

POETRY.

PITY.

How lovely in the arch of Heaven,
Appears you sinking orb of light,
As darting thro' the clouds of even.

Sweet is the murmur of the gale,
That whispers through the summer's grove;

Soft is the tone of friendship's tale,
And softer still the voice of love:
Yet softer far the tears that flow,

Richer than richest diadem,
That glitters on the monarch's brow;
Purer than ocean's purest gem,

Is there a spark in earthly mould?
Fraught with one ray of heavenly fire?
Does man one trait of virtue hold,

Let false philosophy decay
The noblest feelings of the mind;
Let wretched sophists muddle try

To sink in nature's last decay,
Without a friend to mourn the fall—
To mark its embers die away,

To take wealth—I know its paltry worth;
Take honor—it will pass away;
Take power—I scorn the bounded earth;

WONDERFUL WOMAN.

Female readers generally, it is supposed, may be amused with the following character of one of their sex—from the life of W. HUTTON:
" But the greatest wonder I saw, was PHEBE BROWN. She was 5 feet 6 inches high, is about thirty, well proportioned, round face, and ruddy—has a dark penetrating eye, which the moment it fixes on your face, sees your character, and that with precision.

complacency and good breeding, will make a man beloved and respected; but when joined with a severe, distant, and unsociable temper, it creates rather fear than love.

PHILADELPHIA, MAY 28, 1819. New-Jersey Navigation Lottery,

By Authority of the State of New-Jersey, passed February, 1819.

TO BE DRAWN AT CAMDEN, OPPOSITE THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA.

Table with 3 columns: Prize amount, Quantity, Total value. Includes prizes from $20,000 down to $10.

8343 prizes; 16657 blanks.—Not two blanks to a prize.

FLOATING PRIZES.

Table listing prize amounts and quantities for floating prizes, ranging from $10,000 to $10.

STATIONARY PRIZES.

Table listing prize amounts and quantities for stationary prizes, ranging from $3,000 to $1000.

WITHOUT DEDUCTION.

25,000 Tickets at Ten Dollars. To draw at least three times a week, and 1000 numbers each day. Prizes payable Without Deduction, sixty days after the drawing is completed.

INTERNAL NAVIGATION, the object of the above Scheme, must be allowed by all, to be of the highest importance to these United States—and every considerate good citizen must feel himself deeply interested on every intimation of undertakings, having internal improvement in view, being set on foot; and be desirous of aiding according to his abilities, towards the promotion thereof.

Under these impressions, the Commissioners, in presenting the above Scheme to a generous public, feel a confidence of general and universal support and encouragement, but more particularly so, from their sister States, of Pennsylvania, New-York, Delaware and Maryland; who, we may safely say, have never appealed in vain to their sister State of New-Jersey: but on the contrary, have been, & ever will be, vigorously supported by her, in the like and other improvements.

As to the Scheme, the Commissioners have endeavoured to suit it to the circumstances of all. The low price of Tickets will preclude very few from an opportunity of securing to themselves an independence for life, or acquiring a very handsome remuneration for the trifling advance.

The many rich prizes it contains, with the others, will all be paid without Deduction at the Camden Bank—where the money received for the Tickets will be deposited immediately to the sole use of the Lottery.

Although there are 25 Capital Stationary Prizes, amounting to $67,500, one for each drawing day, yet there remain afloat many large and valuable Prizes, amounting to the sum of $152,500, as are generally to be met with in a whole Scheme, and the whole payable without any deduction therefrom. And for the accommodation of the fortunate adventurers in the Lottery, who may wish to receive their money immediately, a provision will be made at said Bank for the payment of the Prizes the very day they are drawn, on allowing the customary discount, as in Philadelphia, or New-York.

The Lottery will be drawn at Camden, opposite the City of Philadelphia and the Manager flatters himself that such encouragement will be given by a generous public, as will enable him in the course of a very few weeks, to announce in the papers of the several States, the day the drawing will commence.

Contractors will be allowed a liberal discount.

JOSIAH HARRISON, Manager. Camden, 4 J. May 26, 1819.

LUCIUS Q. C. ELMER, JOSHUA BRICK, JOHN TRENCHARD, Jr. appointed by the Legislature.

The sale of Tickets in the foregoing Scheme is expected to be unusually brisk. It will therefore be the interest of the adventurers to make early application, as Tickets will be soon raised in price.—WHOLE TICKETS, TEN DOLLARS.—HALF TICKETS, FIVE DOLLARS.—QUARTER TICKETS, TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS.—All letters to me must be post paid, and shall be answered by return of mail.

One hundred Dollars Reward FOR AMOS.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 11th of January last, his Negro Man AMOS. He was raised in Wayne County, N. C. by Coor Fender, Esq. and after the old gentleman's death, was sold by Dr. Coor Fender of said county, where I expect he is lurking. AMOS is of a dark complexion, about thirty five years old, five feet six inches high, of a serious countenance, and has one of his fore teeth out.

The Jailor of Wayne, and those of the neighboring Counties, are requested to give me immediate information if such a Negro should be confined in any one of their prisons.

A reward of fifty dollars will be paid on securing him in some safe jail so that I get him again, or one hundred dollars and all reasonable expences discharged on his being delivered to me in Lexington, Georgia.

John Walton. Lexington, Geo. April 29, 1819.—3m59

20 Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber's plantation, in Jones county on the 21st October last, his Negro Man Joe:

he is about 5 feet 8 inches high, black complexioned, in his common walk goes bent forward in his knees, his toes rather inward, has a large scar on one of his hands, occasioned by a burn, and a small piece of one of his ears has been bit off in fighting—he had on when he went away, a pair of blue twilled cloth trousers, a tow and cotton shirt and straw hat, and carried a fiddle with him. He has relations in or near Wilmington, at the plantation of Col. Cowens, where most probably he will aim to get.

All persons are forewarned from employing, harbouring, or conveying said fellow away, under the penalty of the law.

The above reward will be given to any person who will apprehend said fellow, and deliver him to me in Jones county, or confine him in jail, so that I get him again.
