BEEF & PORK FOR 1828.

NAVY COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE, 23d March, 1827.

SEALED proposals will be received by the Commissioners of the Navy, until the 31st day of July, 1827, for the supply of 3000 barrels of Pork, 3500 barrels of Beef.

One third of the quantity of Pork, and one third of the quantity of Beef to be delivered at each of the Navy Yards at Boston, New-York, and Norfolk. The whole to be delivered by the 1st of April, 1828.

The said Beef and Pork shall be of the very best quality. The beef shall be packed from cattle well fattened, and weighing not less than 400 lbs. and to average 550 lbs. All the legs, leg rounds, cloths, and 14 lbs. from the necks of each animal shall be excluded, and the rest of the body of the animal cut into pieces of 10 lbs. each, as near as may be, so that twenty pieces will make a barrel of 200 lbs. nett weight of beef.

Of the Pork, which must be corn fed and well fatted, all the skulls, feet and hind legs entire, shall be excluded and the remainder of the hog, including not more than three shoulders to each barrel, shall be cut into pieces of eight pounds each, as near as may be, so that twenty-five pic-ces will make a barrel of 200 lbs. nett weight of Pork.

The whole of the said Beef and Pork, to be packed with the best clean coarse white Turks Island, Isle of May, or St. Ubes salt, with five ounces of the best saltpetre to each barrel.

The barrels in which the said Beef and Pork shall be packed, must be made of the best seasoned white oak, or white ash, free from sap, and fully hooped—they must be branded, "Navy Beef," or "Navy Pork," with the contractor's name, and the year when packed.

The whole of the said Beef and Pork must undergo inspection at the Navy Yards where the deliveries are to be made, by some sworn inspector of the State, to be selected by the Commissioners of the Navy, or to such test, inspection, and examination, as they have, or may hereafter prescribe, free of expense to the United States, and the barrels must be in perfect shipping order.

Each proposal for furnishing the Beef and Pork, must state the place of residence of the bidder—the names of two competent persons as sureties, and the place of their residence—and ten per cent. will be reserved by the United States on all payments until the contracts shall be completed, in addition to the bond, and all payments will be made at the places of delivery.

The proposals must be endorsed on the back, "offer to furnish salt provisions," and must state the prices of the Beef and Pork respectively, deliverable at the several Navy Yards aforesaid.
Any bid not made in conformity to the advertisement, or not received within the time limited therein, will not be considered.
March 26. 32 2awt31 July

Navy Commissioner's Office,

12th March, 1827.

Live Oak frame and promiscuous Timber for Ships of the Line, Frigates & Sloops of War.

THE Commissioners of the Navy will receive proposals until the 31st day of July next, for furnishing Live Oak Timber, cut to moulds, (which they will furnish) for ships of the line, frigates and sloops of war, and the proportion of promiscuous Live Oak, cut to dimensions, that may be required, say 6000 cubical feet for each ship of the line, 3000 for each frigate, and 1000 for each sloop. The timber must be cut from trees grown in situations not more than 25 miles from the sea, deliverable at the following building yards, viz. Portsmouth; N. H. Boston, New-York, Philadelphia, Washington, and Norfolk, during the years 1828, 1829 and 1830, say on or before the 1st November of each year.

Persons offering will be pleased to state particularly their terms per cubical foot for any one of the frames, with the proportion of promiscuous timber required; also, (should they be disposed to offer for more) their terms per cubical feet, for three frames collectively (one of each class, that is, a 74, a 44, and a sloop,) with the promiscuous timber, designating in all cases their prices for the frame of a ship of the line, of a frigate, of a sloop and for promiscuous timber. The offers can be made deliverable at any one, or either, or all the yards above mentioned; but the terms per cubical foot deliverable at each, (if a difference be made by the bidder) must be distinctly stated.— It is to be understood, that the Commissioners will select such offers, and assign to each bidder such portion of the timber required, (not less than one entire frame) and designate such yards for the delivery as they may judge expedient for the public interest; and further, that no money will at any time, under any circumstances, be advanced, and that none will be paid, until an actual delivery of timber; that bond, with two or more sufficient sureties, for the faithful discharge of any contract, will be required; that the amount of such bond will be one-third the estimated amount of the contract.— Moreover, that as additional and collateral security, ten per centum of the avails of each cargo will be reserved and withheld, until the contract shall be fully complied with to the entire satisfaction of the Commissioners; and that, in all deliveries of timber, a due proportion of the most difficult parts of the frames shall be delivered, otherwise, it shall be at the option of the Commissioners to withhold such amount, in addition to the ten per cent. above mentioned, as they may judge expedient for the public interest, until such deficient proportion of such difficult timbers shall be delivered; and it is further to be understood, that all payments will be made at the places of delivery.

Those who may offer to supply any part of this timber, are further requested to state particularly their own residence, the names and residences of their sureties, to forward letters from such persons, stating their willingness to become sureties, and also to forward evidence of the competency of such persons as sureties to the amount for which they may become bound. All offers are to be sealed and directed to the Commissioners of the Navy, and endorsed with the following words, viz. "Offer to furnish Live Oak, under the advertisement of 12th March, 1827."

The timber is to be inspected and measured according to the rules established by the Board, a copy of which may be obtained on application to the Navy Agent either at Pensacola, Savannah, Charleston, S. C. Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New-York, Boston, or Portsmouth, N. H.

Any bid not made in conformity to this advertisement, or that may not be received within the time herein limited for receiving bids, cannot be considered.

THE NEW YORK MIRROR,

And Ladies' Literary Gazette.

EDITED BY GEORGE P. MORRIS.

"Here shall young genius wing his eagle flight, "Rich dew-drops shaking from his plumes of light."

As the Mirror will soon complete its fourth year, the editor thus seasonably presents himself before his numerous and highly respectable patrons and the public, with sentiments of profound respect, and a deep sense of the obligations which are imposed upon him. To say that his reward and encouragement have far exceeded his high expectations, but be but a faint expression of his feelings; for the pleasure of those feelings is immeasurably heightened when he reviews the names of those who make up the great portion of his supporters. To be distinguished with the countenance and favour of the wise and virtuous, is at all times flattering to the pride of any man; but to a young man, it affords a charm too great for language to express. Every motive, therefore, which springs from the strongest impressions of honour and gratitude, will be called forth, not only to preserve, but to improve the character of a publication so kindly fostered, and so generously supported. We have unremittingly endeavoured, and shall hereafter go on with increased zeal in our endeavours, to call from the varied fields of literature, the choicest and most fragrant flowers, as a just though humble tribute, to our fair readers.

With a view to render the Mirror still more acceptable and valuable, we propose, on the commencement of the fifth year, and to continue it with each returning quarter, to accompany it with a splendid Engraving, executed in the finest style of which the state of the art in this country will admit. It is intended to present, in succession, the most accurate Views of our principal Public Edifices, followed by correct historical Descriptions, so as to preserve a knowledge of the period of their foundation, of the uses to which they are applied, and of such other circumstances connected with them, as may be worthy of preservation.

To those who may wish more fully to understand the character of the work, & to commence their subscriptions on the opening of a new volume, perhaps it is proper to say, that it is devoted (though not exclusively) to the following subjects:

Original Moral Tales—either fictitious, or founded on events of real life, in the United States of America.

The Censor—comprising a series of numbers —pathetic, satirical, moral, humorous &c. denominated the Little Genius.

Review—of publications, foreign or domestic.

Original Essays—on literature, morals, history, voyages, travels, American antiquities, the fine arts, &c.

Female Character—manners, beauty, dress and education.

American Biography—or historical sketches of the lives of such persons, of both sexes, as have become celebrated for their heroism, virtue, fortitude, talents, patriotism, &c.

Literary Intelligence—or notices of new publications.

The Drama—comprising strictures on the New-York stage.

Desultory Selections—with occasional remarks.

Anecdotes—humorous, literary, historical, &c.

Passing events of the week.

Poetry—original and selected;

Together with many other miscellaneous subjects, which it would be unnecessary now to enumerate.

The Mirror is published every Saturday, for the proprietor, by Daniel Fanshaw, at the American Tract Society House, No. 87, Nassau-st.

The terms are Four Dollars per annum, payable in advance.
