17th June, 1829.

SEALED Proposals will be received at this office until the first of September next, for the supply of 2000 lbs. Navy Beef, & 2400 lbs. Navy Pork for the use of the United States' Naval Service, 1000 lbs. of Beef, & 800 lbs. of Pork, to be delivered at each of the U. States' Navy Yards, Charlestown, Mass.; Brooklyn, New York; and Norfolk, Virginia; and the whole quantity must be delivered at each & every Navy Yard by the first of April, 1830. The whole quantity of the said Beef & Pork must be of the best quality. The Beef must be packed from well fattened cattle, weighing not less than 480 pounds in the quarters, or 800 pounds on the hoof; all the legs, loins, ribs, cheeks, skins, and the neck of each animal, must be wholly excluded from the barrel, and the remainder of the carcass must be cut into pieces of ten pounds each as near as may be, so that twenty pieces will make a barrel of 200 pounds nett weight of Navy Beef.

The Pork must be corn-fed and well-fitted; all the skulls, feet, and hind legs entire, must be wholly excluded from the barrel, and the remainder of the Hog must be cut into pieces of eight pounds each as near as may be, so that twenty-five pieces, not more than three of which shall shouder, will make a barrel of 200 pounds nett weight of Navy Pork.

The whole quantity of the said Beef and Pork must be perfectly salted in the first instance with, and afterwards packed with a sufficient quantity of Turck's Island, Isle of May, or St. Ubes Salt, and no other, to ensure its preservation, with five ounces of pure Saltpetre, to each and every barrel. The barrels in which the said Beef and Pork is to be packed must be made of the best seasoned heart of white oak or white ash, free from sap, with one iron hoop on each end, and otherwise fully and substantially hooped; and each barrel must be branded on its head "Navy Beef," or "Navy Pork," with the contractor's name and the year when packed.

All the said Beef and Pork, on delivery at the respective Navy Yards, must be subjected to the test and inspection of some sworn Inspector of the State within which it is to be delivered, who shall be selected by the Commandant of the Navy Yard at the place of delivery, without any charge to the United States therefor; and when inspected in said manner, the contractor must put the barrels in good shipping order, or the Beef and Pork will not be received.

Bidders are required to state their prices separately for the Beef and for the Pork, and if they offer to furnish at more than one Yard, then separately for each Yard. They are also required to give their names, their residence, and the names and residence of their sureties, minutely; and must transmit their bids sealed, and endorsed "Offer to furnish Navy Beef" or "Navy Pork" for the year 1830.

The Commissioners of the Navy are at liberty to take the offers of a bidder for any one Yard, or for the articles deliverable at any one Yard, or in greater proportions, if such bids be the lowest.

Any bid not made in conformity to this advertisement, or not received within the limited time, will not be opened.

The parts of the animal to be excluded from the barrel will be particularly described in drawings which will form part of the contracts—Persons desiring information upon the subject with an intention to bid, may obtain it by reasonable application to the Board.
