Latest from England.

CHARLESTON, MARCH 12.
By the arrival yesterday of the ship Martina, Captain LUNT, 44 days from Plymouth, (Eng.) London papers to the 25th January, were received at the morning paper offices. Their principal contents are copied in our columns.

LONDON, JANUARY 21.
The Lord Mayor has appointed Friday next for holding a Common Hall for the purpose of petitioning Parliament to cause her Majesty's name to be restored to the Liturgy, &c.

JANUARY 22.
We have received Paris papers of the 17th and 18th, from which we have made copious extracts. The Moniteur contains a Commercial Decree, which is very favorable to England, but which give much offence to the jealous Yankees:—

ROYAL ORDINANCE.

LOUIS, by the Grace of God, &c.
Having taken into consideration our Ordinance of the 25th July last, by which we have granted a premium of six francs per 100 kilograms for cotton wools of both Americas, of which French vessels go in search, out of Europe, except in the ports of the United States of America; and being desirous that this premium may not be abusively applied to cargoes taken on board in countries reputed to be out of Europe, but too near to the ports of the Continent to admit of the distant voyage provided by the regulation—we do, therefore, on the Report of our Minister of Finance, and after consulting the Council of State, order what follows:

ARTICLE 1.—The premium granted by our Ordinance of the 26th July last, for the cotton wool of the two Americas, conveyed by French vessels, will not be allowed, except on cargoes taken on board out of Europe, and the islands in the vicinity of its continent, to the exclusion of the United States of America.

2.—The islands of the Canaries, the Azores, Malta, and Madeira, shall not, in consequence, be deemed out of Europe.

Our Minister Secretary of the Finances shall be charged with the due execution of this Ordinance.

(Signed) "LOUIS."
(Subjoined) "ROY."

The Thuilleries, 10th January, 1821.

JANUARY 23.

His Majesty's determination of opening the Parliament in person being generally known, the crowd assembled in Waterloo palace and the immediate vicinity of the palace was immense—At half past one his Majesty left his palace at Carlton House, and escorted by a large body of Horse Guards, proceeded in state to the House of Lords. The acclamations of loyalty were very loud, though as the Courier confesses, there was some manifestation of dislike evinced. "The Queen! the Queen!" was continually repeated with enthusiasm; and some were even audacious enough to hiss! Her majesty, it is said, was distinguished among those who applied for tickets of admission for her household, into the House of Lords. The House was crowded to excess, and as it should seem, the gentlemen of the House of Commons were very unceremoniously squeezed by the crowd of strangers admitted.

His Majesty then delivered the following

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE:

"My Lords and Gentlemen,
"I have the satisfaction of acquainting you, that I continue to receive from Foreign Powers the strongest assurances of their friendly disposition towards this country.

"It will be a matter of deep regret to me, if the occurrences which have lately taken place in Italy should eventually lead to any interruption of tranquility in that quarter; but it will in such case be my great object to secure to my people the continuance of peace.

"Gentlemen of the House of Commons
"The measures by which, in the last Session of Parliament, you made provision for the expenses of my Civil Government, and for the honor and dignity of the Crown demand my warmest acknowledgments.

"I have directed that the Estimates for the current year shall be laid before you: and it is a satisfaction to me to have been enabled to make some reduction in our Military Establishments.

"You will observe from the Accounts of the Public Revenue, that notwithstanding the Receipts in Ireland have proved materially deficient, in consequence of the unfortunate circumstances which have affected the Commercial Credit of that part of the United Kingdom, and altho' our Foreign Trade, during the early part of this time, was in a state of depression; the total Revenue has, nevertheless, exceeded that of the preceding year.

"A considerable part of this increase must be ascribed to the new taxes; but in some of those branches which are the surest indications of internal wealth, the augmentation has fully realized any expectation which could have been reasonably formed of it.

"The separate provision which was made for the Queen, as Princess of Wales, in the year 1814, terminated with the demise of his late Majesty.

"I have, in the mean time, directed advances, as authorized by law; and it will, under present circumstances, be for you to consider what new arrangements should be made on this subject.

"My Lords and Gentlemen,

"I have great pleasure in being able to acquaint you, that considerable improvement has taken place within the last half year in several of the most important branches of our commerce, and manufactures; and that, in many of the manufacturing districts, the distresses which prevailed at the commencement of the session of Parliament have greatly abated.

"It will be my most anxious desire to concur in every measure which may be considered as calculated to advance our internal prosperity.

"I well know that, notwithstanding the agitation produced by temporary circumstances, and amidst the distress which still presses upon a large portion of my subjects, the firmest reliance may be placed on that affectionate and loyal attachment to my Person and Government, of which I have recently received so many testimonials from all of my kingdom; and which, whilst it is most grateful to the strongest feelings of my heart, I shall ever consider as the best and surest safeguard of my Throne.

"In the discharge of the important duties imposed on you, you will, I am confident, be sensible of the indispensable necessity of promoting and maintaining, to the utmost of your power, a due obedience to the laws, and of instilling into all classes of my subjects, a respect for lawful authority, and for those established Institutions under which the Country has been enabled to overcome so many difficulties, and to which, under Providence, may be ascribed our happiness and renown, as a Nation."

The Queen's Household.—We have to announce the appointments of the Duke of Roxburgh to be Chamberlain, and of Lord Hood to be Steward and Comptroller of her Majesty's Household.

It is now understood that Ministers tendered their resignations immediately after the failure of the Bill of Pains and Penalties; but were prevailed on to retain them. Should the arrangement which they mean to propose for the Queen, on the meeting of Parliament not meet the support of a decided majority of the House of Commons, it is said they are determined to remain no longer in office.—Globe.

Some time ago the Duke of Wellington was appointed to the Governorship of Plymouth, vacant by the death of the Duke of Richmond. A morning paper states, the Duke of Wellington has transferred its whole revenue, about 3000l. per annum, to the widow of his late friend and predecessor.

LORD ERSKINE

Having instituted an action of divorce in Scotland against Lady ERSKINE his wife, on the ground of adultery alleged to have been committed in England, she denied the jurisdiction of the Court, pleading that he had been in Scotland but a few hours, and that the true and proper domicile of both parties were in England. On the 29th of last December, Lord ERSKINE abandoned the suit, stating that he should institute a new one in the English consistorial Court.

A circumstance of a singular nature occurred at the new chapel, Birmingham, Eng. on Saturday evening, the 30th December. The Rev. Mr. James and a congregation of upwards of 200 persons were plunged in total darkness—the connecting pipe of the gas works being cut off, it is supposed by some malicious persons. The screams of females and children, and the stench of the gas, threatened suffocation and destruction, and the alarm and anxiety to get out of the chapel was extreme. Many persons suffered, but none very severely.

100 Dollars Reward

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, in March, 1818, a negro man named DICK, about 25 years of age, five feet ten inches high, of a black complexion, very well made, and plays on the violin. He left me in Greene county, passed through Pitt, and was traced to Bertie county from whence he was originally brought. I have understood he was raised by Moses Sumner, of Hertford county, and said Sumner sold him to John Williford of Bertie, by whom he was sold to Giles Driver of said county, from which last owner he was bought by the subscriber, of Greene county.

Any person who will apprehend said negro and confine him in any jail so that I get him again, shall be entitled to the above reward, exclusive of all reasonable expenses.—I forewarn masters of vessels and all other persons from employing or harboring said negro under the penalty of the law.

BOARDERS.

THE Subscriber, residing conveniently to the Academy, will accommodate a few Female Students as Boarders.—Every necessary attention will be given to such children as may be placed under her care—the terms will be moderate.

ELIZABETH BARTLETT.
Newbern, March 17—156 3w.

RAN AWAY

FROM the Subscriber, on the 20th instant, a negro man named HAMMOND, aged about 28 years, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, dark complexion, and has a scar on his breast; when spoken to has a down look; he can read and write, and I expect will write himself a pass; he generally carries a book about him. Had on when he went away, a long brown surtout coat, and blue cloth pantaloons. I expect he is about Wilmington, and may make for Newbern or Fayetteville.

I will give a reward of TWENTY DOLLARS for his delivery to me, near Wilmington, or to any jailor in the state, and all reasonable expenses paid. Masters of vessels are strictly forbid harboring or carrying away said negro, as, upon conviction, the penalty of the law will be indiscriminately enforced.

No. 8. Bay Colt, 2 years old, by Old Strap, out of No. 2.

No. 9. Brown Bay Colt, 1 year old, by Old Strap, out of No. 3. The two Colts will make Racers, and the Filly promises fair for a Racer or Brood Mare.

No. 10. Chesnut Colt, (Goldfinder) 4 years old; got by Old Strap, his dam, No. 4. He promises to make one of the best runners in America: He is a handsome Colt, and of the most animated appearance.

I can give the pedigree of the Mares for many generations; all of which will shew that, they are as purely bred as it foaled and bred in England or Arabia; and they are of the most judicious and valuable cross of blood that is in all England. They are healthy and well broke, to the plough; spirited, docile, and durable. They are proven Brood Mares; being sure, and valuable breeders.

I will sell the whole for money, or on a credit, with approved security and interest till next January.

Those who wish to buy, would do well to apply soon, as I have had several messages sent me on the subject; and the Mares, Colts and Filly are of superior kind to the most of Studs in America.
