

WHEREAS by an act of Congress passed on the seventh day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, the President of the United States is authorized to borrow, on behalf of the United States, from the Bank of the United States, or from any other body or bodies politic or corporate, or from any person or persons, and upon such terms and conditions as he shall judge most advantageous for the United States, a sum not exceeding Three Millions Five Hundred Thousand Dollars, so however, that no contract or engagement be made, which shall preclude the United States from reimbursing any sum or sums borrowed, at any time after the expiration of fifteen years from the date of such Loan. AND WHEREAS it is declared by said act, that so much as may be necessary of the surplus of the duties on imports and tonnage, beyond the permanent appropriations heretofore charged upon them by law, shall be pledged and appropriated for paying the interest; and also for paying and discharging the principal sum or sums of all the monies which may be borrowed according to the term or terms which may be fixed pursuant to the authority aforesaid. AND WHEREAS by the said act the faith of the United States, is pledged to establish sufficient permanent revenues, for making up any deficiency that may hereafter appear in the provisions before mentioned for paying the interest and principal sums, or either of them, or any monies which may be borrowed pursuant to the said act. AND WHEREAS the President of the United States, did by an Act or Commission under his hand, dated the seventh day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred, authorize and empower the Secretary of the Treasury to borrow on behalf of the United States any sum not exceeding in the whole Three Millions Five Hundred Thousand Dollars, and to make such contract or contracts as should be necessary, and for the interest of the United States, in pursuance of the act of Congress above recited.

NOW THEREFORE the undersigned Secretary of the Treasury, in pursuance of the act of Congress and the authority from the President of the United States above mentioned—Do hereby, on behalf of the United States of America, contract and engage in manner following, to wit:

1st. There shall be created a funded Capital Stock to an amount hereafter to be designated by the said Secretary, but not exceeding Three Millions Five Hundred Thousand Dollars, which Capital Stock shall be divisible into shares of one hundred dollars each, bearing interest, at eight per centum per annum, payable quarterly yearly at the Treasury of the United States, or at the Loan Offices, where the said Stock may stand credited, until the last day of December in the year eighteen hundred and eight.

2d. After the last day of December in the said year one thousand eight hundred and eight, and after reasonable notice to the creditors, which shall be given by an advertisement in some public newspaper printed at the seat of the government of the United States, the said Capital Stock shall be redeemable at the pleasure of the United States, by the reimbursement of the whole sum or sums borrowed and which may constitute the said Capital Stock, either at the Treasury of the United States, or at the Loan Offices where the same may stand credited.

3d. The credits for the said Capital Stock shall and may be separately certified in sums either for one hundred, four hundred, one thousand, four thousand, or ten thousand dollars, and the credits so certified shall be transferable by the creditors, or their attorneys, at the Treasury and Loan Offices respectively, in pursuance of the rules which have been or which may be established relative to the transfer of the funded Stock of the United States.

4th. A sufficient sum of the surplus of the duties on imports and tonnage beyond the permanent appropriations heretofore charged upon them by law—together with the faith of the United States, are hereby pledged for the fulfillment of this contract, in pursuance of, and according to the terms and conditions of the act of Congress herein before recited.

GIVEN under my hand, and the seal of the Treasury of the United States, at Philadelphia, this second day of June, one thousand eight hundred; and of the Independence the twenty-fourth.

OLIVER WOLCOTT,
Secretary of the Treasury.

BANK OF THE UNITED STATES.

June 21, 1800.

Proposals will be received until the last day of July next inclusive, at the Bank of the United States, and the Offices of Discount and Deposit at Boston, New-York, Baltimore, Norfolk, and Charleston, for the purchase of One Million and Five Hundred Thousand Dollars of Stock, directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, to be issued in pursuance of the above mentioned contract. The proposals most advantageous to the United States will be accepted, but no Stock will be issued at less than five per centum advance, or one hundred and five dollars in money for one hundred dollars in Stock. In case the sums specified in similar proposals shall exceed the amount of Stock offered for sale at the places above mentioned, they will be accepted, subject to a proportional deduction.

DUNCAN M'LEARN

THE people of Fayetteville District are hereby notified, that I am a candidate for an Elector, and that I am in favour of Charles C. Pinckney and John Adams, to be President and Vice-President of the United States.
NOAH PITMAN.

Lumberton, Robeson county, July 4.

TO THE FREEMEN of FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT.

THE partiality of a considerable number of the citizens of our district, had induced them frequently to request that I become a candidate for its representation in Congress. I have hitherto declined their invitation, as well from a persuasion, that it would operate a material derangement of my private concerns, as from a belief, that the interests of the district would not be assisted by my superceding the gentleman who is its present representative.

But as these solicitations are again repeated, I am willing to comply with the wishes of my friends, and do therefore, although at this late hour, come forward as a candidate for the representation of the district of Fayetteville, in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.—solemnly engaging (if elected) to protect and extend your interests as far as may be within the reach of my exertions.

To those of my fellow citizens with whom I have not a personal acquaintance, and who, therefore may not be informed of my political opinions, it may be necessary to state, that I am what the philosophy of politicians has denominated, a FEDERALIST. I, although I am the friend of order, of government, and of the present administration, I will not pledge myself to support, in consequence of a bigoted or a selfish policy, any measure which I might think pernicious to the general welfare of our country, or the particular interests of yourselves.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient serv't.

SAMUEL D. PURVIANCE.

RALEIGH SCHOOL.

A SCHOOL will be opened at Raleigh on the 28th inst. for the instruction of young Gentlemen and Ladies, in the most useful and necessary branches of Education, viz. The Sciences, Classics, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Reading, Writing, Needle-work, &c.

The tuition of the young Gentlemen, to be conducted by Mr. German Guthrie; that of the young Ladies, by Mrs. Langley.

TERMS.—For Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, and Needle work, Nine Dollars per annum; or Two Dollars and a half per quarter, for a less period than a year.—For English Grammar, the Classics, and Sciences, Thirteen Dollars per annum, or Three and a half Dollars per quarter.

The reputation which Mr. Guthrie has acquired as a teacher in the Pittsburgh Academy, renders it unnecessary to say any thing in his favour; and Mrs. Langley's talents in this line, have already been experienced to be such as deserve patronage.

Mrs. Langley will receive Boarders at 50 Dollars per annum, or 12 1/2 Dollars per quarter, (the Boarders finding their own bedding) and to such as she may be favoured with, she engages to pay the strictest attention. Boarding may also be had at other houses in the city.

Applications to be made to Peter Cass, Raleigh, (if by letter, the postage must be paid) of whom any further particulars relative to this establishment may be had.
