which is supposed to have been superinduced by her constant attendance upon the sick bed of her sister, Miss Narcissa Hutchings, who is still ill with the same disease. She has passed away in the full bloom of youth, being only 23 years of age. Young, beautiful, accomplished, with life spreading out before her in its most attractive colors, death has claimed her, but let us hope it has claimed her in order that she may live again and forever. She died in full communion with the M. E. Church, and her last words were words of hope and resignation. Her faith and works had robbed death of its sting and the grave of its victory. The funeral services took place this morning at the Eleventh Street M. E. Church, Rev. Dr. Burkhead conducting the services, and the remains interred in the city cemetery.

THE INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION GUIDE.

We are indebted to the publisher for a copy of this excellent Guide Book. We have examined it carefully and find that it has been prepared with a constant reference to the wants of the southerner who may visit the centennial exhibition and the city of Philadelphia. It is claimed to be the most complete guide yet published. It gives the most minute and accurate directions and abounds in such information as every visitor must have in order that he may travel with comfort, and makes the rounds of sight-seeing easy, pleasant and satisfactory. As to Philadelphia, it shows how the streets are numbered, gives all the interesting statistics and relics, describes its chief buildings, gives the location of all the public buildings and institutions, places of amusements, railroad depots, and the running of trains, some of the main churches, a full list of all the best known charitable and other associations, the locations of the cemeteries, sketches of leading men, a complete list of the hotels, &c. It gives much information in regard to railroad travel, hotel customs, all about hacks, street cars, where to stop and how to get to a boarding house or hotel, &c. It will be found to be very full, clear and convenient. It gives the fullest, completest descriptions of the exhibition. It not only describes the main buildings, but tells you all about their contents, which no other Guide Book attempts to do. There is scarcely a point connected with the exhibition in any way that is not remarked upon. It contains a full list of the 190 buildings on the grounds. It also gives information concerning encampments, parks, celebrations, regattas, parades &c. Tells of the zoological garden, Laurel Hill and other beautiful cemeteries.

CITIZENS' CORNET BAND.

This band is endeavoring to raise funds for the purpose of employing a competent Professor of music to teach them for a short space. They are now in correspondence with one of the best band leaders in the south with this view. In order to carry out this plan they are compelled to look to our citizens for assistance, which we know will not be denied. This band has never been backward in responding to calls made upon them, and we hope that their appeal will not now be unheeded. The band held a meeting last evening and, by request, we publish the proceedings in order that our citizens may fully understand the call that will be made upon them:

ROOM CITIZENS' CORNET BAND.

Raleigh, N. C., June 29th, 1876. At a meeting of the above band last night the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That a committee be appointed to solicit subscriptions from the citizens of Raleigh for the purpose of employing a Professor of music to teach the band for three months.

Resolved, That this committee shall be two from the band, together with two responsible citizens of Raleigh, and be authorized to wait upon the citizens for the purpose above mentioned.

Resolved, That the band instruct this committee to take each man's name, together with the amount, and if the amount collected is not used for the purpose of employing a Professor of music to be returned to the persons who subscribed.

Resolved, That the band play Wednesday of each week for the benefit of the city to show their appreciation of the liberality of its citizens.

Resolved, That a copy of the above resolutions be sent to the daily papers of this city with the request that they be published in the same.

W. H. VAUGHAN, R. W. BRYAN, Committee on part of Band. R. S. TUCKER, JNO. G. WILLIAMS, Committee on part of Citizens.

"PARTY ORGANIZATION."

We call attention to the resolutions adopted to-day by the State Executive Committee, which will be found elsewhere. Let the committee's advice be acted upon and Tilden and Vance clubs formed in every neighborhood in the state—every township should have one. In order to succeed we must have a thorough organization, and it is to be hoped that the request of the State Executive Committee will be promptly responded to.

DEATH OF MRS. MARTHA A. HAMMAY.

We regret to announce the death of this estimable lady at Lenoir, Caldwell county, last Monday, after an illness of only four days. Mrs. Hammay was a former resident of this city, where she had a large circle of friends who held her in high esteem, and will regret to hear of her demise. She had been an exemplary member of the Methodist church for a number of years, and was known as a thorough Christian. She died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Fell.

SUPREME COURT—Thursday, June 29.

Court met this morning at 9 o'clock, all the Justices present.

Appeals from the 9th district were called and disposed of in the order following:

Wordsworth & McDowell vs. M. L. Davis, administrator, from Mecklenburg. Argued by Jones and Johnston for plaintiff and Wilson and Son for defendants.

Jonas W. Derr vs. J. F. Dillinger et al., from Lincoln. Argued by J. F. Hoke for plaintiff and Jones & Johnston and W. J. Montgomery for defendant. Justice Bynum did not sit at the hearing of this case, having been of counsel in the court below.

D. A. & J. Beane vs. D. Froneberger et al., from Lincoln, (2 cases.) Argued by J. F. Hoke and Battle, Battle & Mordecai for plaintiff and Shipp & Bailey for defendants.

Pending the argument in this case the court adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock.

THE SWEPSON CASE.

This case has lost none of its interest. This morning the court room was thronged long before Judge Waite took his seat upon the bench. The examination of witnesses of the prosecution was commenced. Samuel Oliver, a boy 12 years of age, who was with Moore when he was shot, was first placed on the stand, and was examined by the State, and at this writing is undergoing a rigid cross-examination at the hands of the defence. For one so young he bore himself remarkably well. His evidence varied but very little from that already published.

NEWS AND NOTES.

A bill of complaint has been filed at Richmond, Va., for the appointment of a receiver for the Washington City, Virginia, Midland and Great Southern railroad, formerly known as the Orange and Alexandria.

Commodore Edward C. Griffin, of the United States navy, died on Saturday at his residence in New York. The deceased was an officer of merit, and served with distinction in many important engagements.

The members of the American Institute of Mining Engineers, in session at Philadelphia, made an excursion Saturday to the copper, steel and iron works of eastern Pennsylvania, accompanied by a large number of distinguished guests.

The Postmaster-General has written to the postmasters of the larger cities requesting them to visit Washington to confer with him upon the new law reducing appropriations for the various post-offices, which must go into execution on the 1st of July.

Albert Curtis, son of Judge Curtis, of Ashland, Ohio, was shot and instantly killed in a race near Laramie City, Wyoming, by a man named Chandler. The shooting grew out of a difficulty about Curtis getting on hay land. Chandler is still at large.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes has written a hymn of welcome to all nations, to be sung at Philadelphia during the centennial ceremonies on July 4. The Brazilian hymn, ordered by Dom Pedro for production at Philadelphia, has arrived there, and is in the hands of F. S. Gilmore.

The trial of reapers and mowers exhibited at the centennial fair commenced Tuesday at Schenck's station, fourteen miles from Philadelphia, on the Philadelphia and Trenton railway. The foreign exhibitors at the centennial held a meeting Monday to urge an abatement of the stringency of the present customs regulations.

The Vermont republican state convention assembled in Montpelier on Tuesday. The canvass for Governor has been a warm one. Several candidates are in the field, and it is not thought either can secure more than one-third of the convention. It is believed in case of a dead-lock that the convention will break over precedent and nominate Gov. Asahel Peck.

The congressional sub-postoffice committee began its investigation in New York Saturday, into the alleged excessive expenditure of $227,000 in the postoffice building there. J. W. Barton, inspector and receiver of materials during the building of it, was examined as to books, accounts, pay rolls, &c. He denied that he ever knew that appropriations were exhausted before the final close of work in September, 1875.

In the United States Senate, on Saturday, the substitute for the House bill to regulate the assessment and collection of taxes in the District of Columbia was taken up, debated and recommitted. A bill was passed for the allowance of certain claims reported by the accounting officers of the treasury. House bill for the issue of coin was made the order for Monday. In the House, Mr. Sawyer, of Ohio, was appointed Speaker pro tem, during the present absence of the Speaker.

THEN AND NOW.

In 1858, when Mr. Buchanan was President, there was a struggle in the House of Representatives over the appropriation bills, somewhat the same as there is now. Mr. John Sherman, of Ohio, was then a representative in Congress, opposed to the administration, and who is now a Senator from the same state, made a speech on the subject, in which he said: "Sir, retrenchment and reform are now matters of imperative necessity. It is not the mere cry of demagogues, but a problem demanding the attention and worthy the highest ability of the representatives of the people. No party is fit to govern this country which cannot solve it. It is in vain to look to executive officers for reform. Their power and influence depend upon executive patronage, and while we grant they will squander. The Senate is neither by the theory of our system nor by its composition fitted for the task. This House alone has the constitutional power to perfect a radical reform. The constitution provides that 'no money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law' and that 'all bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives.' These provisions were designed to invest in this House the entire control over the public purse, the power of supply. This is invested in the House of Commons, and has been jealously guarded by it. It is the pearl beyond price, without which constitutional liberty in England would long since have fallen under the despotism of the Crown. Instead of a representative republic, we are degenerating into a bureaucracy, governed by red tape and subaltern clerks. While the powers of the House are invaded, the executive takes care to extend by construction his just powers. Of this we have an example in the Utah war."

Here is sound republican authority and precedent for the action of Mr. Randall and the majority in the present House. We ask Mr. Sherman to look his record square in the face, and say if he is prepared by his vote in the Senate to stand by it.—Balt. Gazette.

Persons living in unhealthy localities may avoid all bilious attacks by taking a dose of Dr. Bull's Vegetable Pills occasionally to keep the liver in a healthy action.

TAR DROPS.

History has a stylish mineral spring.

The Goldsboro Messenger learns that preparations are making for the publication of a live democratic paper in Newbern.

It is rumored that the schedule on the A. & N. C. railroad will be changed the first of July, and the one used last summer will be restored, to arrive at Morehead City about 7 o'clock p. m.

Some young gentlemen in Weldon have organized a string band.

Mrs. Norman, wife of L. J. Norman, clerk of Surry county, while picking strawberries was bitten in the mouth by a spider and died almost instantly.

Bishop Lyman's appointments through the counties of Iredell, Wilkes, Ashe, Watauga, Caldwell, Catawba, Burke and Mitchell begin on the 19th of July at Statesville, and close at Bakersville, Mitchell county, on the 9th of August.

The Milton Chronicle says: The engineer on an upward bound train a few days ago discovered a white man sitting on the track near the bridge at Berksdale's with his hands holding up his bowed-down head as if he were asleep or in a brown study. The man heeded no sign given, and didn't move until the train was stopped and Capt. Flornoy had him rolled off the track. It is thought the fool wanted to die.
