

SONG , By T. H. Baily, Esquire.

Oh! no we never mention her! her name is nev-My lips are now forbid to speak, that once familiar word : From sport to sport they hurry me, to banish my And when they win a smile from me, they think that I forget.

They bid me seek in change of scene, the charms that others see 1

But were I in a foreign land they'd find no change in me ; Tis true that I behold the valley where w I do not see the hawthorn tree; but how can forget .

For oh! there are so many things recall the past

The breeze upon the sunny hills ; the billows of

Aye, every leaf I look upon forbids me to forget

The rosy tint that decks the sky before the sun

They tell me she is happy now, the gayest of They hint that she forgets me now, but heed not what they say;

Like me perhaps she struggles with each feeling of regret-But if she loves as I have loved, she never car forget!

HADLOCK'S Vegetable Sirup and Powder

FOR DISEASES OF THE LUNGS. THE Proprietor of this Medicine, after repeat. ed trials of its virtues, which have been standed with the most signal success, now offers it to those who are afflicted with the wasting diseases which it is designed to relieve, in fa confidence that it will be found efficacious, pur ficularly if taken in the incipient stages of the

For two years past, this Medicine has been prepared in the form of a Powder, & taken as a infusion, with the most happy success. It is now offered to the afflicted in the form of a Sirup or in Powder, as the Patient may prefer, under the conviction, that either form will produce the same happy result. Among its most prominent qualities the following may be mentioned, as entitled to particular consideration. It promotes that gentle perspiration which is deemed health and checks those sweats which are morbid and pernicious. It relieves chronic affections and congestions of the lungs by giving force to the languid circulation. It assuages coughs. It promotes free and bland expectoration. It removes pain from the chest. It relieves asthmatic and difficult respiration. It corrects obstinate cos tiveness, and thus leaves the bowels in a regula and healthy state. Thus, it is found, that thes painful symptoms which indicate diseased lung readily yield to this powerful remedy, when see sonably resorted to, and that it restores the pr tient to that bodily vigour, which that crue disorder the consumption, if left to its nature operation, would very speedily destroy.

Certificates respecting the virtue of this Mellicine will accompany each bottle. Price of the Syrup, $2 50 per bottle, or $24 a dozen. Of the Powder $1 per bottle, or $9 a dozen. JAMES HADLOCK Fayetteville, Feb. 1829.
