

Governor Owen has returned to this City, accompanied by his family.

Winter, like an untaught visitor prolonged his stay beyond all reasonable time. The vernal breeze and elements hastened his departure...

We had a fine rain on Friday last, which has given a wonderful impulse to vegetation of every description.

We omitted to mention in our last the appointment of Col. James W. Clark, of Scarborough, as Chief Clerk in the Navy Department.

The report of Mr. Pope's having declined the acceptance of the Office of Governor of Arkansas, turns out to be incorrect.

The President follows up the advice which he gave to Mr. Monroe, in 1817. It is said that more Federalists have been appointed to office since General Jackson's inauguration...

We perceive from the last English papers, that Bishop England, of Charleston, has been transferred to Ireland, by the Pope, and created Lord Bishop of Ossory.

Those destructive elements, Fire and Water, have been truly, but quaintly designated, as excellent servants, but despotic masters. More calamitous events have taken place within a few weeks...

Triumph of Justice.—A man by the name of Jacobs was tried at Fairfield Court House, a few days since, for the murder of Andrew Peaster...

This case forms a striking parallel to that of the notorious Governor Wall.—This man, like other Governors in distant and uncontrolled settlements, played the arbitrary despot at Goree...

The Halifax Minerva announces the arrival of the Steam Boat Petersburg, Capt. M' Rae, from Norfolk. It arrived on the 15th inst. proceeded to Weldon the next morning...

The last Hillsborough Recorder contains the following interesting account of a meeting held in that town, to consult on measures calculated to promote the all-important subject of Internal Improvements.

affected growth of the country, and loss of capital, by the continued emigration to the west. We took a slight view of the different kinds of improvement which the country is susceptible...

The Hon. Duane Cameron next addressed the meeting. He perfectly coincided with what had been said by the gentleman who preceded him.

On motion it was ordered, that notice of the adjourned meeting be given in the Hillsborough Recorder.

Amos Kendall.—In a very moving letter written by Kendall and published in the Kentucky Argus, he takes the following sublime view of the course of himself and his coadjutors in the late political conflict.

"I had faith, that just men struggling with adversity and oppression, presented a spectacle to which neither earth nor heaven was indifferent."

Nashville Postmaster.—The Nashville Whig of April 2d, thus announces the removal and appointment of Postmaster in that place, made by Genl. Jackson.

We are sorry to learn, from the Baltimore papers, that the eleven removals from office in the Custom House Department of that City, which have recently been made by the Treasury Department...

We see by the newspapers, that Mr. Owen, of Lanark, arrived at Cincinnati on Friday the 10th of April, in compliance with an engagement to meet the Rev. A. Campbell in a public controversy.

On the subject of the "Reform" which is going on, the Massachusetts Journal of April 15 says, that Mr. Henshaw visited the Custom House on the 13th, and dismissed the Deputy Collector, Mr. John W. Wright, an amiable man and an excellent officer.

Election in Maine.—An election was held on Monday, the 6th inst. for a Representative in place of Mr. Sprague, who is chosen to the Senate.

- Appointments by the President.—John Patterson, of Ohio, to be Marshal for the District of Ohio, vice William Doherty removed.

The Dumfries (Scotland) paper asserts that a Dutch cur dog, belonging to a Mr. McWhir, has been taught to articulate the word "William," very distinctly.

A writer in the last Constitutional takes it for granted that Gov. Forsyth will be chosen to fill the vacancy in the United States Senate, created by the appointment of Mr. Berrien to an office in the Cabinet...

State Colonization Society in New-York. A large and respectable meeting of Citizens, delegates from different parts of the State of New-York, took place at Albany on the 9th inst. for the purpose of forming a State Society, auxiliary to the American Colonization Society.

Resolved, That the objects of the American Colonization Society merit the aid of all the friends of our country, of Africa, and of the human race.

After hearing various Addresses in relation to the history, prospects, objects, and importance, of the Colonization Society, and adopting a Constitution, reported by the Committee, the following Officers were elected for the year.

Resolved, That the distracted and miserable state of Africa calls loudly for our commiseration and charitable efforts; and that the Colonization Society is pursuing by far the most probable, if not indeed, the only means, of enlightening the benighted and savage tribes of that continent, and of raising them to the rank and the blessings of Christian Nations.

Money lost at Gambling Tables.—An important decision was lately made at Charleston, which we suppose to be new in this country, though not in England.

Mr. Peel's speech on introducing the Catholic Question into the House of Commons, occupied four hours and a half in the delivery. It filled about twelve columns of the Journal of Commerce.

Owing to one of the most extraordinary, and almost incredible exertions of the Sun, (London paper), the Dublin Evening Post is enabled to transmit, this night, to the most distant parts of Ireland, the speech of the Home Secretary of State, on proposing the Catholic Question to the House of Commons.

NATHAN A. STEDMAN, Esq., Filiberto, April 23, 1829.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND. The packet ship William Thompson, Capt Maxwell, arrived at New-York from Liverpool, on the 20th inst. bringing London papers to the 16th March. Mr. Peel brought forward the "Catholic Relief Bill" and the "Irish Elective Franchise Bill" on Tuesday, the 10th of March.

REWARD. RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 24th inst. my Negro Boy CHARLES, a bright mulatto, nearly two-thirds white, 16 or 17 years old, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, and weight about 130 or 135 lbs. He has a scar over one of his eyes, extending one and a half or two inches obliquely upward and forward, appearing somewhat as if cut by a sharp instrument, but may however attempt to alter its appearance. He has also a scar three or four inches long on one of his legs, extending in the direction of the shin bone; he has very little if any beard, his hair is dark, and was long and bushy, but he likely he may cut it. He wore off a fur or hat cap, a neat frock coat, originally olive but faded, and been patched under the right arm; his pantaloons were fine black cassimere, but considerably worn. His hands and fingers are short and clumsy, and his little fingers disproportionately short and curved or bent inwardly by nature from the first joint. His nose, upon examination, will be seen a little bent to one side. He has travelled considerably, is very smart, of genteel appearance; and can read a little. He has lived with me several years in the shop, and may therefore pretend to some knowledge of Medicine. I understand he means to get a free pass, and try to take water for some free State. He is profane at times, impudent, fond of liquor and chewing tobacco.

Fish Traps in Neuse River. THE attention of owners of Traps is called to the Acts of Assembly of this State, passed in 1819, page 70. Unless the obstructions in the river are removed instantly, suits will be indiscriminately instituted against every person who fails to comply with the provisions of the law.
