TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 1840.

WESTON R. GALES

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. PUBLISHED EVERY TURSDAY AND PRIDAY.

TERMS. SUBSCRIPTION-Five Dollars per annum-half in

ADVERTISEMENTS .- For every 16 lines, first inser ion, One Dallar; each subsequent insertion, 25 cents Court Orders and Judicias Advertisements will be charged 25 per cent higher; but a deduction of 334 per cent, will be made from the regular prices, for ad-

Advertisements, inserted in the Semi-Weekly Rgs-STER, will also appear in the Weekly Paper, free All Letters to the Editor must be post-paid.

THE OLLO

FOLLY OF TRYING TO PLEASE EVERY-BODY There is a happy medium betwixt the heartless disposition to please nobody, and into the extreme on either side.

tal lack of sensibility. This would be the ed and beloved-to cultivate friendship-to avoid giving unnecessary offence—and to conform to the feelings and customs of those about us, so far as may be done with a good conscience, and consistently with one's personal circumstances. It is not only right but landable, to make it a part of our pleasure to ease others; and when we are compelled to differ with them, to do it, if possible, without rancour or bitterness.

There is such a thing as a union of condescension and firmness; and a happy thing it s. To condescend in things indifferent, n things trivial, in things that touch not the conscience, nor seriously harm or endanger one's earthly interest and welfare; and meanwhile to go not a step farther for any persussion whatever-no, not to please one's earest friends—that is the golden mean.

As some pretend to care for none, there are those who, on the other hand, try to please all, by becoming -not in its best sense -" all things to all men." Some do it from selfish designs altogether; and others from a ton yielding temper. These last cannot bear. in any case, to be apposed or to oppose; and so they readily fall in with the sentiments and views of their present company, and side with every man they meet. Often this pliability of mind or temper is owing to a sort of amiable weakness, but it is destructive of all respectability of character.

I know not how to illustrate this point better than by the following story, which as o substance and pith, may be regarded as undoubtedly true :--

Some very long time since, Parson Mof Massachusetts (then a British colony,) being at Buston, bought him a wig there, and returning home, were it at the church next Sabbath. As a wig of such a size and shape was quite a novelty in that obscure place, Il gave offence to almost the whole congregation, who, both male and female, repaired the next day to their minister's house, and stated their complaint, the burden of which was, that the wig, was one of the Buston Nortons, and had the look of fashion and pride. The good natured minister, thereupon brought it forth, and bade them fashion it to their own liking. This task they set about in good earnest, and with the help of scisors, cropped off lock after lock. till at last they all declared themselves satisfied save one,—who alledged, that wearing any wig at all, was a breach of the commandment, which saith, "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likenesss of any thing, that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath." This last objector Mr. M silenced, by convincing him that the wig, in the condition it then was, did fole any thing either above or be-Even so fares it with the characters that make it their aim to please every body. Slashed on this side and on that, and twisted into every shape and out of ail shape, they finally come to the condition of his reverence's wig.

EARLY AMERICAN HEROISM.

The following anecdote, as related by a respectable gentleman of Philadelphia, being show the native valour and active enterprise, tained up to the present period.

France and England, in which the then Colonies bore an active part, a respectable individual, a member of the society of Friends of the name of _____, commanded a fine ship, which sailed from an eastern port, to a port in England. This vessel had a strong and effective crew, but was totally unarmed when near her destined port, she was chuswhen near her destined port, she was chased, and ultimately overhauled by a French ront. Not the slippery ice, nor the thick sexton and the physician were cast into the falling snow, nor the whole artillery of eleendeavour to escape, but seeing from the superior sailing of the Frenchman that his capture was inevitable, be quietly retired below; he was followed into the cabin by his cabin boy, a youth of activity and enter- in its external aspect, might yield him of ships yawned to the sun. Though doors prise, named Charles Wager; he asked his commander if naihing more could be done to save the ship—his commander replied that it was impossible, that every thing had been done that was practicable, there was no escape for them, and they must submit to be the absurd aim to please: every body; and captured. Charles then returned upon deck, fortunate are they who find this middle line, and summoned the crew around him-he and keep to it so steadily as seldom to run stated in a few words what was their captsin's conclusion-then with an elevation of It is no good sign to be indifferent with mind, dictated by a soul formed for enterrespect to what the world thinks or says of prize and noble dating, he observed :--if since it would argue either pride or a to- you will place yourselves under my command, and stand by me, I have conceived a character of such indifference were it real; plan by which the ship may be rescued and but, in truth, it is more affected pretence .- we in turn become the conquerors. The If we except those that are at the very bot- sailors no doubt feeling the ardour, and intom of human life, and only a small propor-tion even of that, it may be fairly concluded gallant leader, agreed to place themselves unthat no man or woman, is altogether indiffer- der his command. His plan was communient about the good or bad opinion of their fel- cated to them, and they awaited with firmlow beings. So far from it, the few who lay ness, the moment to carry their enterprize claim to this unamiable distinction have into effect; their suspense was of short dura- but he gave none. "Indeed, he is very ill a hell was heard; for it was that sound, so been found, generally speaking, peculiarly tion, for the Frenchman was quickly along- sir."-" Can't help it." -" We are very rancorous and vindictive towards such as side, and as the weather was fine, immediatehad merely spoken disrespectfully of their tal- ly grappled fast to the unoffending merchant ents. No authors, for example, have writhed ship. As Charles had anticipated, the exhilwith more agony under the tash of criticism, irated conquerors elated beyond measure or been more jealous and vindictive, than with the acquisition of so fine a prize, poursome of those who pretend to look down ed into his vessel in crowds, cheering and but she was silent. Jacob felt more awkwith cold scorn upon the whole fraternity of huzzaing, and not foreseeing any danger, they left but few men on board their ship. His hand involuntarily scrambled about in signal of the plague being so abated that men primitive ingredients of our nature, and to giving his men the signal, sprang at their thing like the weakness of human nature flow their remains with the solemnities of budivest ourselves of them would be to divest head on board the opposing vessel, while stirring within him .- Some com had unconourselves of humanity itself. They are rath- some seized the arms which had been left sciously worked its way into his hand, his er to be cherished and cultivated, every way, in profusion on her deck, and with which fingers insensibly closed; but, the effort to and by all lawful means. It is not only right they soon overpowered the few men left on draw them forth, and the impossibility of efbut laudable, to wish to be generally esteem- board; the others by a simultaneous move- feeting it without unclosing them, roused the ment relieved her from the grapplings which dormant selfishness of nature, and restored united the two vessels. Our hero now hav- his self-possession. ing the command of the French vessel, seized the helm, and placing her out of boarding distance, bailed with the voice of a conqueror the discomfitted crowd of Frenchmen which were left on board of the peaceful bark he follow close in his wake, or he would blow thein out of water, Is threat they well knew he was very capable of executing as their guns were loaded during the chase.) They sorrowfully acquiesced with his commands, while the gallant Charles steered into port, followed by his prize. The exploit excited universal applause-the former master of the merchant vessel was examined by the Admiralty, when he stated the whole of the enterprise as it occurred, and declared that Charles Wager had planned and effected the gallant exploit, and that to him alone belonged the honor and credit of the achievement. Charles was immediately transferred to the British Navy, appointed a midshipman, and his education carefully superintended. He soon after distinguished himself in action, and underwent a rapid promotion, until at length, he was created an admiral, and known as Sir Charles Wager. It was said that he always held in veneration and esteem, the respectable conscientious Friend, whose cabin-boy he had been, and transmitted yearly to his old master, as he termed him, a hand some present of Madeira, to cheer his declining days.

AMERICAN LADIES.

Perhaps there is no country in the world, where the women are more completely domestic, than they are in our own; and none where female influence is more generally felt. This is a most happy circumstance. And it affords a powerful argument in favour of fe-

It is trite. I know, but very important to remark, that when ladies are distinguished for domestic habits and virtues, their maternal influence is very great.

They mould the hearts, and to a great deree form the understandings of the future fathers and mothers in our country. Now they, who have in their hands so great a part of early education, certainly ought to receive that cultivation of heart and mind, which would fit them for the discharge of the very important duties of their station. This is no easy work. It demands skill and judg ment, as well as attention. Surely preparation ought to be made for it, that it may be a household:

But female influence is felt not only in domestic life :-- it reaches to every part of society. Every where it ought to be salutary. Our ladies ought to be intellectual as well as sensitive; intelligent as well as affable; good as well as pretty. No where indeed, are they more modest, more pure and delicate, than among ourselves; but if to these graces of the female character, were added suitable mental deemed too interesting to pass down the improvement, the effect on the whole com-stream of time and be eventually lost, is there-munity would be most happy. A higher ore submitted for publication. as tending to spirit of literature would pervade our state; and show the native valour and active enterprise, young men would spend that time in study, for safety—the grass grew in the market-pla-early exhibited by our countrymen at sea, which now they waste in dissipation. A ces—the cattle went mouning up and down lained up to the account of the fields, wondering what had become of the fields. kened, and we might hope to witness the their keepers-the rooks and the ravens came icide. The Jury returned a verdict of Death were not more punctual in proclaiming the ouring at a window. progress of time, than in marking the regu-lacity of his visit at the temple of Plutus, in and shrouds; but even that ended. Shrift Threadneedle-street, and Bartholomew-lane, there was none; churches and chapels were In vain the the wind and the rain, the open, but neither priest nor penitent entermentary warfare, could check the pladding his heirs and executors were hurled from the perseverance of the man of the world, or same cart into the same hole together. Fires tempt him to lose the chance which the became extinguished, as if its element too morning, however unpropitious it seemed, had expired-the seams of the sailorless profiting by the turn of a fraction.

THE MONIED MAN.

had poured no balin into his breast; nor was his "gross and earthly mould" susceptible of pity. A single look of his would daunt the most importunate betitioner that ever attempted to extract hard coin by the soft rhetoric of a heart-moving tale.

The wife of one whom he had known in better days, pleaded before him for her sick husband, and famishing infants. Jacob, on occasions like these, was a man of few words, He was as chary of them as of his money, and he let her come to the end of her' tale without interruption. She pagsed for a reply: dumb as a churchyard. Again the sound of distressed." "Can't help it." "Our poor children too."-" Can't help that neither."

The petitioner's eve looked a mournful reproach, which would have interpreted itself to any other heart but his. 'Indeed you can;'

"He has been very extravagant." "Ah. sir, he has been unfortunate, not extravagant. "Unfortunate !- Ah ! it's the same thing .--Little odds, I fancy. For my part I wonder p enty of money, you know, why then."

The supplicant turned pale, and would he sympathised, but a woman's fainting was cob was a bachelor.

Sixty summers had passed over his head for the sex, deprived of whose cheering prefence, the paradise of the world were a wilderness of weeds. So he desperately extracted a crown piece from the depth profound, and thrust it hastily into her hand .--The action recalled her wandering senses .--She blushed :-- it was the honest blush of pride at the meanness of the gift. She curt'sied; staggered towards the coor; opened it, closed it; raised her hand to her forehead, and burst into tears.

In Rothelan, one of Mr. Galt's works, we have the following appalling description of the effect of the all other maladies, and made Doctors despicable. Of a potency equal to death, it pos per. The touch, yea, the very sight of the gotten, and her sex alone predominant." infected was deadly; and the signs were but sudden, that families seated in happiness at their meals, have seen the plague spot begin to redden, and have wildly scattered themselves for ever. The cement of society was dissolved by it. Mothers, when they saw the sign of the infection on the babes of their bosom, cast them from them with abhordone well. Look at the majority of girls of rence. Wild places were sought for shelter eighteen, in the country, and see what are -some went into ships and anchored themtheir qualifications for a place at the head of selves afar off on the waters. But the angel of mankind, who fight under the banners of that was pouring the vial had a foot on the sea, as well as on the dry land. No place was so wild, that the plague did not visitnone so secret that the quick-sighted pestilence did not discover-none could fly that it did not overtake. " It was as if heaven had repented the, making of mankind, and was shovelling them all into the sepulchre. Justice was forgotten, and her courts deserted. The terrified jailers fled from the felons that were in fetters -the innocent and the guilty leagued themselves together, and kept within their prisons During one of the former wars between purity, without the extravagances of chivalry, into the town, and built their nests in the from matrimony."

mute belfries-silence was universal, save Old Jacob Stock! The chimes of the clock when some infected wretch was seen clam-were open, and coffers unwatched, there was He was a stout-built, round shouldered, in theft all offences ceased, and no crime squab-looking man, of the bearish aspect .- but the universal wo of the pestilence was His features were hard, and his heart was heard of among men. The wells overflowharder. You could read the interest table in ed, and conduits ran to waste; the dogs the wrinkles of his brow, trace the rise and banded themselves together, having lost their fall of stocks by the look of his countenance; masters, and ran howling over the land; horwhile avarice, selfishness, and money-getting ses perished of famine in their stalls; old glared from his grey, glassy eye. Nature friends but looked at one another when they met, keeping themselves far aloof; little children went wandering up and down, and humbers were seen dead in all corners. Nor was it only in England that the plague so baged; it travelled over a third part of the whole earth, like the shadow of an eclipse, as if some dreadful thing had been interposed between the world and the source of life."

> At that epoch, for a short time there was silence, and every person in the street, for a moment stood still : and London was as long unheard, which arrested the fugitive multitude and caused their silence. At the third toll a universal shout arose, as when a herald proclaims the tidings of a great battle won, and then there was a second silence.

"The people on their knees, and with anthems of thankfulness rejoiced in the dismal wardly than he had ever done in his life .- sound of that tolling death-bell; for it was a

A work entitled "Tales by the O'Hara Family," furnishes the following touching tribute to Woman,to the general truth and justness of which, though perhaps a little in the extreme of colouring, the feelings of every man, on whom the hand of severe sickness has been laid, will involuntarily respond.

" It has been often remarked, that in sickness there is no hand like woman's hand, no how folks can be unfortunate. I was never heart like woman's heart; and there is not. had just quitted, and summoning them to unfortunate. No body need be unfortunate, A man's breast may swell with unutterable if they look after the main chance .- I always sorrow, and apprehension may rend his look after the main chance." "He had a mind; yet place him by the sick couch, and large family to maintain." "Ah! married in the shadow rather than the light of the sad foolishly; no offence to you ma'am. But lamo that watches it; let him have to count when poor folks marry poor folks, what are the long dull hours of night, and wait, they to look for ! you know. Besides, he alone and sleepless, the struggle of the grey was so foolishly fond of assisting others. If dawn into the chamber of suffering; let him a friend was sick, or in goal, out came his be appointed to the ministry even for the sake purse, and then his creditors might go whise of the brother of his heart, or the father of tle. Now if he had married a woman of his being, and his grosser nature, even where it is most perfect, will tire; his eye will close, and his spirit grow impatient of the have fainted. Jacob was alarmed; not that dreary task; and though love and anxiety remain undiminished, his mind will own to a scene that he had not been used to; hesides itself a creeping in of irresistible selfishness, there was an awkwardness about it; for Ja- which indeed he may be ashamed of and struggle to reject, but which, despite all his efforts, remains to characterize his nature, without imparting a ray of warmth to his and prove, in one instance at least, his manheart; without exciting one tender feeling ly weakness. But see a mother, a sister, or a wife, in his place. The woman feels no weariness and owns no recollection of self. In silence and in the depth of night she dwells, not only passively, but so far as the qualified term may express our meaning, joyously. Her ear acquires a blind man's instinct, as from time to time it catches the slightest stir, or whisper, or breath of the now more-than-ever-loved-one who lies under the hand of human affliction. Her step, as in obedience to an impulse or a signal, would not waken a mouse; if she speaks, her accents are a soft echo of natural harmony, most delicious to the sick man's ear, convey ing all that sound can convey of pity, com-Plague, during one of the instances when it raged in fort and devotion; and thus, night after night, she tends him like a creature sent from a In its mulignancy, it engressed the ill of higher world, when all earthly watchfulness has failed-her eye never winking, her mind never palled, her nature, that all other sessed itself, of all his armouries, and was times is weakness, now gaining a superhuitself the death of every other mortal distem- man strength, and magnanimity; herself for-

Christianity, far from being calculated for any political constitution in particular, is found to prosper and flourish under every form of government; it corrects the spirit of democracy, and softens the rigour of despotic power. An enlargement of mind, and superior intelligence, distinguish in a particular manner those nations that have embraced the faith, from those extensive portions Maliomet, or adhere to the more pacific Insuitures of Brama and Confucius. The in habitants of the East groan under the oppressions of arbitrary power, and little can their religion contribute to alleviate the weight of their chains The Mahometana more especially are marked by peculiar ig norance; and so far are they from being distinguished by the light of science, or the cultivation of useful knowledge, that they rarely adopt any foreign improvements, and even smother in its birth the spirit of liberal inquiry and research .- White.

A fellow in Philadelphia, lately, after having married his eleventh wife, committed su

County-Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, of Land containing 240 acres more or less, on Mountain Creek, adjoining R. Frazier and others. It sppearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the deant James Hunt, has absconded or so conceals imself that the ordinary process of law cannot cation be made in the Raleigh Register, for six weeks successively, notifying the said James Hunt person-ally to appear before the Coust of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, to be held for the County of Granville, at the Court House in Oxford, on the first Monday in May next, then and there to plead or replevy, otherse, judgment final will be rendered against him. and the property levied upon condemned subject Plaintiff's recovery.

Witness, James M. Wiggins, Clerk of said Court. Office in Oxford, the first Monday of February, D. 1840. J. M. WIGGINS, C.L.

PROCLAMATION,—By the Gover-nor of North Carolina.—$200 reward. - Whereas, it has been officially report to this Department, that on or about the 10th Pebrusry ult., a negro boy, the property of Col. Luke Russell, of Craven county, was supposed to have been kidnapped by John and Samuel Smith, which boy was discovered, ten or twelve days afterwards, near the road side in Green county murdered and partially buried—a ball having been shot through his head, and his throat cut from ear to ear; and as the said John and Samuel Smith stand charged with the felony aforesaid.

Now, therefore to the end, that the said offer may be apprehended and brought to trial I have hought proper to issue this my Proclamation. ng a reward of one hundred dollars for either of them, to any person or persons, who will apprehend and coufine them, or either of them in the Juil, or deliver them to the Sheriff of Craven county; and do moreover hereby require all officers, whether civil or military, within this State, to use their best exertions to apprehend or cause to be apprehended,

Given under my hand as Governor, and the Great Seal of the State of North Caroline. Done at our City of Raleigh, March 26, 1840, EDWARD B. DUDLEY.

C. C. BATTLE, PRIVATE SECRETARY.

ile age, about five feet nine or ten inches high, stout. ly built ruddy complexion and healthy appearance. dark hair and has lost an upper front tooth No description of Samuel is given. They were born and to cultivate so barren a spot, purchased a bottle or two brought up in Craven but removed to either Georgia or Tennessee some years since, but returned under presence of visiting their relations and have been lurking about under very suspicious circumstances for several months. They had, when they kidnapped Col. Russel's Negro, a sorrell horse with a flat mane and tail, with white feet and face, and are said to have a variety of covers to their Cart and to change them very frequently.

Standard, Washington Whig. Wilmington Advertiser and Banner, (Lincolnton) will publis

TALUABLE CITY PROPERTY FOR SALE .- By virtue of a Deed of Trust, executed o me on the first day of June, 1839. by ALEXANDER CAMPBELL, dec'd, for the purposes therein expressed, I shall offer for sale to the highest bidder, at the Court House in the City of Raleigh, on Saturday, the 18th day of April, ensuing, at 12 o'clock, M that valuable Lor, known in the Plan of said City as No. 101, containing, besides a handsome two story Dwel-Line House, all necessary Out-houses, with about an acre of ground—being the same formerly belong-ing to the Estate of Mrs. HASSAM, and purchased un der a Decree of the Court of Equity of Wake County, by said Campbell.
WESTON R. GALES, Trustee.

Raleigh, March 21, 1840.

AW NOTICE & GENERAL LAND AGENCY .- HENRY B. S. WILLIAMS, AL lection of claims throughout the Western District of Tennessee, and also act as Gen't Land Agent in selling. listing and clearing old disputed titles. Persons re-siding at a distance, especially North Carolinians, whose interest is so extensive in this country, would do well to notice more strictly the situation of their Land claims.

. Office at Somerville, Tenn. Refer to Col Samuel King, Iredell County, N. C. Thomas P. Devereur, Esq. Raleigh, William Hill, Sec. of State, " Turner & Hughes, Brown, Snow, & Co. W. M. Lewis, Milton, Etheldred J. Peebles, Northampton, John Huske, Favetteville, John McNeil, Cumberland County, February 18, 1840.

County-In Equity, October Term, 1839. - John R. Derring vs. Isaac Horn, Wyatt Moye and Wm. A. Darden—Original and Injunction Bill.—It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that Issae Hornous of the defendants, is not an inhabitant of this lication be made for the space of six weeks sue ly, notifying the said Issae Horn to be and a for the said tounty of Greene at the Court House in Snow Hill, on the second Monday after the fourth Monday in March next, then and there to plead, ansaid Court at Office, the second Monday after the fourth Monday in September, A. D. 1889.

C. EDWARDS, C. M. B. Pr. Adv. $5 624

CITATE OF NORTH-CAROLINA, CHATHAN ary Term. 1840. Juab Brooks & Larkin ve. Executors & Legarees of Larkin Brooks, dec'd .-

It appearing to the astisfaction of the Court that Parker Brooks is not an inhabitant of this State: It is therefore ordered, that publication be made in the Ruleigh Register for six weeks, for him to appear at the next Term of this Court to be held for Chatham County at the Court-house in Pitteborough, on the 2d Monday of May next, then and there to answer the allegations of the Petition, do or judgment will be Taken pro confesso.

Witness, NATHAN A. STERMAN, Clerk of our said
Court at Office, the 2d Monday of February, A. D.
1840.

N. A. STEDMAN, U. C. C.

ENTAL SURGERV ... Dr.W.R Score informs the public, that he has returned to this Raleigh Jan. 28, 1840.

Term, A. D. 1840.—Charles M. Recks, v excellent article, and has, in numerous histances, produced a fine growth of hair on the heads of po who had been baid for years.

From Mr. Graham, Editor of the Philladelphia Saturday flicted with premature baldness, to the excellent "Hair Tonic" prepared by Dr. Jayne of this City. Having used it ourselves, we can speak of its virtues by experience, and we unhesitatingly pronounce it an invaluable remedy to prevent the falling off of the bair, and to restore it from a dead to a fine, healthy appearance. We can also speak from personal knowl edge of the cases of two or three friends who were disposition to puff indiscriminately, all kinds of remowe have tested the virtue of an article, we are free to say it is good.—Saturday Evening Poet, Sep.7, 1839

JATER'S HAIR TONIC .- The efficacy of this elegant preparation in restoring the grawth of the hair in hald places, is truly wonderful. Where the hair has been worn off from the top of the head, by the careless practice of carrying things in the crown of the hat, it is generally considered difficult if not im-possible to restore it, but it is found by numerous eximples that the Hair Tonic reaches these cases very romptly and effects a complete cure. Every gentle nan-(we say nothing to the ladies, it being a fair ance, at least it always srems so.) - every gentleman who finds his hair growing too thin, or becoming loose should place a bottle of Jayne's Hair Tonic in his dressing case and apply it with a free use of the hair brush every morning. The result will be a full, strong and healthy head of hair. The cases that have asserting this .- Weekly Messenger.

Attention is called to Dr Jayne's Itair Tonie. or the preservation, growth and restoration of the Hair. We are assured that several most remarkable certainly worthy a triol. - Philadelphia dans JATRE's HAIR TONIC .- We have, heretofore nambered ourselves among those who believed that the Hair Toeic," prepared by Dr. Jayne, was one of the many quack nostrums whose virtues are never seen beyond the fulsome puffs of their authors. We are willing, at length, to make public acknowledgement um was as bald as a piece of polished marble, mangre all our jesting and ridicule of the idea of attempting of the Hair Tonic from Dr Jayne, and according to his directions applied it. During the present week, the same friend ushered himself into our presenc and uncovering his hitherto naked head, astonished us with a thin, though luxuriant growth of hair, from one to two inches in length—upon the very premises we had believed as unyielding to cultivation as the trackless sand that skirts, the Atlantic. This is no puff, but is righteously true, and these who doubt the gentleman can be pointed out. What is more in favor of this "Tonic." the case here cited was not one of temporary baldness-no sudden loss of the hair-but was one of years' standing, though the gentleman is but I sty-five years of age. — Philadelphia Spirit of the Times, October 21, 1839.

The above excellent article, together with others of Dr. Jayne's preparations, are for sale in Releigh, by Williams & Haywood. Petersburg, Dupuy Ross er & Jones.

Wilmington, Dr. Ware.

following Officers were chosen, viz :- Jon's McProp Vice President ; J. A. CAMPBELL, Esq., Secretary.
The RACES over the State Course will com nence on the 4th Tuesday (the 28th) of April next, and continue five days.

Third Day.-Jockey Club Purse $700-4 u heats - Entrance $35. Fourth Day .- Plate valued at $100-mile hos Entrance added $25.

F fth Day.—Sweepstakes for 3 years old, to close 20th of April—mile heats—Entrance $200, half forfeit-three or more to make a ruce. Same Day,—Sweepstakes for 3 years old, to closes above—Entrance $100, half forfeit—three or mos DAVID McDANIEL. Prop

ALEXANDRIA LOTTERY, Class A for 1840 & Co., Managere, Containing the following

One of 15 000 dollars. One of 7 000 dollars. One of 5 000 dollars. One of 2 866 dellars.

D S. SREGORY & Co. Mur Richmond, Va. or Washin

BLAUKSMITH WANTED repose of stiending principally find a situation by applying soon.

DANIEL MURRAY Raleigh, March 22 1840 25-31.