MEDICAL.

I HAVE been induced to resume the Practice of Physic in consequence of a contention in business formed with Dr. Hamilton Taylor, a talented Physician from Oxford; who has pursued a long course of severe and systematic study there under his brother Dr. Wm. V. Taylor; and has lately received the Degree of Doctor of Medicine at Philadelphia, after two years attendance in the Medical Schools and Hospitals of that city.

This connexion, an ample library, convenient offices, the moderate expense of living here, and a society almost exclusively professional, may make this an eligible situation for students. Two have been engaged, & two or three others, of sufficient preliminary education and really studious habits, would be received. Instruction will be imparted at all convenient times & weekly examinations had. Letters of enquiry promptly answered.

TREATING OF THE DISEASES OF THE UNITED STATES, With their symptoms, causes, cure, and means of prevention: common cases in Surgery; the management and diseases of Women and Children; a Dispensary, for preparing Family Medicines, and a Glossary explaining Technical terms—Also, the Nurse's Guide.

The Seventh Edition.
Revised, enlarged, and very considerably improved.

BY JAMES EWELL, M. D.

On the important subject of domestic medicine, many books have been written, which, though excellent in other respects, have greatly failed of usefulness to Americans; because they treat of diseases which, existing in very foreign climates and constitutions, most widely differ from ours. The book now offered to the public has, therefore, the great advantage of having been written by a native American, of long and successful practice in the southern states, and who, for years past, has turned much of his attention to the composition of it.

To every family, more especially those in remote situations, the possession of this book must unquestionably, be of incalculable value: for, conducted by such a guide, it will not be presumptuous to say that any person of tolerable capacity, and reasonable attention, may be enabled to practise with safety and advantage, in those cases of simple diseases most incident to our climate.

American Turf Register

SPORTING MAGAZINE.

THE want of a repository in this country, like the English Sporting Magazine, to serve as an authentic record of the performances and pedigrees of the bred horse, will be admitted by all, whether breeders, owners, or amateurs of that admirable animal. The longer we remain without such a register, the more difficult will it be to trace the pedigrees of existing stock, and the more precarious will its value become. Is it not, in fact, within the knowledge of many readers, that animals known to have descended from ancestry of the highest and purest blood, have been confounded with the vulgar mass of their species, by the loss of an old newspaper or memorandum book, that contained their pedigrees? Sensible for years past of the danger which in this way threatens property of so much value, and persuaded that it is not yet too late to collect and save many precious materials that would soon be otherwise lost, the subscriber hopes to supply the long looked for desideratum, by the establishment of "THE AMERICAN TURF REGISTER." But though an account of the performances on the American Turf, and the pedigrees of thorough-bred horses, constitutes the chief aim of the work, it is designed, also, as a Magazine of information (like the English Sporting Magazine) on veterinary subjects generally; and of various rural sports, as Racing, Shooting, Hunting, Fishing, Trotting Matches, &c. together with original sketches of the natural history and habits of American game of all kinds; and hence the title "The American Turf Register and Sporting Magazine." It will of course be the aim of the Editor to give to his journal an original American cast, conveying at once, to readers of all ages, amusement and instruction, in regard to our own country, its animals, birds, fish, &c. in the absence of domestic materials, the magazines received from abroad will supply an ample stock of appropriate matter.

Finally, as to the style and execution of the work, the first number, just published & ready for delivery, may be received as a fair specimen, entitled to some allowance for the imperfections inseparable from the first essay in a new and somewhat complicated and difficult enterprise.

J. S. SKINNER.

CONDITIONS. The SPORTING MAGAZINE will be published monthly. Each number will consist of about fifty pages, embellished with beautiful engravings—price $5 per annum, to be paid on the receipt of the first number.

Where the number of subscribers at any place shall warrant it, it will be sent by private conveyance at the expense of the Editor, and delivered free of any extra charge; where it is sent by mail the subscriber will have to pay the postage.

*Persons procuring five subscribers, and sending the money, will receive a sixth copy gratis—and so in proportion for a larger number.

THE ATLAS,

OR LITERARY, HISTORICAL AND COMMERCIAL REPORTER.

Elegantly printed on a sheet of the largest size, and published weekly.

In the city of New-York.—(Office at 20 Wall-st.) THIS paper is now particularly adapted to the wants of families, or individuals whose situation and circumstances do not require the use of a daily journal: it is also well calculated for all who may be disposed to preserve a convenient record of passing events, combined with an entertaining miscellany.

The plan of the Atlas is original, in giving largely a condensed report of the most important events in every part of the world, distinctly arranged in geographical order. This intelligence is carefully prepared, from the most ample sources of information, both foreign and domestic. The affairs of the United States and of Great Britain and France, as possessing the highest general interest, receive special attention in this paper. The Atlas disclaims all partisan views, but is pledged, in every party question that is noticed to give, as far as possible, a candid representation of the sentiments of each,—using, when decorous, their own language. The other contents of the paper consist of Literary Notices and Selections; facts and opinions relating to Science and the Arts and Commercial Intelligence, embracing, in a separate department, a Weekly Review of the New-York Market, with others in the United States—and those of London, Liverpool and Havre; and a report of foreign arrivals in all the ports of the United States, with other ship news.

Besides these subjects, the Atlas contains a variety of amusing anecdotes and other agreeable miscellanies, calculated to complete the design expressed in its motto—"Lectorem delectando, pariterque monendo."

Conditions.—Price, $6 for the yearly volume, payable in advance. But if the paper is delivered in the city, or through the United States Mail, and payment in advance at the office of publication, free of all charges, $5. Price half yearly, $3. No subscriptions taken for less time than 6 months, and no papers discontinued except at the expiration of half year periods.

The terms are four dollars per annum, payable in advance.

Subscriptions received by the Editors of the Register.
The Mirror is published weekly at No. 163 William-street, New-York. All communications, sent by mail, must be post-paid.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

HADLOCK'S

Vegetable Sirup and Powder, FOR DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

THE Proprietor of this Medicine, after repeated trials of its virtues, which have been attended with the most signal success, now offers it to those who are afflicted with the wasting diseases which it is designed to relieve, in full confidence that it will be found efficacious, particularly if taken in the incipient stages of these diseases.

For two years past, this Medicine has been prepared in the form of a Powder, & taken as an infusion, with the most happy success. It is now offered to the afflicted in the form of a Sirup or in Powder, as the Patient may prefer, under the conviction, that either form will produce the same happy result. Among its most prominent qualities the following may be mentioned, as entitled to particular consideration. It promotes that gentle perspiration which is deemed healthy and checks those sweats which are morbid and pernicious. It relieves chronic affections and congestions of the lungs by giving force to the languid circulation. It assuages coughs. It promotes free and bland expectoration. It removes pain from the chest. It relieves asthmatic and difficult respiration. It corrects obstinate costiveness, and thus leaves the bowels in a regular and healthy state. Thus, it is found, that these painful symptoms which indicate diseased lungs, readily yield to this powerful remedy, when seasonably resorted to, and that it restores the patient to that bodily vigour, which that cruel disorder the consumption, if left to its natural operation, would very speedily destroy.

Certificates respecting the virtue of this Medicine will accompany each bottle. Price of the Sirup, $2 50 per bottle, or $24 a dozen. Of the Powder $1 per bottle, or $9 a dozen.
