AN ACT further to amend the Charter of the Town of Alexandria.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That tenements and lots of ground within the town of Alexandria, on which taxes, assessments or charges, remain due and unpaid to the Common Council of the said town, for the space of two years, or shall hereafter remain due or unpaid, for that space of time, or so much of said lots as may be necessary, may be sold at public auction, for the payment of the taxes, assessments, or charges, which are, or shall be due thereon, with the expenses attending the sale: Provided, That, before any such sale be made, an affidavit of the Collector of the District or Ward, in which such lots lie, stating that no goods or chattels of the person or persons charged with the payment of such taxes, assessments, or charges, sufficient to satisfy the same, can be found within the corporation, shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Common Council: And, provided, That public notice of the time and place of such sale, shall be given, by advertising in some newspaper published in the town of Alexandria, for at least six months, where the property is assessed to persons residing out of the United States; three months, where the property is assessed to persons residing within the United States, but without the District of Columbia; and six weeks, when the property is assessed to persons residing within the District of Columbia; in which notice shall be stated, the street or streets, on which lots lie, the streets by which the square in which they lie is bounded, the name of the person or persons to whom they have been last assessed, on the books of the Assessors, and the amount of the taxes, assessments or charges, due thereon: And provided further, That the purchaser or purchasers shall not be obliged to pay, at the time of such sale, more than the taxes, assessments or charges due, and the expenses of sale; and that, if, within two years from the day of sale, the proprietor or proprietors of such lot, his, her or their heirs, representatives or agents, shall repay to such purchaser, or to the Mayor, the money paid for such taxes, assessments, or charges and expenses, as aforesaid, with ten per centum per annum, as interest thereon, or to make a tender of the same, he or she shall be re-instated in his, her or their original title; but if no such tender be made, within two years next after such sale, then the purchaser shall pay the balance of the purchase money of such lot or lots, into the Treasury of the Common Council, where it shall remain, subject to the order of the proprietor or proprietors, or his or their legal representatives; and the purchaser, on the payment of the whole amount of the purchase money, shall receive a title to the said lot or lots, in fee simple, from the Mayor, under his hand, and the seal of his office, which shall be deemed good and valid in law, and equity.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Common Council of Alexandria shall have power to provide for the establishment, maintenance and superintendance of public schools, and for the registering of births, marriages and deaths, and shall have power to preserve the navigation of the Potomac river, within their jurisdiction; to erect, repair, and regulate public wharves and deepen docks and basins, and to limit the extension of private wharves, into the harbor; to authorize, with the approbation of the President of the United States, the drawing of lotteries, for effecting any important improvement in and to the town, which the ordinary funds and revenue thereof will not accomplish; to restrain and prohibit the drawing of other lotteries, the keeping of tipping houses, and all kinds of gambling; to provide for the licensing, taxing and regulating auctions; theatrical, and public shows and amusements, and vendors of lottery tickets; to appoint gaugers of casks, inspectors of domestic spirits, measurers and inspectors of wood, lumber and bark, grain, coal, beef, pork, fish, butter and lard; weighers of hay, fodder and straw; and to regulate, by law, the inspection, measurement, and weighing of the articles aforesaid; to regulate party and other walls and fences, and to determine by whom they shall be kept in repair, to direct in what part of the town buildings of wood shall not be erected, and to regulate the size of bricks to be made or used; and shall have power to restrain and prohibit the nightly and other disorderly meetings of slaves, free negroes and mulattoes, and to punish such slaves, by whipping, not exceeding forty stripes, or, at the option of the owner of such slave, by fine or confinement to labour, not exceeding three months for every one offence; and to punish such free negroes and mulattoes for such offences, by fixed penalties, not exceeding twenty dollars for one offence; and in case of the failure of such free negro and mulatto, to pay and satisfy such penalty and costs, to cause such free negro or mulatto to be confined to labor for any time, not exceeding six months for any one offence; to cause and provide for the removal of all such paupers, vagrants and other persons, as may not be legally entitled to residence within the said corporation; to punish, by fine or penalty, any minor or apprentice, guilty of any breach of any law of the corporation, and unless such fine or penalty be paid by the parent, guardian or master of such minor or apprentice, by confinement to labor for a limited time, not exceeding three months for one offence.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the said Common Council shall have power to subscribe to the stock of the turnpike road, which is authorized to be made by an act of the General Assembly of Virginia, passed the fourteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, entitled "An act incorporating a company to establish a turnpike road from Wiley's Tavern, in the county of Fairfax, to a point of intersection on the Little River turnpike road, or on the line of the District of Columbia," and to any turnpike road, or other public improvement, which has been, or may be, authorized by an act of Congress, leading to the town of Alexandria; and the said Common Council may lay and tax on the property in the said town, to promote any public improvement for the benefit of the said town, when, in the opinion of the said Common Council, it may be expedient, which said taxes may be collected as all other taxes are or may be directed to be collected.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That so much of an act passed the twenty-sixth of May, eighteen hundred and twenty-four, entitled "An act supplementary to the act to incorporate the inhabitants of the City of Washington, passed the fifteenth of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and for other purposes," as relates to the town of Alexandria, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

AN ACT to amend the several acts for the establishment of a Territorial Government in Florida.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the superior courts of the territory of Florida, within their respective districts, shall have and exercise original jurisdiction in all civil causes of law and equity, whether arising under the laws of the said territory or otherwise, where the sum in controversy shall amount to one hundred dollars; and shall have original and exclusive cognizance of all civil causes of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, including all seizures under laws of impost, navigation or trade, of the United States, whether such seizures be made on land or water; and of all suits for penalties and forfeitures incurred under the laws of the United States; and original, but not exclusive jurisdiction, of all suits in which the United States shall be a party, whatever may be the amount in controversy in such causes and suits; and shall have and exercise appellate jurisdiction, in all civil causes, originating in the inferior courts of the said Territory, whatever may be the amount in controversy; and shall have and exercise original and exclusive jurisdiction of all crimes and offences committed against the laws of the said Territory, where the punishment shall be death; and original and appellate jurisdiction of all other crimes and offences committed against the laws of the said Territory; and original and exclusive jurisdiction of all crimes and offences which shall be cognisable, under the authority of the United States, committed within the respective districts of the said superior courts, or upon the high seas.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said superior courts, and court of appeals, in term, and the judges thereof, in vacation, shall, respectively, have full power and authority, in all civil causes and criminal cases, to issue writs of habeas corpus of error, of certiorari, of mandamus, of prohibition of scire facias, and of quo warranto, according to the principles and rules of law.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the said superior courts, respectively, shall be held as occasion may require, to prevent a delay of justice for the trial of causes of admiralty of maritime jurisdiction, and for the hearing of causes in equity, as often as the judges of the said courts, respectively, shall deem fit to appoint.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the said superior courts, respectively, shall have power, in cases where there has been a trial by jury, to grant new trials, as often as may be deemed necessary for the due administration of justice, for reasons for which new trials have usually been granted in the courts of law, and shall have power to administer all necessary oaths or affirmations, and to make and establish all necessary rules of practice and pleading, and for the orderly conducting of the business of the said courts: Provided, Such rules be not repugnant to the laws of the United States, or of the said Territory.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the said superior courts, where the matter in dispute shall amount to the sum or value of one hundred dollars, exclusive of costs to the court of appeals of said Territory; in all civil causes of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; in all causes of seizure, under the laws of impost, navigation and trade, of the United States; in all suits for penalties and forfeitures incurred under the laws of the United States, and in all suits in which the United States shall be a party; in all civil causes in law and equity, arising under the Constitution and laws of the United States, and treaties made, and which shall be made, under their authority, and in all civil cases affecting Ambassadors, other public Ministers and Consuls; in controversies between citizens of two different States, and between aliens and citizens of the United States, in the same manner, and under the same regulations, as appeals are directed to be taken from a district to a circuit court of the United States. And writs of error and appeals shall lie, and may be taken from the final decisions of the said court of appeals, in all such cases to the supreme court of the United States, in the same manner, and under the same restrictions and regulations, as writs of error and appeals are directed to be taken from the circuit courts of the United States. And in all other cases, writs of error and appeal may be taken and prosecuted from said superior courts to the court of appeals, in such manner as the Legislative Council, have directed, or shall direct.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the regulations prescribed by the nineteenth, twentieth, twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third and twenty-fourth sections of the act of the twenty-fourth of September, seventeen hundred and eighty-nine, entitled "An act to establish the judicial courts of the United States," and by the act of the twelfth of December, seventeen hundred and ninety-four, entitled "An act to amend and explain the twenty-second section of the act establishing the judicial courts of the United States," as far as said regulations shall be practicable, shall be observed in respect to all writs of error and appeals from the said superior courts to the court of appeals in the cases enumerated in the first part of the preceding section, and in writs of error and appeals from the said court of appeals to the supreme court of the United States.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the clerks of the said courts, respectively, where the courts are held, shall keep correct, particular and regular minutes and records of every day's proceedings of the said courts, and the said clerks, marshals and district attorneys, shall respectively receive for their services, in all causes of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, and in causes arising on seizures under the laws of impost, navigation and trade of the United States, the same fees and compensation as are allowed by law, to the clerks, marshals, and district attorneys, of the district court of the United States for Louisiana district, in similar causes; and in all other causes, such fees as have been or shall be hereafter established by the Legislative Council of the said Territory. And the clerk, United States' attorney and marshal, of the court of appeals, shall have the same fees and compensation for attending said court, whilst exercising the powers of a circuit court, as directed in this act, as are allowed to the clerk, attorney and marshals of the circuit courts of the United States; and, in all other cases, such fees as the Legislative Council of said Territory have established, or may direct.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That the judges of the superior courts shall only be required to hold a court in one other place, in their respective districts, than the one assigned by the laws of the United States, to be designated by the Governor and Legislative Council; and so much of any law as restricts said courts to a particular number of days, for the trial of causes arising under the constitution and laws of the United States, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That the marshals of each district shall reside within the same, and execute all the process of said courts, whether arising under the laws of the United States, or of said Territory; and perform all the duties of ministerial officers of the same; and shall execute bond with security, to be approved by said judges, conditioned for the performance of the duties required of the executive officers, by the laws of said Territory, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, which shall be recorded by the clerks of said courts.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That thirteen persons shall be annually elected by the people of said Territory, who shall compose the Legislative Council thereof, each of whom shall be an inhabitant of said Territory, and shall have no other qualification, and the term for which he shall be elected shall be one year, to commence on the second Monday of December annually. And it shall be the duty of the Governor to divide the said Territory into thirteen convenient districts, so as to give to each district, as near as may be, an equal number of free white inhabitants, for the purpose of electing members of the Legislative Council of said Territory; and he shall also designate places for holding elections in each district, and appoint judges or managers to preside at, and conduct the same, who shall take the same oath, and observe the same formality, as is now required by law, in the election of Delegate to Congress. The time and place of holding the elections shall be made known, by proclamation, and sent to each district, respectively; and it shall be lawful for the inhabitants within the respective districts, who are, or may be qualified voters, under the laws of the same, to elect one person in each district, as a member of the Legislative Council. And it shall be the duty of the said judges or managers, in each district, to make a return to the Governor of every person voted for as a member of the Legislative Council, in such district, together with the number of votes which each person shall have received, written in full, opposite his name; and the votes in each district shall be canvassed by the Governor and Secretary of the Territory, or by such other persons, or in such other manner, as the Legislative Council may hereafter direct by law; and the person in each district, having the greatest number of legal votes, shall be declared elected, and entitled to a seat in the Legislative Council; and in case two or more persons shall have the greatest, and an equal number of votes in any district, it shall be lawful for the Governor to order a new election in such district, in such manner, and at such time, as the Legislative Council may by law prescribe. And the said Legislative Council shall hold a session in every year, commencing on the second Monday in December, in each year, at the seat of Government in said Territory, and continue not longer than six weeks; and the members of said Council shall receive three dollars each per day, during their attendance in Council, and three dollars for every twenty miles, to be estimated by the actual distance from the place of residence to the Seat of Government, and so distinctly certified by the Governor of said Territory, in going to, and returning from any meeting of the Legislative Council, once in each session, and no more; and the first election shall be held on the first Monday of October next, and at such times thereafter, and under such regulations, as the Governor and Legislative Council shall direct.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That the members of the Legislative Council shall not be eligible to any office created during the period of their service, or the fees of which were regulated by laws passed whilst they were members, or for one year thereafter.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Legislative Council to pass any law imposing a higher tax on the lands of non-residents, than those of residents of said Territory.

Sec. 13. And be it further enacted, That so much of the several acts of which this is an amendment, as may be inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby, repealed; and so much of any of the laws of said Territory, as are repugnant to the same, are disapproved and annulled.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, That the several acts passed by the Governor & Legislative Council granting divorces; the four first sections of "An act to amend an act to define crimes," &c. approved December tenth, eighteen hundred and twenty-five; and "An act to prescribe the forms of actions," &c. approved December fifth, eighteen hundred and twenty-five; the act "In addition and amendment of an act to determine fees," &c. approved December ninth, eighteen hundred and twenty-five; and "An act to amend an act regulating judicial proceedings," &c. approved December eighth, eighteen hundred and twenty-five; "An act to provide, in part, for raising a revenue," approved the ninth of December, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, be, and the same are hereby, disapproved and annulled.
