Vol. VII.

Monday, August 30, 1830.

THE REGUSTER oublished every MONDAY and THURSDAY, by JOSEPH GALES & SON.

At five Dollars per annum-half in advance

ADVERTISEMENTS

Not exceeding sixteen lines, neatly inserted 3 times for a Dollar, and twenty-five cents for every succeeding publication: those of greater length in the same proportion ... COMMU-SICATIONS thankfully received ... LETTERS to the Editors must be postpaid.

HENRY ST. CLAIR,

A PRIME TALE, Written for the N. Y. Amulet, by J. G. Whittier.

llenry St. Clair !- How at the mention of that name, a thousand dreams of friend ship and youth-and of the early and beautiful associations which linger like invisible spirits around us, to be called into view only by the magical influence of memory. are awakened! How does the glance of retrospection go back to the dim images of the past-from the childish merriment to the manly rivalship-from the banquethall and the pleasant festival, down to the silent and unbroken solitude of the tomb! We were as brothers in childhood -St. Clair and myself, brothers too in the dawning of manhood; and a more ingenuous and high-minded friend I never knew .-Yet he was strangely proud-not of the world's gifts-wealth, family and learning -but of his intellectual power, of the great it of mind which he possessed, the ardent and lefry spirit which shone out in his every action. And he might well be proud of such gifts. I never knew a finer mind. It was as the embedded spirit of poetry itself-the beautiful home of high and glorious aspirations.

Henry St. Clair was never at heart a Christian. He never enjoyed the visitations of that pure and blessed influence, which comes into the silence and loveliness of the human bosom, to build up anew the broken altars of its faith, and revive the dropping flowers of its desolated affections. He loved the works of the Great God with the love of an enthusiast. But beyond the visible and outward forms, the passing magnificence of the heavens, the been handed me by the dying man. With ver extended. His spirit never overlook. ed to myself : ed the clouds which surrounded it, to catch and sunny biography of our upon whose unshadowed by a passing cloud. We were which I am surrounded. happy in our friendship, but the time of dwelling. I was horrying eagerly forward, and most fashionable circles of the city.

disarmed and writhing beneath me. It taught to believe sacred and holy.

lawards Roger Allston ?'

you refuse the puly mercy which man can est regard. ufter aumihifation!"

ly and death-like features, and on his at- have had power over a mind darkened and tenuated form, and his ragged apparel .- perverted as my own ; I might have been Breathless and eagerly I gazed upon him, reclaimed from the pathway of ruin; until he trembled beneath the scrutiny. I might have been happy. pressed my hand against my brow, for I "But that fatal error came-and came guilty wretch before me was the friend of eternity, forget that scene; it is engraven It was Henry St. Clair! Yes-it was St. it is a dream of reality. It dashed from communion with each other! Where was for ever the dark aspect of my destiny. he look of intelligence, and the visible seat . I had been very gay, for there were of intellect—the beauty of person and happy spirits around me; and had drank suality, and the deformity of disease. -"I am fit only for the companionship of I was delirious; I was happy. I left the demons; but you cannot long be cursed by inebriated assembly, and directed my steps, my presence. I have not tasted food for not to my lodgings, but to the home of her, many days; hunger drove me to attempt whom I loved; nay adored above all oyour robbery ; and I feel that I am a dying thers. Judge of her surprise and consterman. Nu human power can save me; and nation when I entered with a flushing if there be a God, even He cannot save me | countenance and an unsteady tread! She from myself; from the undying horrors of was reading to her aged parents, when the increasing ghastliness of his counte- her the fatal truth; and she shrunk from nance, I led the wretched man-to my dwel- me-aye, from me, to whom her vows ling, and, after conveying him to bed, and were plighted and her young affections administering a cordial to his fevered lips, given-with fear, with loathing, and unordered a physician to be called. But it disguised abhorrence. Irritated at her was too late; the hand of death was upon him, conduct, I approached her rudely; and for that purpose by Commissioners appointed on He motioned me to his bed-side after the snatched from her hand the book she had the part of the State of Indiana, by and with the physician had departed; he strove to speak, been reading. I cast it into the flames consent of the Commissioner of the General but the words died upon his lips. He then which rose brighly from the hearth. It drew from his bosom a sealed letter ad- was the volume which you call sacred .dressed to myself. It was his last effort. I saw the smoke of its consuming go up. He started half upright in his bed; utter- ward like a sacrifice to the Demon of Ined one groan of horror and mortal suffer- temperance, and there; even there; by 10, 12, 13, 24, in Township No. 24, North of ing; and sunk back, still and ghastly, up. that Christian fire-side, I cursed the Book Range No. 3, West 2d principal Meridian, 1, 3, on his pillow. He was dead!

friend to the narrow place appointed for scription. The shriek of my betrothed; 13, 15, 17, 22, 24, 27, 32, T. 25, R. 2 W. all the living; the damp and cold church her sinking down in a state of insensibiliyard. I breathed to no one the secret of ty; the tears of maternal anguish; the 27, 29, 32, 34, T. 26, R. 2 W. 25, 34, 36, T. his name and his guilt. I left it to slumber horror depicted on the countenance of the 27, R. 2 W. 3, 5, 8, T. 25, R. 1 W. 1, 3, with him

I now referred to the paper which had beauty and grandeur of the earth, and the a trembling hand I broke the seal of the illimitable world of waters, his vision ne- envelope, and read the following, address-a glimpse of the better and more beautiful seek to find its unhappy writer. He is be- fair, how passing beautiful they shone 8, 10, 15, 17, 20, 22, 27, 29, 32, T. 27, R. 4 youd the reach of your noble generosity; down at that hour! I had loved to look E. 32, 34, T. 28, R. 4 E. 1, 3, 5, 8, 10, 12, I need not tell the story of my friend's a guilty and a dying man. I do not seek upon the stars: those bright and biessed upon the stars upon th it from a thousand others : it is the brief existence; and death; dark, and terrible, telligence; but that night their grandeur 27, 29, 32, 34, 36, 7, 28, R. 6 E. 1, 5, 10, and mysterious as it may seem, is less to and their exceeding purity came like a 12, 13, 15, 22, 24, 27, T. 27, R. 7 E. 1, 8, pathway the sunshine of happiness rested, be dreaded than the awful realities with curse to my very v sion. I could have 10, 12, 13, 15, 17, 20, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 32 our different interests, and by the opposite know we parted from each other. You tendency of circumstances peculiar to each know the lofty hopes and the towering would have been in unison with my feel- 13, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 32, 34, 36, T. 29, R. feelings of ambition, which urged me from wigs. It was a night of Autumn, a cold and your society, from the enjoyment of that starless evening-I remember it with pain- friendship, the memory of which has ever ful distinctness, although year after year since lingered like an upbraiding spirit at has mingled with eternity, that I had oc- my side. I arrived at my place of destinacasion to pass in my way homeward, thro' tion, and aided by the introductory episone of the darkest and loueliest alleys of the of my friends, and the influence of my

when I feit myself suddenly seized by the | .. I never possessed those principles of arm, and a voice crose in my ear whisper- virtue and moral dignity, the effect of ed hoarsely-"Stop-or you are a dead which has been so conspicuous in your own man!" I turned suddenly. I heard the character. Amidst the flatteries and atcocking of a pistol, and saw by a faint tentions of those around me, and in the exgleam from a neighboring window, the tall citing pursuit of pleasure, the kindly voice teaches sink deep in the hearts of the 20, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 32, 34, 36, T. 31, R. figure of a man-one hand grasping my of admonition was unheard; and I became young and ardent of spirit. Let them re- 14 E. 24, 25, 27, 34, 36, T. 32, R. 14 E. 3, left arm, the other holding a weapon at my the gayest of the gay, a leader in every member that " Infidelity and Intemper- 5, 8, T. 30, R. 15 E. 3, 5, 8, 10, 15 17, 20, scene of fashionable dissipation. The prin-I know not what prompted me to resist- ciples of my new companions were those of who have once yielded themselves to the ance: I was totally unarmed, and alto- infidelity, and I embraced them with my fascination of vice, are hurried onward, as gether unacquainted with the struggle of whole soul. You know my former dispo- by an irresistible impulse, in the path way mortal jeonardy. But I did resist; and sition to doubt; that doubt was now change of ruin; although conscious of their danin one instant I saw my assailant in the ed into a settled unbelief, and a bitter haposture I have described, the next, he was tred towards all which I had once been darkness is widening and deepening be-seemed as if an infant's strength could have | "Yet amidst the baleful principles which I had imbibed, one honourable feel-"Wretch!" I exclaimed, as I held his ing still lingered in my bosom, like a beauown pistol to his bosom, " what is your tiful angel in the companionship of demons. mject? Are you a common midnight rob- There was one being; a young and lovely ber-or bear you ought of private malice creature; at whose shrine all the deep atfectious of my heart were poured out, in "Allstan !- Roger Allston!" repeated the sincerity of early love. She was inthe wreich beneath me, in a voice which deed a beautiful girl; a being to bow down, sounded like a shrick, as he strugged half to and worship; pure and high-thoughted upright, even against the threatening pis- as the sainted ones of Paradise, but contol. "Great God! has it come to this? - fiding and artless as a child. She pos-Hell has no pang like this meeting! - | sessed every advantage of outward beauty; Shoot!" he exclaimed, and there was a but it was not that which gathered about drendful earnestness in his manner, which her, as with a spell, the hearts of all who sent the hot blood of indignation cold and knew her. It was the light of her b-autiice-like upon my heart. . Shoot!-you ful mind which lent the deep witching of were once my friend-in mercy kill me!" soul to her fine countenance; flashing in A horrible suspicion flashed over my her dark eye, and playing like sunshine on mind. I felt a sudden sickness at my her lip, and crossing her fair forehead with

"Wheever you may be," I said, " and "Adston! I look back to the Springwhatever may have been your motive in at- time of love even at this awful crisis in my acking me, I would not stain my hands destiny with a strange feeling of joy. It with your blood. Go-and repent of your is the only green spot in the wilderness of the past ; an easis in the desert of being. "You do not know me ;" and the rob. She loved me, Allston ; and a heart more remier me the mercy of death-of ... Hitherto, pride rather than principle had kept me above the lowest degradation

Actuated by a sudden and half-defined of sensual indulgence. But for one fatal impulse. I caught hold of the stranger's error I might have been united to the lovearm, and hurried him towards the light of ly being of my affections; and, oh! if sina street lamp. It fell full ugan his ghast- less purity and persuasive love could not felt my brain whirl like the coming on of ton, in the abhorrent shape of loathsome delirium. I could not be mistaken. The Drunkenness. I shall never-in time or my youth-one whose memory I had che- on my memory in letters of fire ;-it comes ished as the holiest legacy of the past .- up before me like a terrible dream; but Clair-but how changed since last we had my lips the cup of happiness, and fixed mind? Gone-and gone forever! to give freely and fearlessly for the first time .place to the vile tokens of a disgusting sen- There is something horrible in the first sensations of drunkenness. For relief, Well may you shudder," said St. Clair drank still deeper ; and I was a drunkard; with an idiot's grimace I approached her. Shocked by his words, and still more by She started from her seat; one glance told and its author !

I followed the remains of my unhappy . The scene which followed beggars deold man-all these throng even now confusedly over my memory. I staggered to 17, 20, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 32, 34, 36, T. 27, toxication; and reason began to assume its empire. The full, round moon, was 10, 12, 13, 15, 17, 20, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 32, T. 27, R. 2 East. 1, 3, 8, 10, 12, 13, 15, 17, 20, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 32, 36, "If this letter ever reaches you, do not up in the heavens; and the stars; how T. 27, R. 3 E. 34, 36, T. 28, R. 3 E. 3, 5, seen those beautiful lights extinguished; 34, 36, T. 28, R. 7 E. 1, 3, 5, 8, 10, 12, 13. "I have little strength to tell you the and the dark night cloud sweeping over manhood came, and we were parted by story of my fall. Let me be brief. You the fair face of the sky, and have smiled 27, R. 9 E. 1, 3, 5, 10, 12, 13, 15, 17, 20, with grim satisfaction, for the change 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 32, 34, 36, T. 28, R. 9 E.

less agony which mocks at consolation, the 15, 17, 20, 22, 27, 29, 32, 34, T. 29, R. 10 grave of my betrothed. She died of a bro- E. 10, 12, 13, 15, 22, 24, 25, 27, 34, T. 30, ken heart. From that moment, all is dark, R. 10 E. 1, 5, T. 29, R. 11 E. 1, 3, 5, 8 and hateful, and loath-ome, in my history. 10, 12, 13, 15, 17, 20, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 32 I am now reduced to poverty, I am bowing 34, 36, T. 30, R. 11 E. 24, 25, 34, 36, T. 31 my native city. Anxious to reach my family, I was at once received into the first to disease : I am without a friend. I have 10, 12, 13, 17, 20, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 32, 34, no longer the means of subsistence : and T. 30, R. 12 E. 13, 15, 17, 20, 22, 24, 25, starvation may yet anticipate the fatal ter- 27, 29, 32, 34, 37, T. 31, R. 12 E. 1. 3. 5. mination of the disease which is preying 8, 10, 12, 13, 15, 17, 20, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29,

Such was the tale of the once gifted and noble St. Clair. Let the awful lesson it ance go hand in hand ;" and that those ger, and knowing that the gulf of utter fore them.

MANAGERS' OFFICE Drawn Numbers:

n the 10th Class Dismal Swamp Lottery. 14, 2, 9, 54, 36, 35, 22, 31, 8. 11th Class Dismal Swamp Lottery, 50, 20, 54, 11, 35, 53, 46, 45, 38. 11th Class Connecticut State Lottery, 5, 6, 24, 12, 29, 21, 20, 18, 46. 19th Extra N. Vork Lottery, 55, 12, 45, 34, 22, 16, 30, 9, 39. 5th Class Grand Consolidated Lottery, 5, 54, 55, 37, 27, 45, 46, 17, 41. 13th Class Union Canal Lottery, 58, 32, 5, 51, 6, 24, 11, 59, 35. 1st Class Delaware & N. Carolina Lottery.

50, 45, 17, 32, 28, 21, 57, 2, 15. 7th Class New-York Lottery, 57, 29, 41, 51, 36, 31, 46, 26, 5.

YATES & M'INTYRE.

Insolvent's Notice.

Messrs. Allen Rogers, Wiley Rogers, Ander-son Wilkings & Edmond Barker. Take Notice, her, as with some difficulty he regained his precious than the gems of the East, was that on the 6th of September next, I intend to feet, "even you have forgotten me-even given up to a wretch unworthy of its slight- take the benefit of the Act of Assembly for the relief of Insolvent Debtors, at the Jail for Wake County, No Carolina-When and where you may attend if you see cause. WELLIAM MAHOE.

August 18, 1850.

Male and Female Academy. M. A. WALKER respectfully informs the inhabitants of Edgecombe and adjacent Counties, that his second Session commenced on he 4th instant, at his residence seven miles from Tarborough, in the immediate neighborhood or

Terms per Session of 5 Months. Greek, Latin, & the subordinate branches $14 00

Geography, English Grammar, History, Composition, &c. &c. Spelling, Reading and Writing,

Boarding, Washing, and Mending, Boarding may be had in many private families Tickets $10 Halves $5. Quarters $2,50 n the neighborhood, if preferred. Under an arrangement with his present paronisers, the vacation will commence 1st day of August and ter:ninate 30th of September. Such as did not enter at the commencement of the session, will only be chargeable from the time of their entrance, up to the completion of their respective Sessions.

SALE OF THE WABASH & ERIE CANAL LANDS. IN INDIANA,

June 23, 1830.

ON A CREDIT OF SEVENTEEN YEARS

Y authority of an act of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, approved January 28th, 1830, the undersigned will offer at Public Sale, to the highest bidder, in Tracts of 80 Acres, or in Fractional Sections, as the public ands are sold, on the first Monday in October next, at the Town of Logansport, in the county of Cass, a portion of the Lands granted to the State of Indiana, by the act of Congress of March 2d, 1827, "to aid in constructing a Canal, to " connect, at navigable points, the waters of "the Wabash river with those of Lake Erie," and which have been designated and set apart Land Office, and the approbation of the Presi-The part which will be offered for sale, in-lowing townships and ranges, viz. Nos. 1, 3, T. 25, R. 3 W. 13, 24, 25, 36, T. 26, R. 1, 3, 5, 8, 10, 12, 13, 15, 17, 20, 22, 24, 25, 32, 34 36, T. 26, R 1 W. 1, 10, 12, 13, 15, "Allston! I have visited in that tear. R. 9 E. 3, 5, 8, 10, 13, 15, 17, 20, 22, 27 34, 36, T. 30, R. 13 E 12, 13, 15, 17, 20 E. 1, 3, 5, 8, 10, 12, 13, 17, 20, 22, 29, T. 22, 27, 32, 34, T. 31, R. 15 E. 20, 29, 32, 34, T. 32, R. 15 E. except a small portion of some of the sections which were sold by the first rate Mail Coach General Government previous to the passage of drivers of the best kind; and he will spare the act of 2d of March, 1827, and also a few tracts selected for lock sites, stone quarries, &c. The sales will be continued from day to day, until all the tracts shall have been offered, and no sale made for a less price per acre than is required for Congress lands. The purchaser will have it at his option to make full payment, and receive a patent for the tract purchased; or by payment of one fourth of the purchase money, at time of the sale, and the interest at six per limit, comfortable and sale through his route.

Passengers who are unacquainted with this route, will secure seats by application at Mr. E. P. Guion's Hotel, in Baleigh, and at Mr. William H. Slaughter's Hotel, in Salisbury.

The stages will leave Salisbury every Wednesday and Saturday, at 6. A. M. and arrive in Raleigh on Thursday and Sunday, at 9. P. M. and first Monday in October next, for the residue.

The Eric and Wabash Canal, on or within five miles of which these lands are situated, is 128 miles in the State of Indiana, the vallies of the Wabash and Maumee rivers, which for fertility of soil, abundance of lime-stone, springs, good timber interspersed occasionally with small prairie, navigable rivers, and water privileges, of August, 1830. (independent of the Canal,) is decidedly amongst the finest portions of the Western coun Grand Delaware Consolidated ry. The greatest part of the lands in the Canal Donation, is of the tichest quality, in a healthy country, weil adapted for agricultural, commercial and manufacturing purposes, and is daily increasing in value, from the rapidity of easigr. tion to the lands adjoining, which is believed to be unprecedented, hitherto, in this State, and which must re ... mmend this sale as particularly worthy the attention and interest of the Farmer, Mechanic, Merchant, and Capitalist.

Commissioners SAML LEWIS,

Office of the Board of Commissioners of the Wabash & Erie Canal, Treaty Ground, Iudians, May 19th, 1830. June 15.

JOB PRINTING, Of every description done at this office. I teries.

YATES & MeINTTEE'S OFFICE

Union Canal Lottery,

CLASS 16. To be drawn in Philadelphia 11th September. 1 prize of $20,000 is $20,000

Besides 51 each of $300 $200 $100 & 20 of $50 1479 of $20

Dismal Swamp Canal Lottery

To be drawn at Richmond 17th September 1830 2 Capitals of $5,792 is $11,581 Besides $100, 40, 30, 20, 15, 19, 5, &c

Union Canal Lottery,

Tickets 35 Halves $2,50 Quarters $1,25

To be drawn in Philadelphia 25th September. 1 prize of $20,000 is $20,000 10,000 10.0005,000 5,000 4,000 3,000 2,000 1,000 8,000 Besides $500, 400, 300, 200, 150, 100,

50, 20, 10, 5. Whole Tickets 85 Halves 82,50 Quarters $1,25.

A Package in 16th Union Canal w compelled to draw $90 may be had for $200. A do. in 14th Dismal Swamp which is compelled to draw $45 may be had for $100 A do. in 17th Union Canal which is compelled to draw $50 may be had for $110

Shares of Packages in the same proportion Address your orders to Yates & Mcintyre Richmond Va. where was sold a few days since the Grand Capital of $30,000 and the Cash paid on presentation of the Ticket.

YATES & M'INTYRE

Managers. Richmond, Va. August 21.

MANAGERS' OFFICE. The following are the drawn numbers of The Grand Consolidated.

NO. 6. 10-14-40-17-33-52-16-37 16 17 33 Capital (whole) $500 Dismal Swamp Canal 12. 53-10-44-1-57-60-18-50

9 18 60 1 50 60 10 53 60 18 50 60

All sold and paid at the Managers Officer YATES & McINTYRE. A New Mail Route

STAGE FARE, KIVE DOLLARS

TNDER this arrangement the stage runs twice be the nearest, cheapest and most expe route West of Ruleigh. Passengers who travelling from Salisbury North, will find route by the way of Ruleigh and Petersbur ger who travels this route from Sal City, will go it in five days, and will sleep th at time of the sale, and the interest at six per cent. annually, in advance, a credit will be given by the State of seventeen years, from the Salisbury on Thursdays and Sundays at 9, P. M. GEORGE WILLIAMS, Contractor. June 14, 1830.

DON'T GIVE IT UP!

One of the most Splendid Schemes ever drawn in the United States, will be drawn on the 3ist

Lottery, Class 7, for 1830. 60 Number Lottery-9 Drawn Ballots.

VIEW THE CASH !!! 82 Capitals of $1,000, 2 of 3,355, 51 of 200, 51 of 150, 51 of 100,-80, 90, 60.

Any Ticket having on it any 3 of the Drawn Numbers is entitled to not less than $1,000, and 2 of the Drawn Numbers can draw $200.

Tickets going at $10, shares in proportion,-for sale at the ever Prize selling Office of B. W. HEWSON.

Sycamore-st

Where was sold in a few Schemes back, o this Lottery, the Grand Capital of Twenty-five Thousand, and the Cash paid immediately. Packages of Tickets for sale in the above Lot-