DEFERRED ARTICLES

The following is an extract of a letter addressed to the Editors of the New-Orleans Argus, containing a statement of the late bloody affair near Natchez, by a party from Alexandria, via Rapide. It would seem as if all the elements of the infernal regions were let loose, and that these deeds were perpetrated by demons in the shape of men.

Concordia, Sept. 24, 1827.

Dear Sir,—I was invited by Dr. Maddox, not long since, to an interview without the limits of the state, I met him at Natchez, on the 18th inst.: on the 19th I was challenged by him. I appointed the 19th for the day, and the first sand beach above Natchez, on the Mississippi side, for the place of meeting. We met, exchanged two shots without effect, and made friends. Myself and my friend, Major M'Whorter, and my surgeon, Dr. Cuney, were invited by Dr. Maddox and his friend, Col. Crane, and a surgeon, Dr. Douney, to the woods, where his friends, who were excluded from the field, were stationed, to take some refreshment; when about half way, we were met by my friend, Gen. Cuney, Mr. James Bowie, and my brother who had accompanied me from Red River, and who were also excluded from the field, and had taken their station in the woods, about a hundred yards from the field. Gen. Cuney, on meeting us inquired of me how the affair had been settled; I told him that Dr. Maddox and myself had exchanged two shots and made friends; he then turned to Colonel Crane who was near me, and observed to him that there was a difference between them, and that they had better return to the ground & settle it as Dr. Maddox and myself had done. Dr. Cuney and myself interposed, and stated to the General that that was not the time nor the place for the adjustment of their difference; the General immediately acquiesced, and his brother had turned to leave him, when Crane, without replying to General Cuney, or saying one word fired a pistol at him, which he carried in his hand, but without effect. I then stepped back one or two paces, as Crane drew from his belt another pistol, fired at and wounded Gen. Cuney in the thigh; he expired in about fifteen minutes. As Crane presented a second pistol, General Cuney placed his hand on his, but did not draw until he had received Crane's second fire as he was falling. General Cuney did not fire a pistol on the ground. In addition to the above I will state, on the authority of Dr. Hunt, of Natchez, that Crane had said to his friends in Natchez that if General Cuney made his appearance on the ground, he would kill him—and that, at all events, he intended to kill him the first opportunity—and well has he kept his promise. Dr. Denny has since informed me that Crane had made the same declaration previous to his leaving home. Dr. Hunt called at Cuney's quarters the evening previous to the meeting, with the view of communicating Crane's intention, but unfortunately, Dr. C. was not at his lodgings, or otherwise this premeditated murder would have been prevented. Your obedient servant,

SAM. L. WELLS.

Further applications relative to the affair furnished us.—Mr. Bowie, upon seeing Gen. Cuney, drew his pistol; Crane, after shooting Gen. Cuney, drew a third pistol; Bowie and himself exchanged shots simultaneously, but without effect; Crane fired. By this time Major Wright and the two Blanchards, from Red River came running down from the wood with drawn pistols, when Wright stopped, took aim at Bowie, fired and missed him; he then advanced three or four paces, drew another pistol, presented at Bowie, who observed to him that he was unarmed, but that if he was a man to shoot. Major M'Whorter who was near Bowie, placed an arm in his hands—they both fired; Wright one or two seconds first, and both with effect. Mr. Bowie was shot through the breast. Wright was struck in his side, but the ball did not enter. Wright then fled; Bowie drew a knife and pursued him, and when within about ten feet of him, he received a simultaneous fire from the Blanchards; one of the balls took effect in his thigh and cut him down; observing which, Wright wheeled, when he and Alfred Blanchard drew their sword canes, rushed on and commenced stabbing Bowie, who was prostrate. Bowie scuffled for some seconds, until he got on his feet, he then reached up, caught Wright by the coat, drew him down on him, and at one stab dispatched him. Mr. W. Wells, who had been attending on Gen. Cuney after he had fallen, observing Bowie's situation, ran to his relief, fired at Blanchard, but fortunately only wounded Blanchard in the arm. The combat were ended, Crane had three pistols, Major Wright and two Blanchards two each. The gentlemen from Natchez, and vicinity, who had accompanied them, and were on the ground in the affray, were armed—some with two pistols. There was also brought to the field a double barrel gun and other arms were at hand. In all they numbered fifteen or twenty pistols and one shot gun—the other party had five pistols.

Valuable Plantation in Wake

THAT valuable Farm, lately known by the name of West-Hill, lying on both sides of the Swift & Williams's Creeks, adjoining the Plantation of Governor Branch, about nine miles from Raleigh, on the Road to Haywood, settled originally by Joseph Lane, the Grandfather of the late occupant of that name, at a time when farmers had choice of the best lands in the country. The whole Tract of land contains Two Thousand Two Hundred and Twenty acres—near 1200 of which is prime land—a considerable portion of it fine low grounds. The residue is well-timbered long leaved Pine Land, and is supposed to afford the best range for cattle and hogs in the county. The farm under cultivation is between 3 and 400 acres, on which there is a tolerably good Dwelling-House, and other out-buildings, on as handsome and healthful a site as can be found in the county, or perhaps in the State. There is a small Grist-Mill, which is convenient for family and neighborhood purposes. The farm is in good order, and that and the many views, on application to Mr. Thomas Howell, on the premises; and the terms of sale, which will be accommodating, will be made known on application to J. Gales. Raleigh, June 21, 1827. 59 ff.

NEWMAN'S

CELEBRATED PATENT GRIST MILL.

The Runner at the Bottom

A PATENT having been issued by the President of the United States, to Edward Newman, for his valuable improvement on the Grist Mill, the subscriber is fully authorized and empowered to make sale of Rights for using a single Mill, or the Rights for using said Mills in any County, or in any State in the Union, except Louisiana.

Persons wishing to purchase Rights, can direct their letters to Samuel Morehead, Postmaster, Martineville, Guilford, N. C. and they will be immediately attended to.

The superior advantages of this Mill, consist in the grinding being done so near the centre, where the power is applied—the small size of the stones—and the application of pressure to supply the absence of weight. The running stone is placed on the spindle, and facing upwards to the bed stone, which is permanently fixed. The pressure is applied to the centre of the runner, and the grain introduced into the mill through the eye of the bed or top stone.

The simple construction of this Mill, its great durability and cheapness, and its convenience and usefulness to all persons having large families and stock; and the facility with which animal or water power can be applied, have given it the decided preference over all the inventions of this kind, with persons who can judge such things correctly. SAMUEL MOREHEAD, Agent for Edward Newman, Patentee. March 30, 1823. w5w tmdm

The Editors of the Register are authorized to act as Agents for the sale of Rights, in Wake county. THE following are the drawn numbers in the New-York Consolidated Lottery, 9th Class, for 1827, viz:

Public Meeting.

ALL the Citizens of Franklin opposed to the elevation of Gen. Jackson, to the Presidency, also those in favor of the elevation of John Quincy Adams are requested to convene at the Court House at Louisburg, on Saturday, the 1st of December next, for the purpose of choosing one or more Delegates, to meet at Raleigh, on the 20th December next, a Convention of Delegates from other counties of the State, and assist in forming an Electoral Ticket, adverse to the pretensions of the Military Candidate. In opposing the ambitious views of Gen. Jackson, we, as a part of the Citizens of the Republic, deny the charge of ingratitude so often reiterated in our ear, by the Gen'l's advocates.

We are grateful to the Gen'l for his military services to the country.—We think they have deservedly placed him high on the list of the present warriors of the age; and had he the suitable qualification, we should rejoice to see him promoted to the first office in the Republic.

But we are unwilling to gratify even an innocent ambition, by sporting with our own and the civil liberties of the people. A Military President, as an example, is fraught with danger; and were it not, we could not conscientiously aid in advancing to the Chief Magistracy of this Nation, a man, the whole tenor of whose actions in public and private life, acknowledges no law but his own impetuous will.

Friends of Republican Freedom in Franklin, and throughout the State, will sleep when the chains of domestic Tyranny are forging for you and your posterity. Will you slumber, while History, a sure guide in the affairs of Republics, points with unvarying steadiness, with a awful certainty to approaching ruin! Through the well meant but misguided zeal of a portion of your fellow-citizens, your own and their liberties are in peril. Awake from your lethargy, make one manly effort, and you will avert the impending danger, and as much as in you lies, insure the safety of the future.

Friends of the Administration. November 14, 1827. 17

PUBLIC MEETING.

ALL the Freemen of Carteret opposed to the Military Candidate for the Presidency—and all those favorable to the re-election of John Quincy Adams, are respectfully requested to meet at the Courthouse in Beaufort, on Saturday 17th Nov'r, at 2 o'clock, P. M. for the purpose of choosing one, or more Delegates, to meet the Delegates from other Counties, at the City of Raleigh, on the 20th day of December next, for the purpose of forming an Electoral Ticket, and organizing such measures as may be deemed proper to ensure its success. The immediate attention of the Freemen of other Counties who entertain similar sentiments, is respectfully solicited. Unity of action, and persevering efforts are all that is required to ensure success. Freemen of Carolina! arise in your strength, and prevent this Republic—the last retreat of Freedom—from rushing with giant strides into a stern, inexorable, Military Despotism. Many Voters of Carteret. Beaufort, Nov. 3, 1827.
