ONE HOUR WITH THEE.

BY MRS. WILSON. One hour with thee !- when summer's sunset

And day's last b'ushes gild the quiet grove ; One hour with thee, to watch the shutting roses, And whisper in thy ear soft tales of love— All the fond heart has treasured through the day At evening's dewy close-for faithful lips to say.

One hour with thee !- when days dull toils are

And wearied nature courts the peaceful scene; One hour with thee, when gentle spirits hover Around our guarded path-unheard, unseen; Then ill the vexing cares of busy day, One hour with thee at eve can well repay.

One hour with thee, when infant eyes are sleep-

The dove-like sleep that only nature knows; One hour with thee, when eve's pale star is keep-

Her lonely watch, till heaven with radiance Like that true star, mov art my guiding ray That cheers my path and lights me on my way.

One hour with thee outweighs the empty splen-

The heartless joys for which so many live, For one such hour how gladly I surrender-All fashion's crowd's, and fashion's pomps can Sick of life's gaudy scenes I steal way, To share thy converse at the close of day.

3. For every fifteen minutes delay, in arriving after the time prescribed in any contract, the contractor shall forfeit five dollars; and, if the delay continue until the departure of any pend-ing mail, whereby a trip is lost, a forfeiture of double the amount allowed for carrying the mail one trip, shall be incurred, unless it shall be made to appear that the delay was occasioned by unavoidable accident; in which case the aamount of pay for a trip shall be forfeited.—
These forfeitures, it will be observed, are unconditional; except for the failure of a trip by unavoidable accident, the penalty may be reduc-TORAL TICKETS can be procured at this time. It is desirable, that we should receive surmation as early as practicable, from such its this as expect to be supplied at this Office.

4. Persons making proposals are requested to state their prices by the year. Those who contract will receive their pay quarterly—in the months of May, August, November and February, one month after the expiration of each quarter, 5. No other than a free white person shall be employed to carry the mail. 6. Where the proposer intends to convey the respectfully informs her mail in the body of a stage carriage, he is desir-ic, that she continues to ed to state it in his proposals; and the stage ep open the above Establishment, and solicits | must be of sufficient size, unless otherwise ex-

age. She assures those who may think proper 7. Every proposer may offer in his bid to make to call on her, that nothing shall be wanting on any improvement in the transportation of the her part for their ease and comfort. The above mail, from the terms invited, either as to the HOUEL is situate on Fayetteville Street, in the mode of transporting it, the speed required, or the business part of the town, and has the frequency of the trips per week—which shall receive due consideration.

The number of the post route shall be stated in every bid, and the proposal most be sealed and directed to the General Post Office, and en-dorsed "Proposals." * Strict attention must be given to the endorsement, as it is not intended to break the seal of any proposal, until the time for receiving bids shall have expired.

8. The Post Master General reserves to him self the right of declaring any contract at an end, whenever one failure happens, which amounts to the loss of a trip.

9. The distances stated are such as have been communicated to this office, and some of them may be incorrect : on this subject the contractor must inform himself--the Department will not be answerable for any mistake.

10. In every case where the mail is transported in stages, and the present contractor is underbid, and the underbidder shall not have such stage property as may be necessary for the performance of the contract, he shall be required to purchase from the present contractor, at a reasonable valuation, the whole or any part of the stage property, including horses, that may be suitable for the service, and make payment therefor, by reasonable, instalments, as his pay becomes due, or as may be otherwise arranged.

This will be made a condition in the acceptance of any bids under the bid of the present contractor; and should the underbidder fail to comply, his bid will be offered to the present contractor; but should he decline making the contract at that rate, the proposal of the underbidder will be accepted unconditionally.

It is distinctly understood, that the mail will continue to be carried in stages on every route where it is now so conveyed.

11. No bid shall be withdrawn after the time for receiving bids shall have expired, and should any person refuse to take the contract at his bid, he shall be held responsible to the Denirtment, for the difference between his bid and that at which the contract shall be made. The ssignment of any contract, without the consent of the Post-Master General, shall forfeit it-and in all cases where application is made to the Depar - Cobalt ment to sanction a transfer, the terms must be Coccinella fully stated.

Should a contractor or his agent engage in the transmission of commercial information by express on his route, more rapidly than the mail he shall forfeit his contract.

12. If a route should be discontinued by Congress, or become useless, in whole or in part, in the opinion of the Post-Mast r General, he may limit or dispense with the service of the contractor, on making him an allowance of one month's ex-
