PROSPECTUS of the Freeman's Echo.

THIS Paper will be published weekly in the town of Washington, North-Carolina, by JOSEPH B. HINTON, on a Royal sheet, with good type; and will be devoted to the interest of our Country and our Country's Friends. The Editor wishes rather to diffuse useful information, than to wage a partisan warfare; and to edify, amuse and please his readers, with Liberty, scientific and religious matter, and occasional reports of wit and humor; and promote the prosperity of the people, by notices of valuable improvements in agriculture, the mechanic arts, domestic economy, and whatever else can be likely to encourage general industry, morals and virtue—than to figure in politics. No pains will be spared to make the paper worth the money we ask for it; and we earnestly request our subscribers to recollect, that they and they only, are real patrons, who pay us, according to our terms.

To those who will not be content, unless we avow at the start our political sentiments and preferences, we have but a word to say. Neutrality, it would seem, is no favorite with Providence, since we are so formed, that it is scarcely possible for us to stand neuter in our hearts, although we may often deem it prudent to appear so in our actions; and in politics, he who affects to be neutral, usually acquires for himself the name of trimmer. We dislike the epithet, and therefore shall claim and freely exercise the right of freedom of opinion and of choice. Nevertheless, we will accord to those who differ from us, in sentiment, all that we claim for ourselves. A candid and generous support we conceive we justly owe to those whom the Nation has called to administer the Government, so long as they appear to do their utmost to promote the general weal. That the present Administration have done this, and are actuated by the purest patriotism, we cannot for a moment entertain a doubt; therefore they merit our respect and confidence.

Temperate and well-written articles will be cheerfully admitted into the Freeman's Echo; reserving to ourselves the right of softening harsh expressions, or entirely excluding such matter as shall be calculated to provoke angry dispute in our columns; and we respectfully solicit our numerous highly-gifted friends in the town and in the country, to give the Freeman's Echo, an occasional hour of their leisure. A hearty welcome at our office, shall always greet the labours of our pen.

A careful weekly report of the state of the market, shall be given; which, with the arrivals at, and departures from this port, and the supplies on hand, and for sale, which our mercantile friends may, from time to time, announce in the Freeman's Echo, will enable our country friends, and the neighboring merchants to know the chances for trade, and the prospects for good bargains. And lastly, it cannot be, that so respectable a Town as Washington, and so deeply interested as the people of this, and the adjoining counties are, in an intimate acquaintance with the commerce, trade and markets of this port; and with the pride, and manifest profit, every citizen must feel for, and derive from a regularly published, and well conducted newspaper in this place, we say, it cannot be, that they will suffer the Paper to languish for the want of adequate patronage. The Proprietor has determined to give the public spirit and liberality of the town, the adjacent towns, and the surrounding country, a fair trial. Liberality will impart to the paper health, vigor and usefulness; but illiberality will inevitably cause the tones of our ECHO ere long, to grow feeble and faint, and anon, to die upon the ear.

TERMS. The Freeman's Echo will be $3 per annum to subscribers; one half payable on the receipt of the first number, and the other half on the receipt of the 26th, or 24, if not paid within the year.

No subscription received for a less term than one year, nor will any paper be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the Editor.

All subscribers, who do not give express notice to the contrary, at the end of the year, will be considered as wishing to continue their subscription; and the paper will be sent to them accordingly.

The first number will be published on Friday the 4th of April, 1828.

State of North-Carolina. Edgecomb Superior Court—In Equity.

Thomas Southerland & Wife, and Henry Hardy, vs. Benajah Nicholls and others.

THE Complainants allege, that Charles Hardy, formerly of Bertie county, directed his Executors by his last will and testament, to sell his Estate, real and personal, and out of the proceeds thereof to pay his debts, and the balance that might be remaining, at the close of their administration, to be divided equally among the children of his brothers that might be then living: That the Defendant, Benajah Nicholls, the Executor of Charles Hardy, has sold the estate & paid the debts, but has not divided the residue of the proceeds between the Legatees: That the Complainants are the only children of Mifles Hardy, a brother of the Testator: That the Testator had other brothers, Joseph, Jonathan and John; but it is unknown whether they left children or not: That the Defendants, Alexander Hardy and Benjamin Hardy, who reside without the limits of this State, claim to be the children of Joseph Hardy—Whereupon, it is ordered, that publication be made for six weeks in the Raleigh Register, inviting all persons who claim to be the children of the brothers of Charles Hardy, to come forward and make their claims known to the Court, and notifying the Defendants Alexander Hardy and Benjamin Hardy, that unless they plead, answer or demur to the said bill, on or before the next term of said Court, to be holden at Tarborough, on the second Monday of September next, the said bill will be taken pro confesso against them, and set down for hearing ex parte.
