MY AIN WIFE.

I widna gie my ain wife
For ony wife I see;
I widna gie my ain wife
For ony wife I see;
A bonnet yet I've never seen
A better eanna be—
I widna gie my ain wife
For ony wife I see.

O' countie is my ingle cheek,
An' cheerie is my Joane,
I nager see her angy look,
Nor hear her word on ane;
She's a guid wi' a' the neighbors round,
An' aye gude wi' me—
I widna gie my ain wife
For ony wife I see!

An' O her looks so kindly,
They melt my heart outright,
When o'er the baby at her breast
She hangs w' fond delight;
She looks intill its bonny face,
An' aye looks to me—
I widna gie my ain wife
For ony wife I see!

James H. Swindells,

RESPECTFULLY informs the inhabitants of Elizabeth City, Raleigh, Newbern, Washington, Fayetteville, and other places in the route through North-Carolina, that he intends visiting the above mentioned places in the month of August next, for the purpose of TUNING and STRINGING PIANO FORTES.

Mr. S. does not make a practice of travelling the country, for the purpose mentioned in this advertisement; but so many persons having gone through that district, who know nothing at all of the business, has induced him to undertake the contemplated trip. No pay unless the parties are satisfied.

Two Hundred Dollars Reward.

WHEREAS it has been made known to me, that a Murder has been committed in the County of Caswell, and State of North-Carolina, on the 12th day of April last, and that a certain CHARLES WILSON, of the County and State aforesaid, stands charged by the verdict of a Coroner's Inquest, with having perpetrated the same on the body of one John Morris, late of the Commonwealth of Virginia; and as it further represented and made known to me, that the said Charles Wilson has absconded and fled from the jurisdiction and limits of this State, and thereby eluded the arm of the law and justice.

Now, therefore, to the end, that the said Charles Wilson may be apprehended & brought to trial, the above reward of $200 will be given to any person or persons, who will apprehend and confine him in any Jail in this State, that he may be brought to answer the offence with which he here stands charged.

And I do moreover hereby require, command and enjoin all officers whatsoever, a well civil as military, within this State, to use their best endeavors to apprehend and take, or cause to be apprehended and taken, the body of the said Charles Wilson, and him safely and securely keep, so that he shall be brought to justice.

Charles Wilson usually dresses genteely—is about 5 feet 4 inches high, dark hair with a few grey hairs intermixed, and rather a dark complexion—He is remarkable for having had his back broken when young, and is wearing a lump so large that no dress can conceal it, in standing and walking by straightening himself, he tries to make his deformity as little apparent as possible. He is intelligent, and speaks with considerable fluency, and appears to be about forty years old. He has been seen in Lynchburg, Virginia, and is believed to be endeavoring to reach Texas, or some part of the Spanish American Dominions, where he has a brother residing.

Given under my hand as Governor, and under the great seal of the State, at the City of Raleigh, this 1st day of May, A. D. 1830.

NEW-YORK MIRROR,
A REPOSITORY OF POLITE LITERATURE
AND THE ARTS:

Embellsied, quarterly, with a splendid Copperplate Engraving, & weekly, with a Popular Piece of Music, arranged with Accompaniments for the Piano.

EDITED BY GEORGE P. MORRIS.

FOR the fact that the merits and character of the New-York Mirror have been steadily progressive, we refer to the past. Our arrangements for the future are far more advantageous than any we have hitherto been able to effect, and we therefore feel confidence in asserting that the Eighth Volume, which will commence on the 10th of July, will be much superior, in every department, to its predecessors.

It gives us great pleasure to state, that this periodical will hereafter be enriched with ORIGINAL CONTRIBUTIONS from the pens of John F. Schroeder, D. D. Gullun G. Verplanck, Fitz-Greene Halleck, Robert C. Sands, Charles Sprague, James G. Brooks, William Leggett, Theodore S. Fay, and John Inman, Prosper M. Wetmore, James Lawson, William P. Palmer, Willis G. Clark, Samuel Woodworth, James Shea, and C. C. Vernaldale, Miss A. Woodbridge.

What we have done in the way of embellishments, is before the public; what we intend to do, we now submit to their notice. During the year, four fine engravings will be published.—

Subjects as follows:

- I.—Street view in New-York, embracing Park Row, the Park, a portion of Chatham street, the Brick Meeting, &c. with all the life and bustle incident to that part of the town.
- II.—A view of the Bay and Harbour, studded with islands, and covered with shipping, steamboats, small craft, &c. including a distant sketch of States Island and the Narrows, taken from the Battery.
- III.—The City of New-York, from the Bay, the North and East Rivers, Hoboken, Wehew, Brooklyn Heights, Village of Brooklyn, &c.
- IV.—Wall-street, about the hour of three; the Exchange, the various Banks, and other public Institutions.

These drawings have been taken expressly for this work, and will be engraved by eminent artists.

In addition to the foregoing, several wood engravings, executed in the best possible manner, representing old Dutch edifices will be given; both as a matter of curiosity, and from a desire to preserve from oblivion traces of the dwellings of the early Dutch settlers.

Each number will contain, as heretofore, a popular piece of Music, arranged for the Piano-forte.

The praise which the Mirror has obtained for its typographical neatness, will continue to be observed.

From the above, it is obvious that our expenses must be very materially increased; and we had contemplated, at one time, advancing the price of this paper to five dollars; but in consequence of the unprecedented increase of our circulation, we are induced, in preference to trust to a still further patronage for an adequate remuneration of our labours.

CONTRIBUTORS.

The Mirror is published every Saturday, at the corner of Nassau and Ann streets. It is elegantly printed in the Royal quarto form, on fine paper, with brevier and nonpareil type. Fifty-two numbers complete a volume of four hundred and sixteen pages, for which a beautiful INDEX, given at the close of the volume, and a copious INDEX, are furnished. The terms are, four dollars per annum payable in advance. It is forwarded by the earliest mails to subscribers residing out of the City of New-York. Communications, post paid, must be addressed to the Editor. No subscriptions received for a less period than one Year.

IN this case, it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant has removed himself beyond the limits of the State, or so conceals himself that the ordinary process of law cannot be served on him. "Paul Clifford is perhaps the most original of all Mr. Bulwer's works, and cannot fail to add largely to his writer's reputation. For the man of the world, it contains shrewdness and satire; for the moralist, matter of deep thought, and for the young, all the interest of narrative and all the poetry of feeling."

GEO. W. GRONLUND,
PROFESSOR OF MUSIC.
RESPECTFULLY informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of Plymouth, Washington, Newbern, Raleigh, Fayetteville, and other places in the route through North-Carolina, that he is now on his tour visiting the above mentioned places, for the purpose of TUNING & STRINGING PIANO FORTES.

Mr. G. makes it for the present, expressly his business, travelling through the State, for the purpose above mentioned; not because he cares for how many persons have gone or intend going through that district ignorant of their business, but simply because he feels desirous of honorably earning a few dollars. He will take care to procure recommendations from highly respectable persons in Edenton, where he is now employed in Tuning PIANOS & ORGANS, so that those who in future may feel disposed to honor him with their patronage, will not be deterred from doing so, by the report of malicious insinuations of a certain unworthy individual.

BERNARD DUPUY respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he has just received from New-York and Philadelphia, a splendid supply of Goods in his line which he will dispose of at very reduced prices. His Perfumery consists in part of Toilette Powder, Puffs and boxes; genuine Lavender and Cologne Water, Otto of Roses, various kinds of Essences, Cosmetic and Shaving Soaps, real Naples Soap, and a great variety of fine articles. In a few days he expects a further supply, among which he will have a handsome collection of the newly invented Instrument called the HARMONICON or BOLLINAS, with Preceptors.

Thankful for past encouragement, he hopes that by the punctuality and neatness with which all orders entrusted to his care will be executed, together with the sincere desire which his personal attention will exhibit to give general satisfaction, still to merit a continuance of a liberal public's patronage.

LOOK HERE!

A FEW days since, a Negro Man called at the house of the subscriber, living four miles south-east of Raleigh, and enquired the way to Smithfield, stating that his name was BEN, that he belonged to Mr. Nathan Upchurch of Chatham, and that his master had hired him to some one in Smithfield. On questioning him closely, it was very evident that he had run away, which supposition became confirmed by his subsequent conduct. Being asked for his pass, he said he had lost it a short distance back on the road which he came, but would go and find it. I offered to accompany him, but he said he would leave his bundle, and soon return. He deposited his bundle in my yard and started off in search of his pass and I accompanied him on horseback. As soon however as we reached the woods, he darted off and I have not since seen him.

His bundle contained a number of valuable articles of clothing, the chief of which are here noticed, with a hope that they may meet the eyes of the owner, for I am confident they were stolen. They will be delivered to any one having a right to demand them, on their paying for this advertisement. They consist of a blue cloth coat, half worn; two Umbrellas, one silk, the other cotton; a pair of cassinet trousers, fashionably made; two pair white cotton, do.; a cambric shirt and two cotton shirts; a nice twill'd white roundabout; a black silk and a white Marseilles vest; a fur hat half worn; a case of razors, &c. &c.
