Fort Harrison, on the thirtieth day of August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, by a Commissioner on the part of the said United States, and certain Chiefs, Warriors, and head men, of the tribe aforesaid, on the part and in behalf of the said tribe; which Treaty is in the words following, to wit:

A treaty made and concluded by Benjamin Parke, a commissioner on the part of the United States of America, of the one part, and the Chiefs, Warriors, and head men, of the tribe of Kickapoos of the Vermil-

Article 1. The Chiefs, Warriors, and head men, of the said tribe, agree to cede and hereby relinquish to the United States, all the lands Article 2. And to the end that the

with the other Indian tribes a boundary between their respective claims, the Chiefs, Warriors, and head men, of the said tribe, do hereby declare, their rightful claim is as follows, viz: beginning at the north west corner of the Vincennes tract; thence, westwardly, by the boundary established by a treaty with the Piankeshaws, on the thirtieth day of December eighteen hundred and five, to the dividing ridge between the waters of the Embarras and the Little Wabash; thence by the said ridge to the source of the Vermillion river; thence by the same ridge, to the head of Pine creek; thence, by the said creek, to the Wabash river, to the mouth of the Vermillion river; and thence by the Vermillion and the boundary heretofore established, to the place of beginning.

Article 3. The said Chiefs, Warriors, and head men, of the said tribe, agree to relinquish, and they do hereby exonerate and discharge the United States from the annuity of one thousand dollars, to which they are now entitled. In consideration whereof, and of the cession hereby made, the United States agree to pay the said tribe, two thousand dollars annually, in specie, for ten years, which, together with three thousand dollars now delivered, is to be considered a full compensation for the cession hereby made, as also all annuities, or other claims of the said tribe against the United States, by virtue of any treaty with the United States.

Article 4. As the said tribe contemplate removing from the country they now occupy, the annuity herein provided for shall be paid at such place as may be hereafter agreed upon between the United States and said tribe.

Article 5. This treaty after the same shall be ratified by the Presi-
