WESTON R. GALES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

PUBLISHED EVERY TURBDAY AND PRIDAT.

TERMS. Su secateriox-Five Dollars per annum-half in ADVERTISERENTS .- For every 16 lines, first insertion, One Dollar; each subsequent insertion, 25 cents Court Orders and Judicial Advertise charged 25 per cent. higher; but a deduction of 334 per cent, will be made from the regular prices, for advertisers by the year. Advertisements, inserted in the Semi- Weekly Rus-Perzn, will also appear in the Weekly Paper, free of charge.

All Letters to the Editor must be post-paid.

[From the New York Mirror.]

LAST DAY OF GRACE; OR PAYING A NOTE BY THE AUTHOR OF "YANKER NOTIONS." "Procure a hundred pounds!—I say to thee, There's no such sum in nature. Forty shillings
There may be now i'th' mint—and that's a treasu I've seen five pounds—and let me tell it!
For 'tis as wonderful as calves with five legs." Beaumont and Fletcher.

In the days of old, when all men wer honest and wise, and unsophisticated, and plain-dealing, and generous-all human af fairs went on smoothly. No nigardly thrift, no mercenary selfishness, no sordid love of lucre, no miserly cold-heartedness existed to throw a chill upon the warm and genial kind ness of social intercourse. If a doctor coul not pay, doubtless the creditor crossed out the account and let him go. If any man wanted to borrow money, which might happen, of course, in the best of times, he found a hundred friends ready to lend him any sum. Bless me! how the dollars trotted from hand to hand! Lending money is certainly the best, noblest, and greatest invention that the genius of man has ever achieved. Oh ye powers of prosperity! what harmony, joy, abundance, content, felicity, and glorious ollity, must have filled the land! For cas being plenty in every man's pocket, all the shops overflowed with custom; all handicrafts vere in full activity, and every body drove rousing trade. People paid their taxes without grumbling. Every thing was cheap, empty, and the lawyers starved !

But these times were too good to last. By and by a little cloud began to gather over the suushine of this golden age, The great and rresistable proclivity of all human instituions towards evil, began to manifest itself .-Men became less liberal and generous,-Doubtless some miserly old hunks or other, first set the example by refusing to lend his money; this instigated others; and the example was soon followed by universal imitation. Such is the perverse state of the world! All good customs get speedily out of fashion. Now, when those who had money would no longer lend it, those who for how could they spend without borrowing? So money became scarce; people could not pay their debts; trade declined, and lawsuits increased. Nobody would be generous, or charitable, or public-spirited, any longer; but all mankind suddenly grew selfish, mercenary and calculating. Each man looked out for the main chance; and took care of nothing but number one; and the result of this pestilent contagion was the breeding of that horrible, direful, wasting, ravaging, lethiferous epidemic, which is now stalking over the earth at noonday in the frightful shape of HARD TIMES. Such appears to me the true philosophical explanation of this phenomenon; but whe d'ye do ?" ther this or any different account of its oriin be the nearest the truth, the melancholy fact is indisputable, that hard times really exist; and the question most interesting to philanthrophists, politicians, moralists, financiers, philosophers, poets, and poor devils, is, how to get rid of them. Dare we hope that some species of legislative, metaphysical, or monetary vaccination will be discoved in the course of time, that shall extirpate this dire disease, and restore the felicity of the good old golden age? Such were my reflections as I rose in the morning, knowing that my note at the bank must be paid that day, but knowing no more than the man in the moon where the money to pay it was to come from. I dreamed through the night of all sorts of vain and tantalizing attempts to find something in my pocket. I awoke and found it no dream!-It was a prodigiously gloomy morning-at least it appeared so to me. Every thing seemed to go wrong in my endeavors to dres-; my pantaloons were wrong side before; buttons were in the wrong places; vest inside out, and stock bottom upwards. "Where shall I get the money ?" said I to myself, in great perplexity, and at that moment stuck a particu-

ny appetite languid. Every thing had a and return to his den, without speaking to a rick of slipping from my fingers. I broke a soul on the way. one and saucer, and dropped a thumping slice of toast in my lap. Pantaloons bran new. "Shall I ever have another pair!" thought L." "Two o'clock, and the note must be paid !"

I looked over my pocket-book again, as if expected to find what I was looking after. What a fool! I knew as well as I knew that I was alive, how much there was in it or rather how much was not in it. Six hun- doubt," returned he. " Wait here, and I is clearly indicative of the fate of that institudred dollars to make up the sum. " Can't I will stap out again." collect some of my debts this forenoon!" Oh for a stone now!" thought I, "to his thought I. What a fool again! for who ever this fellow in the eye! with the money in his could collect a debt when he wanted it!—

"Two o'clock," said I, again, "and it must the money in his death before he hooks him!"

"That the bill will pass the House, and be approved by the Governor, is just as certain, as the constitute, so far as they decide, the that it will pass the Senate. Public opinion and the best interests of the Commonwealth, bly, and as binding in their operation upon every be paid."

I sat down and fell into a profound cogi-tation. I thought of the mines of Potosi— of the mint of Mexico—of the Massachusetts Bank—of John Lockland—of Job's cat, and ed an hour.

ed round the Post office and came back. It was almost three o'clock, and I was ready to fly out of my skin—every moment seems.

January 28, 1840.

THE BY THE YEAR—Twofirst rate PLASTERERS and BRICKLAYERS.— For terms, apply at this Office.

January 28, 1840.

9 3t

ran to my neighbor, Mr. A. " Neighbor A." said I, "you are an excellent man; just lend me six hundred dollars."

"Six hundred dollars" exclaimed he, turning up the whites of his eyes," I have not a dollar to spare, if it was to save my life; every cent is gone. My boy lent forty-two thousand dollars out of my drawer before I came down from breakfast this morning!"

I saw plainly that there was nothing to be got in this quarter; so I ran to my particular friend Mr. B. "My dear sir," said I, "lend me six hundred dollars as a particular favor."

you want this money ?" "So much so," replied I, "that if it were for my own particular use, I could not want it more."

"I am sorry for that," returned he, " for there's not a dollar of money to be had nowa-days. Money !- I believe it is all sunk to the bottom of the sea, for my part. Six hundred dollars, with a vengeance! Why, if I had a ten dollar bill, I'd go about town and exhibit it as a real show."

"Bab !" said I to myself, "I must try a third." So I hurried to my acquaintance, Mr. C. and made the same request of him. " Six hundred dollars !" said he "in these hard times. Why, every body is failing, and the banks won't discount." Horrible words! I had as lieve hear i thunder as ' the banks won't discount!' Not quite disheartened at these rebuffs, hastened to Mr. D. and Mr. E. and Mr. F. All the same song. "Hard times; people failing,—banks won't discount!"

So much for my borrowing scheme !-There was only one resource left, and that was to go to a worthy gentleman by the name of Solomon Sharp. He was a money-broker, and lent cash to gentlemen in distress, out of charity.

esides being in great demand; the jails were The crafty old fox saw me approach as he stood at the corner of Congress street, in conversation with a broken merchant and a briefless lawyer. He saw me coming and knew what I wanted.

These fellows can scent the approach of pennyless dog at the penultimate hour, as quick as a vulture will snuff a carcass. Bu he pretended not to see me. He knew I had not half an hour to lose, and I knew he had no particular interest in the matter he was discussing with his worthy friends; yet dared not accost him; and he studiously avoided catching my eye.

Ten long minutes did I wait, wishing his companions, with their tattle about nothing, a thousand miles off; and every ten seconds stealing a look upwards to the dial over the City hall, watching the progress of the minute-hand, which advanced with a fearful rapidity towards that point beyond which there was no salvation of credit.

It was strange he could not see me; or rather I should have said it was strange he should not; but I was too much in a perturbation to think that men, especially moneylenders, love to torment those whom they have in their power. The ten minutes seemed endless, all and singular of them; but at last my gentleman pretended suddenly to discover me. "Ah! Mr. Lackpenny, how eighth street. "Yes sir," said the driver, for in a small fraction of an hour the bank would be shut and my note unpaid-a consummation not at all devoutly to be wished by a man who desired to be in good fame and name upon 'Change.

I was hardly collected enough to state my necessity, but old Sharp can understand such matters from half a word. " Lend money !" he exclaimed : "I never do such things. " You don't, indeed !" said I.

"No," returned he, taking out his snuffbox with an air of the greatest nonchalance, "but for a proper consideration, I think I know somebody that will.

"What is the man's name?" arked I, with an equal degree of seriousness, tho' I knew the man's name was Solomon Sharp, and was standing that moment before my face. "I'll see him and let you know," said my honest friend. " Call here in a quarter of an hour-possibly it may be done," " A quarter of an hour !- Oh, Mr. Sharp! -but if you think it can be done in a quarter

Mr. Sharp looked as composed as if the whole affair had been nothing more than the At breakfast nothing went better. The so did I. We separated, and I saw him go the boat on Monday for Stonington. But fee was scalding bot, the steak tough, and up State street, pass round the Post Office. learning that a creditor who held a small de-

When these ten minutes had expired I went to him-

- "Well, Mr. Sharp." "I have called on the man," said he; !but "This," thought I, " is to demand per cent more from me. "Mr. Sharp !" said fore; but will he do the note?-for heaven's sakel .. He thinks he-might," drawled out my termenter with an air of the utmost uncon-

"Well, Mr. Sharp, and for how much?" "Can't do it for less than fifty per cent." " Fifty per cent! Mr. Sharp! surely you mistake. Fifty per cent. for four months !-Oh, monstrous !"

But Mr. Sharp never moved a muscle of his countenance at these exclamations. He answered not a word, but sat very leasurely "Six hundred dollars !" said he :- and do down in his chair-though he knew my credit had not three minutes to livel-nay, he actually took up a newspaper and pretended

"Flinty-hearted villain!" thought I to myself-" Did you say fifty per cent. Mr. Sharp ?"

"Ahem !" returned he, but without look.

I looked up at my honest friend; his face was as blank and immoveable as a block of wood. I looked at my watch; it wanted exacity one minute of three. "There is no help," said I to myself, "when a man is between the devil and the deep sea. Here is my note, Mr. Sharp-come, dispatch."

He counted out the money. "Make haste, Mr. Sharp! faster! I have not a moment to lose" I snatched the bills, and was making a leap out of the door. "Stop!', said he "you have forgot my commission!" "Commission ?-ten thousand murders

But no matter-how much is it?" him," said he, "that I can't ask much; bu as I must provide for my family, you know -twenty dollars will do."

"Your family must be horse-leeches." thought I, "if they want providing for at the rate." At that moment the clock struck!

I made a bolt for the door, and was down State street as if the deputy sheriff had beet at my heels. I upset a handcart, leaped over a wheel-barrow, knocked down a constable jostled the mayor, swung round an immensi alderman, plunged through the thickest of the crowd before the Union Bank, tumble ! up the stairs, broke my nose against the door, and, and burst into the room at the last second of the last minute of the last hour of the last day of grace.

"You have saved your bacon !" said the Coming away, I spied a great monster of butcher's dog with a miserable, lean, halfstarved puppy under his paw, and squeezing the breath out of his body.

"There's a money-lender and his customer." said I.

INCIDENTS OF THE LEXINGTON.

The following stories show on how small a circumstance our life sometimes depends When the Philadelphia morning boat arrived on Manday the 13th, one of the gentlemen passengers called a hack, and agreed with the driver to take him to eighth street, Another gentleman being about to get in the former admonished the driver that he must? not zigzag about the city; but go directly to " I will take you first; it will not be out of My heart by this time was up to my throat; the way for this gentleman." When the hack had gone on some distance, the two gentlemen fell into conversation, and the second one stated that he was on his way to Boston, and was then going to the Proxidence boat. "To the Providence boat, sir !" exclaimed the other; "why, we started from the very next pier to the Providence boat and here this rascal of a hackman is taking you a journey of three miles, and you will certainly be too late. Such was the fact but the gentleman imposed upon, was out of health, and could not help himself-and so had to go the round, and probably pay for it too, and be made too late besides, for the Lexington had gone when the hack returned, and so the man's life was saved.

to go to Boston in the boat of Monday evening, was by a series of apparently untoward circumstances, prevented from finishing his business at Philadelphia in time to return here on Saturday, and as he could not conscientiously travel on Sunday, he remained at Philadelphia until Monday. His Boston trip was accordingly deferred, and thus his mand against him, was watching his opportunity to catch him, and reflecting that the boat would be the place at which he would be sure to be found, he determined on taking the New Haven route, and so his life was saved .- N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

UNITED STATES BANK .- The vote in the Senate, given in our last paper, instructing the Judiciary Committee to bring in a bill to "I shall see him in five minutes, without repeal the charter of the United States Bank, tion, so far as the Senate is concerned .-My veracious friend went out again, walk- alike require it. - Pennsylvania Reporter. | member of the community.

of my own empty pockets.

I never thought so hard in my life before.

But thinking will never pay a man's notes.

At last a bright thought struck me. I'll borrow the money!" said I. Eureka!

Before the resolution had time to cool, I

Well, Mr. Sharp,, what does the man Jail of Anson County, on the 17th of December inst. a Negro Man, who calls himself TOM, and says be belongs to JOHN SMITH, of Alabama, man, shaking his head; "why he says that money is money now."

Well, Mr. Sharp, what does the man Jail of Anson County, on the 17th of December inst. a Negro Man, who calls himself TOM, and says be belongs to JOHN SMITH, of Alabama, and was bought of Daniel Williams, of Robeson money is money now."

Well, Mr. Sharp, I knew that beapparently, about 24 years of age. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take him away; or he will be dealt with as the law directs.

Y. H. ALLEN, Sheriff.

Wadesboro, Dec. 14, 1839. Pr. Adv. $7 50.

TNION ACADEMY .-- Under the above title, the Subscriber will commence the second session of his School, in the western part of Orange County, on the 15th January.

He has obtained several good Boarding Houses in the neighborheod, at which any number of young gentlemen can find accommodation for six dollars per month. The Subscriber will board a few him self, at this price; exclusive of lights, of course.

The price for tuition, as heretofore: Classical Department, $12 50 per session. The wh le under the supervision of the subscri-9 1155

UNION Female Academy, Dan-ville. Va.—The next Session of the Union Female Academy will commence on the 15th of January, and terminate (with a Public Examination) on the 15th of June, 1840.

The School is under the superintendence of Miss ANN BENEDICT, in the Literary, and Miss E. SXITE, in the Musical Department. The Rev. B. M. SXITE will give such attention as may be required, to the higher classes of the Institution.

Terms per Session of five months. Tuition in the ordinary English studies, from Music on the Piano,

" Guitar, French, Latin or Greek, each, Board with the Preceptress, or in Private Families in Town, including fuel, washing, &c., per month, under its present principal Instructress, for the last ten of the public in such measure, as demands the ac-knowledgments of the Teachers and Trustees, and encourages them to hope that it will yet prave a blessing to hundreds, by training them in the ways of virtue and knowledge. Located as the Union Female Academy is, in a village remarkable for its healthiness and for the excellence of its society, with every desirable means of mental and moral culture, it offers to Parents in the lower country, a safe retreat from the Parents in the lower country, a sate retreat from the less sa ubrious climate of that region, where their daughters may enjoy all the advantages of good society, while they will be carefully preserved from all attentions from the other sex. Most of the Trustees are Parents, and they pledge themselves to the public, that young Ladies sent to this Institution shall be regarded with interest, not only by the Teachers, but by the members of the Board. DANVILLE is a Village pleasantly situated at the Great Falls of the Dan River, 45 miles north of Hillsboro', 12 miles west of Milton, and 55 miles north cast

For the character and competency of the principa Instructress, the public are referred to the following

Judge Porren, Fayetteville, N. C. BADGER, Raleigh,

Rev'd. WM. McPHERTERS, D.D." " DRURY LACY, THOMAS R. OWEN, Washington, N. C. NEHENTAR HARDING. Milton, N. C. ALEX, WILSON, D D. Greensbore, N. C.

Mr. Abolpaus L. Enwin, Morganton, Burke,

Rev'd. Dr. PLUMER, Richmond, Va. JAMES D. PATTON.

Pres't. Board of Trustees.

WM. D. TREDWAY, Sec'y. Danville, Va. Jan. 1, 1840. NDREW .- This distinguished Racer and Stal A lion will make his next and last Season in Vir ginia, at New Market, with'n one mile of Petersburg. and he let to Mares at $75 the season, payable when the Mare is taken away—$120 insurance, with $1 to the groom in all instances. The insurance money will be required as soon as the Mare is ascertained to be with foal, or parted with. The Season will com-mence on the 10th February, and expire the 1st day of July. Mares will be well fed at two shillings per day—pasturage which is rich and extensive furnished ratis. No charge for servants sent with mares .-Every precaution will be taken to guard against accidents or escapes, but I cannot be responsible for either.

This renowned son of Sir Charles, famed alike for his own and the performances of his progeny on the furf, is now in full health and vigor. He is a beautial dark chesnut, without white except the near hind pot, rising fifteen and a half hands high, of perfect symmetry of form, united with immense power, and unrivalled action, in which latter particular he excels all horses I ever saw. His own performances on the Turf are too well known to need a recapitulation here His get are now before the public, and although they are generally from obscure Marcs, have distinguished themselves at all distances, from 1 to 4 miles, and that from New York to Georgia-thus winning for their Sire a reputation as the getter of Race Horses, which of Breeders. This will be the last opportunity of sending to him in this State, as I have had several o fers for him to go to other States. O. P. HARE. Petersburg, Jan. 1, 1840.

TUST PUBLISHED, and ready for delive Another gentleman had made all his are of all the reported Decisions of the Courts in North rangements on the Saturday previous, to take the boat on Monday for Stopington But June Term, 1837. Prepared by Hon James Iredell

Turner & Hughes, the Proprietors, respectfully ask the patronage of the public for this work, which has been published at great expense. It contains near a thousand pages, and is, therefore, necessarily divided into two royal octavo valumes of about five hundred pages each, printed on good type and fine paper, and well bound. Price, Nine Dollars a copy.

well bound. Price, Nine Dollars a copy.

It is recommended not only to professional men, all of whom will doubtless possess themselves of it, to direct and abridge their labors, but it is also urged upon the notice of all Justices, Sheriffs, and other judicial officers, as affording them an exposition, to a few words, of the points which the Supreme Court of North Carolina has decided in relation to their duties. For a similar trason, it is recommended to private gentlemen, who may have an inclination or feel an interest to know the determinations of the Supreme Rohan Pointoes.—A small supply of this valuable and highly estremed Putatoe, just received, in fine order, and for sale, by THOS. L. JUMP.

To prevent disappointment, an early applica-Price 25 cents per pound.

Raleigh, Jan. 28, 1840.

Jan. 28, 1840. NOTTON YARNS .- A fresh supply fre the Hecla Factory, for wholesale, or retail, WILL, PECK.

A LUM SALT .- W. & A. STITH have at A Waynesborough about 300 busirels Alum Salt, which they will sell, delivered there, at 65 cents per bushels. To persons wanting ten bushels or more, they will sell in Raleigh at $1.

TON WEEKLY CHUONICLE, will be resumed so soon as I can replace the materials of the office, lost

All indebted to me for subscription, job printing, or advertising, are desired to make immediate payment, as I shall need every cent due to enable me to re-establish the paper.

I occupy, for the present, a room over Messrs. T. Burr & Son's Auction Store. A. A. BROWN.

10 10 REWARD. Left my house and employ. my son KIMBROUGH JONES, on the 9th of January. He is near 18 years of age, but poorly grown, has dark sandy hair, one eye injured by a hook from a Cow. He wore away a Box-coat made of Kentucky Janes. All persons are warned against harboring or employing said boy, as I will enforce the law against any such offender. I will give the above reward for his confinement in any Jail, or delivering him to me in Raleigh. MINTON JONES. January 25, 1840,

TOTICE.—The notes and accounts now due the assigned estate of S. W. BOAG, are placed in the hands of James Simons, Esq. Attorney at Law, in Charleston, S. C. for collection—office No. 51, Broad-street, 4 doors below Dr. Collen's Drug Store. If the said de ts be not promptly paid, he is instructed to commence suits. Jan. 28, 1840.

TO ALEIGH FIRE COMPANY .- Th Act of the General Assembly for the better pro-tection of the City of Raleigh from losses by fire, provides that a Fire Company be annually est the following manner: The Intendant of Police and Commissioners shall, in the month of January, enrol the free white male inhabitants of 21 years of age and upwards, and being thus enrolled, the said Intendant and Commissioners shall publicly invite such citizens as choose to volunteer their services to form said Fire Company, to consist of forty members. This invitation is, therefore, thus publicly made, and it is housed will be promptly met, by signifying assent to the Clerk of the Board.

In case a sufficient number of volunteers do not offe their services before the last Saturday in Pebruary the Act directs that the Integrant and Commissioners shall, on that day, make a deaft from the enrolment, of such number of men as shall be wanting to J. GALES.

form said Company. Jan. 25, 1840. Intendant of Police.

INSOLVENT'S NOTICE. To David McDaniel, and his Attornies at Law, Georg W. Haywood and Charles Manly, Esquires, and I James Cooper and Thomas Lewis & Co. of Ox ford, N. C., Benjamin Thomasson, Issish Pascal, James Hunt, and Leslie Gilliam, Sheriff of Granville County, and John Y. Parker: Take notice, that I have been arrested by virtue Ca. Sa. at the instance of David McDaniel, and that, thereupon, have given bond and security for my appearance at Wake County Court, on the 3d Mon day in February, A. D., 1840, when and where I shall apply to said Court for the benefits of the oath of an honest debtor, and that I shall file in the said County Clerk's Office a schedule of my property, according to the Act of the General Assembly, in such case made and provided. You can attend, and shew cause, if any you have, against my intended applica WASHINGTON H. THOMAS.

Granville County, Jan. 17, 1840.

NOR TWO WEEKS ONLY-ECON CLOTHES DRESSER AND RENOVATOR—Of London and late of New York and Philadelphia, Respectfully begs leave to inform the citizens of Raleigh, the has opened an Establishment in this place, (for short time,) at the House on Pavetteville Street, recently occupied by the late Alexander Campbell, where he will attend to the cleaning of Gentlemens' COATS, PANTALOONS, AND VESTS, of every description, on an entirely new plan from that pursued by Dyers. By comparing the articles cleaned by him, they are pronounced by competent judges equal to new, and which has been noticed by the public. Spots, grease, &c., taken from the cloth, and apparel put in complete form. When requested, he applies a stiffening, and restores the color to fided seams. He can restore a garment to its original beauseams. He can restore a garment to its original beau ty, without any injury to the fabric. The steamin process is not made use of. TO THE LADIES.

Ludies' Habits and Cloaks, spotted or faded of their the greatest care. Specimens of his work may seen at his shop, where a fit person will attend to the receipt of all work with punctuality and dispatch.

To persons disposed to patronise him in his business, he pledges himself if any of his work is not done to their satisfaction, he will make no charge for

Gentlemen who may please to patronise hi can have their clothes returned in a short time. Raleigh, Jan 28, 1840

Academy have the pleasure of announcing to Public, that they have engaged for the ensuing y Miss MARTHAR RICHARDSON, a young L take charge of this Institution in February next. In addition to the usual branches of Instruct the Greek, Latin, French and Italian Languages will be taught, together with Music, Painting, Ge.

This Academy is situated in Wake Forest, 12 miles North of Raleigh, and within 4 miles of Wake Forest College, in a healthy section of country.

Board can be had in the neighborhood, at $6 per month, or $35 per Session of five months.

TUITION PER SESSION, Latin and Greek, English Grammer and Geograph ower Branches, &c. Music, 20 00
Drawing and Painting will be taught to all wi ire it, but there will be an extra charge for the e, as is usual in other Schools.

JOHN LIGON, Sec's

PLENDIDIAssortment of Pinno Fortes.—The Subscriber has just received an ADDITIONAL supply of PIANOS, of very superior qualities, which he offers for sale on reasonble terms.
His assortment is as full and complete as any in North-Carolina; and he hesitates not to say, that the Pianos are and if Pianos are equal, if not superior, to any offered for sale in this section of country.

Amongst the collection are 2 SPLENDID ROSE-

WOOD PIANOS, I ZEBRA WOOD (striped) and I MAHOGANY. These instruments have each two Pedals, a loud and a soft or Harp Pedal. Persons wishing to purchase, are referred to the Rev. John C. Jacobson, Principal of the Salem Pemale Boarding School, or Gen. Davidson and John R. Alexander, of Mecklenburg county.

JOSHUA BONER. Salem, N. C. January 10.

TOTICE to Silk Growers -I have for sale, 10 or 12,000 Morus Multicaulis Trees of good size and warranted genuine. Persons wishing to engage in the Silk Culture, and others, can be supplied on very favorable terms. In order to obviate that great difficulty, (the scarcity of money.) I sm willing to wait one year for one half of the purchase money, where the sum is $100 and over, provided good security can be given for the payment of the same with interest. It is believed, that more than the amount that the Trees will cost, may be realized the first year, by making Silk from the leaves they will sale, 10 or 12,000 Morus Multicaulie Trees of first year, by making Silk from the leaves they will produce. The Trees may be seen at my place, in the Eastern Suburbs of this City.

I have, also, a few thousand Silkworm Eggs for sale. Persons wishing any further information, by addressing me, (post paid.) will receive immediate attention. ELEAZER COLBURN. Raleigh, Jan. 17.

CARD .- MRS. HARDIE, grateful for the A share of patronage she has always received, would take this method of informing her friends and the public generally, that she has made ample preparation for supplying Families with ICE during the ensuing summer, on as good terms as it possibly can be obtained.

Those who have applied for several years back, but could not be supplied on account of the limited size of her Ice House, need not fear a like disappointment. She would be glad to have as early application made as possible, as she is anxious to ascure a sufficient number of good Subscribers for the season through. January .0, 1840

NTATE of North-Carolina, Johnston County, Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions November Term, 1839

Young Bridgers es. Wil- Petition for sale of Stal-John C. Goode. Upon motion made by Petitioner's Attorney, it is red that the filing of this petition be advertised in he Raleigh Register and Petersburg Intelligencer, for six weeks, notifying the said Defendant, who is not a resident of this State, to appear at the next Court of onday of February next, then and there to plead to Witness, WILL H. WATSON, Clerk of our said Court, at Office in Smithfield, the 4th Monday of November, A. D., 1839.

Pleas and Querter Sessions, to be held for said County, at the Court house in in Smithfield, on the 4th

WM. H. WATSON, C. C. C. Tierces Best quality Rice. 10 Harf Tierces do. do. For sale by FREEMAN & STITHS.

ENTAL SURGERY .- Dr. W.R Score

Raleigh Jan. 28, 1840. TRESH GARDEN SEEDS .- WILLIAMS Fresh Garden Seeds, raised by Tuonnum, of New York, in 1839, and which are of a superior quality.

Raleigh, January 30, 1840. TRUST SALE,-By virtue of a Deed of Trust puses therein specified, I shall proceed to sell at his residence, on Wednesday, the 5th day of February next, all his Household and Kitchen Purniture.

THOS. L. WEST, Trustee

MPORTANT SALE.—The Subscriber has ing been appointed Trustee in a Deed from Joan Hollowax, for certain purposes therein expressed, will offet for sale, before the Court House door in the City of Ralaigh, on Saturday the 15th day of February next, all the Negroes of the said Holloway, thereby conveyed, among which are 3 good Shoemakers, and a good Seamstress; and, at the same time, he will sell a Lot, in the Eastern part of the City of Raleigh, additions. Were Dellas Margaret and a single sell a lot, in the Eastern part of the City of Raleigh, additions. eigh, adj ining Wm. Dallas Haywood and oth containing two acres; and another Lot of Ground, containing 95 acres, about half a mile East of the Capitol, adjoining Mrs. Eliza Taylor and others. Of The sale will be without reserve.

TERMs-Six months credit. D. W. STONE, Trustee,

Baltimore, Class No. 3, for 1840. To be drawn a Baltimore, Maryland, on Saturday, 22d of February, 1840. D. S. Gregory & Co. Managers.

14 Drawn Nos. in each package of 26 Tickets.

40 prizes of 1.250 1,200 dee. Certificates of Packages of 26 whole

Orders for Tickets and Shares and Certifi ceive the most prompt attention, and an official ac-count of the drawing sent immediately after it is over; to all who order from us. Address

D. S. GREGORY & Co. Mana

ATTENTIO

OPPICERS 35TH REGIMENT OU are hereby come of the Baptist Court Marting.

January 13, 1840.