bill has been brought into the House Representatives of Georgia, to make the estates of all attornies at law liable to pay, before any other debts, all sums of money placed in their hands for collection.

Few persons are aware of the extent o the business done in some of the printing bout 7 wiles from this town, by the passage offices of the United States, or the number of persons who obtain their bread in that nidea of it. The National Intelligencer tates that, there are now employed in that fice, ninety-seven persons, including the two editors and clerks. If the reporters be added, they have the round number of ne hundred. So large a number of worknen of course turn out a considerable quanfity of work. Of this an opinion may be formed from the fact, that the quantity of paper consumed in that office within week, exceeded three hundred reams.
