PARTY ORGANIZATION.

At a meeting of the Central Executive Committee of the democratic party it was Resolved 1. That the chairman of each County Executive Committee be requested to report to the secretary of this committee the name and postoffice address of each member of the same.

2. That each member of the several congressional committees be requested to report his name and address in like manner; and also to take notice that he is ex-officio a member of the State Executive Committee.

3. That this committee urgently calls on the conservative people of North Carolina who favor reform in state and national affairs to form without delay Tilden and Vance clubs in their respective townships or neighborhoods; and the officers of all such clubs are requested to report their names to the secretary of this committee.

4. That the democratic papers throughout the state be requested to publish the above resolutions.

W. R. COX, Chm'n.
S. A. ASHER, Sec'y.

"I know Hayes," said Grant. The people know Tilden.

Morrill's hesitation is becoming demoralizing to the treasury department.

Push the organization of young men's Tilden and Vance clubs. There is power in them.

"I know Hayes," said Grant. Now, who knows Grant or, knowing him, knows any good of him?

Hosts of drawing, eye-glassed snobs are flitting to the springs and seaside, in search of fortunes and flirtations.

Mrs. Revolver Colt went to the centennial in a special drawing-room car. The probabilities are that 100,000 lives have contributed towards paying for her style.

Morrill makes as many faces about accepting the treasuryship, as if it were the greenest and sweetest of Morrill's cherries, instead of a rich and luscious plum.

Philadelphia went wild in commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Bells rang, cannon roared, bonfires blazed, rockets whizzed and juleps suffered, and 100,000 throats are husky and hoarse with huzzaling.

Tilden carried New York by 50,000 majority, against Dix, a man of ability and popularity. Can there be any doubt of his repeating the triumph, when his opponent is such a combination of non-entity and obscurity as Hayes?

The honor of firing the national salute of the centennial legion at Philadelphia was accorded to the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues, and they shook the whole Susquehanna valley with the vim of their thunder-throated glory and pyrotechnical enthusiasm.

The radical papers having said in laudation of Hayes that, if elected, "he will carry no pledges into the white house," an irreverent contemporary begs leave to hope he would carry a temperance pledge, as he would find none about the premises.

Let 40,000,000 of intelligent American citizens, in these grand centennial anniversary days of the republic, resolve to save by reform what was won by revolution a hundred years ago. The task is mighty but, with Tilden, the great reformer, to lead, easily to be accomplished.

We have been wrestling with it nearly three weeks, and still have not mastered the problem as to what sort of thing that "reform republicanism" is, which is represented by a ticket composed of a salary-grabber and a railroad jobber, engineered by old Simon Cameron, and backed by Grant and 60,000 official pilferers. Perhaps we are a little dull or slow of comprehension.

If wisdom comes with rolling years, a nation that has celebrated its hundredth birthday, is old enough to know that no government or people can permanently prosper, whose conduct is not based upon the eternal principles of truth and justice, whose character and polity is not absolutely pure. How vast the reformation to be effected before Americans may feel secure.

In all portions of the state we hear this early of enthusiastic organization for the campaign. At no time since the war have the democrats of North Carolina felt so confident of success, or so ready to put forth the necessary effort to secure it. We have had no such organization or spirit before, and the signs of the times indicate that it will be well with the democracy of the state and the nation in November.

Our distinguished and highly esteemed friend, Hon. Montford McGehee, of Person county, has just been nominated by acclamation, as the democratic candidate for the legislature. The state is to be congratulated when such men, her tried and true and gifted sons, are chosen as her law-makers and leaders. Verily, it seems as though a brighter and better era were dawning upon our grand old commonwealth.

ORGANIZING.

The democrats of Goldsboro township organize a Tilden and Vance club to-night. As fast as these organizations are perfected throughout the state they should communicate with the chairman of the state executive committee, who will thus be able to communicate in return with all portions of the state, transmitting in this way documents and information respecting the campaign which it is absolutely necessary for the people to have. This is a matter to which we would particularly call the attention of the democratic press of the state. Let every one urge the necessity for prompt and thorough organization in every township, county and district.

Lewis Blount, of Orange county in this state, has earned a right to have "The World's Benefactor" chiseled on his tombstone, by inventing a lock that needs no key. Think of the vast saving in patience and oaths to traveling masculinity with a trunk, valise and hat-box, and all the keys mislaid. But do not try to imagine the blisses of such a discovery to a detachment of old maids on their summer journeyings, with half a dozen Saratogas, and a miscellaneous assortment of bandboxes, sachels and reticules, and the whole bunch of keys on a blue ribbon loop lost just at tea-time. The storm of "my dear me's," "oh, my's," "good gracious's" and "isn't it provoking's" is beyond the flight of mortal fancy or goose-quill. All averted, abolished, ended by this Orange county keyless lock.

The democrats of Person county have nominated John C. Barnett for sheriff, Joseph Younger for treasurer, R. A. Williams for coroner, J. H. Clay for surveyor, William Bumpass for register, and R. H. Hester, W. F. Noel, J. M. Burton, Rufin Rhaw and J. J. Brooks for commissioners.

OUR NATIONAL AND STATE TICKET.

The attention of some of our contemporaries is called to the fact that they are not correctly printing the national and state ticket, in respect to the names of some of the candidates and electors. The ticket as presented in the Sentinel is correct, and will be complete as soon as nominations are made in the first and eighth congressional districts.

In some of the papers the name of the nominee for state treasurer is printed James, whereas it should be John M. Worth. In others General Scales is put down from Rockingham, when he is a citizen of Guilford. In some instances the initial of the first name is only given, when the law requires that it be spelled out in full. Then the military rank of General, Colonel, Major and Captain, and the title of Honorable are prefixed. This is all wrong, and if so voted might, in case of a contest invalidate ballots so printed.

These are matters of prime importance, and should be looked to at once, for first impressions are most lasting, and it might so happen that a large number of the tickets printed in various portions of the state would be incorrectly printed.

CONSULTATION OF THE CANDIDATES.

It has been suggested that the nominees on the state ticket and the electors for the state at large meet the central executive committee at an early day and agree upon a general and specific plan for the campaign.

The suggestion is eminently a wise and proper one. The state should be thoroughly canvassed this summer and fall, by the gentlemen on the state ticket, and the electors at large, and a well laid out plan is necessary to insure a thorough and efficient campaign. It will, of course, be impossible for any one man to canvass in every county, but by dividing up the entire ground can be well gone over.

Without disparagement to the other gentlemen, there is a universal desire to have Governor Vance in every county. As this is impossible, it will be necessary to consult over the matter and map out such prominent points for him as will enable the governor to meet the most of the people.

The democrats of the state are looking forward to a grand campaign by Vance. In this they will not be disappointed. He will make the grandest and most complete campaign that has ever been undertaken in North Carolina. He possesses the affections of the people of the state as no man does at the present day, and the enthusiasm he will create has not been witnessed since 1840.

In selecting him for the standard-bearer, the democratic party has done the wisest thing that has characterized its conduct for twenty-five years; and the convention in nominating him covered itself all over with glory.

A GERMAN STRAW AGAINST HAYES.

The New Yorker Handels Zeitung, heretofore republican, of July 1, contains an article from which we take this significant extract:

"Our sympathies in the approaching struggle are with Samuel J. Tilden, not because, but notwithstanding he is the candidate of the democratic party. It is not with hollow phrases, but by weighty deeds, that Tilden has proved himself the representative of reform. But what is Hayes? He is the nominee of a party which claims indemnity for eight years of misgovernment on the strength of its great services in the past; which demands the confidence of the people without offering guarantees for the future, for it has as good as thrown on one side the only practical reformer in its ranks, Benjamin Bristow. Tilden and Hendricks are quite as honorable, and at least as important men as Hayes and Wheeler, and, as for the two platforms, the democratic, of which reform is the beginning and the end, has many advantages over the republican."

MISREPRESENTATION.—The Goldsboro Messenger, of July 6, makes this vigorous correction: A correspondent of the Newbern Times charges that in 1861-'64, at camp Bush Hill, Randolph county, Gov. Vance had the wives of Union men carried to camp by force, and there kept for weeks at a time and punished by imprisonment and otherwise, in a most brutal manner, because they refused to reveal the whereabouts of their husbands who were deserters. This is a wilful misrepresentation. All who know Governor Vance know him to be incapable to even sanction any such monstrosities, much less have them perpetrated under his orders. The truth is, and Gov. Vance's official letter book shows this, that on hearing of several instances of cruelties practiced by deserter hunters upon defenceless women, the governor very promptly ordered Solicitor Thomas Settle (now Judge Settle, likely to be the gubernatorial nominee of the republicans) to have the guilty parties prosecuted, but Settle never carried out these orders. Judge Settle cannot deny this.

John Peoples and his wife are the oldest couple in Barnwell, if not in the state and the United States. He is 121 years old, she 123.

NEWS AND NOTES.

230 persons were lost on the steamer General Kroesen.

Walton, Kentucky, had a $50,000 blaze in honor of the 4th.

Speaker Kerr's health is improving at the Rockbridge Alum Springs of Virginia.

Philadelphia celebrated the 4th with a $200,000 bonfire, started by a toy cannon.

Peter B. Yates, mayor of Schenectady, died suddenly on a railroad train, Wednesday.

It is thought the congressional deadlock on appropriations is about to be unlocked.

Gen. Burnside having been taken ill, Gen. Harry Heth commanded the Centennial Legion at Philadelphia.

The Emperor Wilhelm of Prussia, sent a long and cordial centennial greeting to the United States, Tuesday.

Marshal Packer, one of the vilest of all Grant's underlings, has been nominated for Governor by the Louisiana radicals.

The Fort Smith (Ark.) New Era files at its head this queer device: "Oldest Republican Paper in the Defunct Confederacy."

The American legation in London gave a magnificent fourth of July dinner, with the usual accompaniment of toasts, speeches and music—and headaches next day.

Rev. P. Kendrick, the Georgia Baptist clergyman who had an unfortunate affair with a 13-year-old girl of his congregation, has been let off with a fine of $500.

Chicago is a huge specimen of municipal pauperhood. No money in her treasury, police and fire departments unpaid, people refusing to pay taxes and no law to compel them.

Fort Madison, Iowa, was swept by a tornado Monday. Nearly every church spire in the city torn off; 40 houses unroofed and a great many more damaged. One hotel totally destroyed. Loss, $200,000.

A Philadelphia drug-store blew up during some fourth of July pyrotechnic preparations, killing Dr. Henry Bucher, John Bucher, Bernard Kauseman and Wm. Young, and badly burning J. C. Bucher and his wife.

Wm. O'Brien shot and killed Wm. Grant at Washington City, as a partial commemoration of the memorable 4th; and Samuel Day, of the same region, was accidentally killed by his friend, Wm. Garvey, to add to the solemnity of the anniversary.

War has begun between the Turks and Servians, and the usual lying and contradictory official reports of battles and victories are already on their travels. A Turkish dispatch, of July 3, says: "The Servians attacked the camp at Urkurb, a town southwest of Missa. After five hours of hard fighting the Servians retreated, leaving 500 dead on the field. Near Belina the Turks were victorious in several encounters, killing 200 and wounding 400 of the enemy." All of which the Servians respectfully but firmly deny.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Peaches are plentiful in Goldsboro at $1 a bushel.

Wayne superior court opens Monday, with Judge Seymour on the bench.

Miss Ada White, of Lillington, was killed by lightning a few days ago.

Goldsboro holds a meeting this evening to organize a Tilden and Vance club.

Fayetteville fired thirty guns, or one gun thirty times, over the St. Louis nominations.

The Welsh mill, near Waynesville, was destroyed by the recent flood. Loss, $10,000.

Beau Hickman, the once famous prince of dead-beats, was a native of Warren county.

Thomas Dare, a white man, is in the Goldsboro jail for stealing a horse from Mr. Powell, of that vicinity.

C. A. Trice, a saw-miller near Durham, was caught by the log carriage last Saturday, and one of his legs broken.

The Goldsboro Messenger announces that there will be a rousing ratification meeting in that place next Tuesday. Judge Fowle and Hon. John F. Wooten are among the expected speakers.

R. A. L. Carr, of Greene county, M. Harvey, John F. Wooten, Noah Rouse and W. H. Rountree, of Lenoir county, R. T. Hodges, of Beaufort county, and Dr. Chas. Duffey, of Onslow, constitute the board of trustees of Wilson college.

Mr. Jas. E. Thompson, of Newbern, has the centennial feathered wonder in the shape of a young chicken with a perfectly formed human hand, fingers, thumb and nails all complete, growing out just above the oil-bag.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

There were 47 deaths in Charleston during the week ending July 1.

A South Carolinian is shipping daily a case of peaches to Philadelphia.

Rice plantation hands are said to be organizing for a strike in harvest time.

Col. John Simons, of South Carolina, was one of the speakers at the Tammany celebration of the 4th in New York.

Little Birdie, daughter of Capt. Barham, of Durham, fell a few days since and broke both bones of her arm.

Albert Gucry's portrait of Lee, which belongs to the town of Greenville, has been sent to the centennial.

A boiler explosion at Chandler's steam mill, in Samser county, July 1, killed a negro man and woman, and wounded a white man and a negro, beside demolishing a mule and cart and most of the mill.

NATIONAL HOTEL,
CAPITOL SQUARE,
RALEIGH, N. C.
C. S. BROWN, PROPRIETOR.

The National is one of the best arranged, and the most perfectly ventilated Hotel in the State, and being delightfully situated by Capitol square, it is one of the best summer residences in interior North Carolina.

The main portion of the building is constructed with the view to afford SUITS OF ROOMS and PRIVATE PARLORS to such guests as desire them.

For Political Headquarters the National is the best adapted House in the city, having large Parlors on the ground floor connected with private apartments.

Union or Capitol Square, with its shaded walks, grand forest oaks and beautiful shrubbery is one of the prettiest and most delightful resorts in the country, thus affording the guests of the National all the advantages of one of the handsomest Little Parks in the United States.

A magnificent double portico, fronting and overlooking Capitol Square, extends along the entire front of this really handsome building, rendering it the most desirable house in the city for ladies, children and sojourners of every class.

The cool, shady and breezy location of the National, itself occupying one whole square, keeps it free from flies and mosquitoes through the entire summer.

A row of single-story offices, suitable for business and professional gentlemen, is attached to the Hotel, and always at the service of such as desire them.

Experienced and polite Porters attend all trains with good Coaches and Baggage wagons, and guests of the National may rely on good attention, good fare and excellent drinking water.

Bath Rooms and Water Closets
ARE ON EVERY FLOOR.

In the basement is the best SALOON and BILLIARD ROOM in the city.
