MR. NIEL, FROM EUROPE,

INFORMS the inhabitants of Newbern and its vicinity, that he has, and will keep on hand, an assortment of elegant Screens, mattresses, pillows, crickets, tapistry, and ornaments for rooms; and that he makes and repairs Sofas, and stuffed chairs. His address is at Madam Huan's, at the sign of the Eagle in Craven Street.

Newbern Nov. 21, 1818.—36tf. N. B. He will give a fair price for Horse-hair, either prepared or unprepared, in large or small quantities.

HAS just received from New York, and offers for sale on moderate terms, a handsome assortment of Ladies' Beavers. November 21st.—36tf

Lewis Mather, TAILOR,

RESPECTFULLY informs his Customers, and the Public in general that he has just returned from New-York, and has opened Shop on Pollock street, next door to Mr. Stevenson's Tavern. He flatters himself that his knowledge of the business, and his known punctuality, will ensure him a share of public patronage, and he pledges himself to use his utmost exertions to please all who may honour him with their favours.

200 Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, on the 20th of October last, two negro men, SAMPSON and JOE. SAMPSON is about 50 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, dark complexion, and stout built—had on when he went away, a tarpawling hat, and a white woolen homespun jacket and trowsers. JOE is about 30 years of age, 6 feet high, slender built, very black, has had the small pox, with which he is considerably marked, and has lost the middle toe of his left foot—he took with him a new furred hat, and a striped homespun jacket and trowsers. They will probably assume the names of Samuel Brown and Joe Ferrel, and will perhaps have free passes. It is supposed that they are lurking on the seaboard, somewhere between Swansborough & Norfolk. The last accounts received of them state that they were endeavoring to reach Edenton.

The above reward will be given to any person who will deliver them to me, or one hundred and fifty dollars to secure them in any jail, so that I get them.

All persons are hereby cautioned against harbouring, or carrying them away, under the penalty of the law.

Easler Killpatrick.

Duplin County, near Limestone Bridge, March 24. } 3—1f

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, some time in the month of November last, a negro man named ISAAC, about 22 years of age, six feet high, tolerably stout made, and of a black complexion. It is supposed that he is lurking about Little or Big Swift creek, Craven county.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring said negro to me, or secure him in any jail so that I get him; and will pay all reasonable expences.

Masters of vessels and others, are warned from harbouring, employing, or carrying away said fellow, under the penalty of the law.

THE SUBSCRIBERS, Having formed a connexion in Business, under the firm of

Thomas & Cook, MERCHANT TAILORS,

RESPECTFULLY inform all who are in want of any thing in their line of Business, that they have on hand and constantly keep at their clothing store, in Craven-Street, a general assortment of the best and most fashionable broad cloths, cassimeres and trimmings, together with a large assortment of ready made clothing, all of which they are recommending to their friends. As to quality, style and finish, they are inferior to no other establishment.

Likewise all kinds of Tailor's work executed in the best manner, and the most approved style. As they often receive the fashions from New-York, and as they have spared no pains in obtaining the best of goods and workmen, they are determined in like manner to use every exertion to please all who will favour them with their custom.

NATHAN THOMAS, MAJOR COOK.

Newbern Oct. 17, 1818.—n31o.—6m

N. B. The above new arrangement renders it necessary that all accounts due to Nathan Thomas, should be settled without delay. The immediate attention of all who are indebted, or have any demands, is earnestly solicited by NATHAN THOMAS.
