

THE NEW YORK AND NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 1, 1840.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

NO. 1.

VOL. XII.

ON R. SALES,

AND PASSENGERS.

THESE passengers, it is said, are not only a nuisance, but a pest. They are a great source of trouble and expense to the ship, and a great injury to the health of the crew. They are a great source of trouble and expense to the ship, and a great injury to the health of the crew. They are a great source of trouble and expense to the ship, and a great injury to the health of the crew.

NEW YORK.

Mr. Zebulon Slick, Justice of the Peace, and Deacon of the Church, over to the State of Connecticut. He had a long and tedious voyage down the river, and a long shore to this place. He was left to navigate the ship, partly alone. He had not a single crew member left, but he did not mind it. He had not a single crew member left, but he did not mind it. He had not a single crew member left, but he did not mind it.

Mr. Slick, when he reached the State of Connecticut, found that he had a long and tedious voyage down the river. He had not a single crew member left, but he did not mind it. He had not a single crew member left, but he did not mind it. He had not a single crew member left, but he did not mind it.

Mr. Slick, when he reached the State of Connecticut, found that he had a long and tedious voyage down the river. He had not a single crew member left, but he did not mind it. He had not a single crew member left, but he did not mind it. He had not a single crew member left, but he did not mind it.

Mr. Slick, when he reached the State of Connecticut, found that he had a long and tedious voyage down the river. He had not a single crew member left, but he did not mind it. He had not a single crew member left, but he did not mind it. He had not a single crew member left, but he did not mind it.

By gracious Providence, I've given a quart of soap to you, and now could a hen with me in Broadway, as I went along. I couldn't help from popping ten-minutes every other minute to look into the window.

Some of them was chuck full of watches and earrings, and silver spoons, and a great many other things. I was so much interested that I went in to see what they were. I was so much interested that I went in to see what they were. I was so much interested that I went in to see what they were.

Wal, arter all, I thought I never should get into the house when I did get to it. It was so alk-fired, and a heap of things went up to the door, with a kind of picket fence made of iron, all cut-curved over the sides. I looked all over the door for a knob, but I could find nothing in the shape of one, only a square chunk of silver, with Cousin Bebe's name written on it.

I was just taking a dive in the advertisements, when Cousin John came in. I raly believe you wouldn't know the critter, he's a blessed so. He's grown as fat and pushed out as a pig. I think he looks better for it. I tell you what, his clothes must cost him a few dollars. He had on a superfine broad cloth coat, that did not cost a whit less than ten dollars a yard. I would 'nt be afraid to bet a cocky, you could see your face in his boots, and his hair was parted on the top of his head, and hung down on the sides of his face, and all over his coat collar, and he looked more like a woman in men's clothes than any thing else.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door. With that I gave him a shove and went into the entry way. When the nigger had picked himself up, agin, I told him to go and tell Miss Bebe that her cousin Jonathan Slick, from Weathersfield, Connecticut, wanted to see her.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

Wal, sez I, you know ball you, what are you staring at? Why don't you get out of the way and let me come in? Who do you want, sez he, without so much as moving an inch—the impudent varmint. What's that to you, you darned lump of charcoal, sez I, just your mind your own business and get out of the door.

DEFERRED ARTICLES.

Benton and Calhoun.

Rumors are rife, of a rupture between the Benton and Calhoun divisions of the Administration forces. Jealous of each other, they cannot or will not confer on any question. Had the friends of these respective leaders cordially united, they could have elected either Jones, of Virginia, or Lewis, of Alabama, Speaker of the House of Representatives. But Benton men enough stood out, to defeat Lewis and Calhoun men enough, to defeat Jones. There is an old saying, that when a certain contingency happens, honest men get their rights.

School Vote.

The Postmaster at Columbia, Tyrrell County, responds to our enquiry for information on the subject, that both Tyrrell and Washington Counties, failed the School Act by nearly a unanimous vote. In the former County, there were only 8 negative votes. At October Term of Tyrrell County Court, the following gentlemen were appointed Superintendents, viz. Gen. H. G. Sprull, Joseph McCles, Col. Charles McCles, Samuel Lough, Joseph Alexander, Samuel S. Simmons, William Norman Mon. Ebenezer Pettigrew, William Alfred, and Gen. D. N. Bateman.

National Silk Convention.

This body assembled at Washington on the 10th inst. Gen. Van Ness was appointed President, and Gibson B. Smith and J. S. Callan, Secretaries. Judge BRANTON was chosen one of the Vice Presidents. Delegates were present from 13 States.

A Committee, composed of one member from each State, and from the District of Columbia, was appointed to prepare business for the Convention. The Committee subsequently made a detailed Report, which received the sanction of the Convention, in which a summary and practical view was taken of the Silk business, and which concluded with the following Resolution:

Resolved, That another year's experience has confirmed the opinion expressed by the Convention last year, "That silk may be grown in all the Southern States, not only for domestic purposes, but as a valuable article of commercial export."

Of the eight American Presidents, (says the Hillsborough Recorder) the names of four have ended in "ox." This has suggested the following:

The last was MARY, on hearing the news from HARRISBURG.

The names of four of the Presidents, who had been elected, were "MARRIAGE," "SUCCEEDING," "SUCCEEDING," "SUCCEEDING."

The names of four of the Presidents, who had been elected, were "MARRIAGE," "SUCCEEDING," "SUCCEEDING," "SUCCEEDING."