...for the Clergyman, the Lawyer and the Physi-
...for persons in any other situation? and if
...to then is not that system which thus prepares ...the candidates for these professions, superior to those ...which do not? I will leave the answer to every ...reflecting mind. As it is generally considered ...of importance to young gentlemen, especially to ...those destined for the learned professions, to ob...tain Diplomas after having completed a course ...of education at a Seminary, arrangements will ...be made in the course of the ensuing season, for ...conferring Diplomas in the usual form, upon all ...the young gentlemen who shall not complete a ...course of education at this Institution. Those ...who do not go through a full course will receive ...certificates, stating the branches to which they ...have attended, the progress made therein, and ...their conduct generally. The best times for ...joining the Institution, are at the close of the ...vacation, about the 12th of January, which is the ...proper commencement of the year, from the 1st
...to the 15th of May, and from the 20th to the 31st ...of August. The best ages for candidates are ...from 14 to 17 years, although many youths may ...join advantageously, especially those that are to ...remain several years, before the age of 14, and ...others who are more than 17, provided their habits ...and morals are correct. The regulations, hitherto ...have allowed the admission of candidates for ...as short a time as one year. Joining, however,
...for a short time, have been always con...sidered, is neither to the advantage of the Seminary, ...nor the student. A first year is much more ex...pensive than any subsequent one, and the advan...tage to the student is less—as it requires some ...time for a young man, after joining a Seminary,
...to feel himself at home, and become acquainted ...with the instructors, the mode of instruction, ...and the general routine of duty. He consequently ...cannot learn as much under these circum...stances, as he would in any equal portion of ...time after he has become acquainted. Besides, ...a year is too short a period for a youth to pre...pare himself in the best manner for the ordinary ...duties of active life. If for instance, he is in...tended for the counting house, with the view of ...being a Merchant, it is not sufficient that he know ...enough of Arithmetic to cast up accounts, or that ...he be acquainted with the usual course of Book...keeping, or with the ordinary duties of a store, ...but to make an enlightened and safe Merchant,
...he should be well versed in the principles of ...Commerce at home and abroad, and with the ...commercial policy of foreign nations, and its ...effects upon our own commerce. He should also ...be well versed in the principles of Political ...Economy and of International Law—he should fur...ther be well acquainted with Geography and ...History, and a good knowledge of the Mathematics ...and of Navigation, certainly would not be amiss.
...To the foregoing should be added a correct ...knowledge of the French and Spanish Lan...guages. Now this cannot be thoroughly acquired in ...one year; it would probably require at least ...two years to accomplish the whole. From the ...best estimate I have been able to make, after ...many years experience, the following periods of ...time are necessary for a young man to be well ...prepared for the following pursuits, viz:
...For the active duties of life, such as merchants,
...agriculturists, Manufacturers, Surveyors, Military
...Instructors, Teachers of respectable English ...Schools, &c. two years.
...For Scientific, Civil and Military Engineers,
...Navigators, &c. three years.
...For any of the learned professions, which sup...pose a complete knowledge of the classics in ad...dition to the other branches, five years.
...The foregoing estimate supposes that the student ...is of the proper age to commence advantage...ously, and that he begins at the elements. It ...also supposes, that he possesses, at least, a me...dium capacity and application. Those who pos...sess a greater share of talent and application, ...would complete the requisite course in a less time.
...For these reasons, and being very desirous that ...none of my pupils should enter upon any business ...for which they are not perfectly prepared, I pro...pose, after the general examination in Aug. 1827,
...to admit students for a less time than two years.
...If any one, however, after he has joined, should ...by close application to his studies and duties, ...prepare himself for any occupation for which he ...may be designed in less time than two years, and ...should not wish to remain that length of time, ...he will be recommended and discharged accord...ingly. Before I conclude, I deem it my duty to ...call the attention of the Parents, Guardians and ...Friends of my pupils, to that article of the ...regulations which prohibits their being furnished ...with money, otherwise than by the Superintendent ...or his order. I wish it to be distinctly under...stood, that this article is to be observed strictly ...according to its letter. The violations of it have ...caused the dismissal of more members of the ...Seminary than all others put together. A parent ...cannot do his son a greater injury than to trespass
...on this rule.
...I also deem it my duty further to call the atten...tion of Parents and Guardians to that article of ...the Regulations, relative to Furloughs. I wish it ...to be distinctly understood, that no Furlough or ...leave of absence will be granted in any case, ...except in cases of sickness, or other evident ne...cessity, and then the application for such Fur...lough or leave of absence must be made directly ...to the Superintendent, & not through the medium ...of the cadet. Frequent absences are attended ...with the most unfavourable effects on the pro...gress of the students, and likewise cause a ...perpetual interruption to the regular duties of the ...institution, of which they are members. They ...unsettle the mind of the student, and keep ...him constantly restless and uneasy, and it is a ...fact, of the truth of which I am well convinced, ...that every separate week that one is absent,
...causes a loss of at least three weeks in his ...studies. There is one other subject to which I ...also consider it my duty to call the attention of ...parents and guardians, & that is, the impolicy ...of sending youths of dissipated and otherwise im...moral and vicious habits, who have attained the ...ages of 16 or 17 years and upwards to this Sem...inary, or to any other, where strict discipline ...is maintained. They should recollect that youths ...who have attained to those ages, or have passed ...them with a parcel of bad habits, are not so easily ...reformed as they may suppose. The result ...with such generally is, that when placed under ...a strict system of discipline, where they find ...themselves checked in their wayward courses, ...they soon become restive, violate the regulations,
...and eventually get dismissed. It is much easier ...to prevent a youth from acquiring bad habits, ...by properly restraining him at an early age, than
...to correct those habits after they are acquired
...and confirmed. Signed, J. P. BRIDGES,
...Superintendent, October, 1826.

Oxford Female Academy.
SEVERAL Gentlemen from a distance, having requested information respecting the course of Studies pursued in this Institution, the manner of teaching, price of board, tuition, &c. we embrace the present opportunity of making a public statement on those subjects.
The following branches are taught, viz. Reading, Spelling, Plain and Ornamental Penmanship, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography with the use of the Globes, Projecting & Drawing Maps, Biography, Belles Lettres, Grecian Roman and Jewish Antiquities, Botany, Mineralogy, Chemistry, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, Philosophy of the Mind, and Plain and Ornamental Needle-work.
The price of Board and Tuition in the above Branches, is sixty dollars per session of 5 months.
Music thirty—Painting and Drawing twenty—Latin Language ten—French ten dollars.
With regard to the manner of Teaching, the Instructors keep one object constantly in view, viz. to bring the understanding into exercise, without burdening the memory. We do not think we have accomplished great things, simply because we can persuade a child to repeat a long lesson from the book. It is our object to fix the attention on particular facts and to get the pupil to understand the nature of those facts; and this not only in the higher branches, but in the first elements. In simple Arithmetic, and English Grammar, we commence in this way; and by this method, we gain not only much more rapid progress in the first stages, but what in our opinion is of vastly greater importance, we get the pupil, almost without exception, to be fond of the study in which she is engaged. Study is then not an odious task, but a delightful employment. Nothing is more pleasing to youth than to discover the strength of their own powers of understanding. This discovery we endeavor to get them to make, and when this is accomplished we have no fears, but corresponding efforts will be made to bring those powers into exercise. Since the commencement of the Session, we have received a Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus; and now, each recitation in Chemistry, Philosophy and Astronomy, is accompanied with a Lecture and Experiments illustrating the principles of those sciences.
A close and parental watchfulness is exercised over the young ladies who board with the Principal, and while every necessary indulgence for exercise and recreation will be allowed them, nothing inconsistent with strict decorum & gentle manners will be permitted.
The local situation of this Institution is peculiarly propitious. The healthfulness of the place is extraordinary. Not an instance of serious illness has ever been known among the pupils, since a boarding school has been established here; and since the commencement of the last summer session, they have enjoyed uninterrupted health. The moral character of the society of Oxford and the vicinity, needs not our commendation; and what we consider equally favorable for the institution is, that a lively interest is manifested for its prosperity, and our first families pay every attention to the young ladies from abroad, consistent with the attainment of the object for which they were sent here by their Parents and Guardians. The Principal has four Assistants, three ladies and one gentleman, all constantly engaged—and we take this opportunity of assuring the public, that no exertion or expense within their power shall be wanting to make the Institution what it ought to be.

tion for Representatives to Congress and during the month of August. No candidates have as yet come out in opposition, to the re-election to Congress of Messrs.

Barringer, Alston, Hines, Bryan, Holmes, are quite certain that some of them will be opposed.

are, Daniel Turner, William M. Sneed,

Strange Partnership.—Charles Rhea and Samuel Atkinson, have recently associated themselves as Editors of the Weekly Messenger, a paper published in Rus-selville, Ky. and to satisfy their patrons generally in the present state of the Presidential canvass, one is declared to be a friend of General Jackson, and the other of Mr. Adams.

The attempt to form what is called a Legislative Jackson Caucus, at Harrisburg, seems to have miscarried, virtually. Only 35 members of the legislature attended. It is observed, however by a prominent advocate of Genl. Jackson in the legislature, that he and others of the same side did not appear at the Caucus, because they were of opinion that either the nomination of their candidate ought to be left to a convention of delegates from the several counties, or the election to the People, without formal nomination.

Late and important.—Arrivals at Boston and Baltimore, bring information of considerable importance.
On Monday, the 19th February, a report was circulated, of the death of the Duke of Cumberland, who had been for some time suffering under an inflammatory disease.
The Globe considered, from the manner in which the information had been made public, that the report was correct.
On the 18th, the Earl of Liverpool was seized with an apoplectic attack; he was alone at the time the fit came upon him, and on the door being opened he was found apparently lifeless on the floor. On the 19th, he was better; but it is observed by one of the London Journals, that there is not the slightest ground for supposing that he can ever again return to public business.

Green Peas, &c.—On the morning of the 23d, Green Peas were in our market and we were informed by a gentleman of this vicinity, that he has had them on his table several days ago. One of our neighbours also had new potatoes on his table yesterday, some of which were nearly as large as a common hen's egg.

Pickett, John A. Cameron, John Culpepper and John Gilchrist.
In the ninth district, General Saunders having declined, we understand that Augustine H. Shepherd and Bedford Brown, are candidates.
Virginia Elections.—The Elections in Virginia, for Members of Congress and for Delegates to the Legislature, take place throughout the State, in all this month.— Philip P. Barbour has been chosen without opposition, a Representative to Congress, vice Mr. Taylor. The election in the Norfolk district was warmly contested between Mr. Newton, the father of the H. of Representatives and a supporter of the Administration, and Mr. Loyall, a Jacksonian. The returns from the district have only partially reached us, but no doubt is entertained of the success of Mr. Newton.
Messrs. Stevenson and Mercer have been re-elected from their respective districts.

North American Review.—We have just received the number of this valuable Review, for April, the contents of which do not detract from the reputation of its editors. The combination of talents by which this work is sustained and its evident tendency to improve the taste and enlarge the understanding, has secured for it a patronage, which it richly deserves.
The number before us, contains an article, concerning Judge Murphey's proposed History of this State, in which the Reviewer remarks, that "the history of few of the States is so little known, as that of North-Carolina. This has not been for want of materials or of important events to record.
When all these shall be brought to light, it will be found, that North Carolina, both in its early character and in its progress, has maintained a place among the very first of the States." After remarking on the great utility of well written histories, the Reviewer suggests the following advice, which we think it would be politic in Judge Murphey to follow:—
"We confess that we are a little startled to hear Judge Murphey talk of extending his history to six or eight octavo volumes, exclusive of geology, mineralogy, botany, and meteorology.— Who will ever read such a history? Suppose the historians of all the States were to be as retard, what would be done with all the books?
They might be piled up in libraries, but they never would be taken down. It is idle to write books, that never will be read. If the author will take our advice, he will confine himself strictly to the History of North-Carolina, scrupulously keeping clear of all extraneous matters, and such as have only a remote bearing on this subject. Let him keep close to this purpose, and compress all his materials into two octavo volumes, in which every line shall contain a fact, and every sentence a point, and the whole be arranged with clearness, method, and in just proportions. Such a work will answer its important ends; it will be sought after and read."

The President of the United States has recognised Charles John Peshall, Esq. as Consul of his Britannic Majesty for the State of North-Carolina, to reside at Wilmington.

The United States Senate.—Of the sixteen Senators of the United States, whose term of service will be six years from the 4th of March, all have been elected, except one from Massachusetts whose election has been postponed till June.—The names are as follows:
Maine—Albion K. Parris, vice Mr. Holmes.
Conn.—Samuel A. Foot, vice Mr. Edwards.
Penn.—Isaac D. Barnard, vice Mr. Findlay.
Delaware—Louis M'Lane, vice Mr. Clayton.

The United States Bank, it is well known, has spared no expense to attain the desirable object of issuing its notes in so superior a style of engraving and finish, as to render unavailing any attempts to counterfeit them. It appears, however, that the ingenuity and talent of the gentry who make the business of counterfeiting a regular occupation, have at length succeeded in producing so good an imitation of one of the plates, that we are induced to call the attention of the public to the fact, in order that they may guard against imposition from this source. The counterfeits to which we allude are Twenty Dollar Notes, purporting to be issued by the Parent Bank, payable at the Charleston Office, in favor of Jos. Johnson, President. They bear date 1st February, 1822, and are signed by L. Cheves, President, and Jona. Smith, Cashier. The plate is marked with the letter M. The signature of Mr. Cheves is well executed—that of Mr. Smith and of Mr. Johnson, but indifferently—but the most perceptible defects consist in the indifferent manner in which the other blanks are filled up, when compared with the genuine notes. Two of these counterfeits were received by our banks, but were detected at the Branch Bank on presentation there. A difference of opinion, however, having been entertained as to their real character, one of them was transmitted to the Parent Bank and by it positively ascertained to be counterfeit. We mention these particulars to show how well they are calculated to deceive.

Green Peas, &c.—On the morning of the 23d, Green Peas were in our market and we were informed by a gentleman of this vicinity, that he has had them on his table several days ago. One of our neighbours also had new potatoes on his
table yesterday, some of which were nearly as large as a common hen's egg.

Mr. Canning also remained indisposed, which was likely seriously to affect the prominent questions to be brought before Parliament. In consequence of the sudden illness of the Earl of Liverpool, and the precarious state of the health of Mr. Canning, stocks fell two per cent. on the 19th.
The Cotton market was very dull and sales limited—prices the same as per former advices.
A law has just passed the Legislature of the State of New-York for regulating the sale of lottery tickets in that State. It makes the price of a licence in the city of New-York 500 dollars, and requires that the licence should specify the office of the person taking it out. This licensed person is to give a bond, with approved security, in the penal sum of 5000 dollars, that he will, in all particulars, conform to the laws of this State, respecting lotteries.
The selling, supplying, or procuring in any manner for another, any ticket, or share, or interest, in any foreign lottery, is declared a misdemeanor punishable with one year's imprisonment, or a fine of 500 dollars, or both. Any licensed ticket seller, convicted of a violation of the law, shall lose his licence, and be incapable of obtaining a new one, and this without prejudice to the other penalties of this act. It is made the duty of judges to charge grand juries especially in relation to this act.

The large library of the Boston Ath-naeum is placed on a footing for rendering it the most extensively useful, by the circulation of the books among the proprietors, and the excellent arrangements for facilitating the use of them at the library; and permanent funds are provided, the income of which will be sufficient, after defraying all other expenses, to admit of the expenditure of nearly three thousand dollars per annum in the purchase of books. The present property of the institution, including lands and buildings, books, and money securely invested, exceeds one hundred thousand dollars, exclusive of the many donations, some of which have been very munificent. More than thirty-five thousand dollars have been given by three individuals of one family. The increase of property the last year has exceeded forty-four thousand dollars, part of it by the sale of additional shares, but the greater part by donations.—N. A. Review.

A man was thrown from the front of the driver's seat of one of the Union Line Coaches, between Trenton and New Brunswick, on Saturday last; the wheels passed over his arm and head; he was taken up lifeless.
On Thursday last, Mr. Abraham Newkirk, Mr. John Greenman and Mr. Fish were drowned in attempting to cross Schoharie Creek in a skiff, at the ferry at Fort Hunter. When the boat upset, Mr. Fish immediately sunk in the flood, in the presence of Mr. Greenman's wife and children, and a great number of spectators, and were not seen to rise. Mr. Newkirk arose, swam about forty rods, and went over the dam just below the ferry; he was followed by his wife on the bank, until he arrived on a shoal, for which he had evidently directed his course; on it he raised himself about half out of water, beckoned to his wife, was swept off, sunk, and seen no more.

Tooth ache.—A remedy for this most painful affection, which has succeeded in ninety five of a hundred cases, is Alum reduced to an impalpable powder 2 drachms, Nitrous Spirit of Ether 7 drachms, mixed and applied to the tooth.
At a recent meeting of the London Medical Society, Dr. Blake stated that the extraction of the tooth was no longer necessary, as he was enabled to cure the most desperate cases of tooth-ache (unless the disease was connected with rheumatism) by the application of this remedy.
We learn with great pleasure, that the Stockholders of the Wateree Bridge Company, have succeeded in effecting a contract with Mr. Towns of New-Haven, for the erection of a Bridge over the Wateree at this place; the work to be commenced forthwith, and to be completed by January next. The facilities for the erection of a permanent bridge, by means of which the river may be safely crossed in the highest freshets, are amply sufficient to warrant the undertaking; and there is little doubt but that the rising importance and growing trade of this town, together with the numerous public advantages which will result from it, will render it a profitable investment, and amply repay the enterprise that prompted the undertaking.—Camden Journal.

The United States Bank, it is well known, has spared no expense to attain the desirable object
of issuing its notes in so superior a style of en-
attempts to counterfeit them. It appears, however, that the ingenuity and talent of the gen-
try who make the business of counterfeiting a regular occupation, have at length succeeded in producing so good an imitation of one of the plates,
that we are induced to call the attention of the
against imposition from this source. The counterfeits to which we allude are Twenty Dollar Notes, purporting to be issued by the Parent
Bank, payable at the Charleston Office, in favor of Jos. Johnson, President. They bear date 1st February, 1822, and are signed by L. Cheves,
President, and Jona. Smith, Cashier. The plate is marked with the letter M. The signature of Mr. Cheves is well executed—that of Mr. Smith
and of Mr. Johnson, but indifferently—but the most perceptible defects consist in the indifferent manner in which the other blanks are filled up, when compared with the genuine notes. Two
of these counterfeits were received by our
banks, but were detected at the Branch Bank
on presentation there. A difference of opinion, however, having been entertained as to their
real character, one of them was transmitted to
the Parent Bank and by it positively ascertained
show how well they are calculated to deceive.

Green Peas, &c.—On the morning of the 23d, Green Peas were in our market and we were informed by a gentleman of this vicinity, that he has had them on his table several days ago. One of our neighbours also had new potatoes on his
large as a common hen's egg.
