TREATING OF THE
DISEASES OF THE UNITED STATES,
With their symptoms, causes, cure, and means of prevention; common cases in Surgery; the management and diseases of Women and Children; a Dispensary, for preparing Family Medicines, and a Glossary explaining Technical terms—Also, the Nurse's Guide.

The Seventh Edition.
Revised, enlarged, and very considerably improved.
BY JAMES EWELL, M. D.

On the important subject of domestic medicine, many books have been written, which, though excellent in other respects, have greatly failed of usefulness to Americans; because they treat of diseases which, existing in very foreign climates and constitutions, most widely differ from ours. The book now offered to the public has, therefore, the great advantage of having been written by a native American, of long and successful practice in the southern states, and who, for years past, has turned much of his attention to the composition of it.

To every family, more especially those in remote situations, the possession of this book must unquestionably, be of incalculable value: for, conducted by such a guide, it will not be presumptuous to say that any person of tolerable capacity, and reasonable attention, may be enabled to practise with safety and advantage, in those cases of simple diseases most incident to our climate.

This work is for sale, by

TO THE PUBLIC.

KNOWING the great and proper interest felt by the people of Virginia in the approaching Convention, the subscribers make the following proposition: They have employed the best Stenographers to report the debates, which will be published as rapidly as possible in the Whig. As many persons are not in the habit of filing their papers, and as when taken into their families they are liable to be destroyed, they propose to file in this Office, the papers containing the debates, for as many as desire it. The expense of this will be apportioned by the annual price of the paper ($5) and the length of time required to publish the debates—for example if three months are required to publish the debates, the price of the file will be $125. This we imagine, no man will hesitate to give for a complete copy of the debates of the Convention.—If subscribers desire their copies bound that can be done at a small additional expense.

Letters (post paid) addressed to us will be attended to, or persons wishing to subscribe, can make down their desire through the members of Convention. The subscription to be paid at the time of delivery.

City subscribers are of course apprised that the Debates will first appear in the Daily paper. PLEASANTS, ABBOTT & CO.

THE ATLAS,
OR LITERARY, HISTORICAL AND COMMERCIAL REPORTER.

Elegantly printed on a sheet of the largest size, and published weekly, in the city of New-York.—(Office at 20 Wall-st.) THIS paper is now particularly adapted to the wants of families, or individuals whose situation and circumstances do not require the use of a daily journal: it is also well calculated for all who may be disposed to preserve a convenient record of passing events, combined with an entertaining miscellany.

The plan of the Atlas is original, in giving largely a condensed report of the most important events in every part of the world, distinctly arranged in a geographical order. This intelligence is carefully prepared, from the most ample sources of information, both foreign and domestic. The affairs of the United States and of Great Britain and France, as possessing the highest general interest, receive special attention in this paper. The Atlas disclaims all partisan views, but is pledged, in every party question that is noticed to give, as far as possible, a candid representation of the sentiments of each,—using, when necessary, their own language. The other contents of the paper consist of Literary Notices and Selections: facts and opinions relating to Science and the Arts and Commercial Intelligence, embracing, in a separate department, a Weekly Review of the New-York Market, with others in the United States—and those of London, Liverpool and Havre; and a report of foreign arrivals at all the ports of the United States, with other ship news.

Besides these subjects, the Atlas contains a variety of amusing anecdotes and other agreeable miscellanies, calculated to complete the design expressed in its motto—"Lectorem delectando, pariterque monendo."

Conditions.—Price, $6 for the yearly volume payable in advance. But if the paper is delivered in the city, or through the United States Mail, and payment in advance at the office of publication, free of all charges, $5. Price half yearly, $3. No subscriptions taken for less than 6 months, and no papers discontinued except at the expiration of half yearly periods.

The New-York Mirror.

THE proprietor of this periodical is now making arrangement to issue the New Volume which will be commenced on the eleventh day of July next—in a splendid manner. In every department the seventh volume will excel those heretofore published. The terms are four dollars per annum, payable in advance. (No) Subscriptions received by the Editors of the Register.

The Mirror is published weekly at No. 163 William-street, New-York. All communications, sent by mail, must be post paid.

TO THE AFFLICTED.
HADLOCK'S
Vegetable Sirup and Powder,
FOR DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

THE Proprietor of this Medicine, after repeated trials of its virtues, which have been attended with the most signal success, now offers it to those who are afflicted with the wasting diseases which it is designed to relieve, in full confidence that it will be found efficacious, particularly if taken in the incipient stages of these diseases.

For two years past, this Medicine has been prepared in the form of a Powder, & taken as an infusion, with the most happy success. It is now offered to the afflicted in the form of a Sirup or in Powder, as the Patient may prefer, under the conviction, that either form will produce the same happy result. Among its most prominent qualities the following may be mentioned, as entitled to particular consideration. It promotes that gentle perspiration which is deemed healthy and pernicious; checks those sweats which are morbid and anemic; it relieves chronic affections and congestions of the lungs by giving force to the languid circulation. It assuages coughs. It promotes free and bland expectoration. It removes pain from the chest. It relieves asthmatic and difficult respiration. It corrects obstinate constiveness, and thus leaves the bowels in a regular and healthy state. Thus, it is found, that these painful symptoms which indicate diseased lungs, readily yield to this powerful remedy, when seasonably resorted to, and that it restores the patient to that bodily vigour, which that cruel disorder the consumption, if left to its natural operation, would very speedily destroy.

Certificates respecting the virtue of this Medicine will accompany each bottle. Price of the Sirup, $2.50 per bottle, or $24 a dozen. Of the Powder $1 per bottle, or $9 a dozen.
