

LEGISLATURE.—The balloting for Senator continues. There have been in the whole thirteen, the several results of which are noticed below. It will be seen, that on the 11th balloting, the name of MONROE STOKES was withdrawn and that of CHARLES FISHER, added.

Table with 13 columns and 2 rows of names and numbers, including names like Meares, Donnell, Stokes, and numbers like 1st, 2d, 3d, etc.

In the Senate, on Thursday, the Resolution to discontinue the appropriation for the education of Miss Udney M. Blakely, passed its third reading, and was sent to the House of Commons for concurrence. It appears from the Report of the Committee accompanying the Resolution, that the State has already appropriated the sum of $8,000 for her benefit, and that her whole property is estimated to be worth about $16,000.

On the same day, the Senate resolved itself into a committee of the whole, Mr. Sneed in the Chair, on the bill to establish a Bank on behalf of, & for the benefit of the State. Mr. Martin delivered his views at considerable length, when the Committee rose, reported progress and obtained leave to sit again on this day.

In the House of Commons, on Thursday, a select committee was appointed to enquire into the expediency of requesting our Representatives and instructing our Senators in Congress, to use their exertions to have all the vacant lands of the United States in the different States and Territories, sold, as soon as can be reasonably done at a fair price, to be equally apportioned among the several States and Territories, for the purposes of Education.

The bill to reduce the price of vacant lands in this State to five cents per acre, was indefinitely postponed on its second reading.

Mr. Hill of Wilmington, from the committee of Internal Improvements, reported a bill authorizing the Board of Internal Improvements to contract for the opening and improving of Currituck Inlet.

On Friday, the Senate was chiefly occupied in committee of the whole, in the consideration of the Sheriff's Bill. Before any question was taken on it, the committee reported progress and obtained leave to sit again.

On the same day, in the House of Commons, Mr. Nash, from the committee on the Judiciary, to whom a resolution was referred instructing them to enquire into the expediency of making Usury an indictable offence, reported that he had been directed by the committee to say, that the penalties already provided by law, are sufficiently severe, and that it would be impolitic to increase them or vary the mode by which they are to be enforced.

A petition was presented from Joseph H. Bryan & William Watts Jones, praying to be permitted to enter vacant and unappropriated land in the county of Macon, to the amount of 20,000 acres, for which they are willing to give 1 dollar per acre, whenever grants are issued. The express object which they have in view, is to search for Gold, and they promise to account to the State, for one-sixteenth of all the precious metals they find. The petition was referred.

On Saturday, the time of the Senate was again engrossed by the Sheriff's Bill, in the Committee of the whole. To test its principle, Mr. Mitchell moved to strike out the enacting clause, which motion was lost. The bill on motion of Mr. Martin, was then reported to the House and its passage recommended. The question to concur with the Report of the Committee, was determined in the affirmative, Yeas 33—Nays 27. Before the bill was put on its second reading, the Senate adjourned on motion of Mr. Hinton of Beaufort, who stated his intention to offer some amendments.

The House of Commons was altogether occupied in the consideration of private business.

A writer in the Elizabeth City Star, complains of an act passed at the last session of the Legislature, commonly called the suspension law; by which a creditor may be kept out of his just dues, eighteen months or even thirty six months, by an administrator or executor of a deceased debtor.

The Vice President left here on Thursday morning. He was invited by the Members of the Legislature to partake of a Public Dinner, which he declined, from the necessity which existed for hastening his journey.

On Wednesday evening, however, a number of persons waited on him at Mr. Gorton's Hotel, to pay their respects.

The North-Carolina Bible Society held its annual meeting in the Senate Chamber of the Capitol on Monday evening last.—The Rev. Dr. Caldwell, the President, being absent, the Rev. P. W. Dowd, one of the Vice-Presidents was called to the Chair. The annual Report of the Managers and the Reports of the Treasurer and Secretary were laid before the meeting. The Plan of the late Convention for supplying all the destitute Families of the State with the Bible, was adopted. In order to aid the parent Society in accomplishing the great work of supplying every destitute family in the United States, this Society resolved on disposing of its Bank Stock, and placing the proceeds in the hands of the Parent Society, for which this Society is to receive an interest of seven per cent. in Bibles. The thanks of the Society were tendered to the Rev. Mr. Nolley, for his appropriate and impressive discourse in favor of the Society, and the Rev. Mr. Osborne of Newbern was appointed to deliver the next annual discourse. The following gentlemen were added to the Board of Managers for the ensuing year: Wm. M. Sneed, Esq. of Granville; Benj. B. Smith, George Simpson and Henry Hardie, of this city.

Congress meets this day. From the number of members whose arrival is announced in the Washington papers, there is no doubt of a quorum being formed on the first day. The President's Message is looked for with great anxiety. If the Speaker is elected to-day, we shall probably receive the Message on Thursday. The General Assembly of Virginia also convenes this day. As but little business is done in the early part of the session, at least until the several committees have reported, the Legislature will probably have it in their power to adjourn each day in time for the Convention to use the Hall.

The Legislature of South-Carolina met on the 23d ult. its constitutional time.—The Governor's Message was delivered on Tuesday, and embraces a variety of topics of general interest. Gov. Miller recommends that the State should take an interest in the Railroad from Charleston, as not only being more consistent with its expressed opinions than applying for aid from the funds of the General Government, but as the dictate of sound policy, calculated to revive the depressed trade of its principal city. He also recommends a revision of the Criminal Code. "The punishment for some offences is uncertain; and for many, too severe." The Governor does not particularize; but he might have noticed as a blot on the humanity of South-Carolina Legislation, that Horse-stealing is punishable with death.

The reduction of interest, and the taxing of Bank Stock and Money at interest are recommended in the Message. His Excellency insists on maintaining the right of the State to tax equally every species of property—that the exemption of any kind or kinds increases unjustly the burdens on other species; and that to exempt Bank Stock, because a bonus is paid to the State, has no more justice in it, than to exempt a tract of land, because it was purchased of the State.

To prevent emigration, &c. the Governor recommends the prevention of the involuntary sale of the real estate of resident freeholders; or at least such a provision as would permit a defendant, or any person for him to redeem, within a year, his landed property sold by the Sheriff. On the 1st Sept. the Treasury contained $131,210. This added to the ordinary revenue of the present fiscal year, makes $466,772, exceeding the highest estimate of public expenditure, $236,390.

We recommend to the special attention of our Legislature, the following paragraph:— "The Rocky Mount Canal will soon be completed, which will open a communication to one of the best bodies of land in the Southern country. How far the improvement of this fine river will be extended beyond our line, will depend upon the enterprise of the citizens of North-Carolina. Every motive will operate on them which can urge an interior, abundant in vegetable and mineral wealth, to avail itself of the bounties of nature, to bring its products into the commercial world.—Should York, Chester, and Lancaster, in this State—Mecklenburg, Lincoln and Iredell in North-Carolina, alone send through this channel their produce to market, a full equivalent will soon be realized for the immense sums lavished on this river."

The Cherokee Legislature, as a testimony of their "gratitude and respect" to the author of the Essays lately published in the National Intelligencer, over the signature of "William Penn," and to insure a more extensive circulation of those Essays, have ordered them to be published in a pamphlet form, both in the English and Cherokee language.

The following Resolution has been introduced into the Georgia Legislature and is one of much importance. The evil proposed to be remedied is as great in this State, as in Georgia. Be it resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Georgia in General Assembly met.—That from and immediately after a public Act or Resolution and its having received the Executive sanction, when the Executive sanction is necessary, his Excellency the Governor be requested, and he is hereby authorized to cause a sufficient number of copies of the Act or Resolution, so passed, to be made out, as will be sufficient to furnish each of the publishers of newspapers in Milledgeville with one copy, for immediate publication, and that each publisher of a newspaper in this State, be requested to publish the Act or Resolution passed by the Legislature, one time, in their respective Gazettes.

The Statue of Washington, which has been placed on the summit of the Monument erected in Baltimore, in honor of the Father of his Country, is sixteen feet high, divided into three parts, and weighs, including the pedestal, sixteen and a half tons, and is the work of Mr. Casucci, who has completed it in the space of sixteen months, and receives ten thousand dollars for it. The Baltimore American observes—"The marble of which the statue is formed is of a very pure kind, free of veins, and is a fine specimen of the native white formation which abounds in the neighborhood of Baltimore. The block, although it has been divided into three parts for the convenience of transportation, and in order to facilitate the labour of the artist, was originally in a single piece. It was procured on the farm of Mrs. Taylor, in Baltimore county, that lady having patriotically given it without charge, as soon as the object was known for which it was designed. It is not a little singular that it was found in a field by itself, and proved to be exactly of the dimensions and quality required by the artist. Its weight in the rough state was thirty-six tons."

The Citizens of Pensacola, have recently given a public Dinner to Col. Duncan L. Clinch, as a mark of their respect for his public and private worth. The oldest member of either House of Congress is Gen. SAMUEL SMITH, of Maryland, who was elected to the House of Representatives in 1797, and transferred to the Senate in 1803, where he has continued, with the exception of a short interval, to the present time. Mr. NEWTON of Virginia, is the oldest member of the House, having been regularly re-elected from the Norfolk District since 1801. Mr. Silas E. Burrows, of New-York, announces that a regular monthly communication is now established from New-York to Panama, and that vessels touching off the port of Panama can be certain of their letters reaching New-York in about thirty days.

General Scott is now in command of the military district of New-York. Curious Coincidence.—It is a singular fact that the Governors of Louisiana and Maine, both died suddenly within two days of each other; one on the 6th ult. and the other on the 8th.

Female Temperance Society.—A late London paper states, that "so intemperate have females in the United States become, that they are obliged to form societies to keep each other sober!" Sam Patch.—It is mentioned in the Geneva Chronicle, of the 16th, that the body of Patch, was found on the Sunday after his "last jump." It was examined by several surgeons, who reported the rupture of a blood-vessel, caused by the sudden chill of the atmosphere through which it passed to the water. Another account says, when Patch was picked up, both his shoulders were found to be dislocated.

On Wednesday about 1 o'clock Mr. Madison rose to address the committee. It was the first time he had spoken, since the first day, when he had nominated Mr. Monroe to the Chair of the Convention. No sooner was he upon his feet, than the members from all parts of the Hall (with the exception of not more than ten) gathered round him to catch the lowest accents from his tongue. He was as near as he could get to the Chair—and his voice was low and weak; but his sentences were rounding and complete; and its announcement, though tremulous and full of feeling, was distinct to those who heard him. Mr. M. declared himself in favour of a compromise; of surrendering one branch of the Legislature to the federal basis, for reasons which he gave at length, instead of compounding both branches out of both the bases. But he did not cast the characters and assign to each House its appropriate basis. We should think that no man could hear him—could bear these patriotic strains from lips whose eloquence has so often "chained listening Senates," and who fills such "a large space in the eyes of mankind," without feeling a profound sense of veneration for the venerable Orator.

The debate, which ensued, was one of the most animated which has yet taken place. Mr. Moore, Judge Coalter, Mr. Cooke and Mr. Leigh spoke on the subject; and it is supposed the debate will continue until this great question is settled. No question was taken. The debate continued on Thursday and Friday, and at the close of the session on the latter day the question on striking out the word "Resolved" from Mr. Upshur's plan of compounding the basis of Representation in both Houses was taken, when the votes were, yeas 48—Nays 47: and the Chairman voting in the affirmative, the Convention were exactly divided. So the motion to destroy Mr. Upshur's motion failed. Mr. Monroe voted with the yeas. Mr. Madison and Mr. Marshall with the nays.
