DISEASES OF THE UNITED STATES, With their symptoms, causes, cure, and means of prevention : common cases in Surgery ; the management and diseases of Women and Children; a Dispensatory, for preparing Family Medicines, and a Glossary explaining Technical terms-Also, the Nurse's Guide.

The Seventh Edition. Revised, enlarged, and very considerably improved. BY JAMES EWELL, M. D.

On the important subject of domestic medine, many books have been written, which, though excellent in other respects, have greatly failed of usefullness to Americans ; because they treat of diseases which, existing in very foreign elimates and constitutions, must widely differ from ours. The book now offered to the public has, therefore, the great advantage of having been written by a native American, of long and successful practice in the southern states, and who, for years past, has turned much of his attention to the composition of it.

To every family, more especially those in remote situations, the possestion of this book must unquestionably, be of incalculable value : for, conducted by such a guide, it will not be presumptuous to say that any person of tolerable capacity, and reasonable attention, may be enabled to pracetise with safety and advantage, in those cases of simple diseases most incident to our climate.

American Turf Register

SPORTING MAGAZINE. THE want of a repository in this country, like the English Sporting Magazine, to serve as an authentic record of the performances and pedigrees of the bred horse, will be admitted by all, whether breeders, owners, or amateurs of that admirable animal. The longer we remain without such a register, the more difficult will it be to trace the pedigrees of existing stock, is it not, in fact, within the knowledge of many readers, that animals known to have descended from ancestry of the highest and purest blood. have been confounded with the vulgar mass of their species, by the loss of an old newspaper or memorandum book, that contained their pedigrees? Sensible for years past of the danger which in this way threatens property of so much value, and persuaded that it is not yet too late to collect and save many precious materials that would soon be otherwise lost, the subscriber hopes to supply the long looked for desideratum, by the establishment of " THE AMERICAN TURE REGISTER." But though an account of the performances on the American Turf, and the pedigrees of thorough-bred horses, constitutes the chief aim of the work, it is designed, also, as a Magazine of information (like the English Sporting Magazine) on veterinary subjects generally and of various rural sports, as Racing, Shooting, and Sporting Magazine." It will of course be the aim of the Editor to give to his journal an original American cast, conveying at once, to readers of all ages, amusement and instruction, in regard to our own country, its animals, birds, fishes, &c. in the absence of domestic materials, the magazines received from abroad will supply an ample stock of appropriate matter. Finally, as to the style and execution of the work, the first number, just published & ready for delivery, may be received as a fair specimen, entitled to some allowance for the imperfections inseparable from the first essay in a new and somewhat complicated and difficult enterprize. J. S. SKINNER.

CONDITIONS. The SPORTING MAGAZINE will be published monthly. Each number will consist of about fifty pages, embellished with beautiful engravings—price $5 per annum, to be paid on the receipt of the first number. Where the number of subscribers at any place shall warrant it, it will be sent by private conveyance at the expense of the Editor, and delivered free of any extra charge; where it is sent by mail the subscriber will have to pay the postage.

* Persons procuring five subscribers, and sending the money, will receive a sixth copy gratis—and so in proportion for a larger number. PRINTING

THE ATLAS. OR LITERARY, HISTORICAL AND COMMERCIAL

REPORTER. Elevantly printed on a sheet of the largest size, and published weekly,

In the city of New-York .- (Office at 20 Wall st.) wants of families or individuals whose sination and circumstances do not require the use of a daily journal: it is also well calculated for all who may be disposed to preserve a convenient record of passing events, combined with an entertaining miscellany.

The plan of the Atlas is original, in giving largely a condensed report of the most important events in every part of the world, distinctly arranged in geographical order. This intelligence is carefully prepared, from the most ample sources of information, both foreign and domestic. The affairs of the United States and of Great Britain and France, as possessing the highest general inverest, receive special at ention in this paper.

The Atlas disclaims all partizan views, but is pledged, in every party question that is noticed to give, as far as possible, a candid representation of the sentiments of each, -using, when decor rous, their own language. The other coments of the paper consist of Literary Notices and Selections ; facts and opinions relating to Science and the Arts and Commercial Intelligence, embracing, in a separate department, a Weekly Review of the New-York Market, with others in the United States and those of London, Liver pool and Havre ; and a report of foreign arrivals all the ports of the United States, with other ship news.

Besides these subjects, the Atlas contains a variety of amusing anecdotes and other agreesble miscellanies, calculated to complete the design expressed in its motto-"Lectorem delectando, pariterque monendo."

Conditions .- Price, $6 for the yearly volume, payable in advance. But if the paper is deliver. ed in the city, or through the United States Mail, and payment in advance at the office of publication, free of all charges, $5. Price half yearly, $3. No subscriptions taken for less time than 6 months, and no papers discontinued except at the expiration of half yearly periods.
