Being considered in bad order he was drawn, having the sweepatakes at New-Market to run for, which he won, beating the celebrated race horse Henry (the same that run against Eclipse for twenty thousand dollars) there were four heats in this sade, the first being a dead heat. Henry want the saccest a subjection the heat; Henry won the second, Washington the 3d and 4th.

In the Spring of 1893, he was trained at New Market, but owing to his having a curb of of his legs, the first of the training aeasal, only run one race. He was handy-capp'd New-market with Sir William and a horse he longing to Col. Wynne. Washington won the first heat, Sir William the second and third, Washington was unfortunate in this race; he lost considerably in sarting for the second heat, and was only beaten a l run in three minutes forty-five seconds, which is two seconds less than any two mile heat has ever been run at New-market. Sir William had ten pounds off his regular weight, and Washington carried his full weight.

The following Fall he won the Proprietor's Purse at New-Market, three hundred dollars three mile heats. The first heat in this race was allowed to prove the proprietor's purse at New-Market, three hundred dollars three mile heats. The first heat in this race

o run in two seconds less than any on re-
