

FOETAL

FROM THE GAZET

The following, from the Harbinger of Peace, reminds us of Southey's story of the "Battle of Marathon," and for purity of diction and simplicity of style, is almost its equal.

THE CHILD'S INQUIRY.

How big was Alexander, Pa. The people call him great! Was he like old Goliath tall— His spear a hundred weight?

New Books.

J. GALES & SON

HAVE just received from the North, a large supply of Books, amongst which are the following popular Works: Bishop Heber's Travels, Do Poems, Tales of Woman, Do Poems.

Commencement Oration.

IN compliance with the joint resolution of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Societies of the University of North-Carolina, "that some individual, who had been a regular member of one of their Societies, should be chosen, every succeeding year, to deliver a public Oration in the College Chapel on the day preceding each Anniversary Commencement."

We deem it almost superfluous to add, that those who may attend, besides contributing to promote a degree of spirit in our proceedings at commencement, will not only be gratified by the address, but will derive much pleasure from the production of a gentleman so well known for his literary attainments.

By order of the Dialectic Society, Chapel Hill, April 30, 1829. 69-

THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER, Published in the CITY OF WASHINGTON, BY GALES & SEATON.

THE National Intelligencer is an old established Journal, at the Seat of the General Government. It publishes, originally, regularly, and fully, the Proceedings and Debates of Congress; also, all the State Papers and Documents of public interest, laid before Congress, or originating in that body, and all the Acts passed by them.

The National Intelligencer is not a party paper, but censures or approves where censure or approbation seems to be due to public measures. It supported the late Administration of the General Government, when the measures of that Administration were such as to meet its approbation. It avows a determination, though it opposed the election of General Jackson, to support the just measures of this Administration, but as certainly to oppose the unjust or the proscriptive. It will be, in principle, opposed to any Administration of the Government, whose measures shall show it to have the interests of a party at heart, rather than the great interests of the country.

For the first time, an effort is made to enlarge the subscription to it, by sending forth this prospectus, which our adversaries in politics are expected to deal so generously with as to let it be seen, and our friends so kindly as to further our purpose with their aid and countenance.

The National Intelligencer is published daily, at ten dollars per annum, payable in advance. It is published, also, for the more convenient circulation where a daily mail does not penetrate, three times a week at six dollars per annum, payable in advance.

JUST PUBLISHED. AND for sale at the Book-store of J. Gales and Son, in Raleigh, price three dollars, a new Edition of the Office and Duty of a Justice of the Peace, and a Guide to Sheriffs, Coroners, Clerks, Constables and other Civil Officers, in North-Carolina. With an appendix, containing the Constitutions of this State and of the United States, and a collection of the most approved forms for the use of these Officers.
