Commencement Oration.

N compliance with the joint resolution of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Societies of the University of North-Carolina, "that some individual, who had been a regular member of one of their Societies, should be chosen, every succeed ing year, to deliver a public Oration in the College Chapel on the day preceding each Anniver-sary Commencement," we take pleasure in announcing to the friends of literature, that Professor Hoopen, of the University, has, on the part of the Dialectic Society, received and accepted this appointment, and will perform the duty attendant thereon, in Person Hall, on Wednesday, 24th of June next.

We deem it almost superfluous to add, that those, who may attend, besides contributing to promote a degree of spirit in our proceedings at commencement to which they would not other wise attain, may anticipate the reception of much pleasure from the production of a gentlemin so well known for his literary attainments.

By order of the Dialectic Society. Chapel Hill, April 30, 1829.

NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER, Published in the CITY OF WASHINGTON,

GALES & SEATON.

THE National Intelligencer is an old establish L ed Journal, at the Seat of the General Covernment. It publishes, originally, regularly, and fully, the Proceedings and Debates of Congress; also, all the State Papers and Documents of public interest, laid before Congress, or originating in that body, and all the Acts passed by them. These recommendations, in addition to a variety of other information which is to be found in its columns, connected with the Gene ral interests of our own country, with Literature and Science, and the Affairs of the world at large; together with the character of general fairness which the paper has sustained under its present editors for many years, make the National Intelligencer useful and even valuable, to all who feel an interest in the concerns of this or of other countries.

The National Intelligencer is not a party paper, but censures or approves where censure or approbation seems to be due to public measures. It supported the late Administration of the General Government, when the measures of that Administration were such as to meet its approbation. It avows a determination, though it op posed the election of General Jackson, to sup port the just measures of this Administration. but as certainly to oppose the unjust or the proscriptive. It will be, in principle, opposed to any Administration of the Government, whose measures shall show it to have the interests of a party at heart, rather than the great interests of the country. It is, in a word, what its title denotes, a Nation I paper.

For the independent and impartial course which it has pursued, the National Intelligencer has been denounced, and an attempt has been made to put it down, right or wrong, by the strong arm of power directed by caucus agency. modern prophet to bid the sun to stand still,-Thirty years old, this National paper is not yet in its prime, but acquires strength and power with every day of its existence. Without having ever sought for popularity, or courted public patronage, the National Intelligencer enjoys already the widest circulation of any newspaper in the United States. It is read in every State and Territory in the Union, and and in every city and town, as well as in the country. It is read in every capital in Europe, and possesses sources of information exceeded by no other Journal. For the first time, an effort is made to enlarge the subscription to it, by sending forth this rospectus, which our adversaries in politics are expected to deal so generously with as to let it be seen, and our friends so kindly as to further our purpose with their aid and countenance. Heretofore, we have hardly wished to enlarge our subscription list. Intending hereafter, however, to devote ourselves wholly to the newspaper, and to a proper improvement of 's the condition of the Press," we invite such further subscriptions, as, being punctually paid, will remunerate our labor and expenses. The National Intelligencer is published daily, at ten dollars per annum, payable in advance. It is published, also, for the more convenient circulation where a daily mail does not penetrate, three times a week at six dollars per annum, payable in advance. A remittance of either of these amounts in bank paper, by mail, will ensure the prompt and regular transmission of ev ery paper that may be ordered.

Those subscribing will please to signify whether they desire the paper for a year only, and then to be stopped without further notice, or wish it to be continued until countermanded. Washington, May 20, 1829.
