RALPHS, Dec. 4, 1840.

MR. GALES—I discover in your Paper of the 4th instant, that I am incorrectly reported in the remarks I submitted to the House on the passage of the Bill proposing to alter the appointing power for Commissioners of Navigation of the Cape Fear River, I did not state as reported "that to my own knowledge the Pilots had been jailed, unless they voted the Van Buren Ticket they would be removed from office"—but that such was the report in the community, and that from my personal observation of the occurrences of the occasion, I did not doubt the correctness of the general impression. I presume the error in your Reporter originated from the difficulty of hearing in the Hall; and request that it may be corrected by inserting this communication in your next number.

Respectfully,

FRED'K J. HILL.

RALPHS, N. C.

Tuesday, December 8, 1840.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

The proceedings of this body begin to assume more importance, and to excite greater interest. The Committees are now hard at work, and the results of their labor are daily developed.

No Attorney General has yet been chosen, though one trial or more is made every day. Since our last, the two Houses have voted twice, as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Rows include Hugh McQueen (68), J. R. J. Daniel (68), James Iredehl (26), and Scattering (5).

We know of no other election of importance to come before the Legislature, but that of two Judges. They will hardly be chosen, until the fate of the bill is known, now before the House, to locate the Judges. It has passed the Senate, but we can form no idea of its prospects in the Commons.

THE MAILS.

We are not in the habit of complaining of the irregularity of the Mails, because it is sometimes beyond the power of human means to control this matter. One thing, however, is certain; we have never known such derangement as now exists. We have had no Mail from the North, beyond Gaston, since Friday night.

OUR RAIL ROADS.

We publish in this paper, the fifth Annual Report of the Wilmington Rail Road Company, and the Memorial of the Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road Company to the Legislature. Both treat of matters, which interest not only a large number of our Subscribers, but the public generally.

"OLD ORANGE FOREVER."

The Special Election held in Orange, to supply the vacancies created by the choice of Messrs. MANOV and GRAHAM to the Senate of the United States, has resulted in favor of the Whigs by an increased majority. Hugh Waddell, Esq. is chosen in Mr. Mangum's place, by 188 votes over Dr. Julius Bruken (Van); and Col. John Graham, in Mr. Graham's place, by 332 votes over John Steckard, Esq. (Van.)

DEATH BY FREEZING.

A white man was found frozen to death in this City, on Saturday morning last. His name was JOHN CARROLL, of Johnston County. He had been here with a Market Cart, and having indulged too freely with the bottle, became incapacitated from taking care of himself.

Congress met on yesterday. The President's Message will, most probably, be delivered to-day; in which event, we shall either get the document itself, or some account of it from our Washington Correspondent, in time for our next.

LEGISLATURE OF VIRGINIA.

The General Assembly of this Commonwealth assembled at Richmond on Tuesday last, and was organized by the election of John W. Nash, (Loco Foco), as Speaker of the Senate, and Valentine W. Southall, (Whig) as Speaker of the House of Delegates.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Electoral vote of this State has been cast for Mr. VAN BUREN as President, and Mr. FAZELWELL for V. P. as Vice President of the United States. Qu— Would the State have so voted, had Virginia gone for the Whigs?

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

There is no doubt that Alabama has gone for Van Buren by a large, and Illinois by a very small majority. Though we have no returns, Arkansas has doubtless given him her 3 votes. His whole strength, then, in the Electoral College, is 60 votes—to Gen. Harrison's 224. Gen. Harrison's majority is, therefore, 174—the largest ever obtained by any Presidential Candidate.

POPULAR EDUCATION.

The following Resolution was adopted by the highly numerous and respected auditory, which attended the series of Lectures on Popular Education delivered by J. ORVILLE TAYLOR. Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting be tendered to Mr. J. ORVILLE TAYLOR, for the able and interesting Lectures he has delivered in this Hall, on the subject of Popular Education; and that we most cordially recommend him to the kindly reception of every community he may visit, in furtherance of his object.

CHARLESTON WHIG MEETING.

It is with pleasure we have read the proceedings of the Whigs of Charleston (opposed as they are by Mr. CALHOEN and his friends, who at present form a vast majority of the citizens) called for the purpose of inviting their talented and patriotic Senator, Mr. PRAYTOR, to a Public Dinner, at which he is expected to address them on the Political situation and prospects of the Country. We doubt not Mr. P. will convince all who hear him, that the course which he and his Whig friends have pursued, was the only one left to them for saving the Country, from the distress and ruin brought upon it by the maladministration of the Government for the last twelve years; and that the election of Gen. HARRISON to the Presidency, will be considered as a blessing, not only by the Whigs, but by all classes, whatever their opinions may have heretofore been, from the happiness and prosperity which will soon pervade every portion of our extensive Country.

NORTH CAROLINA ELECTORAL COLLEGE.
