DISEASES OF THE UNITED STATES,
 With their symptoms, causes, cure, and means of prevention: common cases in Surgery; the management and diseases of Women and Children; a Dispensary, for preparing Family Medicines, and a Glossary explaining Technical terms—Also, the Nurse's Guide.
 The Seventh Edition.
 Revised, enlarged, and very considerably improved.
 BY JAMES EWELL, M. D.

On the important subject of domestic medicine, many books have been written, which, though excellent in other respects, have greatly failed of usefulness to Americans; because they treat of diseases which, existing in very foreign climates and constitutions, must widely differ from ours. The book now offered to the public has, therefore, the great advantage of having been written by a native American, of long and successful practice in the southern states, and who, for years past, has turned much of his attention to the composition of it.
 To every family, more especially those in remote situations, the possession of this book must unquestionably, be of incalculable value: for, conducted by such a guide, it will not be presumptuous to say that any person of tolerable capacity, and reasonable attention, may be enabled to practise with safety and advantage, in those cases of simple diseases most incident to our climate.
 This work is for sale, by

American Turf Register
 AND
SPORTING MAGAZINE.
 THE want of a repository in this country, like the English Sporting Magazine, to serve as an authentic record of the performances and pedigrees of the bred horse, will be admitted by all, whether breeders, owners, or amateurs of that admirable animal. The longer we remain without such a register, the more difficult will it be to trace the pedigrees of existing stock, and the more precious will its value become. It is not, in fact, within the knowledge of many readers, that animals known to have descended from ancestry of the highest and purest blood, have been confounded with the vulgar mass of their species, by the loss of an old newspaper or memorandum book, that contained their pedigrees? Sensible for years past of the danger which in this way threatens property of so much value, and persuaded that it is not yet too late to collect and save many precious materials that would soon be otherwise lost, the subscriber hopes to supply the long looked for desideratum, by the establishment of "THE AMERICAN TURF REGISTER." But though an account of the performances on the American Turf, and the pedigrees of thorough-bred horses, constitutes the chief aim of the work, it is designed, also, as a Magazine of information (like the English Sporting Magazine) on veterinary subjects generally; and of various rural sports, as Racing, Shooting, Hunting, Fishing, Trotting Matches, &c. together with original sketches of the natural history and habits of American game of all kinds, and hence the title "The American Turf Register and Sporting Magazine." It will of course be the aim of the Editor to give to his journal an original American cast, conveying at once, to readers of all ages, amusement and instruction, in regard to our own country, its animals, birds, fishes, &c. in the absence of domestic materials, the magazines received from abroad will supply an ample stock of appropriate matter.
 Finally, as to the style and execution of the work, the first number, just published & ready for delivery, may be received as a fair specimen, entitled to some allowance for the imperfections inseparable from the first essay in a new and somewhat complicated and difficult enterprise.
J. S. SKINNER.

CONDITIONS.
 The SPORTING MAGAZINE will be published monthly. Each number will consist of about fifty pages, embellished with beautiful engravings—price $5 per annum, to be paid on the receipt of the first number.
 Where the number of subscribers at any place shall warrant it, it will be sent by private conveyance at the expense of the Editor, and delivered free of any extra charge; where it is sent by mail the subscriber will have to pay the postage.
 Persons procuring five subscribers, and sending the money, will receive a sixth copy gratis—and so in proportion for a larger number.

PROCLAMATION.

By the Governor of North-Carolina.
Two Hundred Dollars Reward.
 WHEREAS it has been made known to me, that a Murder has been committed in the Town of Oxford, in the County of Granville and State of North-Carolina, on the 4th day of November last, and that a certain THOMAS MITCHELL, late of the County and State aforesaid, stands charged by the finding of a Grand Jury, on a bill of indictment, with having perpetrated the same on the body of a certain Shelton Hobgood, of said County—And, as it is further represented and made known to me, that the said THOMAS MITCHELL hath absconded and fled from the jurisdiction and limits of this State, and thereby eluded the arm of the law and of justice.
 Now therefore, to the end that the said THOMAS MITCHELL may be apprehended and brought to justice, the above reward of TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS will be given to any person or persons who will apprehend and confine the said Thomas Mitchell in any Jail in this State, so that he may be brought to justice. And I do, moreover, hereby require, command and enjoin, all officers whatsoever, as well civil as military, within this State, to use their best endeavors so apprehend and take, or cause to be apprehended and taken, the body of the said Thomas Mitchell, and him safely and securely keep, so that he shall be brought to justice.
 THOMAS MITCHELL is about 19 years of age, of slender form, down look, a little freckled round shoulders and hazel eyes—was lately seen by a gentleman of Granville County at New Orleans, where probably he now is.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have caused the Great Seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, and subscribed the same officially, at the City of Raleigh, on the 20th day of June, A. D. 1829.

UNION HOTEL,

Raleigh.
 THE Subscriber informs his friends and the Public in general, that he has taken charge of that well known House of Entertainment, formerly occupied by Willie Jones, in the city of Raleigh, near the Capitol, where his Table will be furnished with the best of the country and seasons afford, his beds in fine order, and his rooms commodious and neat. His Stables will be well supplied with good provender, attended by careful Ostlers, & his House with good Servants. He will provide convenient Sheds under which to shelter Carriages, Gigs, &c. He hopes that with all these comforts, and his own unremitting attentions to please his guests, to merit and receive a share of public patronage. He also hopes that the Members of the General Assembly will call on him, as his charges will be moderate and his accommodations good.
ROBERT PERRY.
 Raleigh, August 19. 2

EAGLE HOTEL.

MR. GUION, most respectfully returns his thanks to the Public, for the very liberal encouragement he has received since he opened this ESTABLISHMENT, and hopes to merit a continuance of their favors.
 Mr. G. has the satisfaction to inform the Public, that in addition to the improvements already made, eight additional Rooms will be completed by the ensuing Session of the Legislature, which will enable him to accommodate a larger number of Members of the Assembly than heretofore.
 The charges, as hitherto, will be uniform and moderate, viz: for a Man and Horse per day, $1 50; for a Man alone, $1—with a small addition to those who wish a separate table.
 Members of the Assembly will be charged $1 per day. Those who have rooms to themselves, will be subject to an additional charge for them.
 Travellers desirous of stopping at the HOTEL are often misled, by enquiring for the Stage-House. They are informed, that the Stages do not make it their regular stopping House, nor is the House known by that appellation. As many persons who travel in the Stage do stop at the Hotel, and many others would, if they could be assured they would not be delayed, they are informed, that no greater delay will be experienced at the Hotel, than at the Stage House; and those who wish to repose themselves for a day or two, will be sure to find at Guion's a clean bed and room for that purpose, with the best fare the market affords.
 The situation of this House is one of the most pleasant in the City, being immediately north of the Capitol, adjacent to the business part of the town, but without the influence of the dust and inconvenience attending it.
 It is now little more than a year, since the Subscriber took possession of this Establishment, when he found the House entirely out of repair and almost without custom. He now has it in his power to say, that he has not only received encouragement sufficient to justify the improvements that have been made, but those also that are making, even without that support from the Stage Proprietors which he believes the conveniences, comfort and attention which are to be met with at the Hotel deserves, and which has fairly proven that the Public will give the preference to a well kept Public House.

High, on Hargett Street, at the corner of Wilmington Street, where he will be glad to receive Travellers and others, and will use his utmost exertions to accommodate them comfortably.
 His Stables are good and will be constantly supplied with plenty of Provender of very kind. Owing to the scarcity of money and plentifulness of produce, the price of Board for Man and Horse will be a dollar a day, or eight dollars a month for a single person.
 He has a HACK, three GIGS and HORSES for Hire, at the shortest notice. His prices for his Hack, Gigs and Horses, are $3 a day for the Hack; Gig with Horse & Boy $2 a day; Gig and Horse, without a Boy $1 50 a day; a Horse alone $1 a day; a Gig 50 Cents a day.

THE ATLAS,

OR LITERARY, HISTORICAL AND COMMERCIAL REPORTER.
 Elegantly printed on a sheet of the largest size, and published weekly, in the city of New-York.—(Office at 20 Wall-st.)
 THIS paper is now particularly adapted to the wants of families, or individuals whose situation and circumstances do not require the use of a daily journal: it is also well calculated for all who may be disposed to preserve a convenient record of passing events, combined with an entertaining miscellany.
 The plan of the Atlas is original, in giving largely a condensed report of the most important events in every part of the world, distinctly arranged in geographical order. This intelligence is carefully prepared, from the most ample sources of information, both foreign and domestic. The affairs of the United States and of Great Britain and France, as possessing the highest general interest, receive special attention in this paper. The Atlas disclaims all partisan views, but is pledged, in every party question that is noticed to give, as far as possible, a candid representation of the sentiments of each,—using, when decorous, their own language. The other contents of the paper consist of Literary Notices and Selections; facts and opinions relating to Science and the Arts and Commercial Intelligence, embracing, in a separate department, a Weekly Review of the New-York Market, with others in all the ports of the United States, with other ship news.
 Besides these subjects, the Atlas contains a variety of amusing anecdotes and other agreeable miscellanies, calculated to complete the design expressed in its motto—"Lectorem delectando, pariterque monendo."
 Conditions.—Price, $6 for the yearly volume, payable in advance. But if the paper is delivered in the city, or through the United States Mail, and payment in advance at the office of publication, free of all charges, $5. Price half yearly, $3. No subscriptions taken for less time than 6 months, and no papers discontinued except at the expiration of half yearly periods.
