JAMES MONROE,

President of the United States of America,

TO ALL AND SINGULAR TO WHOM THESE

PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING :

WHEREAS a Treaty between the United States of America and the Wyandot Tribe of Indians, was made and concluded, at St. Mary's, in the State of Ohio, on the twentieth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, by Commissioners on the part of the said United States, and certain Chiefs and Warriors of the said Tribe, on the part and in behalf of the said Tribe, which Treaty is in the words following, to wit :

Articles of a Treaty made and concluded at St. Mary's, in the State of Ohio, between Lewis Cass, commissioner of the United States, and the Chiefs and Warriors of the Wyandot Tribe of Indians.

Article 1. The Wyandot Tribe of Indians hereby cede to the United States all the right reserved to them in two tracts of land, in the territory of Michigan, one including the village called Brownstown, and the other the village called Magagua, formerly in the possession of the Wyandot tribe of Indians, containing in the whole not more than five thousand acres of land, which two tracts of land were reserved for the use of the said Wyandot tribe of Indians, and their descendants, for the term of fifty years, agreeably to the provisions of the act of Congress, passed February 28, 1809, and entitled "An Act for the relief of certain Alabama and Wyandot Indians."

Art. 2. In consideration of the preceding cession, the United States will reserve, for the use of the said Wyandot Indians, sections numbered twenty-three, twenty-four, twenty-five, twenty-six, thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six, twenty-seven, and that part of section numbered twenty-two, which contains eight acres, and lies on the South side of the river Huron, being in the fourth township, South of the base line, and in the ninth range east of the first meridian, in the territory of Michigan, and containing four thousand nine hundred and ninety-six acres; and the said tract of land shall be reserved for the use of the said Wyandot Indians, and their descendants, and be secured to them in the same manner and on the same terms and conditions, as is provided in relation to the Alabama Indians, by the first section of the before mentioned act of Congress, except that the said Wyandot Indians, and their descendants, shall hold the said land, so long as they or their descendants, shall occupy the same.

In testimony whereof, the said Lewis Cass, Commissioner as aforesaid, and the Chiefs and Warriors of the said Wyandot Tribes of Indians, have hereunto set their hands, at St. Mary's, in the state of Ohio, this twentieth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

JAMES MONROE,

President of the United States of America,

TO ALL AND SINGULAR TO WHOM THESE

PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING :

WHEREAS a Treaty between the United States of America and the Wea tribe of Indians, was made and concluded, at St. Mary's, on the second day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, by Commissioners on the part of the said United States, and certain sachems, chiefs, and warriors of the said tribe, on the part and in behalf of the said tribe, which treaty is in the words following to wit :

Articles of a Treaty made and concluded at St. Mary's, between the United States of America, by their commissioners, Jonathan Jennings, Lewis Cass, and Benjamin Parke, and the Wea tribe of Indians.

Art. 1. The said Wea tribe of Indians agree to cede to the United States all the lands claimed and owned by the said tribe, within the limits of the states of Indiana, Ohio, and Illinois.

Art. 2. The said Wea tribe of Indians reserve to themselves the following described tract of land, viz. beginning at the mouth of Racoon creek; thence, by the present boundary line, seven miles; thence north-easterly, seven miles, to a point seven miles from the Wabash river; thence to the Wabash river, by a line parallel to the present boundary line aforesaid; and thence, by the Wabash river, to the place of beginning, to be holden by the said tribe as Indian reservations are usually held.

Art. 3. The United States agree to grant to Christmas Dageny and Mary Shields, formerly Mary Dageny, children of Mechiqumeha, sister of Jeco, a chief of the said tribe, and their heirs, one section of land each; but the land hereby granted shall not be conveyed or transferred to any person or persons by the grantees aforesaid, or their heirs, or either of them, but with the consent of the President of the United States.

Art. 4. The said Wea tribe of Indians accede to, and sanction the cession of land made by the Kickapoo tribe of Indians, in the second article of a treaty concluded between the United States and the said Kickapoo tribe, on the ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and nine.

Art. 5. In consideration of the cession made in the foregoing articles of this treaty, the United States agree to pay the said Wea tribe of Indians one thousand eight hundred and fifty dollars annually, in addition to the sum of one thousand one hundred and fifty dollars, (the amount of their former annuity,) making a total of three thousand dollars, to be paid in silver by the United States annually to the said tribe, on the reservation described by the second article of this treaty.

In testimony whereof, the said Jonathan Jennings, Lewis Cass, and Benjamin Parke, commissioners as aforesaid, and the sachems, chiefs, and warriors of the Wea tribe of Indians, have hereunto set their hands, at St. Mary's, in the state of Ohio, this second day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

WHEREAS a Treaty was made and concluded, between the United States of America and the Patawatamie Nation of Indians, at St. Mary's, in the State of Ohio, on the second day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, by commissioners on the part of the said United States, and certain Chiefs and Warriors of the said nation, on the part and in behalf of the said nation which Treaty is in the words following to wit :

Articles of a Treaty made and concluded at St. Mary's, in the State of Ohio, between Jonathan Jennings, Lewis Cass, and Benjamin Parke, Commissioners of the United States, and the Patawatamie Nations of Indians.

Art. 1. The Potawatamie nation of Indians cede to the United States all the country comprehended within the following limits: Beginning at the mouth of the Tippecanoe river, and running up the same to a point twenty-five miles in a direct line from the Wabash river—thence on a line as nearly parallel to the general course of the Wabash river, as practicable, to a point on the Vermillion river, twenty-five miles from the Wabash river, thence down the Vermillion river to its mouth and thence up the Wabash river to the place of beginning. The Potawatamies also cede to the United States all their claim to the country south of the Wabash river.

Art. 2. The United States agree to purchase any just claim, which the Kickapoo may have to any part of the country hereby ceded below Pine Creek.

Art. 3. The United States agree to pay to the Potawatamies a perpetual annuity of two thousand five hundred dollars in silver; one half of which shall be paid at Detroit, & the other half at Chicago, and all annuities which by any former Treaty, the United States have engaged to pay to the Potawatamies, shall be hereafter paid in silver.

Art. 4. The United States agree to grant to the persons named in the annexed Schedule, and their heirs, the quantity of land therein stipulated to be granted; but the land so granted shall never be conveyed by either of the said persons, or their heirs, unless by the consent of the President of the United States.

In testimony whereof the said Jonathan Jennings, Lewis Cass and Benjamin Parke, Commissioners, as aforesaid, and the Sachems, chiefs, and warriors, of the Potawatamie tribe of Indians, have hereunto set their hands at St. Mary's in the State of Ohio, this second day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and of the Independence of the United States the forty-third.

JAMES MONROE,

President of the United States of America,

TO ALL AND SINGULAR TO WHOM THESE

PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING :

WHEREAS a Treaty between the United States of America and the Miami nation of Indians, was made and concluded at St. Mary's, in the state of Ohio, on the sixth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, by Commissioners on the part of the said United States, and certain Chiefs and Warriors of the said nation, on the part and in behalf of the said nation which Treaty is in the words following to wit :

Articles of a treaty made and concluded at St. Mary's, in the State of Ohio, between Jonathan Jennings, Lewis Cass and Benjamin Parke, commissioners of the United States and the Miami nation of Indians.

Art. 1. The Miami nation of Indians cede to the United States the following tract of country, beginning at the Wabash river, where the present Indian boundary line crosses the same near the mouth of Racoon creek; thence up the Wabash river, to the reserve at its head near fort Wayne; thence to the reserve at fort Wayne; thence with the lines thereof to the St. Mary's river; thence up the St. Mary's river to the reservation at the portage; thence with the line of the cession, made by the Wyandot nation of Indians to the United States at the foot of the rapids of the Miami of Lake Erie, on the 28th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & seventeen, to the reservation at Loramie's store; thence with the present Indian boundary line to Fort Recovery and with the said line following the courses thereof to the place of beginning.

Art. 2. From the cession aforesaid the following reservation for the use of the Miami nation of Indians, shall be made; one reservation extending along the Wabash river from the mouth of Salamanie river to the mouth of Eel river, and from those points running due south, a distance equal to a direct line from the mouth of Salamanie river to the mouth of Eel river.—One other reservation, of two miles square, on the river Salamanie, at the mouth of Atchepongawaw creek.—One other reservation, of six miles square, on the Wabash river, below the forks thereof. One other reservation of ten miles square, opposite the mouth of the river A Bonette. One other reservation of ten miles square, at the village on Sugar Tree Creek. One other reservation of two miles square, at the mouth of a creek, called Flat Rock, where the road to White river crosses the same.

Art. 3. The United States agree to grant, by patent, in fee simple, to Jean Bapt. Richardville, principal chief of the Miami nation of Indians, the following tracts of land: Three sections of land beginning about twenty-five rods below his house, on the river of St. Mary's, near fort Wayne; thence at right angles with the course of the river, one mile, and from this line, and the said river, up the stream thereof for quantity. Two sections upon the east side of the St. Mary's river, near fort Wayne, running east one mile with the line of the military reservation; thence from that line and from the river, for quantity. Two sections on the Twenty-seven mile creek, where the road from St. Mary's to fort Wayne crosses it, being one section on each side of said creek.

Two sections on the left bank of the Wabash, commencing at the forks and running down the river.

The United States also agree to grant to each of the following persons, being Miami Indians by birth, and their heirs, the tracts of land herein described.

To Joseph Richardville and Joseph Richardville, jun, two sections of land, being one on each side of St. Mary's river, and below the reservation made on that river by the treaty of Greenville, in 1795.

To Wemetche, or the Crescent, one section below & adjoining the reservation of Anthony Chesne, on the west side of the St. Mary's river, and one section immediately opposite Macultamunqua, or Black Loon.

To Keenquatukqua, or long hair, Aronzon, or twilight, Peconbequa, or a woman striking, Aughquamauda, or difficulty, and to Miahqua or noon, as joint tenants, five sections of land upon the Wabash river, the centre of which shall be the Wyandot village, below the mouth of Tippecanoe river.

To Francois Godfroy, six sections of land on the Salamanie river, at a place called La patte prarie.

To Louis Godfroy, six sections of land on St. Mary's river, above the reservation of Anthony Shane.

To Charley, a Miami chief one section of land on the west side of the St. Mary's river, below the section granted to Pemetche, or the crescent.

To the two eldest children of Peter Langois, two sections of land, at a place formerly called Village Du Puant, at the mouth of the river called Poucaupichoux.

To the children of Antoine Bondie, two sections of land on the border of the Wabash river, opposite a place called L'isle a L'aille.

To Francoise Lafontain, and his son, two sections of land adjoining and above the 2 sections granted to Jean Bapt. Richardville, near fort Wayne on the same side of the St. Mary's river.

To the children of Antonie Rivarre, two sections of land at the mouth of the twenty-seven mile creek, and below the same.

To Peter Langlois' youngest child, one section of land opposite the Chipaille, at the Shawneese village.

To Peter Labadie, one section of land on the river St. Mary's below the section granted to Charley.

To the son of George Hunt, one section of land on the west side of the St. Mary's river adjoining the two sections granted to Francois Lafontain and his son.

To Meshenoqua, or the little turtle, one section of land on the south side of the Wabash where the Portage path strikes the same.

To Josette Peaubien, one section of land on the left bank of the St. Mary's above and adjoining the three sections granted to Jean Bapt. Richardville.

To Ann Turner, a half blooded Miami, one section of land on the north west side of the Wabash river, to commence at the mouth of Fork creek on the west bank of the said creek, and running up said creek one mile in a direct line, thence at right angles with this line for quantity.

To Rebecca Hackley, a half blooded Miami, one section of land, to be located at the Monsey town on White river, so that it shall extend on both sides to include three hundred and twenty acres of the prairie, in the bend of the river
